Registrar: ARTHUR WARE SLOCOM, (Also Librarian)
Walker Museum, University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois.

PAUL HAMILL McCALLA acquired life membership April 16, 1929. He was elected a member of the Society July 22, 1926, in right of the Revolutionary War services of Thomas McCalla who was born Sept. 15, 1756, in Colliebackie, County Antrim, Ireland, where his parents had stopped while en route from their plantation "Hazlewood," Chester District, South Carolina, to their ancestral home in Scotland. Soon after his birth, his parents died, and he lived with an aunt near Belfast until shortly before the Revolutionary War, when he came to Pennsylvania. He died Oct. 15, 1811, in Chester, Chester District, South Carolina. In July, 1776, he enlisted in the Third Battalion of Riflemen of Pennsylvania Militia, serving in the battles of Long Island and White Plains. On Feb. 27, 1777, he enlisted in the Sixth Company of the new Eleventh Regiment, Pennsylvania Continental Line, Colonel Thomas Hartley, and was in the battles of Brandywine and Eel River. In the Fall of 1778 he removed with his family to Chester District, South Carolina, and in June 1779, enlisted in Captain John Steele's Company, Colonel John McClure's Regiment, of Sumter's Army; was in several engagements; was captured Aug. 18, 1780, at Fishing Creek, S. C.; was held captive at Camden, S. C., until early in 1781 when he was exchanged.

He is also a descendant of the following Revolutionary soldiers:

James M. Todd, who was born Jan. 16, 1749, in Belamory Parish, North Antrim, Ireland, was a son of James Todd, born in Scotland. In 1776 he enlisted in Mathew Duncan's Company Fifth Battalion, Pennsylvania Militia; was captured at Fort Washington, and was exchanged early in 1777. On April 1, 1777, he enlisted in Captain John Dennis' Company, also designated as Captain Joseph Davis' Company, Patton's Regiment, Continental Line, commanded successively by Colonel John Patton, and Lieut. Colonel John Parke. In 1780 he enlisted in the Eleventh Regiment, Pennsylvania Continental Line, and served until Jan. 1, 1781. After the war he lived for a short time in South Carolina, and then removed to Tennessee, where he built Todd's Fort, not far from Nashville. After the War of 1812 he removed to Columbus, Indiana, and later to Xenia, Ohio, where he died in 1815.

Nathaniel Hamill, Sr., was born Sept. 7, 1730, in County Antrim, Ireland. From 1779 to 1781 he served in a Company of Bedford County, Pennsylvania, Frontier Rangers in various campaigns against the Indians. About January 6th, 1799, he was killed by wolves.

William Young, Jr., was born Oct. 23, 1743, at "Head-of-Elk", Maryland, and died Dec. 27, 1820, in Wilmington, Pennsylvania. He served in Captain Thomas Askey's Company, Colonel James Dunlop's Battalion, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania Militia, and was at the battle at the Head of the Elk, Maryland, August 25, 1777. He also served in Captain Moses Carson's Company of Frontier Rangers. He and his brother John were captured and confined on the prison-ship, Jersey.

He is a descendant of the following soldiers of the War of 1812:

John Hamill, Sr., was born April 28, 1779, in Bedford County, and died in Lawrence County, Pennsylvania, Sept. 5, 1850. He served in Captain John Fisher's Company, in Lieut.-Colonel Ralph Markin's 137th Regiment, Pennsylvania Militia. He was assigned to duty at Erie, Pennsylvania, where he assisted in the construction of Commodore Perry's ships.

John MacCandless (1783-1839), who served with the Pennsylvania Militia.

Mr. McCalla's father, Albert McCalla (1846-1918), was an honored member of the Illinois Society, Sons of the Revolution. His mother, Eleanor Hamill McCalla, is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and National Society United States Daughters of 1812, State of Illinois.

During the World War he was in the Intelligence Service and rendered valuable aid to our government and the allies, playing an important part in detecting, exposing, and thwarting the efforts of several of the enemy's most aggressive and dangerous agents. In this work he had many interesting and thrilling experiences.

This same data will also apply to others who wish to gain membership in patriotic societies for Revolutionary War, applying particularly to:

Descendents of Thomas McCalla.
" " James M. Todd.
" " Nathaniel Hamill.
" " Wm Young, Jr.

It will also apply in the case of War of 1812 Societies, especially on:

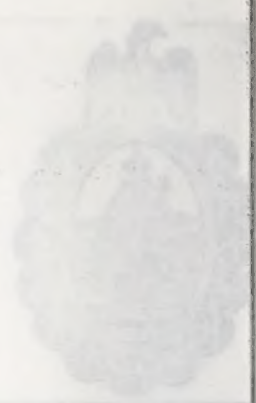

Descendents of John Hamill Sr.
" " John MacCandless.

MILITARY ANCESTORS OF PAUL H. McCALLA, (For Sons of Revolution):

FRENCH & INDIAN WARS: James Elder, ("Euphie Jimmy") (Elder B-5), was captured by Indians and raised by them. Later he became a noted spy for the American Colonists, and organized his Indian friends as spies against the French and English for the American Colonists. His record has not been worked out enough to indicate it positively here, however. He was from Paxtang, now a suburb of Harrisburg, Penna. He was related to the Rev. John Elder, D.D. (Elder B-2), known as the "fighting parson of Paxtang", who laid down his Bible very reverently and took up his musket and fought like a tiger.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR: See previous sheet for data on Sons of Revolution application.

WAR OF 1812: John Hamill, Sr. (H-12), Born 4/28/1779 at Big Cove, Agr-Twp, Bedford Co, Penna. Died: 9/5/1850 at Shen Valley, Penna. (Buried UP Cemetery, Shen Valley, Penna.). Married: Rosanna Davidson 3/30/1807, in H. Beaver Twp, Lawrence Co, Penna. (Shen Valley). She was born 3/16/1783 in Londonderry, County Tyrone, Ireland. Died: 2/8/1865, Keokuk, Iowa. Had 10 Children: John Jr. (Married Rosanna Smith); Nathaniel, 3rd, (Married: Elizabeth Stewart); William, (Married Margaret Cotton); James, (Married Lydia Sillingham); Mary, (Married John Morrow); Robert; (Died unmarried); Martha Sprah, (Married William Leslie); Thomas, (Married Elizabeth Short); and David, (who died as a child). Also son, Smith Hamill, who married Nancy McClellan McCandless, who were my Grand-Parents.

This John Hamill, Sr. (H-12), was in the Army, but was used for building ships for Perry's Battles of the Lakes, at Erie, NY. This John Hamill, Sr. was the son of Nathaniel Hamill, Sr. (H-1), of the War of the Revolution.

Data Page on LAURA ALICE HAMILL - HERBERT MATTOON LOURIE.

Laura Alice Hamill was the 2nd wife of Herbert Mattoon Lourie, and by her there were no children. She aided in raising the 5 children by his first wife. She was a most kindly, genial, friendly, hospitable woman - a typical kindly Hamill. She was educated at ----- in (Town-State) -----.

Herbert Mattoon Lourie was the Son of Mr Alexander Lourie, an Architect and Building Contractor, of Coila, New York and Keokuk, Iowa, and his wife Mary Sophia Sigelow (Lourie). Alexander Lourie married as his 2nd wife, Catherine Eleanor Robertson (Lourie) - and he was a Lieutenant, 114th Regt, NY State Militia (11/29/1845). Herbert was the grandson of George Lourie, a Farmer of Coila, NY, and his wife, Mary Whiteside Irvine (Lourie). George Lourie married as his 2nd wife, Janet Beveridge (Lourie) - and he was a Corporal in Capt. Edw. Small's Co, 114th (Ice's) Regt, NY Militia, in the War of 1812.

Herbert married 1st, (on 10/5/1875-Keokuk, Iowa), Elizabeth Jane Steele, (born: 9/26/1852-Keokuk, Iowa - died: 12/18/1886-Keokuk, Iowa), by whom he had 5 children, as follows:

Ralph Sigelow Lourie, Sr., who also married into the Hamill Family by marrying Margaret Isabel Price, (H-125-33), of Montgomery, Alabama. (See (Page H-125-33)).

Dr. Lloyd Steele Lourie, D.D.S.

Grace Elizabeth Lourie, (Mrs. Sydney Seymour Rogers).

Herbert Shaw Lourie.

Arthur William Lourie, (who died as a boy, 14 years old).

These above 5 children, by Herbert's first wife, are not related to the Hamills, except by marriage. However, Ralph P. Lourie, Sr., married his Cousin-by-marriage, Margaret Isabel Price, (H-125-33), so is listed in these Hamill records on page H-125-33. For a further listing of these children, see next page. (See also "Lourie Family Record" (1947) by Ralph Sigelow Lourie, Sr. - a copy of which is in the Newberry Library, Chicago.)

Herbert married as his 2nd wife, Laura Alice Hamill, (H-125-7), but by her there were no children. (See previous page - H-125-7).

Herbert married as his 3rd wife, Helon Versteeg, (6/18/1913), by whom there were no children.

"Mr. Herbert Mattoon Lourie was born near Coila, New York. He was educated in the public schools of Keokuk, Iowa, and took a course in the Gen City Business College, Quincy, Illinois. Was a businessman and manufacturer. Started as a clerk with Wickersham and Delaplaine, Farm Implement Dealers. In 1871 became a partner in the firm of Wickersham and Lourie, later operated as H. M. Lourie and then as Lourie, Bowman and Boyer. About 1885 started the Keokuk Wind Engine Co. About 1891 became Secretary and Manager of the Lourie Implement Co., a branch house of Deere & Co and Deere & Mansur Co., of Moline, Ill. In 1911 he organized the Standard Tire Setter Co., which soon later was moved to Springfield, Illinois and name changed to Lourie Mfg. Co. At time of his death was President and General Manager of the Lourie Mfg. Co of Springfield, Ill. He was an inventor of a number of improvements for windmills, pumps, tank lugs, and devices for hydraulic machinery. He was a member of the United Presbyterian Church, member of the Sons of the American Revolution, and was first President of the Keokuk Y.M.C.A. His dominating personal characteristics were friendliness and optimism. He had a fine tenor voice and sang in the choir of the United Presbyterian Church in Keokuk for many years."

Herbert was a most smiling, genial man, with a twinkle in his eye. The Compiler remembers "Uncle Herbert" well, among his childhood memories. As a child visiting Keokuk, Iowa, "Uncle Herbert" several times took (see next page). (12/23/1947).

The Compiler on buggy rides to various prosperous Iowa and Illinois farms, during the thrashing season. The Compiler remembers the rides in the buggy, the dust and heat of the thrashing, and the more than bountiful farm dinners set for the threshers by the farm wives. Well remembered are the enormous platters of heaped up chicken, roast beef, potatoes, peas, cold slaw, bread, ears of corn, and all the rest. As well remembered are the oversize farm pies of apple, blueberry, rhubarb, etc - a meal in a slice. Smiling "Uncle Herbert" was a very kindly Uncle, and those trip with him - thru the Illinois and Iowa countryside - became an unforgettable and very pleasant memory to the Compiler. Remembered also is the hospitable home of "Aunt Laura" and "Uncle Herbert" in Keokuk - about 2 blocks up the hill from Grandfather Hamill's (H-125) and Uncle David Hamill's (H-125-4) - the house having a high grass terrace raised up from the brick sidewalk, and at the rear, the old fashioned barn, with its horses and carriages.

Herbert had a brother, (not related to the Hamills), named George Brown Lourie, (Married: Anna Stanley Crocker), who had a son, Donald Bradford Lourie, (Married: Mary Edna King). This nephew, Donald, in 1947 was elected President of the Quaker Oats Company, of Chicago, Ill. See "Lourie Family Record" (1947) - by Ralph E. Lourie, Sr - in Newberry Library, Chicago.

The 5 Children of Herbert Matthew Lourie by his first wife, (who are not related to the Hamills, except by marriage):

Ralph Sigelov Lourie, Sr, (Born: 7/22/1876-Keokuk, Iowa) Married: Margaret Isabel Bruce, (H-125-33), of Montgomery, Ala. They have 3 Children: John Bruce Lourie, (H-125-331); Elizabeth Lourie, (H-125-332); and Ralph Sigelov Lourie, Jr, (H-125-333). Ralph, Sr, retired in 1944 as Vice-President & Director of the John Deere Plow Co, and as Director and Assistant Sales Manager of Deere & Co, of Moline, Ill. For a more complete record of this family, (see Page H-125-33).

Dr Lloyd Steele Lourie, D.D.S., (Born: 9/3/1877-Keokuk, Iowa) Married (9/4/1905. Prince-Edward Island, Canada) Flora McDonald Carpenter. They had 2 Children - Dr Lloyd Steele Lourie, Jr, D.D.S., (Born: 9/11/1909) who in 1942 was a US Navy Dentist at St. Laked Naval Training Station, Illinois, and who in 1947 is a Dentist at 834 West North Ave, Chicago, Ill. Also, Elmer Lourie, (Born: 7/22/1913), who married a Belgian named Wyckaert, who in 1942, was in the US Army, stationed at San Antonio, Texas (No Children). Dr Lloyd, Sr, lived at 1023 Lake St, Wilmette, Ill - and was a prominent and nationally known Orthodontist of Chicago, Ill, later retiring to live at Sanibel, Fla, and later (1946) living in Ft Myers, Fla.

Grace Elizabeth Lourie, (Born: 3/22/1879-Keokuk, Iowa) Married (6/7/1910 at Keokuk, Iowa) Sydney Seymour Rogers, of Holyoke, Mass. They have 2 Children: Sydney Seymour Rogers, Jr (Born: 2/26/1914-Holyoke, Mass); and Hope Elizabeth Rogers (Born: 11/23/1915-Holyoke, Mass). They live in Holyoke, Massachusetts.

Herbert Shaw Lourie, (Born: 1/23/1881-Keokuk, Iowa) Married (10/5/1911-at Springfield, Ill) Margaret Keppel. They have 2 Children: George Edward Lourie, (Born: 10/15/1912) and Dorothy Lourie, (Born: 2/17/1923). Herbert went to South America, later was associated with his father in the Lourie Mfg. Co, Springfield, Ill, and still later moved to Birmingham, Ala, where he founded and was President of, the Birmingham Excelsior Co.

Arthur William Lourie, (Born: 12/11/1882-Keokuk, Iowa) and Died 1/30/1896, Keokuk, Iowa).

The LOURIES of SCOTLAND:

(From Chicago Tribune..1/12/1949)

"Annie Laurie" was made in Maxwellton, Dumfriesshire, Scotland, (A.P.), Jan. 11, (1949) - Annie Laurie's great-great-grandniece fulfilled "her promise true" today in a private chapel on Maxwellton braes. The old love song came to pass, nearly two centuries after it was written, in the marriage of Rosemary Anne Laurie to a youthful retired navy officer, Comdr. Robin H.R. Moodie. The bride, 25 years old, has the same "dark blue eyes" of her celebrated ancestor, whose romance inspired the song.

Snow Falls. The original Annie Laurie gave her promise to William Douglas, who wrote the melody. But William was killed and Annie married another. Snow fell on the braes during the wedding ceremony, conducted by the Rev. Canon MacIntyre of St John's Episcopal Church. The private chapel was built since the original Annie Laurie wed her second choice, but Maxwellton house is just the same as when William Douglas came a-courting.

Bears White Satin. The bride wore white satin with a veil supported from a halo of orange blossoms. The organist, Maj. E.A. Murray, played variations of "Annie Laurie" during the service. After the ceremony the bride's parents, Maj. Gen. Sir John and Lady Laurie, received 200 guests. The young couple left in their car on a honeymoon trip. Villagers of Maxwellton and the servants on the estate showered them with flower petals.

Born: 3/21(24?)/1859, in Keokuk, "the County, Iowa".
Died: 10/16/1904, in Keokuk, "the County, Iowa".

(Not married - There are no Descendants of this line).

Carrie Sherran Hamill was educated in the public schools of Keokuk, Iowa - - where she lived all her life. She instigated and led the work of founding the Young Woman's Christian Association, and of building their fine building, in Keokuk, Iowa. At her death, she left the "Y" a donation. She was also a member of the Keokuk Art Club, of the Keokuk Women's Club, and of the Daughters of the American Revolution, (Nat. No. - - - State No. - - -). She had a beautiful and lovely character, with fine literary tastes. She was an Art and Music student, enjoyed travelling, and had rare religious gifts. She was a member of the United Presbyterian Church, of Keokuk, Iowa.

Carrie Sherran Hamill was also greatly interested (1890-1896-1900) in Genealogy and in the history of her people. She made many Researches, and made many trips to search out interesting facts, and she left much data which has been incorporated in this Hamill Genealogy. Many of her sisters assisted her in Research, principally Rosa, (H-125-1), Anna, (H-125-5), Martha, (H-125-5'), and Eleanor Nancy (H-125-6). Their interest fired the interest of many others among the Hamills; and in their day, there were many among the Hamills who were exchanging information, and searching among old records, for further facts. What a pity that so much of the original data that they had collected was burned in the Harrisburg (Penna) State Library fire - just before it was to be published in permanent form.

Carrie learned of Hamills in Chester County, Penna, as early as 1724 - one of the earliest migrations of which we know. (See Introductory Section-Page 2 ("Hamill Beginnings") (See also "Old Hamill Agenda"-Append 10) (See also Historical Section-"Misc. Hamill Data"-Items 44 - 45).

Carrie also made a trip to North Ireland in 1899, visiting Belfast, Bushmills, Coleraine, etc. In Belfast, she found the old "Crusader Hamill Church", with its beautiful stained-glass window, and bronze plate, in honor of our Crusader Hamill ancestor, "The Faint". The Sacristan of that Church told her that some Hamills had left there in 1760, to join others already there. After her return to America, and before her death in 1904, this beautiful old Church burned - possibly destroying the records. (See Introductory Section- ("Hamill Beginnings"-Pages 1 & 2) (Also see Historical Section-"Misc. Hamill Data"-Item # 12).

I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy.

I have been very busy lately with my work and have not had time to write to you as often as I would like. I am sorry to hear that you are not well and hope that you will soon be feeling better. I am sure that you will be able to get on your feet again in no time. I am sure that you will be able to get on your feet again in no time. I am sure that you will be able to get on your feet again in no time.

William _____ Leslie was a Storekeeper, later an Alderman and an Undertaker. He lived in Enon Valley, Penna, in Newburg, Penna, in Keokuk, Iowa, and in Rich Hill, Missouri. (Note: Newburg is on the road between Enon Valley, Penna, and Mt Jackson, Penna).

William _____ Leslie was a widower with 2 children when he married Martina Sarah Hamill. He had married (1st) Agnes Hogg, who died in Penna, probably at Enon Valley, Penna. By her he had 2 children, Margaret Elizabeth Leslie, who married a Mr Fry, and lives in Oklahoma. The other child was Thomas Adams Hogg Leslie, who is buried in Keokuk, with his step mother, Martina Sarah Hamill. Agnes Hogg died at birth of 2nd child, and is buried in Penna. Shortly after his 2nd marriage to Martina Sarah Hamill he sold his store in Newburg, Penna, and moved to Keokuk, Iowa. After the death of Martina Sarah Hamill in Keokuk, he sold his store there, and married Eleanor Boyd, a sister of John Boyd of Keokuk, Iowa (his 3rd wife). He then moved to Rich Hill, Mo, where he was Alderman, and also Undertaker. He died 3/5/1886, leaving a widow and 4 children (not related to the Hamills). William _____ Leslie is said to have had a brother, Nicholas Leslie, in Keokuk, Iowa. The Mr Fry, who married Elizabeth Leslie, was said to have been a Farmer.

A sister of William Leslie is Mrs Martha L. Patterson, who was living (Sept 1914) at RD 1, Enon Valley, Penna, over 82 years of age. One of her sons, Wilden Paterson, is married. She also has a daughter, Mrs William Young, living in East Palestine, Ohio. Another daughter is Mrs _____ Taylor, living in Newcastle, Penna. Mrs McBride, another daughter, lives "not far away." (probably at Enon Valley, or at Newcastle, Penna).

John Smith was a brother of Robert Smith (II-13) who married Martha Sarah Hamill, (II-15), the latter a sister of Jannette Hamill, (II-14).

Louis Robert Hamill, (II-121-51) of Matanzas, Cuba, wrote 9/12/1958: "Would ask you to assist me in locating Smiths at Green Bay, Wisconsin, if you know anyone there. My Father told me that some of them moved there, and that one was the Sheriff. I have written to Louis, Chic, and can find nothing." (He probably refers to this Jane Hamill-John Smith (II-14) family, and) (also to the Martha Hamill-Robert Smith (II-13) family).

HAMILL GENEALOGY:

SARAH ("Aunt Sally") HAMILL, (5th child of Nathaniel Hamill, Sr). H - 15a

Born: 9/11/1773, Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford (now Fulton) County, Pennsylvania.
Died: 8/27/1872, (91 yrs old), Union Valley, Penna (Buried Bethel Cemetery).

(She Never Married - There are No Descendants of This Line).

Sarah ("Aunt Sally") Hamill was a very kindly and greatly beloved little lady, gentle and friendly, and so welcomed everywhere. She never married, and was the historian of her day. She liked to write to her various Cousins and Ninsmen, and would often explain just how she was related to them - mentioning also who was who, and how related, among the early-day Hamills. This makes her letters invaluable, for they explain and prove the relationship of the numerous Hamills of early Pennsylvania and Ohio. So her letters, or even quotations from them, are of great aid in piecing together the records of the past. That is why The Compiler has listed on the following Data Pages, every scrap of excerpts from her letters of which we have record.

"Aunt Sally", with her kindly ways, her gentle friendliness, and her neway comments on the Kinfolk, liked to visit around among the relatives - and was so smilingly welcomed wherever she went.

"Aunt Sally" was born in that wild and primitive region, Big Cove, Ayr-Twp, Penna. Then, possibly when her own Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) descendants left Big Cove and moved to Union Valley - she moved over to Magonier, Penna, to stay with her Cousins there. Possibly she went over to Magonier even before the Hamills left Big Cove - we do not know about the timing. At Magonier, she stayed with her Cousins Hugh (H-36) and Robert Hamill (H-37), who were sons of her uncle, John (H-3). She also visited Archibald Hamill (H-371-01), and his father, Allen Hamill (H-371-0). She also visited a William Hamill (?) who had a mud fort, and who is probably the William Hamill who had a mud fort at Billingsport, Penna, who is mentioned in the Penna Archives, but whom we cannot place at the present time. She also visited a Sam Allen (?) and a Sam Dunham (?) - the latter two probably being related, but at the present time we cannot place them. (See Data Page H-1).

Still later, these particular Hamills at Magonier, whom she visited, moved on west to Senia, Greene Co, Ohio, so "Aunt Sally" moved on back with her own family at Union Valley, Penna - which by that time was probably more built up and civilized. There, she lived on the 2nd old Hamill Farm, which at present (1947) is owned by Colonel Thomas Hamill (H-124-72), and operated by his son, William Harrison Hamill (H-124-721). This Farm is about 2 miles west of Bethel Church, and about 6 miles North and West of the town of Union Valley, Penna. This 2nd old Hamill Farm has been owned by Hamills since about 1600 - some 147 years.

"Aunt Sally" lived here until she died in 1872 - at the fine age of 94 years - unusually beloved and respected. She is buried with her own family in historic Bethel Churchyard - where so many of the Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) descendants are buried.

"Aunt Sally" wrote on 9/5/1864, to Cousins (who were Grandchildren of (Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2), in Senia, Ohio: "I am the daughter of Nathaniel Hamill (H-1), a brother of your Grandfather (H-2), and my mother a sister of your Grandmother." This means that Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) and Robert, Sr (H-2) were brothers, and that their respective wives (Martha (H-1) and Mary Beckett (H-2), were sisters. (See also H-2 on following Data Page).

"Aunt Sally", as mentioned heretofore, went to live with her Magonier Penna, Cousins, who were descendants of the 3rd Original Brother, John Hamill (H-3). She mentioned John in her letters as "Uncle John" (H-3) - (SEE OTHER SIDE). (1/12/1947).

proving that he was Nathaniel's (H-1) brother. She was very specific, and her letters are fine proof of the various kinships. (For further Data about the life of Aunt Sally and Aunt Mary H-1).

It is hoped that our original letters from "Aunt Sally" may be located in the hands of various relatives. They are so very specific and informative - and aid so much in showing how various early Hamills were related to other Hamills - and give so much news of various kinship of her day. It is hoped that the descendants of John Hamill (H-3) at Ligonier and Indiana, Penna, and at Xenia, Ohio, may have a letter or two, which may be copied into these records. It is also hoped that the descendants of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) of Xenia, Ohio, may also have an old letter or two. Possibly some Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) descendant of Union Valley, Penna, or elsewhere, may furnish a copy of such an old letter. It would be very helpful to have additional letters recorded here. Do YOU know of an additional old letter?

The LETTERS and STATEMENTS of "AUNT SALLY" HAMILL. (Page 1).

The Compiler's Mother, Mrs. Albert McCalla (Nancy Eleanor Hamill) (H-125-60), once had a copy of one of "Aunt Sally's" full letters regarding the Hamill Kinfolk - but this old letter has been lost, and so cannot be copied here. But the following quotations from her letters of the long ago are very informative as to who was who among the early Hamills. Where possible, it is stated to whom the letter was written - or at least, who supplied the quotation from her letter.

Can YOU supply a copy of one of her old letters, or even a quotation from one, to be added here?

The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65).

(ITEM 1): Carrie Sherman Hamill (H-125-8) said that: "Aunt Sally" (H-15) had written that during those terrible days of the Sieges in Ireland, one of her Ancestors was a prisoner there (in Carrick Fergus Castle) because of his activity in the war. "Aunt Sally" had a picture of this Castle, which picture later came into the possession of Smith Hamill (H-125), the Father of Carrie Sherman Hamill (H-125-8). (See Introductory Section - "Hamill Beginnings" - Page 2) (See Historical Section - "Old Introductory Pages (1930)" - Item 15).

(ITEM 2): "Aunt Sally" wrote 9/5/1864 to Cousins (who were Grandchildren of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2), in Xenia, Ohio: "I am a daughter of Nathaniel Hamill (H-1), a brother of your Grandfather (H-2), and my mother a sister of your Grandmother." (See Data Page H-1).

(Compiler's Note: This means that Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) and Robert, Sr (H-2) were brothers, and that their respective wives (Martha (H-1) and Mary) (Beckett (H-2), were sisters.

(ITEM 3): "Aunt Sally" never married, and remained with Cousins Robert, (H-37) and Hugh Hamill (H-36), the sons of John (H-3), at Ligonier, Penna. She also mentioned visiting Cousins Archibald and Allan Hamill. (See Historical Section - "Hisc. Hamill Data" - Item 20).

(Compiler's Note: The Archibald was probably H-371-C1, and the Allan)
(was probably H-371-C, who was Archibald's father. Both these lived)
(originally in Fairfield Twp, near Ligonier, Penna - but moved later)
(to Xenia, Ohio. Note that there was also another Archibald Hamill) (living in 1788 at West Fallowfield, Chester Co, Penna (Londonderry) (Tax Rate) (Penna Archives 3-11-490), who belonged to the Fallowfield) (or Parkersburg "G" Family of Hamills.

(ITEM 4): "Aunt Sally" also wrote of "visiting a William Hamill who had a Mud Fort." (See Historical Section - "Hisc. Hamill Data" - Item 14) (See Data Page H-1).

(Compiler's Note: History does speak of a Hamill who had a mud fort) (at Billingsport, Penna - so this was probably the one. However, we) (do not know just who this William Hamill was, or just where he fits) (into the Genealogy.

(ITEM 5): Mrs Robt. G. Horne (Martha Sarah Hamill) (H-125-5) wrote on 10/19/1924: "Look up the Ligonier Valley (Penna) Hamills. (She means H-3). They are all Father's (Smith Hamill H-125) Cousins. "Aunt Sally" (H-15) said in her letter that she had stayed with them before going to Lawrence County (Enon Valley) Penna....." (See Historical Section - "Hisc. Hamill Data" - Item 8) (Also see Items 3 and 4 above).

LETTERS & STATEMENTS of "Aunt Sally" Hamill.

(ITEM 6): "Aunt Sally" wrote in 1864, 8 years before her death: "Uncle John Hamill(H-3) had a daughter Rachel(H-35), who married John Hope, and they moved to Enon Valley in 1800. Uncle John(H-3) had 5 Girls, all married, 2 boys, Arch(H-36) and Robert(H-37)." (See Data Page H-3) (See Data Page H-35) (See Historical section-"Hamill Data"-Item 14).

(Compiler's Note: This all checks OK - except that we have it as (James H. Hope, H-35) instead of John Hope. However, "Aunt Sally" was usually correct, so we may not find that it should be John Hope on these records. Observe that she again speaks of John(H-3) as her Uncle, proving that her father (who was Nathaniel, Sr(H-1), and John(H-3) were brothers.

(ITEM 7): "Aunt Sally" said in a letter that two Original Brothers (Probably Nathaniel, Sr(H-1) and Robert, Sr(H-2) received 2000 acres of land each. (See Historical section-"Hamill Data"-Item 1).

(Compiler's Note: Legend says that they owned in all some 2000 acres) - The Penna archives show much smaller holdings for each man, but bear in mind that Robert, Sr(H-2) is also shown by the Penna Archives to have owned land in Licking Creek Twp, near Big Cove, in 1766-9. So "Aunt Sally" may be right in this also.

(ITEM 8): "Aunt Sally"(H-15) wrote: "Robert(H-2) had 8 Boys and 2 Girls." (See Page H-2-line concerning Children-also Data Page) (See also Historical Section-"Hamill Data"-Item 13).

(Compiler's Note: This does not agree with our records so far. Robert's(H-2) will and Bible list only 8 children in all, where "Aunt Sally's" version would mean a total of 10 children. Possibly we may later learn of 2 more children - who might have died young. Kindly "Aunt Sally" knew what she was talking about - so the Compiler is of the belief that some day we will learn more about Robert's(H-2) affairs, and may find that there were two additional children after all.

(ITEM 9): "Aunt Sally"(H-15) afterward settled on the 2nd old Hamill Farm near Enon Valley, Penna, where she died. (See Data Page H-1).

(Compiler's Note: This 2nd old Hamill Farm is at present(1947) owned by Colonel Thomas Hamill(H-124-72), and has been continuously owned by Hamills since about 1800 - which is 147 years(in 1947).

(ITEM 10): Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin(H-124-12) wrote: "After the rest of the family went west to Enon Valley, Penna, "Aunt Sally"(H-15) stayed on at Ligonier Valley, Penna, with her cousins, Robert(H-37), Arch(H-36), Archibald(Probably H-371-01), and Sam Allen (?) and Sam Dunham(?). She is buried at Bethel Church, Enon Valley, North Beaver Township, Lawrence County, Penna." (See Data Page H-1).

(Compiler's Note: Sam Allen and Sam Dunham are unknown, although the latter was supposedly related. (See Introductory Section-"Old Hamill Legends"-Legend 50).

LETTER # 1 of SARAH ("Aunt Sally") HAMILL. - - - (Page 1)

(This Letter was sent to The Compiler by Mrs Robert G. Horne (Martha Sarah Hamill) (H-125-5) of Keokuk, Iowa. In another letter she wrote that she had obtained it from the effects of her deceased Sister, Miss Carrie (Sherman Hamill, (H-125-8), also of Keokuk, Iowa. The latter did much important research in her lifetime, as did Mrs Horne. The original copy of the Letter undoubtedly came from one of the Sonda, Ohio, Hamills, who are descendants of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) - to which descendants it was originally written.

Mrs Sylvia C. Franklin (Sylvia Luenna Crawford) (H-124-12), of Omaha, Nebraska, wrote on 10/20/1924 - concerning this Letter: "Sarah ("Aunt Sally") Hamill (H-15) did not marry, as you know, - and at the time she wrote the Letter, stating that she was 81 years old, she lived in a little inland town called Newburg, on the road between Enon Valley and Mt. Jackson, Penna. A few years after that, Grandfather James Hamill, (H-124) took her to his home, where she died in 1872, aged 92 years. The "Aunt Lydia Jane" referred to (in connection with "Aunt Sally's" Letter) is James Hamill's (H-124) wife, Lydia Jane Silliman, who was my Grandmother, (born 6/22/1817, died 5/2/1892."

Notes: (This Letter was written to Cousins in Xenia, Ohio)

"Enon Valley, Penna, Sept. 5th, 1864.

- "Dear Friends: I find by the run of your letter, you do not know who I am. I am the daughter of Nathaniel Hamill (Sr-H-1), a brother of your Grandfather (Robert, Sr-H-2), and my Mother (H-1) - a sister of your Grandmother (H-2). I remained single, and lived with my Mother, and am now in my 81st year, and am middling frail, but still live alone, and am able to do my own work. There were five of us lived to be old men and women. My two sisters, Martha (H-13) and Janette (H-14) married two brothers named Smith. Martha (H-13) to Robert Smith, and Janette (H-14) to John Smith. Uncle John Hamill's (H-3) Rachel (H-35) married John Hope - him and his family and Mother's family all moved out to this country in 1800 - and all settled down close together. Robert and Mathew (??-H-) had 10 Girls and 1 Boy. Robert (??-H-) had 8 Boys and 2 Girls. Janette (H-14) had none at all. Nathaniel (Jr-H-11) had 3 of them married. One died single. They had a Seceeder Preacher here a short time before we moved out here, and Mother had the satisfaction of sitting in Communion with all her Children - and before she died, John (H-12) and Nathaniel (Jr-H-11) were Elders in the Church.

- When all the boys got married, Mother and I lived together while she lived, and she died in April 1817, and I have lived pretty much alone ever since, contented and happy, near Church, but I have not been able to go for some time. My hearing is so much gone that I cannot hear any common talk, and my memory is very much gone, too. I can see to read in daylight, but cannot see after dark. Nathaniel's (Sr-H-11) two oldest girls are dead, but the eldest left the children. Cynthia (H-) is married to Thomas Dungan, and has 4 little boys, and lives near me. Nathaniel (Jr-H-11) took Mariah's child to raise her, and after he (H-11) was laid in his grave beside his two wives, she lived with her Aunt Cynthia (H-), and is now married to one of her stepsons. Father's (H-1) family are all dead but me, and James' (H-124) Mother (H-12), is a frail old woman.
- Sister Martha's (H-13) Granddaughter lives with her, and now she

Note: The Compiler's Notes and Comments on "Aunt Sally's" Letter # 1:

- (1) This proves that Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) and Robert, Sr (H-2) were brothers, and that their wives (her Mother (H-1) and Mary Beckett (H-2) were sisters.
- (2) Martha Hamill (H-13) - sister of "Aunt Sally" and daughter of Nathaniel Hamill, Sr (H-1) went to Xenia, Ohio, to live with the descendants of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2). Janette Hamill (H-14) married John Smith and had no children.
- (3) She calls John Hamill (H-3) an "Uncle" - proving that he also was a brother of Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) and Robert, Sr (H-2).
- (4) Rachel Hamill (H-35) was a daughter of John Hamill (H-3). Here it is claimed that Rachel married a JOHN Hope, although our records show him as James K. Hope. Some day we may have more facts about this family, and may find that "Aunt Sally" was right, and that it was JOHN Hope.
- (5) Here she definitely times the move from Big Cove, Penna, to Enon Valley, Penna, as in 1800.
- (6) We don't know whether this is a mis-print or what. Could she mean Robert Smith and Martha Hamill (H-13)? We know very little about their children.
- (7) Who is this "Robert"? We think she might mean her Uncle, Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2). It is unlikely that she could have had another brother by the name of Robert - who is unknown to us.
- (8) This means that her brother, Nathaniel, Jr (H-11) had 4 children, of whom 3 married, and 1 was single.
- (9) John (H-12) and Nathaniel, Jr (H-11) were Elders of the Mt. Jackson, Penna, United Presbyterian Church. This is also mentioned in the UP Year Book, which The Compiler had.
- (10) We do not have an accurate record of Nathaniel, Jr's (H-11) children, or of the Dungans.

Notes:

- (11) Who is this Mariah, whose child Nathaniel, Jr (H-11) "took to raise?" She is probably a daughter of Nathaniel, Jr (H-11).
- (12) James Hamill is undoubtedly H-124, and his Mother would be Rosanna Davidson Hamill (H-12) - wife of John Hamill, Sr, who did go to Keokuk, Iowa, and died there the year after this letter was written (2/6/1865).
- (13) This Granddaughter is unknown to us, as we do not have a proper record of the children of this family. The rest of this paragraph is not clear. The one who went to Keokuk was Rosanna Davidson Hamill (H-12), and she was the Mother of Smith Hamill (H-125). Martha Hamill, Smith (H-13) was certainly not the Mother of Smith Hamill (H-125) so this part of the letter is not clear.
- (14) Robert Smith & Martha Hamill (H-13) did move further West to Xenia, Ohio, where they joined the descendants of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) and the Becketts.
- (15) James Hamill's (H-124) oldest child would be Mary Hamill (H-124-1) who married Robert Crawford. She died in 1840.
- (16) She claims that JOHN Hope was the husband of Rachel Hamill (H-35), the daughter of John Hamill (H-3). Our present records show that Rachel's husband was James K. Hope - but we may be wrong, and "Aunt Sally" may be right. Remember that the Hopes were living in Enon Valley, Penna, and that he evidently went over to Ligonier, Penna, to the children of John Hamill (H-3) to choose his bride.
- (17) If this letter was written to Joseph Randless Hamill (H-252) of Xenia, Ohio, then his Father would be Robert Hamill, Jr (H-25). It could not have been written to Joseph Hamill, Sr (H-26), as he died in 1838 - years before this letter was written in 1864. The Father of H-252 would be Robert Hamill, Jr (H-25), who died only in 1860.
- (18) Who could this "Uncle Joseph" be? Could it be the long-missing and long-sought "Missing 4th Brother" Joseph Hamill (H-4)? He would be her "Uncle," just as she called him - but if so, where did he live? We think he went South to Newberry, SC. Of course, he might have been some "Uncle-by-Marriage" in the Beckett, the Hope, or the Smith family. "Aunt Sally" might have been speaking of Jos. Randless Hamill's (H-252) own Uncle, who would be H-26 (Joseph Hamill, Sr) - but he died way back in 1838.
- (19) It is not known who this Aunt was. She might have been Mary Beckett Hamill, wife of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2), or might have been Elizabeth Gibson Hamill, wife of John Hamill (H-3) - as they would have been her Aunts. But it might have been some "Aunt-by-Marriage" among the Becketts, Hopes or Smiths.
- (20) Uncle John Beckett was one of the Becketts who went to Xenia, Ohio, with the descendants of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2).
- (21) "Aunt Lydia" was Lydia Jane Silliman Hamill, wife of James Hamill (H-124), who was the Grandmother of Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin (Sylvia Luema Crawford) (H-124-12) of Omaha, Nebraska, who wrote comments about this Letter of "Aunt Sally's" (H-15).

(Mrs Robert G. Horne (Martha Sarah Hamill-125-5) wrote on 3/1/1915):
 "....Hamill (Horne-H-125-51) her son, living in Philadelphia, Pa) says there are Hamills living in Trenton, New Jersey, who are very nice people, and come into his office occasionally, and claim relationship. They say that one of the Original Brothers remained there - when they came from Ireland - while the others went to Penna. Hamill(H-125-51) says that he found one Nathaniel Hamill was a Government Surveyor - probably that was ours - and that was why he went into the woods - and was not eaten by big, bad bears - did they sure find his powder horn and gun?.....I have a copy of an old letter of "Aunt Sally's" (H-15) - but it is lacking in dates, although she mentions the fact that she was in her 81st year. She speaks of her Father being Nathaniel Hamill(H-1). The Letter was written to some Xenia Hamills. I will send a copy of them to you if you want them. I copied them from some Carrie(H-125-8) and....." (See Historical Section-"Misc.") (Hamill Data"-Item # 53).

(Clinton Franklin(H-124-12) wrote on 1/24/1896): "....Sylvia(his wife- (H-124-12) remembered seeing an old Bible that was the property of "Aunt Sally"(H-15), in which was the record: "Set sail from Belfast, Ireland, Oct. 30th, 1790." At the time of her sailing, she must have been 10 years old....." (Compiler's Note: "Aunt Sally"(H-15) was born in 1778, at Big Cove, Penna, so could not have been on that boat, but her Father, Nathaniel, Sr, (H-1) probably was. Remember that Sylvia(H-124-12) was quoting this from memory, and we believe that she remembers the date wrong, and that it should be 1760. Two generations have searched frantically for that "old black-covered Bible," without results. It was supposed to have been in the possession of James Glen(H-121-61) of Baschor, Kansas, the adopted son of Cordelia Hamill(H-121-6), daughter of John Hamill, Sr(H-121). But James Glen said that he knew nothing about the Bible - and so there the matter rests. If we had that Bible, we'd have absolute proof of Nathaniel, Sr's(H-1) family. (See Historical Section-"Misc. Hamill Data"-Items #57 - #60).

(From Letters Section-"Misc. Hamill Letters" #1): "...."Aunt Sallie"(H-15) died in 1872, aged 92 years (??-should be 94).. This would place her birth in 1780 (??-should be 1778). Sylvia(H-124-12) remembers seeing an old Bible, the property of "Aunt Sallie"(H-15), in which she made the following entry: "Sailed from Belfast, Ireland, October (or November) 30, 1790" (??-must have been 1760) thus making her 10 years of age at the time she sailed. James Hamill(H-124) has always asserted that she was 94 at the time of her death. Unfortunately, this Bible has disappeared....." (See Historical Section-"Misc. Hamill Data"-Items #7 - 60) (Compiler's Note: The sailing must have been in 1760, and must have referred to her Father, (Nathaniel, Sr(H-1) - as "Aunt Sally"(H-15) was born in Big Cove, Penna, as were her brothers and sisters).

(From Letters Section-"The Rev. T. L. Jamieson Letters"-Letter of 7/13/1896): "....Sarah(H-15) the third (??) child of Martha Lickett, lived to the age of 92 (he means 94 years), died in 1872 at the home of my wife's (H-124-12) Grandfather(H-124). Mrs Franklin(H-124-12) was a girl of about ten years old and distinctly-recalls the old Aunty(H-15) telling about Cousin Robert(H-37), Hugh(H-36) and Archibald(H-371-61), altho the latter has not yet appeared. She also talked of Licking Creek(Penna) and Ligonier Valley(Penna), as she lived there prior to joining her Mother(H-1) in Lawrence County in 1800. Since connecting the name of Robert Hamill(H-2) with Licking Creek, and talking the matter over with Mrs Franklin(H-124-12) the names are quite familiar, tho doubtless the Robert(H-37) she has heard her Aunt(H-15) mention, was the son of John(H-3), and not her Father....."

These dates are taken from the Family Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2)(See Data Page following). This Bible is in the possession of Allan Wendell Hamill, (H-252-2) of Chillicothe, Ohio, and of George Renwick Hamill(H-252-2) of Sterling, Kansas, (deceased).

Joseph Randless Hamill, (H-252) claimed that Robert, Sr(H-2) Father - Name unknown - died in Ireland, and that John(H-3), Nathaniel(H-1), and Robert, Sr(H-2) were brothers.

Joseph Hamill(H-26) had a son, Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD(H-262) of Chicago. Hugh(H-27) had a daughter Lydia(H-275) who married James Bigger, and lived at Xenia, Ohio(Buried Sugar Creek, Ohio-1882). This Hugh(H-27) "was named for an Uncle," so evidently there was a 4th (or 5th) Original Brother Hugh.

After the death of the Father(Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2), John(H-25A), Sarah(H-23B), Margaret(H-24), Robert, Jr(H-25), Joseph, Sr(H-26), and Hugh(H-27), moved to Xenia, Ohio, with the Smiths and Becketts(Bicketts-Biggers).

Samuel Hamill(H-21), and his sister, Martha(Hamill) Willson(H-22), did not remain in Penna as supposed, but lived in _____, Muskingum Co, Ohio in 1818, when they signed a release for the money paid them under the Will of Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2). They evidently did not go to Xenia, Greene County, Ohio.

The Wives of Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2): Mary Beckett was the 1st Wife, and she was the sister of Martha Beckett, who was the wife of Nathaniel(H-1). But the Family Bible of Robert, Sr(H-2) lists Jannette Beckett as 2nd wife, and mother of the later children. It is possible that Jannette may have been a 3rd sister of Mary and Martha. Hugh(H-27), the last child, was born in 1781, 18 years before the Will was drawn in 1799. The Will mentions his Wife as "Lanore _____". In those 18 years, Jannette(his 2nd wife) might have died, and he might have married a 3rd Wife. Or possibly, Jannette might have had a middle name "Lenora," and might have been called by both names. We need further research on this point, and inspection of gravestones, etc, at Big Cove, Penna, and Xenia, Ohio.

Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2): See Penna Archives: 3-22-4(also 57,97,152,180) (243,310 of same Series-Volume). Also: 3-25-559, 3-25-531(Covering years (1773-94, at Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford(now Fulton) County, Penna).

Robert Hamill, Jr(H-25): Penna Archives: 3-25-538(Year 1794) same place.

Sarah Hamill(H-23B) was at first thought to have "died as a child, unmarried, at her brother Hugh Hamill's(H-27)". However, she was born in 1773 and yet was mentioned for a Legacy when her Father's Will was drawn in 1799 So she was 26 years of age at the time that Will was drawn. It is thus possible, but not proven, that she might have been married, and the previous information wrong. Also, she is listed as moving with the others, about 1800-10, to Xenia, Ohio. From all this, it is highly improbable that she died as a child.

See Data Page H-25 for Note on "Beckett-Bickett-Bigger". See also Historical Section in the back of this Hamill Genealogy for an Article on "The Becket-Beckett-Bickett-Bigger Family."

"Aunt Sally" Hamill(H-15) wrote some Kinsman that "Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2) had 8 Boys, 2 Girls(10)." But the Bible and Will list only 5 Boys and 3 Girls, a total of 8. It is possible that further research might locate other children, who might have died young.

Introduction

The purpose of this study is to investigate the effects of various factors on the growth and development of the human body. The study is designed to provide a comprehensive overview of the physical changes that occur during the human life cycle, from birth to old age. The research is based on a review of existing literature and the results of a series of experiments conducted over a period of several years. The findings of the study are presented in the following sections.

Physical Growth and Development

The human body undergoes a series of physical changes throughout its life cycle. These changes are influenced by a variety of factors, including genetics, nutrition, and environment. The most significant changes occur during the periods of infancy, childhood, and adolescence. In infancy, the body grows rapidly, and the bones are soft and pliable. During childhood, the body continues to grow, and the bones become harder and more rigid. In adolescence, the body reaches its full adult size, and the bones are fully developed. The physical changes that occur during these periods are the result of a complex interplay of genetic and environmental factors. The study of physical growth and development is a branch of science that seeks to understand the processes that govern these changes. This study is a contribution to this field, and it provides a detailed account of the physical changes that occur during the human life cycle. The study is based on a review of existing literature and the results of a series of experiments conducted over a period of several years. The findings of the study are presented in the following sections.

Robert to be executors of this, my last Will and Testament, revoking all other Wills, legacies and bequests by me heretofore made, declaring this and no other to be my last Will and Testament. In witness whereof, I set my hand and seal this sixth day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine. ROBERT HAMILL (Seal)."

John (his X mark) McClure. John Rankin. Thomas Nesbit.

Bedford County, Pa: On the 22nd day of April, A.D. 1799, the within named John Rankin and Thomas Nesbit, two of the within named witnesses came personally before me, the subscriber Registrar for the probate of Wills and granting Letters of Administration in and for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and County of Bedford, and being duly sworn according to law did declare and say that they were personally present and heard and saw Robert Hamill, the testator within named, sign, seal, publish and declare the within instrument of writing as and for his last Will and Testament, that at the time of doing the same he, the said Robert Hamill, was of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, according to those dependents knowledge and belief, and that they subscribed their names thereto as witnesses of the same, in the presence of the testator and at his request and saw John McClure sign his name as a third witness, or make his mark. Subscribed and Sworn the same day and year. (Coram).

A release covering legacies in the above Will, dated 9/28/1818, signed by "Samuel Hamill" and "Martha Wilson alias Martha Hamill" gave the place of residence of these two, at that date, as Muskingum County, Ohio.

The BIBLE of ROBERT HAMILL, SR, (H-2).

This is a large leather bound book, about 8 1/2 x 10 1/2 x 2 1/2 inches thick. It was printed in Edinburgh, Scotland, 1785, by the "Assigns of Alexander Kincaid, His Majesty's Printer." In the middle, at the end of the Apocrypha, it bears the imprint, "Glasgow, printed by David Niven, for J. Duncan and J. & M. Robertson, Booksellers, 1784." As noted, the book contains the Apocrypha.

On the New Testament Title Page it bears the written note: "Robert Hamill, his book, bought in Baltimore, Anno Domini, 1789." There is also a loose scrap of paper, evidently a fly sheet, partly torn off, which reads: "Robert...Book bought...in the year of.....Price....." Then below it, evidently written by his son, John Hamill, the words: "John Hamill, his hand and pen the 13th day of January, 1790." At the end of the Old Testament, on the half page left blank is written: "Robert & Jannett Hamill's family, of Bedford Co, Pa."

- "John Hamill was born in October the 8th, 1771.
- Sarah Hamill was born in March the 14th, 1773.
- Margaret Hamill was born in January the 4th, 1775.
- Robert Hamill was born in December the 25th, 1776.
- Joseph Hamill was born December the 10th, 1778.
- Hugh Hamill was born July the 13th, 1781."

At the end of the Apocrypha, on the blank page facing the New Testament title page, is the written notation, evidently concerning the family of Robert Hamill, Jr (H-23), who probably used this Bible after his Father's death:

- "Sarah Hamill was born October 22nd, 1821.
- Joseph Randles Hamill was born March 15th, 1823.
- Adam Bickett Hamill was born June 20th, 1825.
- Martha McDaniel Hamill was born February 10th, 1827.
- James Winter Hamill was born August 24th, 1831."

In the Bible is also a letter from Adam Bickett Hamill, (H-253) of Biggs-ville, Ill., dated 7/15/1897, to his sister, Mattie Hamill, (H-254) at Xenia, Ohio. The envelope is addressed:

"Carry me away at a rapid rate,
To the County of Greene, Ohio State;
In the Xenia postoffice let me be,
'Till Miss Mattie Hamill calls for me."

In the letter he speaks about hot weather, good corn (he may have been a farmer as well as the County Sheriff), and says he and wife were ready to leave Sept. 1st for a trip to Xenia, for a visit.

There is also a partly torn single page of a letter, sender and recipient unknown, as follows: "Page 2....all that are left of their generation. We have a copy of the Will of Robert Hamill, made in Penna; Robert Hamill, (evidently Jr) born 12/25/1776, wife Elizabeth Bickett, born 4/1/1790, Sarah Hamill, born 10/22/1821, Joseph Handles Hamill, born 3/15/1823, Adam Bickett Hamill, born 6/20/1825, Martha McDaniel Hamill, born 2/10/1827, James Winter Hamill, born 8/24/1831, all children born at Xenia, Ohio. Addenda of 10/11/1947 - The WILL and BIBLE.

This Will and Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) belonged (1925) to George Renwick Hamill, (H-252-2), of Sterling, later of Hutchinson, Kansas. It was loaned by him (1925) to Allan Wendell Hamill, (H-269-B2) of Chillicothe, Ohio - and later loaned also to The Compiler, (Paul Hamill McCalla-H-125-65) of Chicago, Ill - who copied it (1/26/1925) into this Hamill Genealogy.

This Will and Bible have now (10/5/1947) descended to, and are in the possession of, the Grandson of George R. Hamill (H-252-2), who is Gerald Hamill Nichol, (H-252-253), of Zenith, Kansas. Gerald is now (10/5/1947) a High School Student in Hutchinson, Kansas, and is living at 319 East Ninth Avenue, Hutchinson, Kansas - with his Aunt, Miss Elma Grace Hamill (H-252-22) who is a High School Teacher.

Data: Will and Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2), Big Cove, Penna.

(1/26/1925 - Loan of Bible and Will) George Renwick Hamill, (Mary Catherine Ayle) (H-252-2) - then living in Sterling, Kansas. (deceased).

(1/26/1925) Allan Wendell Hamill (Eliz. Tuttle Ford-Clara Louise Gorslene) (H-269-B2), a Wholesale Grocer, Box 133, Chillicothe, Ohio.

(10/5/1947) Gerald Hamill Nichol, (H-252-253) - Zenith, Kansas - then living with Miss Elma G. Hamill (H-252-22), 319 E. 9th St, Hutchinson, Kan. (SEE OTHER SIDE). (10/11/1947).

"Robert Hamill, Jr (H-25), with brothers Joseph (H-26) and Hugh (H-27), came to Green County, Ohio, and bought a farm near Xenia, Ohio, (which farm Joseph Randless Hamill (H-252) evidently inherited), on which farm George Renwick Hamill (H-252-2) was born." (This was stated to The Compiler in 1930 by George Renwick Hamill (H-252-2).

"Hugh (H-27) had a daughter Lydia (H-275), who married James Digger, and lived at Xenia, Ohio. (Married Sugar Creek, Ohio-1832). This Hugh (H-27) was "named for an Uncle," also evidently there was a 4th (or 5th) Original Brother Hugh." (Source of this statement is unknown).

The "History of Fulton County, Penna" (Page ___) names Robert Hamill (H-2) of Ayr Twp, between 1766-9, who owned property there, and also at Licking Creek Twp. (See Historical Section-"Misc. Hamill Data"-Item #15).

Mrs Sylvia Crawford Franklin (H-124-12) wrote: "The Brothers supposedly settled in Big Cove about 1750-5(?)". A Mrs Allen of Westmoreland County, Penna, is a Great-Grandchild of the Hugh Hamills (Probably H-36). Also, an old couple, descendants of Robert Hamill (Probably H-37), are living in Indiana County, Penna. John (H-3) was the father of Robert (H-37) and Hugh (H-36) the revolutionary soldiers, and did accompany his sons to this country. The "Hist. of Fulton Co, Penna" names Robert Hamill (H-2) of Ayr Twp, between 1766-9, who owned property there, also at Licking Creek Twp. She claims that a John Hamill was the father of Nathaniel Hamill, Sr (H-1), who married Martha Beckett. She had 5 children: Nathaniel, Jr, John (2nd), Jane Martha and Sarah." (Compiler's Note: Sr is talking about the family of (Nathaniel, Sr (H-2), who did have the children named. However the father (of the Original 4 brothers is still a moot question) (See Historical Section-"Misc. Hamill Data"-Item #15).

(Mr. Trimble Hamill (H-375-1) wrote on 7/22/1896): ".....I waited for a convenient time to go and see my uncle, Ebenezer Hamill (H-375) and Aunt Sarah Lameroux. But have done it. They both remember John Hamill (H-23A), the Lawrence County Cousin of Grandfather's (H-37). He was a son of Robert Hamill (Sr (H-2), that lived in the Big Cove. But they remember nothing about his father, only the names and residence. They both mind of hearing the people talk about Martha Biggett (H-1), but that is all....." (See Letters Section-"Misc. Hamill Letters" #5) (See also Page H-23A).

(Mrs Rev. Theo. L. Sexton (Reverend D. Hamill (H-125-1) wrote on 7/4/1899): "...Robert Hamill's (Probably H-2) family consisted of 10 persons...." (See Letters Section-"Misc. Hamill Letters" #2) (Compiler's Note: She was quoting data sent her by Dr. Wm. H. Lyle, LL.D., Librarian of the Penna State Library at Harrisburg, Pa. That is just as we have it, 8 children and 2 parents, (making 10 in all. But "Aunt Sally" Hamill (H-15) wrote that he had 10 children - and so far we haven't been able to figure out who such two extra children were.

(From Letters Section-"The Rev. T. L. Jarison. Letters"-Letter dated 7/13/1896): ".....the "History of Fulton County" gives the name of Robert Hamill (H-2), who lived in Ayr Township between 1766-9, owned property there and also in Licking Creek Township, but the author states that neither record nor tradition from which to collect either incident or tradition exists. This is unfortunate, as it makes the chase longer. Bedford County was formed in 1771 out of Cumberland, and Fulton in 1850 out of Bedford..."

(See Misc. Section - "Sanford County, Maine, Records" - For additional copy of the Will of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) - which mentions wife as "Lenoval." It also mentions Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) as of Cemetery, Taxes, Land Deeds, etc. It likewise mentions John Hamill (H-3), and also John Hamill (H-23A), the son of Robert, Sr (H-2), and mentions his wife as "Suzanna" - - - - - (See Page H-23A for more complete copy of this Letter).

REVOLUTIONARY WAR RECORD of ROBERT HAMILL, SR, (H-2).

Robert Hamill, Sr, (H-2) served in the Revolutionary War, as did his brothers Nathaniel Hamill, Sr (H-1), and John Hamill, (H-3). We have very little of Robert, Sr's War record - and such as we have is shown in the letter below. For a full copy of this letter, see Data Page H-1. Bear in mind that this letter was written in 1899 - and that since then, a large number of Volumes of the Penna Archives have been published. The last search of these records was made in 1924-30. So some Kinsman should make a new and thorough search of the Penna Archives for the records - especially the War Service, of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2), and also of his brothers, Nathaniel, Sr (H-1) and John Hamill, (H-3).

According to this Letter, Robert Hamill, Sr, (H-2), served in the Revolutionary War in the Penna Militia, with tours of duty in 1779 and 1781 at least. He was probably a Ranger of the Frontiers. (See Penna Archives - (3-23-235).

This famous Dr. Wm. H. Egle, was the Editor of the Penna Archives, and his word was absolutely authoritative. Here is his Letter, (copied from Data Page H-1):

(Copy of Letter dated 6/14/1899 - to Mrs Rev. Thomas L. Sexton, DD (Rosa Davidson Hamill) (H-125-1) - Lincoln, Nebraska - from Dr. William H. Egle, MD, State Historian, State of Penna, Penna State Library, Harrisburg, Penna.

"Mrs Thomas L. Sexton, Harrisburg, Penna, June 14th, 1899,
Dear Madam: In reply permit me to state:
I find Robert Hamill, (Probably H-2), was a resident of Ayr Township, Bedford now Fulton County, comprising the "Great Cove" from 1773 to 1784. He owned 153 acres of land. In 1784 his family consisted of 10 persons.

John Hamill, inmate, (Possibly may have been H-3) resided in the same locality during the years mentioned. In 1784 his family consisted of 7 persons.
Nathaniel Hamill, (Probably H-1), in same township, marked "single" from 1773 to 1776. He had in 1783, 190 acres of land, and in 1784, his family consisted of seven persons. Both Robert (H-2) and Nathaniel Hamill (H-1) served in the Militia during the Revolution, on at least tours of duty in 1779 and 1781. I find no service of John. Yours with respect, William H. Egle"

"Harrisburg, Penna, June 15th, 1899.

"To Whom It May Concern:

I hereby testify that the services of Robert Hamill and Nathaniel Hamill in the War of the Revolution were as follows:

Nathaniel Hamill, of Ayr Township, Bedford County, Penna, served in the War of the Revolution, neither rank or company being given, and paid for two tours of duty on the Frontiers of Bedford County in 1779 and 1781. For Reference, see Penna Archives, Third Series, Volume 23, Page 235.

Respectfully submitted, William Henry Egle, MD,
Editor History of Penna in the Revolution."

HAMILL GENEALOGY:

JOHN -- HAMILL, (3rd child of Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2). H-23A.

Born: 10/8/1771 at ----- (Probably Big Cove, Penna)

Died: / / at -----

Married: SUSANNA ----- / / at -----

Born: / / at -----

Children: (Children - if any - are Unknown).

John -- Hamill was a Farmer, living at Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford, (Now Fulton) County, Penna. It was at first thought that he was unmarried, but it is now known that he had a wife, "Susanna -----". He went to crop the land of Robert Hamill(H-37) at Ligonier, Penna. (Possibly about 1840???) (Mr. Trumble Hamill(H-373-1) wrote on 1/1/1927): ".....I waited for a convenient time to go and see my Uncle, Ebenezer Hamill(H-375) and Aunt Sarah Lameroux. But I have done it. They both remember John Hamill(H-23A, the Lawrence County Cousin of Grandfather's(H-37)). He was a son of Robert Hamill(Sr-H-2), that lived in the Big Cove. But they remember nothing about his father, only the names and residence. They both mind of hearing the people talk about Martha Bigott(H-1), but that is all....."(See Watts (ers Section- Misc. Hamill Papers" #3). (Compiler's Note: He had previously written some mistaken information -- in his letter of 7/22/1896 -- that he had thought that this John(H-23A) had just emigrated to America, and that he was the son of Rev. Hugh Hamill, of Ireland. Now he corrects this, and shows that this John was actually H-23A, and the son of Robert(Sr(H-2), of Big Cove, Penna.)

(See Historical Section- Misc. Hamill Data - Items 15-41-56-57 - for military record of some John Hamill (or of various John Hamills).

(See Misc. Section- Bedford Co, Penna, Records - for mention of a John Hamill(H-37), and land ownership, taxes, and deeds, etc. It also mentions this John Hamill(H-23A), whose wife was "Susanna -----". (Compiler's Note: It is probable that the John Hamill of the Tax Records was H-37), (because these Tax Records show him from 1782 to 1805. John(H-37) was known to have been there for at least 8 years (1775-1783), and he may have been a "Waggoner" and then have gone back to Farming when he again settled down in Ligonier, Penna. But he may have made several trips as a "Waggoner" back to Bedford Co, to look after interests there. John(H-12) would have been only 5 years old in 1782, and John(H-23A) would have been only 11 years old in 1782. But the Land Deed of 1805 shows John as having a wife "Susanna -----", and mentions him as a son of Robert(H-2). So we know him to have been a different John, and to have been John(H-23A), whom we had previously thought was unmarried - and who in 1808 was 34 years old.

Born: 8/24/1831, Xenia, Ohio. Died: / / at ---

Robert --- Hamill, Jr., (with brothers Joseph (H-26) and Hugh (H-27), came to Greene County, Ohio, and bought the farm, near Xenia, Ohio, (which farm Joseph Hendler Hamill (H-252) evidently inherited), on which George Acordick Hamill (H-252-2) was born. This the latter stated to the compiler in 1930.

Re: Dickett-Dickett-Bigger: George Acordick Hamill (H-252-2) said in 1930: "I do not believe that the Martha Dickett, who married Edmund Hamill, Jr (H-1), was any relation to Elizabeth Dickett who married Robert Hamill, Jr (H-25)." However, Adam Dickett Hamill (H-253) wrote in an old letter: "In Scotland, 200 years ago there were Dicketts and Hamills, who had a strong affinity, and who intermarried. About 1760 they started coming to America from Ireland, (in Ireland there were several intermarriages), and they landed at Big Cove, and there were several intermarriages there, so that every Hamill was a Cousin to every Dickett. George Acordick Hamill (H-252-2) later changed his views, for he said: "The Elizabeth Dickett family came from Ireland, and lived near Londistown, Penna, and moved to Greene County, Ohio, early in 1800, and they probably were a branch of the same family left there in Ireland, who came over later."

Another Hamill version of this Elizabeth-Dickett is this: Elizabeth Dickett's father was Adam Dickett, who did not come to America until 1790, (SEE OTHER SIDE). (4/12/1947).

probably joined the other main Blackett family, who had come over before, went to Big Cove, Penna, first, and then to Stony Valley (Strong Valley), where he died in 1816-1817."

See also historical section, for article on the Blackett-Blackett-Higgin family. See also pages H-1 and H-2 for Blackett intermarriages. See also Pages H-263 and H-264, and H-274 and H-275 for the "Blackett" intermarriages. See also Page H-26 for note on Blackett.

See also disc. section - "Berford County, Penna, Records" - for mention of this Robert Hamill, Jr (H-25) in land transfers, tax records, etc.

Was this Robert Hamill, Jr (H-25) in the year of 1812? We have no record.

George Renwick Hamill was first a Farmer, at Sterling, Kansas. Then he became City Custodian of Parks and City Library, at Sterling. He resigned in the Spring of 1938, and went to live with his daughter Elma Grace Hamill, (H-252-22) at 319 E. 9th Ave, Hutchinson, Kan. At the time of his death (3/4/1944) he was visiting another daughter, Anastasia Paul M. Nichol, in Zenith, Kan. He was a genial, very kindly man - a typical kindly Hamill.

Data Page on GEORGE RENWICK HAMILL-MARY CATHERINE KYLE.

Mary Katherine Kyle is a 1st Cousin of William John Kyle(H-252-1). Mary is the Daughter of Mr. _____ Kyle, who was in the _____ business, who lived in (Town-State) _____, and his wife (Maiden Name) _____ (Kyle). She was the Granddaughter of Mr. _____ Kyle, who was in the _____ business, who lived in (Town-State) _____, and his wife (Maiden Name) _____ (Kyle).

George Renwick Hamill had in his possession the original Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2), of Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford County, Penna, (a brother of Nathaniel Hamill(H-1), and John Hamill(H-3)). This interesting old Bible, of intense interest to all the Hamill Family, traces and proves the descent of all Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2) children, grandchildren, etc. With his Will, also in the possession of Mr George Renwick Hamill(H-252-2), indisputable proof is found of the descent of all this branch of the family.

In this connection, the family of Ernest A. Hamill(H-262-5) of Chicago, who are of this branch of the Hamills, have had various genealogical descents made up by sundry Genealogists, which show descent from various other persons than their true ancestor, Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2). Should members of the Hamill family see these different descents, as apparently relating to the Ernest A. Hamill family, they need not be confused thereby. The true descent is as shown here in the Hamill Genealogy, as proven by the Bible and Will of Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2).

The Compiler (Paul Hamill McCalla-H-125-65) was loaned this Bible many years ago (1/26/1925), and made verbatim copies from the Bible and from the Will. These verbatim copies will be found following the page of Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2), in this Hamill Genealogy. At that time, the Compiler took this Bible and Will to the office of Mr Ernest A. Hamill(H-262-5), who was President of the Continental Illinois National Bank, Chicago. Mr Hamill examined it with great care, for an hour or more, and tears came to his eyes. For he realized that this was his own ancestor, and detailed therein were the dates and facts concerning his own known ancestors, such as his own Grandfather, Joseph Hamill, Sr(H-26). He noted the quaint paraseology: "wase born," and he actually cried. But since the death of this Ernest A. Hamill(H-262-5), his family are still pinning their faith to strange and wonderful Genealogies, made up sometimes at a cost of $2500. by Genealogists who are on the wrong track, to say the least.

The Compiler: Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65).

George Renwick Hamill was a genial, very kindly man - a typical kindly Hamill. He was much interested in Genealogy and Family History. He inherited, and carefully preserved the Bible and Will of his own ancestor, one of the original 4 Hamill brothers, Robert Hamill, Sr(H-2), as mentioned above. He also supplied much Hamill data for this Hamill Genealogy. He several times visited the Compiler's home in Chicago, and was well known to so many other Hamills in various states.

(Letters from George Renwick Hamill(H-252-2), 319 E. 9th Ave, Hutchinson, Kan, (to the Compiler-Paul Hamill McCalla(H-125-65) then living at 2316 Calumet) (Avenue, Chicago, Illinois):

"Dear Mr McCalla: (5/19/1943) "319 East 9th Ave, Hutchinson, Kan.

"It is a long time since we have heard from you. The years slip away as a tale that is told! Many changes have and are taking place in this world. Mrs Hamill(H-252-2) passed to her reward March 18, 1941, which broke up our home in Sterling. Since then have made my home with our oldest daughter, (SEE OTHER SIDE).

Elma, who teaches English in the High School here. She has a nice home here, and I have every convenience that can be wished for. But she being away most of the day makes it lonesome for me. Am past the 1/2 way mark in my 86th year. My health is good, except sight. Five years ago, cataracts developed on both eyes. When fully developed, had the right one operated on. Some vision; can see to walk in daylight, but am no good at night. Sometimes I see more clearly than others. This is a dark, cloudy day and it is hard to see where I have written. Can't follow a line, but am thankful that I can see to wait on myself and take exercise.

A short time ago we heard from a Rev. M. W. Hamill, at Luka, Miss. I wrote to him and he says his people came from So. Carolina and settled in Miss. (does not give the date). His father is living and is about 75 years old. Have written to the Father, and hope to learn more of them. Was the McCalla & Hamill book ever printed (excuse me, I want to hear Churchill). The radio gave me great pleasure. Have never heard whether you published your family history. If so, we want a copy. Would be very much pleased to hear from you. Yours, Geo. R. Hamill.

Gives

Dear Cousin! 7/31/1943. "319 E. 9th Ave, Hutchinson, Kan.

Your letter, with Genealogy sheets all in due time and carefully noted. It took longer to get the information than expected. If there are any errors or omissions, we will be glad to supply the information, if in our power to do so. It has been so long since we have corresponded, that we don't know where to begin. We were twelve (12) years City Custodian of Parks and Library, Sterling, Kansas, and was in our 81st year when we resigned in the Spring of 1938. Cataracts developed on both eyes. Sept 1st of that year, had my right eye operated upon, which gives me sight to go most everywhere in daylight. And with a reading glass, can read fairly well, but get most of the news from the radio. Am working with just my spectacles on my face, but things get dim at times.

Want to tell you of a trip we made in 1937. The party consisted of my wife and I and Elma (H-252-22), Avis (H-252-25) and her husband (Paul Nichol (and baby daughter Barbara), and Elizabeth (H-252-27) and her husband, Earl Learned, and their baby Donald. Two auto loads went to Xenia, Ohio, to the Kyle picnic, and had a fine time. Nichols and my wife returned home from there, and Learned, Elma and I went on to Charleston, S.C. We went through York, S.C., and had a visit to Bethesda Cemetery and Chapel. Saw many tombs shown with the name of Bratton, some dating back to 1775. Met a Dr Bratton in York, who resembled an Uncle of mine that lived at Xenia, Ohio. He seemed to know of the Exodus to the North in 1830, on account of the slavery question. We returned by way of Atlanta, Ga, and Lookout Mtn, Tenn - had a grand trip. We are having some very unusual weather. No breeze and much humidity; this is unusual in Kansas. Air mostly dry. This may all come from washington and we would like it to come to an end. Elma joins me in well wishes, Yours, George R. Hamill.

much for your card and the copies of the Chicago Tribune. I have studied them carefully, and am convinced that McCormick puts out a very fine paper.
The Editorials I read seemed to me eminently fair and soundly American.

What you say about Kyles born in Cedarville, Ohio, is interesting. I have a book on the David and Margaret Mitchell family, from which I am descended. My father's father, Samuel Kyle, Jr, was a brother of David Mitchell Kyle of Cedarville, Ohio, whose son, William John Kyle (H-252-1), married Anna, daughter of Joseph (Handless) and Mary (Stratton) Hamill (H-252).
It says William John Kyle (H-252-1) was a Farmer and a Republican. That is very interesting. We are related to the David Mitchells through Ruth Mitchell who was born in the log fort at Lexington, Ky, during an attack of the Indians, and who married my great, -great, Grandfather, Samuel Kyle, in 1801. Would like to hear further from you. I had an article published in

if you saw it. Very truly yours, Joseph A. Kyle." (RFD 1, Mt Bethel, Penna)

Gerald Hamill Nichol, (Called "Jerry"), graduated 6/1/1955 with the BS, (Bachelor of Science) Degree in Mathematics and History, from Sterling College, Sterling, Kansas. There, he was much interested in Singing, and was a member of the Sterling College Concert Choir, which made occasional trips about the country, and which visited Chicago on 3/27/1951 - at which time The Compiler, (Paul H. McCalla) met "Jerry".

Gerald is much interested in Family History and Genealogy, and has Custody of the old Will and Bible of his Ancestor, Robert Hamill, Sr., (H-2), who was the 2nd of the 4 Original Hamill Brothers, who came to America in 1760-1761. This Robert, Sr., first settled in Big Cove, Penna., with his Brother Nathaniel, Hamill, Sr., (H-1). Gerald also, from 9/29/1955 to 7/5/1956, was Custodian of the 4th copy of the Hamill Genealogy. On 7/5/1956, preparing to leave for the Mission field in Africa, Custody of the Genealogy was assumed by his Brother, Richard, (H-252-251), of Wichita, Kansas - but Gerald is to again assume Custody of the Genealogy when he again returns home.

Gerald, on 4/25/1956, had decided to become a Teacher in the Foreign Mission Field for the United Presbyterian Church, and after 7/5/1956 (on 7/5/1956) he left for a "short term", 3-year service abroad, to teach in the U. P. Commercial High School, in Omdurman, The Sudan, N. Central Africa. (This is across the Nile River from Khartoum).

Gerald Hamill Nichol's permanent home address is (7/5/1956) in care of his Parents at 403 N. Broadway, Sterling, Kansas. His address in the Mission field will be (7/5/1956) % United Presbyterian Commercial High School, Omdurman, The Sudan, North Central Africa.

Gerald Hamill Nichol, (Called "Jerry"), is interested in Family History and Genealogy, and since 9/29/1953, has had custody of the 4th copy of the Hamill Genealogy. He also has custody of the Will and Bible of his Ancestor, Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-2). Copy of this will and Bible may be found on Page H-2, and they are also mentioned on pages H-262-2, and H-262-5.

Gerald, in 1943, lived with his Parents in (PO Box 523), Zenith, Kansas. On 10/5/1947 he was a Junior in Hutchinson High School, Hutchinson, Kan, and lived with his Aunt, Miss Elma Grace Hamill, (H-252-22), at 319 E. 9th Avenue, Hutchinson, Kan. He graduated 6/1949. In 9/1949 he became a Freshman at Sterling College, Sterling, Kan. On 2/5/1951 he was a Sophomore, and lived at 209 N. 5th St (PO Box 94), and on 12/22/1952 was living at 217 N. 10th St, in Sterling, Kansas. He graduated 6/1/1953 with the BS (Bachelor of Science) Degree in Mathematics and History from Sterling College, Sterling, Kansas.

Gerald, on 3/27/1951, visited Chicago as a singer in the Sterling College Concert Choir, and they sang at the 6th U.P. Church, 1200 E. 62nd St, Chicago. The Choir was excellent and sang beautifully. The Compiler met Gerald at the Concert, and visited briefly with him before their bus left for Kansas. On 6/18/1951, Gerald was working for the Summer at the Ideal Food Store #2, Garden City, Kan. There he met a Mr Robert Lee Hamill, son of Robert B. Hamill, who is working for the same store. It is not known where this Mr Hamill fits into the Hamill Genealogy.

On 9/28/1953, Gerald's Parents had moved 2 years before to Sterling, Kan, where they became Teachers in the Public Schools, living at 403 N. Broadway - Gerald living with them.

Gerald, on 11/23/1953, was inducted into the US Army. On 10/11/1954 he was in George Company, 65th Infantry Regt, at Camp Kaiser, Korea. On 10/28/1954 he was a Corporal, and had been transferred to the Finance Section of the Personnel Dept, at Camp Kaiser, Korea, his address being: US-55-459-283, % A.P.O. 358, %Postmaster, San Francisco, Cal. On 12/12/1954 he was a Corporal and had been transferred to Camp Otsu, near Kyoto, Japan, and his address was changed to A.P.O. 24. He was with C Battery, 11th Field Artillery Bn, 24th Infantry Division. On 9/30/1955 he was released from the US Army. On 12/18/1955 he was doing some substitute Teaching - and was also showing his Pictures and Slides taken in Korea and Japan.- and his address was 403 North Broadway, Sterling, Kansas.

Gerald Becomes a Missionary: (Contributed 5/1/1956 by Mrs Albert J. Caven, (Sylvia Ellen Walker) (H-124-113), 2415 N-E 41st Ave, Portland, Oregon - who wrote: "Last night while reading the current issue of the UP. Magazine, I came across this, and know you will be interested and want to copy it into the Hamill Genealogy...": "The United Presbyterian Church at Work at Home and Abroad. Six Career Missionaries, Six Short-Termers Given Overseas Appointments. Foreign Missions - It was the privilege of the Board of Foreign Missions at its meeting in Philadelphia, April 3 to 4, (1956), to appoint forshort-term service abroad.....Mr Gerald H(amill) Nichol.. It is a pleasure to present them to the Church and tell a bit about them. We covet the prayers of The United Presbyterian Church for these who go forth for us in the service of Christ....."

"Mr Gerald H(amill) Nichol was born in Hutchinson, Kan, and studied at Sterling College, where he received his BS Degree in Mathematics and History in 1953. During his two-year service in the Army he served for several months in Japan and Korea. He will go out this fall to teach in the Commercial High School in Omdurman, The Sudan. He is a member of the Sterling, Kan, Church....." (* Above copied from "The United Presbyterian Magazine", (Issue of April 23, 1956).

(Letters to The Compiler - from Gerald Hamill Nichol, (H-252-253), of Zenith, }
{ Kansas, temporarily living with his Aunt, (H-252-22), at 319 E. 9th Avenue, }
{ Hutchinson, Kansas, while a High School student in Hutchinson.

(Letter of 9/7/1947): "319 E. 9th, Hutchinson, Kansas. 9/7/1947. Dear Mr McCalla, 2316 Calumet Ave, Chicago, Ill. Dear Mr McCalla: This afternoon I have been looking through my Grandfather's, (George H. Hamill-H-252-2) things. Among them I found the Hamill Family Bible, and your letters concerning it. My Aunt, (Miss Elma G. Hamill-H-252-22), told me you were looking for someone who would take the records which you have found, and carry on with the work you have been doing. Because I am interested in the Hamill Family History, I would like to help you. My name is Gerald Hamill Nichol, and I am the son of Avis Bratton (Hamill) Nichol, (H-252-25). I will be 16 in October and I am a Junior in the Hutchinson Junior High School, Hutchinson, Kansas. All the records, which were sent to my Grandfather some years ago, are in my possession. I will be pleased to hear from you. Cordially yours, Gerald Hamill Nichol. My address: Gerald H. Nichol, 319 E. 9th, Hutchinson, Kansas."

(Letter of 10/5/1947): "Dear Mr McCalla: I would have liked to have answered your letter sooner, but at that time I didn't have much information. Anna Luella Hamill, (H-252-24) is buried in the Sterling Cemetery, Sterling, Kansas. Her daughter, Margaret, (H-252-241) married Glen Ray Rice on 10/25/1946. He was born on 11/29/1900 at Laredo, Kansas.

Her son, Baxter George, (H-252-242) married Veda Irene Andrews on 11/11/1945. She was born on 12/3/1917 at Hollenberg, Kansas. Her husband, Baxter H. George (H-252-24), didn't have a middle name, but Luella thought he should have, so he took the initial A. Thomas A. Weaver (H-252-23), got his the same way. My brother, Richard, (H-252-251), is not married, so I can't give you more data on him. He is now a student at Sterling College, Sterling, Kan. About the data concerning Benj. Franklin Hafer (H-252-26), I will have to send later. The Bible to which you referred, belonged to George Benwick Hamill (H-252-2), and was loaned to Allan Wendell Hamill, (H-269-42), and then to you. Cordially yours, Gerald Hamill Nichol." (His last sentence refers to the old original Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr, (H-2), of Big Cove, Penna, who was the 2nd Original Hamill Brother).

(Letter of 12/20/1947): "Dear Mr McCalla: While I was looking through some of the things you sent, I found some papers which needed filling out. Aunt Anna Luella George was buried at Sterling, Kan; but her husband, Baxter, was buried in Louisiana. I thank all the rest of your information is clearly written in the blanks. Thank you for all of the information which you sent me. If there is anything you want to know, and think I can answer it, please let me know, as I want to be as much help as possible. Gerald Hamill Nichol."

(Letter of 2/3/1948): "I received some information about Benj. Franklin Hafer (H-252-26), from my cousin Patricia Hafer (H-252-251). It is as follows: Benj. Franklin Hafer was the son of John Harvey Hafer (Born: 2/12/1860), was married on 1/30/1884 to Lizzie Army Ferguson, (Born: 10/10/1865). John Harvey Hafer was the son of Godfrey Hafer, who came over from Germany at the age of 18; and Mary Phillips, an English girl born in America. Lizzie Army Ferguson was the daughter of _____ Ferguson, who married Mahila (spelling ???) Mitchell. When you get the page made out, I will send it to her to fill out the rest of the blanks. The next time I write I hope to have some information about Albert Earl (H-252-27)."

I am taking typing in School this year. I also have a typewriter ordered which should be here soon. I can type the information myself. Could you please send me some information concerning Rev. Paul E. Carson, M.D. He is the Minister of the United Presbyterian Church here in Hutchinson. He would like to know what relationship I am to him. (Rev. Carson is H-373-62).

(Letter of 6/7/1948): ".....I am enclosing the page for Harry Carson (H-373-62), and will send the others later - soon. I received the information from (see next page). (7/29/1948)."

Letters from Gerald Hamill Nichol

him (H-373-623) today, and you will notice there are a few changes. His (H-373-623) wife's maiden name was Jay, (not Carson), and he said as far as he knew they were not related. I will try to send information about Vera Hafer (H-252-23) and Elizabeth (?) Learned (H-252-27) the next time I write you. In your next letter will you please send me the page for Anna Hamill, (H-252-1). Thank you. I must close now. Good luck, Gerald Hamill Nichol.

(Letter of 6/11/1948): "I received your letter of 6/10/48 today. In my last letter I asked for Anna Hamill (H-252-1) page. I imagine you just forgot to send it. I would appreciate it if you would send it in your next letter. Thank you. On the page for Rev. Harry Carlyle Carson (H-373-622), you gave him a "DD", which he doesn't have, so I will recopy that page before I give it to Dr. Paul Carson, (H-373-623). I have Dr. Carson's page done this time, so I am enclosing it, with a revised page for Vera Jeannette Hamill Hafer (H-252-26).

No, I haven't heard anything from Mrs. Caven. I was just going to write her for the Hamill Book (Genealogy) for the summer. Maybe I can get an answer. How do you put the pages in the book? By this I mean where do you put the pages? In what order? By the numbers? Also can you get paper with the holes all ready in it? I haven't tried yet. Patricia M. Hafer (H-252-261) is staying with Aunt Elma (H-252-22), this summer and is working in the Grace Hospital here as a Nurse's Aid. She is working in Surgery. My brother, Dick, (H-252-251) has finished Sterling College with a B.S. degree. He is going to a music camp this summer so he can teach in next year at Alden, Kansas. I hope you receive a letter soon from Mrs. Caven. Gerald Hamill Nichol.

(Letter of 1/30/1949 - to Mrs. A. J. Caven (H-124-113), Portland, Ore): "Dear Mrs. Caven: I'm sorry - haven't written sooner, but I've been sick all week with a bad cold. I really enjoyed looking through the Hamill Book (Genealogy). Mr. McCalla must have spent a lot of time on it to have filled such large volumes. I wish it were printed so all of the members of the Hamill family could have their own copy. I noticed a few pages that could be revised, so I will try to get him (Mr. McCalla) the material soon. January surely has been a cold and stormy month. Last Thursday we had a 6" snow in six hours here in Hutchinson. All highways leading out of Hutchinson were blocked until Saturday morning. It was zero again this morning. We haven't had it as bad as Nebraska, tho. I hope they can get food to the stranded stock. Well, I must close. A Cousin, Gerald Hamill Nichol.

(Letter of 7/7/1949 - To The Compiler): "7/7/1949... I imagine you will be very surprised in hearing from me. Please forgive me for not keeping up with my correspondence with you. I am so busy in the winter that I don't have time to work on the Hamill Book, but I will try to make up for it during the summer. Aunt Mary (H-252-23) and Uncle Tom Weaver visited us last week, so I got some information from Aunt Mary while they were here. They had their grandchildren (John Thomas Weaver (H-252-232-1) and Bruce Hamill Weaver) with them. They were really cute. I also found some information on Uncle Earl Learned (H-252-27) that I had forgotten to send you, so I will send it now. My brother, Richard (H-252-251), got married last Thanksgiving Day. He and his wife are on their belated honeymoon, and I can't send you any material on her until they get home. They are touring the East - Washington, D.C., Baltimore, New York, Boston, Montreal and Quebec.

Mother and Daddy are going to teach school next year. Mother has the 6th Grade, and Daddy has the Mathematics in the High School. They are teaching at Ashland, Kansas. Barbara (H-252-254) will be a freshman in High School. As you probably know, I graduated from High School last year. I have enclosed one of my graduation pictures. I am planning to attend Sterling College, (Sterling, Kansas) next year. This summer I am working for my father here in Zenith (Kansas). So my address is just Zenith, Kansas. Thank you for being so patient with me. Gerald Hamill Nichol.

- (Letter of 2/25/1951) (On Letterhead of The Sterling College Concert Choir (Sterling, Kansas): "Baby 25, 1951. Dear Mr McColla: I hope that you will forgive me for not keeping up a correspondence with you during the past year and a half, but as I didn't have much information to send you until now, I put off writing to you. I am enclosing 4 revised pages for the Hamill Book. They are the following: Mary Rachel Hamill, (H-252-23), Margaret Oleava George, (H-252-241), Avis Bratton Hamill, (H-252-25), and Richard Francis Nichol, (H-252-251). Bobby, my new Nephew, certainly is getting cute. He seems to have grown every time I see him, and I don't see him often enough to suit me.

During the past Summer I worked in a Summer Resort in Red River, New Mexico. My Father got a job as Butcher in one of the grocery stores there. My Mother had a job as cook in a cafe, and later in the Summer she worked in a lodge. Barbara, my sister, worked for people who had Summer cabins there. I worked in the Community House. It was a place where the Tourists could play Canasta, Bridge or Square Dance. On Thurs. evenings they had movies, on Sunday morning they had Sunday School, and on Sunday nights they held a sing for the Tourists. We, the whole family, kept pretty busy but we spent one of the most enjoyable Summers that we have ever spent.

This Spring the Sterling College Concert Choir is taking a tour to Pittsburgh, Penna, returning by way of Detroit and Chicago. We leave Sterling the 16th of March, and return about the 1st of April. While we are in Chicago I'll try to look you up if I have time, as I would certainly like to meet you. If I don't have time to see you personally, I'll telephone you.

In January the Sterling College Concert Band, of which I am a member, took a week-end tour to Topeka, Kan, and St Joseph, Mo. At Topeka we played at one of the High Schools, and then went on to St Joe, where we gave a concert in the Court House. We then went back to Topeka where we played a concert in the United Presby. Church. We have also played in some of the High Schools around Sterling. We really enjoy doing it and the College likes to have us do it as it is good advertising for the College. Hope this material which I have sent is of some use. If there is anything that I can do for you, please let me know. Sincerely yours, Gerald Hamill Nichol, Box 94, Sterling, Kansas"

- (Letter of 6/17/1951): "Dear Mr McColla: I am working in Western Kansas for the Summer. Am working in the Ideal Food Store #2, in Garden City, Kan. I'm in the Produce Dept. I found that I was working with a Hamill, so I thot I would write you about him and see if you could trace him. His name is: Robert Lee Hamill. His Father's name is: Robert B Hamill. His Grandfather is: Hamill.

Ruby (Rusly-Ruly-???) Hamill and Ann Hamill are two Brothers of Robert B. Hamill. If he is some relative, maybe I can get some additional information about the family for you. Am planning to go back to Sterling this Fall. I am pretty anxious for it to start, even tho we did get out just 2 weeks ago. Hope I have found some useable information. You can write me at - Gerald (Hamill) Nichol, Ideal Food Store #2, Garden City, Kansas. Sincerely yours, Gerald Nichol."

- (Letter of 9/23/1953): "...I received your letter several days ago, but have been kept so busy I haven't had time to reply. Thank you very much for entrusting the 4th copy of the Hamill Book (Genealogy) with me. I have always wanted to have a copy of it. I'm sorry to hear, however, that you are going to have to move again. We (my folks) moved here to Sterling, Kansas, 2 years ago. My parents both teach in a 4-teacher country school near here. I have written to Ashland (Kan), to ask them to forward the book here. As of yet, however, it hasn't arrived.

I was in Chicago this Summer for just a few minutes, but I didn't have time to call. I went back East where I spent 2 months of my Summer caravanning and at a work camp. There were 4 of us on a Caravan Team and we went to different Churches to help them with their Bible School, Worship Services, Youth Meetings, etc. I was in New Jersey for 3 weeks and up-state New York (SEE OTHER SIDE). (11/8/1954).

for a week. At the work camp about 20 of us young people helped build a two-story, 7 room, brick house for the U. S. Minister in Universal, Penna.

I am not waiting to be called to the U.S. Army. As of yet I haven't gotten my call, but it is to be some time in October. I am working in the market at the local Dillon Store until I'm called. Thanks again for sending it (the Genealogy). Please write me your new address as I might find my way to Chicago during my two years in the (US Army) Service. Give my regards to your sister Helen. Sincerely yours, Gerald Hamill Nichol, 403 N. Broadway, Sterling, Kansas."

(Note of 9/29/1953): "...Thank you very much for sending me the Hamill (Genealogy) Book. I received it this morning by Express. I haven't had much time to look thru it, but can hardly wait to get to work on it. Thanks again. Gerald Hamill Nichol." (403 N. Broadway, Sterling, Kansas).

(Letter of 11/10/1953): "...I was glad to hear that you and your sister finally have found an apartment where you will be safe from the Negroes. I finally received my orders from "The President." I am to report on the 23rd of this month. I will be sent to Kansas City, where I will be inducted into the Army. From there I don't know where I'll be sent for my training. I hope some place where it isn't too cold. We are going to have a Hamill family dinner this Sunday before I leave. We are going to have it in Hutchinson(Kan), at Baxter (Jr) and Vida George's.

Last night I went to see the film "Martin Luther." It is really an excellent one. A film that every Christian should see. Last month I saw the film, "The Robe," on the curved screen. It was tops, too. I will leave the Hamill (Genealogy) Book with my Parents while I am in the service. Here's hoping that I can come to Chicago some time and see you and your sister. Sincerely yours, Gerald Hamill Nichol." (403 N. Broadway, Sterling, Kan).

(Letter from Korea-10/23/1954): "Corporal Gerald H. Nichol, Finance Sect, Personnel Dept, Hdq. Co, (US - 55-459-233), Camp Kaiser, Korea. APO 353, % Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif. 28 October, 1954. Dear Mr McCalla: In my last letter from my Father, I received your note stating that you had sent some pages to be inserted in the Hamill Book. My Father has put them with the Book and I will insert them when I get home next Fall. I'm sorry that I hadn't written that my parents had moved to Sterling, (Kansas), during my Junior year at College. By now you have no doubt received the card giving their address. I have just had some interruptions. One of the fellow's Mother is severely ill back in the States, and they are going to fly him home. Since I'm working in the Finance Section of Personnel, we had to get his records ready to send with him.

After I completed my basic training, I was sent to Ft Lewis, Washington, by plane, where I processed to come overseas. We set sail from Seattle on April 30th(1954) and was in port at Sasebo, Japan, on May 16th. We weren't allowed off the ship, the Marine Phoenix, as we were only in the Japanese port for 8 hours. We landed at Inchon, Korea, on May 18. From there we came up to the Third Division by train. I was assigned to Company "G" of the 65th Infantry Division, where I worked as Company Clerk, and later Unit Administrator. Because the 3rd Division was going back to the States, I was transferred here to Personnel at Camp Kaiser, I Corps. I'll probably be here until after the first of the year. I must close now, to help this fellow who is going on emergency leave. Sincerely, Gerald Hamill Nichol."

"Dear Mr McCalla: Please pardon the stationery, but it was handy at the time. My Father nor my Mother - neither will be teaching in this School this Fall, so they are trying to get it used up before then. I am very sorry that I haven't written to you sooner, but there have been so many things to do here lately. I'm afraid that I have let my correspondence slip a little. I have been thinking quite a bit about you and the Hamill Genealogy, but I just never did get a letter off to you.

At present, I don't plan to make a career of teaching in a Mission School but sometimes our plans do change. At first I was scheduled to leave New York on August 22nd, on the Queen Mary. Then I was to fly to The Sudan from London. My plans have been changed, however, and now I am to fly all the way just as soon as my Passport arrives from the State Department, and they can arrange a flight. I really wasn't expecting to go so soon, so I have really been kept busy in buying a three-year supply of clothing and getting it packed. I finally got my footlockers sent off this past Monday. I also had to get vaccinations and shots before I can leave the States. This Saturday should prove to be one of my last ones. There has been so much to do before I am ready to go.

It is my desire, unless you feel otherwise, that I keep the Hamill Genealogy here (403 N. Broadway-Sterling, Kan) for the 3 years that I will be gone. Upon my return home after the "short-term", I could bring the book up-to-date. That would be the same way that I did upon my return from the service. As I said before, I don't plan to make a career of teaching in the Mission field. If this seems unwise to you, I'm sure that my Brother, Richard (Francis Nichol, ES - H-252-251) would be happy to keep it for me until my return. He is residing at 2313 N. Lorraine Ave, Wichita(14), Kansas. While I am gone, he would be able to post the new pages. He is also interested in Genealogy, and is at the present working on a history of the Nichol Family. Please advise me which you would rather I do.

At the present, my Parents are attending Western State College, Gunnison, Colorado. My Father will receive his Master's Degree in Education the first week in August(1956). I had hoped to attend the Graduation Services, but with these new plans of travel, I'm afraid that I will be unable to attend. There have been several changes in "our Twig" of the Family Tree. I'm hoping that I will be able to get them written up and sent to you before I leave for Africa. Your second letter came today with the enclosed pages for the Hamill Book (Genealogy). I plan to get them posted this evening. I must get this in the mail, so I will have to close for now. Respectfully yours, "Jerry" Nichol. " (Letter of July 5th, 1956): "403 N. Broadway, Sterling, Kansas. Dear Cousin Paul: My brother "Dick" was up from Wichita yesterday, so I gave the Hamill Book (Genealogy) to him. I explained to him how to insert the new or Revised pages as you send them to him. I'm sure that he will be able to (SEE OTHER SIDE). (9/3/1956).

follow the excellent instructions which you send with them. He has been quite busy with the Nichol Family History. He hopes to publish it by the first of September (1956). I still have the old Hamill Bible here. If he should need it, he can always get it here. They have a small house in Wichita - just two bedrooms - so he didn't want to take any more than was necessary.

Thank you for bothering to type off the articles that appeared in the "Presbyterian Life." I had heard some about the situation in Egypt and the Sudan. Two of the graduates in my class at Sterling College, (Sterling, Kan) are teaching in Mission Schools in Egypt. They are afraid that they too might be sent back to the States. I'm afraid that the doors are closing to the Educational Missions in those two countries. Perhaps I will be sent back before my three years are up. My Passport still hasn't arrived, so I am still here in Sterling. I do think, though, that it will be sent to the Foreign Board at the end of this week. Perhaps I will be able to get on my way sometime next week. I think that I will be flying to New York. I will probably be going thru Chicago, but it will be about 2 in the morning. If it is during the day, though, I will phone you.

Dick came up before I had any opportunity to bring the Hamill Book (Genealogy) up-to-date on our immediate family. I will have to do that when I get back from the Sudan. I trust that it isn't too terribly hot in Chicago. Last week we had temperatures of over 100° nearly everyday, but this week it has cooled off to the mid-ninties. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to work with you on the Hamill Book (Genealogy). Respectfully yours, "Jerry" Nichol."

CORRESPONDENCE ABOUT GERALD HAMILL NICHOL:

(Letters to The Compiler from Mrs Albert J. Caven (Sylvia Ellen Walker) (H-124-113), 2415 N-E 41st St, Portland, (13), Oregon.

(Letter dated 9/12/1943): ".....I received a letter from Gerald Hamill Nichol, (H-252-253-then of Hutchinson, Kan)....and will send the Hamill Genealogy to him.....he mentioned that his brother, Dick, (H-252-251) was attending the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan, which was interesting and commendable....."

(Letter dated 9/14/1943): "....Gerald Hamill Nichol, (H-252-253-of Hutchinson, Kan), said his brother Dick, (H-252-251) sings very well and is teaching music at Alden, Kansas, this year, and plans to be married around Christmas time to Delores Eck, from Newton, Kansas. You, (H-125-66-The Compiler), and I, (H-124-113) are to receive one of his, (Gerald's-H-252-253) Senior Class pictures as soon as he gets them.....Gerald acknowledged receipt of the Hamill Genealogy. (She loaned him her 3rd copy, to read). Said he hadn't had time to read very much of it yet, but he hoped to begin that evening, 9/10/1943....."

(Post Card from Gerald's Father, Paul V. Nichol): "Sterling, Kansas. Oct. 11, 1954. My wife and I are busy teaching school. "Jerry" is in Korea. We will keep the records for him. We got your other letter OK, too. That we would write you then, but never got it done. Our address is: 403 N. Broadway, Sterling, Kansas. Gerald's address is: Corporal Gerald H. Nichol, US - 55-459-283, George Company, 65th Infantry Regiment, APO 433, Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif. Sincerely, Paul V. Nichol." (403 N. Broadway, Sterling, Kan).

The LETTERS of ADAM BICKETT HAMILL.

(Adam Bickett Hamill (H-253) claimed in a letter written on 1/4/1899):

"Robert Hamill, Jr (H-2) and 2 brothers came to America some time before the Revolutionary War. The brothers were John and Hugh. Nathaniel - another brother - was left in Ireland. He came during the war, went hunting bears in mountains, and was lost. That was last heard of him for 80 years. (??). (Compiler's Note: Nathaniel (H-1) was definitely proven by the Anna Arch-lyas to have been in Big Cove, Penna, in 1775. This brother who came lat-er might refer to Hugh, as another legendsays a 5th brother came to Amer-ica, but later returned to Ireland).

Adam Bickett Hamill (H-253) continues: "In 1858, Dr. Robt. C. Hamill, MD, (H-262) of Chicago, went to the South for his health, and was in Brownsville, Tenn. He saw a graveyard with headstones bearing all family names, including Nathaniel. Nathaniel had married there and raised a large family. The children were all dead. Some grandchildren had moved to Annsworth, Iowa some 25 or 30 years ago." (Compiler's Note: We are now trying to piece together the data about Family B (see other Hamill Section - Family B), ear-ly members of which family are buried at Oakwoods Cemetery in Brownsville, Tennessee, and also buried in the burial ground at Big Spring, near Maryville, (Maryville?), Blount County, Tennessee. Some descendants also live in Friendsville, Tenn. It is possible that these connect with the "4th Missing Brother Hamilla" written up as H-4. However, a list of many names of this family, lists many names common to our Family A - but there is no Nathaniel so far discovered). (Historical Section - "Adm. Hamill Data" Item #29) (See also Page H-262) (See also Introduction to Family B - Page 3).

(Adam Bickett Hamill (H-253) wrote in an old letter): "In Scotland 200 years ago, there were Bicketta and Hamilla, who had a strong affinity, and who intermarried. About 1760, they started coming to America from Ireland, (in Ireland there were several intermarriages), and they landed at Big Cove and there were several intermarriages there, so that every Hamill was a Cousin to every Bickett." (See Data Page H-25).

(Adam Bickett Hamill (H-253), Biggsville, Ill, wrote in 1899): "John Hamill, (H-3), had a son John (??), who was a Cousin of my Father (Robert Hamill, Jr, (H-25), and had several brothers and sisters. One sister married a Pollack, and Rev. Robert Hamill Pollack is a son of his. And one married a McKenzie. I recollect seeing him when I was quite small." (Compiler's Note: Could the writer be thinking of Robert Hamill (H-37), whose daughter Elizabeth (H-371-A) married John Pollack, and had a son, Rev. Robert Hamill Pollack, (see Note on Page H-37). Jane McKelvie was 2nd wife of Robt. Hamill (H-37), and Hannah Hamill (H-365) married a Douglas McKelvie, (also Martha Hamill (H-34) married a McKelvey. But we have no record of a McKenzie. Also no record of John Hamill (H-3) having a son named John - (he is not mentioned in the Will, nor does "Aunt Sally" (H-15) name him as a son. (See Data Page H-3).

(Adam Bickett Hamill (H-253) claimed): That Mrs Lydia Bigger was his Sister. (Compiler's Note: Actually, they were Cousins, as Lydia Hamill Bigger (H-275) was the daughter of Hugh (H-27), and he was the son of Robert, Jr, (H-25). If she was his sister, there must have been another mistake, and Lydia (H-275) must have been the daughter of Robert, Jr (H-25) - which is not according to our records.) (See Historical Section - "Hamill Data" Item #32).

HAMILL GENEALOGY:

Data Page on JOSEPH HAMILL, SR. - MARGARET SMALL.

H - 26.

See Data Page H-2, for copy of the Will and Bible Records of Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-2). These valuable records descended to George Hendrick Hamill, (H-252-2) (deceased), of Hutchinson and Hutchinson, Kansas, and were loaned by him to Allen Russell Hamill, (H-269-2), of Xenia, Ohio. Now, in 1943, they have descended to, and are in the custody of, Gerald Hamill Nichol, (H-252-253) of Xenia and Hutchinson, Kansas.

Some have claimed that the wife of Joseph Hamill, Sr. (H-26) was Jossie E. Craig, instead of Margaret Small. Can YOU give any data on this?

Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-25), with brothers Joseph (H-26) and Hugh (H-27), came to Greene County, Ohio, and bought the farm, near Xenia, Ohio, (which farm Joseph Hendrick Hamill (H-252) evidently inherited), on which George Hendrick Hamill (H-252-2) was born. This was stated to the Compiler in 1930 by George Hendrick Hamill (H-252-2). These 3 brothers probably came to Xenia before 1810. (See Pages H-27 and H-25).

CHILDREN - GRANDCHILDREN - of JOSEPH HAMILL, SR:

(From old Hamill data from various sources - prior to 1924-1930):

"Joseph Hamill, Sr. (H-26), and most of his family, lived in Xenia, Ohio. James Hamill (H-261) said to have lived in Iowa or Nebraska (probably Iowa) in 1890. One of the sons supposedly moved to Iowa, and trace of him has been lost, (probably James-H-261).

A daughter, Fannie -- Hamill, (possibly one of the daughters has a middle name Fannie), said to have married a Rev. David Good, Willy, D., (?) and also a Jane Hamill, (possibly this is Fannette (H-268), said to have married a Rev. -- Alexander, D. (?).

(NOTE: The Compiler, in the absence of more information, cannot as yet)
(add this to the proper child's records. Can YOU give any further data)
(about these children?)

THE BIGGER - BECKET-BECKETT-BICKETT FAMILY:

Evelyn -- Hamill (H-263) married James -- Bigger as his 1st wife, and after her death, he married Lydia -- Hamill (H-275). (See H-275, as these two are Minnemen). It is probably this James Bigger who is referred to as having a son, Henry J. Bigger - for his brother, Samuel Bigger is listed as having 2 other named children: "One of these daughters married a Bigger, (probably a different spelling of the same original Becket-Beckett-Bickett (family who have intermarried with the Hamills so many times). She had a son, Henry J. Bigger, who lived in Xenia, married a Miss -- -- -- from Pittsburgh, Penna, and then went west. His present (1924) address is: 317 Mohawk Bldg, Portland, Oregon." (From Letter (1924) from Mrs Nettie Hamill Moore (H-261-2), of College Springs, Iowa). Mrs Moore, at that time, furnished considerable data for this H-26 page. It is not known whether James Bigger's 1st wife, or his 2nd wife, was the mother of this Henry J. Bigger. (See Page H-275. See also Historical Section for Article on "Becket-Beckett-Bickett-Bigger intermarriages.") Elizabeth (Eliza) -- Hamill (H-264) married Samuel Bigger, as his 1st wife, and after her death, he married Margaret Hamill (H-274). (See H-274 (as these two are Minnemen). The above James and this Samuel Bigger were supposedly brothers. Old data, from various Hamill Sources, mostly prior to 1924 and 1930, has claimed that this Samuel Bigger had 2 children: Julia Bigger, who died as a girl 7 years old, and a son, Thomas B. Bigger, who lived and died in Xenia, Ohio. That these 2 children were by his 1st wife, Elizabeth (Eliza) Hamill, and that later, after her death, he then married Margaret Hamill (H-274). (See Page H-274. See also Historical Section for Article on "Becket-Beckett-Bigger intermarriages.")

Samuel Bigger, (H-274 & H-264), and James Bigger (H-275 & H-263) are believed to be different spellings of the same "Becket-Beckett-Bickett" (see OTHER SIDE).

(COMPILER'S NOTE:

(In this 1947 revision of the Hamill Genealogy, I am again faced with the problem of where to connect a Francesa or "Fanny" Hamill, who married a Rev. David - Goodwillie, DD - and also where to connect a Jane Hamill who married a Rev. - Alexander, DD. They may have been children of this Joseph Hamill, Sr (H-26).)

(Possibly the same (Mrs Alexander) was Jennette (H-268) of this family. Possibly Margaret (H-265) or Julia (H-267) or Sarah (H-266) might have had a middle name of Francesa or Fanny, and so have been the one who married Rev. David Goodwillie (or Goodwillie). So, pending more information, I shall have to list them temporarily on this sheet.

CAN YOU GIVE US INFORMATION ON THESE TWO - AND EXPLAIN ABOUT THEM - WHO THEIR CHILDREN WERE - WHERE THEY LIVED - ETC ?

Mr William Trumble Hamill (H-375-1) wrote 1/1/1897: "...They remember that Robert (Sr-H-2) of The Big Cove, had a brother (?? should it not be a son, Joseph (H-26) - who had 2 daughters that were both married to Preachers, to wit: Fannie (H-2694) to Rev. David Goodwillie, and Jane (H-2684) to Rev. Alexander. But as they had not thought of them for many years, they have no trace of them now..." (See Letters Section - Misc. Hamill Letters #2).

(Mrs. Rev. T. L. Sexton (H-125-1) wrote 2/5/1899: "...The Rev. Robert Hamill Pollack (H-371-A) has been at Father's (H-125) - several times. Then the Rev. David Goodwillie (H-2694) and Rev. Thomas Brown (H-272), brother of our old Pastor at Keokuk, (Iowa) were married to Hamills. Mrs Goodwillie's (H-2694) name was Francesa Hamill. Now I do not know what relation these people were to each other. Father (H-125) or Mother knew, and you will have to find out among the friends..." (See Letters Section - Misc. Hamill Letters #2).

See previous H-26 Data Page for mention of these two. Also, possibly data about these two could be obtained from Allan Wendell Hamill (H-269-52) of Chillicothe, Ohio, or his descendants.

See Page H-35, (Item H-357), and note that Hannah Hope married an Andrew Alexander. Note also that it says: "Andrew Alexander's mother was a Hamill." What is the relationship there, and the connection with this Rev. - Alexander, DD, (H-2684) ??

The BUST of Dr. ROBERT C. HAMILL, MD. (H-262).

This is a duplicate of the Bust which stands in the Entrance Hall of THE PRESBYTERIAN HOSPITAL, Chicago, Ill., of which Dr. Hamill was the founder, assisted by Dr. Joseph P. Ross, MD.

For 3 generations this Bust held an honored place in the McCalla home. For years it stood in the home of Mrs Thomas McCalla, whose sister, Eliza J. Davisson Hamill, was the wife of Dr. Hamill. Then it descended to Mrs McCalla's son, Rev. Albert McCalla, (Honor Eleanor Hamill H-125-6). In turn, their children, Miss Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61) and Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65), kept it.

In 1943, upon moving from the old family home at 2316 Calumet Avenue, Chicago, Helen and Paul gave it, for permanent safe-keeping, to the Chicago Historical Society, N. Clark & North Ave, Chicago - where it may be seen at any time.

Data Page on DR. ROBERT C. HAMILL, MD. ELIZA JANE DAVISSON.

Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD., moved() from the family home in Xenia, Ohio, to Bloomington, Indiana - where he lived among his McCalla-Hamphill relatives. Then in 1852, he and his wife and children moved to Chicago. They were part of a large family party, with his brother-in-law, Thomas ("Honest Tom") McCalla, and his wife and family. (See Pages I-361 & II-363-4-McCalla Genealogy) (See also Data Page II-125-6 - for details of family connections in Bloomington, Ind., and move to Chicago, etc.)

In Chicago, he joined the First Presbyterian Church of Chicago on 4/28/1853, and was a member of the Session for many years. He was one of the incorporators of the Academy of Medical Sciences in 1859. He was the Founder, assisted by Dr. Joseph P. Loss, MD, of the Presbyterian Hospital of Chicago, and was Vice-President of it for many years. He was a Trustee of Rush Medical College, Chicago, and was Consulting Physician of Cook County Hospital, Chicago, in 1866. He was one of the founders of Soldier's Rest, after the Civil War, and was its President for 18 years. He was also one of the founders of the Home for Incurables.

Dr. Hamill was a practicing Physician in Chicago, with a large, wealthy clientele, but gave his services largely to the poor. His brother-in-law, Dr. Alfred Williston Davisson, MD, (Davisson 114), with Dr. Brainerd, was the Founder of Rush Medical College, of Chicago, which was associated with the Presbyterian Hospital, later with the University of Chicago, and now (1947) associated with the Medical Department of the University of Illinois.

Dr. Hamill and Thomas ("Honest Tom") McCalla, (See Page II-361-McCalla Genealogy - and Page II-Davisson Section-Hamill & McCalla Genealogies), were also brothers-in-law, each having married a Davisson sister. He was also a brother-in-law of Rev. James Patterson Miller, DD (Amanda Davisson) (See Page III-Davisson Section), a Missionary Minister of The Dalles, Oregon. He was also a brother-in-law of Clarendon Davisson, (Davisson 115), the Newspaper Editor, and US Consul to Bordeaux, France.

Both Dr. Hamill and his wife were Scotch Presbyterians. He lived a life of great usefulness in the founding days of Chicago, when its course was being shaped among the mighty cities of the earth.

Eliza Jane Davisson Hamill, (See Page 112-Davisson Section), had a record of religious and charitable work as notable as her husband's, and both, during the Civil War, gave unstintingly of their time, strength and patriotism, leaving a rich inheritance of memories to their children. Amanda Davisson Miller, (See Page III-Davisson Section), wrote Marianne Davisson McCalla, (See Page III-Davisson Section), that Eliza Jane Davisson Hamill, (II-262), had been named for her Grandmother, "Elizabeth Williams" who married John Davisson. (See Page I-Davisson Section).

The MUST of DR. ROBERT C. HAMILL, MD:

For three generations a must of Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD, (Eliza Jane Davisson) (H-262 and Davisson 112), Founder of the Presbyterian Hospital, Chicago, had been an heirloom in the home of Rev. Albert McCalla, D.D., LL.D., F.R.S., (Eliza Jane Davisson) (H-125-6), of Chicago. This is a duplicate of the must that stands in the entrance of the Presbyterian Hospital, and another duplicate is in the possession of Mrs. Ernest A. Hamill, (Elise Souland Cornith) (H-262-5), of Chicago. When the McCallas gave up the old family home at 2316 Calumet Ave., Chicago, in January 1944, this must was given, for permanent safekeeping, to the Chicago Historical Society, in Lincoln Park, N. Clark & North Ave., Chicago - where it is on permanent display.

An Oil Portrait of Thomas ("Monast Tom") McCalla, (H-361 & Davisson 113), (Marianne Davisson), an early-day banker of Chicago, and a brother-in-law of Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD, was also given the Society for safekeeping and display, as was an interesting old leather trunk, marked "T. McCalla," which he brought from Chester, SC, to Bloomington, Ind, and to Chicago. The Society was also given copies of Blank Checks, Deposit books, etc., of the Bank of Commerce (Davisson McCalla & Co), of Chicago, of which Thomas McCalla was president, and of which the silent partner was Dr. Alfred William Davisson, MD, (Davisson 114), who was also a brother-in-law, and the Founder of Wash Medical College. Kinfolk desiring to see these heirlooms are welcome to view them at the Society's Museum. (The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65).

(Considering the Founding of the Presbyterian Hospital, Chicago, by Dr. Robt. C. Hamill, MD, assisted by Dr. Joseph F. Ross, MD, the following is of interest. It makes mention of Dr. Ross, and his descendants, so is included here, although the Ross family are NOT related to the Hamills.

(From: Chicago Tribune - 3/21/1941):

"Robert Edwin Ross. Funeral services for Robert Edwin Ross, retired Lawyer will be held at 2 PM Saturday at his home at 1325 Astor Street. Mr. Ross, who was the son of the late Dr. Joseph F. Ross, Co-Founder of the Presbyterian Hospital, died yesterday in his home at the age of 70. He was a life member of the Chicago Bar Assn, and for many years was a Trustee of the Fourth Presbyterian Church. He is survived by his wife, two sisters and a brother. Mr. Ross was graduated from Princeton University in 1895, and from Harvard Law School in 1899. He entered practice in Chicago the following year, and was active until his retirement several years ago."

Adam Bickett Hamill (H-253) wrote to some Hamill Kinsman on 1/4/1899:

".....In 1896, Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD (H-262) of Chicago, went to the South for his health, and was in Brownsville, Tenn. There he saw the graveyard with headstones bearing family names, including Nathaniel (?). Nathaniel (H-1) had married there, and raised a large family. Children all dead. Some-Grandchildren moved to Ainsworth, Iowa, 25 or 30 years ago."

(Compiler's Note: we are now trying to piece together the data about Family E (See Other Hamills Section-Family E), early members of which family are buried in Oakwood Cemetery in Brownsville, Tenn, and also buried in the burial ground at Big Spring, near Maryville (Daysville?), Blount County, Tenn. It is possible that these connect with the "4th Missing brother (Hamill)" written up as H-4. However, a list of many names of this family, (lists many names common to our Family A - but there is no Nathaniel so far discovered). (See Historical section-"Misc. Hamill Data"-Item #29) (See Other Hamills Section-Introduction to Family E).

More than 500,000 patients have received care in Presbyterian Hospital since it was Founded in 1823 as a not-for-profit institution "for the purpose of affording surgical and medical aid and nursing to sick and disabled persons of every creed, nationality and color." No one of these patients ever paid the full cost of the services he received. Generous men and women of yesterday, on a purely voluntary basis, built and equipped the hospital and have helped to maintain it. Their benefactions have been far-sighted investments in human welfare. The Board of Managers is confident that friends of humanity today will make similar investments to ease the burden of sickness and promote the further advancement of medical knowledge.

Sixty-seven years of Public Service through Private Initiative and Free Enterprise.

(From: Chicago Tribune-11/20/1949): "The Woman's Board of the Presbyterian Hospital which, in its quiet way, manages to collect over $40,000 each year for its many-faceted charity work, chooses the Thanksgiving season to give special thanks (in money) by a series of silver teas. To their guests bring "silver" (translated into greenbacks), listen to a stimulating talk, and have a good old fashioned tea party.

The silver teas are held in private homes, and the women of the various Presbyterian Churches and their friends attend them with zest. Last Monday's was held in the home of Mrs. Robert E. Ross by the Fourth Presbyterian Church Committee, with Mrs. Fred A. Poor and Mrs. Halford Littleman co-chairman of the afternoon. After a stirring talk by Dr. Franklin Bliss Snyder, President Emeritus of Northwestern University, and now President of the Board of Managers of the Presbyterian Hospital, the guests received their tea cups from the hands of Mrs. Ross' sister, Mrs. Joseph H. King, Mrs. Lawrence deGolyer, Mrs. Howell Briminger and Mrs. Edwin P. Dewar. Mrs. Ross' late father-in-law, Dr. Joseph P. Ross, was on the staff of Presbyterian Hospital from 1884, (?), the year it opened, until 1891, and he was President from 1886 to 1890.

Data Page on CHARLES DAVISSON HAMILL - SUSAN FRANCES WALBRIDGE:

Charles Davisson Hamill was born in Bloomington, Indiana, and came to Chicago with his Father's family in 1852. He became a Clerk in the Bank of Commerce, (Davisson, McCalla & Co) (See Data Page H-361-McCalla Genealogy), of which his Cousin, Thomas ("Honest Tom") McCalla, (H-361) was President, and of which his Uncle, Dr Alfred Williston Davisson, MD, (Davisson A-114), was a silent partner. Later, he became a Broker with James VanInwagen, and still later started business with the latter under the firm name of VanInwagen and Hamill, later known as Hamill & Congdon. This latter concern was said to have done the largest business of its day on the Chicago Board of Trade. In 1887 he retired, and his son, Robert Walbridge Hamill, (H-262-11) took over the firm, under the name of Charles D. Hamill & Co.

Charles Davisson Hamill was President of the Board of Trade in 1893. He was a strong promoter of Art and Musical interests, and was a Charter Member and Co-Founder of the Chicago Art Institute. One of his associate Charter Members was Mr Walter Cranston Larned, of Lake Forest, the father of J.I. Blair Larned, who became Suffragan Bishop (Episcopal) of New York City, and later became Bishop of the American Episcopal Church in Europe, with headquarters in Paris. Charles D. Hamill was also a Charter Member and Co-Founder of the Thomas Orchestra, now known as the Chicago Orchestra.

He married Fannie Walbridge, christened Susan Frances, daughter of Judge Henry Sanford Walbridge, who was born in Norwich, Conn, April 8, 1801, and died January 27, 1869, in Bergen Tunnel, N.Y. He married July 20, 1836, Fannie Thompson, who was born Feby 21, 1811 in Stillwater, N.Y., and died July 12, 1862, the daughter of William Thompson and Mary Hawkins.

Judge Walbridge was a Whig member of Congress from 1851 to 1854. He was the son of Gustavus Walbridge, born in Norwich, Conn, October 4, 1755, and died in Syracuse, NY, September 23, 1828, who served in the Revolution. His Wife, who he married May 23, 1790, was Anna Sanford.

Gustavus Walbridge was the son of Ebenezer, born May 15, 1705, in Norwich. He married the widow of Ezra Hyde (Elizabeth Leffingwell), a member of one of the proudest New England families. Elizabeth was the daughter of Capt. John Leffingwell, who was born in Norwich, Feby 2, 1693, and married December 26, 1710, Sarah Abel, daughter of Joshua Abel and his wife, Bethia Gager, the Granddaughter of Dr William Gager, who came to America in 1630 and was described as "a skilful Surgeon and a right godly man."

Capt. Leffingwell was the son of Sergt. Thomas, who was born in Connecticut August 27, 1649, and died in Norwich in 1723. His Wife was Mary Bushnell, daughter of Richard, who came to the Colonies in 1636 and married Mary Marvin, daughter of Matthew Marvin. Sergt. Leffingwell was the son of Lieut. Thomas Leffingwell, Gentleman, who came to Connecticut in 1637 and became a Royal Commissioner. Lieut. Leffingwell married Mary White, who tradition states, was the daughter of an Indian Chief.

Ebenezer Walbridge's father was Henry Walbridge, thought to have come from Dorsetshire, England, to America, where he married, at Preston, Conn, Anna Ames.

Charles D. Hamill, (H-262-1) had eight children, two of whom - Henry W. and Frank T., died young. Robert W, (H-262-11) married Katherine B. Lyon and had Katherine; Emily, who married Fifield Workum, and had a son named Robert Hamill (H-262-113-1); Frances (H-262-114), and Robert L. (H-262-111) who married Katherine Porter and had Katherine (H-262-111-1) and Dan (??-should be Ann (H-262-111-2)).

Fanny, (H-262-12), daughter of Charles D. Hamill, married Edward J. Phelps and had Charlotte (H-262-121) (now Mrs Parker Dodge with 7 children, John, (Frances, Charles, Austin, Marjorie, David and Eleanor); Susan (H-262-122) who married William Zimmerman and had William, Elizabeth and Edward P; Katherine (H-262-123) and Elizabeth (H-262-124), who died young, and a son, Austin (H-262-125) who is to be married this week in California. Another son, Paul, (H-262-16) married Sarah Culbertson, and had Virginia, (H-262-161) who married Lincoln Johnson; and there are also Charles H. (H-262-14) who married Kathleen McDonald Mather-Smith; Lawrence, (H-262-18) who married Madeline Henderson, and Philip, (H-262-17) who married Marjorie Streeter and had

"ROBERT W. HAMILL - Robert Walbridge Hamill, 79 years old, retired President of The Lyon Company, died yesterday after a long illness, in his Hinsdale home. A member of the Class of 1884 at Yale University, Mr Hamill was a Charter Member of the University Club. He is survived by his Widow, Katharine Lyon Hamill, a son, Robert Lyon Hamill, and two daughters, Miss Katharine and Miss Frances Hamill, and Mrs Fifield Workum. Mr Hamill's brother, the late Charles D. (??? should be H.) Hamill, at one time was President of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Burial will be private."

(From: Chicago Sun-2/14/1946):

"Mrs Robert W. Hamill Starts on Family Tour. Escorted by Nancy (??) Hamill, her Ex-Marine Lieutenant Granddaughter, Mrs Robert W. Hamill of Hinsdale, set out on a sentimental mission the other day. She went to Cedarhurst, Long Island, NY, to meet her first Great-Grandchild, John F. Garde, III, (H-262-111-11), and to visit his Parents, Mr and Mrs Garde, Jr, and their Parents, Mr & Mrs Robert Lyon Hamill, at their homes there. While she is at it, she will do some more visiting in the East, the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs Fifield Workum of Bedford, NY, being her next stop. Frances H. Hamill, (H-262-114), another daughter, is putting in a few unaccustomed days of leisure at the family home in Hinsdale. At the outbreak of War, she and her partner, Marjorie Barker, packed up the stock of their rare book shop, and closed its doors. Miss Hamill went to work in the Electro-Motive war factory, guiding her life by a time-clock until after V-J day. Now she and her partner are about to sign a lease, acquired after 5 months of search, on new quarters on (230 1/2 North) Michigan Ave for their shop. They hope to be installed in it by the first of May (1946)."

"ANN PORTER HAMILL TO GO ON AUG. 30 at CEDARHURST, LONG ISLAND, N.Y. (with Robert L. Kochne, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Kochne, Jr., of Indianapolis). If she feels up to it, Mr. Robert L. Hamill of Hinsdale, will be travelling East again the end of next month. She returned not long ago from a 3-month visit with various children, grand children, and one great-grandchild...and the reason she may go back again so soon is the forthcoming wedding of her granddaughter, Anne Porter Hamill. Anne, who has visited her periodically, is engaged to John Lawrence Kochne, Jr., of Indianapolis. They plan to be married Aug. 30 at Cedarhurst, Long Island, the home of her parents, the Robert Lyon Hamills. Both the prospective bride and bridegroom have service records. Anne spent two and a half years in the Marines, leaving the corps a lieutenant. Her fiancé was in the Army . . . and in France and Germany for 18 months. Released in April, he's now planning to return to Yale for his senior year. He is a graduate of Deerfield Academy, and the son of Mr and Mrs John L. Kochne of Indianapolis. Anne had her schooling at Farmington and Bennington College, and made her debut at New York's Junior Assenbly in 1941. Three of her Hamill aunts will be on hand for the wedding. Frances Hamill(H-262-114) is going East from Hinsdale, and both of her sisters live nearby - Katharine(H-262-111-1), who writes for Fortune Magazine, in New York (with Summers in Cornish, NH), and Mrs Eifield Workman(H-262-113) in Bedford, NY."

(From: Chicago Tribune-8/30/1946):

"ROBERT LYON HAMILL, JR. Robert Lyon Hamill, Jr(H-262-111-4), who will be 6 years old today, is of necessity foregoing a birthday celebration, today at least for his sister, Miss Ann Porter Hamill, and John Lawrence Kochne, Jr, will be married this afternoon in the Cedarhurst, NY, home of the bride's parents Mr and Mrs Hamill(H-262-111), and young Robert is to carry the ring. The bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs John F. Garde, Jr, (H-262-111-1) as matron of honor, and another sister, Miss Joan Hamill(H-262-111-3) will be a bridesmaid. The Gardes and their baby son are living with the Hamills while their own home is a-building. Two of the bride's aunts, Mrs Eifield Workman(H-262-113) of Bedford, NY, and Miss Katharine Hamill(H-262-112) of New York City, will be present for the ceremony, but another aunt, Miss Frances Hamill(H-262-114), and her mother, Mrs Robert W. Hamill(H-262-11) of Hinsdale, did not go East. Mrs Hamill, Sr, recently returned from spending the Summer in the East, and Miss Frances Hamill(H-262-114) is occupied this week-end with moving into the new quarters of the bookshop which she and Miss Larjorie Barker of Michigan City, Ind, conduct. They gave up the shop during the war years to engage in war work, and now are reopening at 6 N. Michigan Ave, with a stock of rare books and prints. Mr Kochne, son of Mr and Mrs Kochne of Lawrence, NY, and his bride, will go to Bermuda on their wedding trip. They will live in New Haven, Conn, while he continues his studies at Yale University."

(From: Chicago Tribune-3/2/1955-"The Literary Spotlight" by Fanny Butcher):

"What are old books worth, A note from another bookseller, "Doll" Hamill, of Hamill & Barker, who deal in rare books, enclosed a pamphlet issued by the Antiquarian Bookseller's Association of America in which Frances Hamill and Margery Barker are active members.....The pamphlet is on "Books and Their Values" and answers many questions on selling old books, about which this department is asked almost daily. Chief among these questions is one about how much an old family Bible might be sold for. It is always hard to convince the questioner that, priceless as are its contents of nourishment for the spirit, and however great its sentimental value, it probably has no salable value, and no rare book dealer would consider it a treasure....."

(From: Chicago Tribune-3/7/1954): ".....That the first woman ever elected to the Presidency of the august Antiquarian Bookseller's Association of America is Chicago's own Frances Hamill....."

(From: Chicago Tribune-3/11/1954-"Front Views & Profiles" column, by Lucy (Key Hiller): "Bibliophilia". Among the first editions and rarities on their book shelves, Marjorie Barker and Frances Hamill can find at a moment's notice, a manuscript fragment of a poem by John Keats, a magnificently bound "Rubaiyat", or a presentation copy of a Willa Cather novel. Currier & Ives prints adorn the walls of their skyscraper shop at 230 N. Michigan Avenue.

Despite the temptation forever present, neither has succumbed to the collecting fever. Their bibliophilia is restricted to tracking down rare books for others to buy. This interesting quest takes them abroad almost annually - into ancient, dusty corners in England and France where unexpected treasures still turn up, now and then. One of these may be a Dickens novel, in its original parts, or a "sleeper" - like Vol. XIII of the old magazine, "The Annals of Sporting." This was found in a bundle of old papers, and brought more than 50 times its purchase price.

Teamwork: The firm of Hamill & Barker celebrated its 25th anniversary not long ago, with its most important sale - a set of letters written by the signers of the Declaration of Independence. This important transaction made not a ripple in the book world - because two women can keep a secret. The team is efficient, with Miss Barker furnishing the imagination (or so her partner claims) and Miss Hamill the practical approach to the business of dealing in rare books. They met while both were working in Fanny Butcher's bookshop, and when this was sold, in 1928, the two formed their own concern.

The only antiquarian touch to either Frances Hamill or Marjorie Barker is the venerable quality of their collector's items - and Miss Hamill's new position as President of the Antiquarian Bookseller's Association. This is the first time in the history of the organization, composed of dealers in rare, used or second-hand books, that a member from the midwest has been asked to head it.

Madam President: One broadminded man wrote her, "I'm glad they chose you because you are a woman!" "That was a compliment, I guess," smiles Frances. "Even tho he never mentioned the word ability!" "Madam President" plans to head an American delegation to the International League of Antiquarian Bookseller's meeting in Vienna next September. The representatives from 13 countries gathered there will share one thing in common - a love of books."

(From: Chicago Tribune-2/5/1956-Magazine of Books-"The Literary Spotlight" (by Fanny Butcher): "Among the papers of the Bibliographical Society of America there is a new one written by Chicago's Frances Hamill, who has just turned over the Presidency of the Antiquarian Bookseller's Association of America.....If you think such a paper of interest only to book collectors, you couldn't be more wrong.....Hers contains fascinating and often new data about "Some Unconventional Women Before 1800: Printers, Booksellers and Collectors".....The very title is intriguing, for you might think that before 1800, women were very little interested in such activities.

(SEE OTHER SIDE).

Frances Hamill has discovered otherwise, and some of the things she found out may surprise you. She immediately catches your interest: "My scope is from the Oriental Empress who mass-printed to save her soul, to Mary Catherine Goddard, whose name boldly appears on the official copy of the Declaration of Independence."

That Empress was Shiyau-toku.....In 735 the scholar Kibi-no-maki, the inventor of Japanese script, became the tutor of the Empress, who was very devout, and Miss Hamill suggests that "he must have shown her the way to spread her faith, for in the middle of the century she issued an edict that every house in the realm should be provided with a manuscript copy of the Classic of Filial Piety, the Confucian primer of morality. Printing is believed to have stemmed from the Buddhist monasteries of China during the seventh century," Miss Hamill continues, "but the earliest well-defined block print extant dates from 770 A.D. and was executed by the pious Empress..... According to the Buddhist teaching, the placing of charms within pagodas could lengthen life and bring Paradise closer.....The Empress of Japan ordered a million copies of such religious charms to be printed on strips of paper, rolled, and placed under the spires of miniature three storied wooden pagodas distributed to the Buddhist temples and monasteries of Japan."

The printing was in the Sanskrit language, in Chinese characters. The Empress died in 770 while the pagodas were being distributed. "We hope that she found her place in Paradise," adds Miss Hamill. "Certainly the million dharanis obtained for her an honored place in the history of printing." And if you wonder what that first example of printing looks like you have only to go to the Library of Congress.

These Women Were First. The first woman publisher in the Western world is believed to have been Mme. Vom Stege, wife of a Belgian imprisoned for writing a satire against the city of Cologne.....That was in 1477.....The earliest recorded woman printer was Anna Rugerin of Augsburg, who published two books in 1484, according to Miss Hamill.

Several centuries before Jean Grollier, a Benedictine Nun, Hroswitha of Saxony, collected books, was a diligent student of them, and herself wrote six plays in Latin - Comedies (surprisingly) on the lives of the Saints, says Miss Hamill.....They were later discovered by Germany's first poet laureate, Conrad Celtes, and edited by him for publication in Nuernberg in 1501.

A Woman Stood Behind Caxton. The first book printed in English was ~~###~~ "Recuyell of the Historyes of Troye," printed in Bruges by William Caxton.... Whether he would have been known as the father of English printing without the help of Margaret, Duchess of Burgundy, nobody will ever know, but Frances Hamill says it was because he mentioned to her his unfinished translation of Lefevre's history of Troy and she encouraged him to finish the translation into English that that memorable book printed in English came to be. "To avoid transcribing the works for friends and patrons and spurred on by Margaret, Caxton studied the art of printing at Cologne and with the aid of Colard Mansion produced the first book printed in English."

These are a few of many interesting spotlights on the part which women played in the printing, the writing, and the collecting of books centuries ago."

"Charles Humphrey Hamill. Services for Charles Humphrey Hamill, prominent Chicago attorney, will be held at 3 PM today in the Graceland cemetery Chapel. Mr Hamill, long prominent in civic affairs, died Sunday in Presbyterian Hospital of a cerebral hemorrhage. He was 73 years old and lived at 179 Lake Shore Drive. His widow, Kathleen McDonald Mather-Smith Hamill, survives. The Chicago Bar Association will be represented at the services by a committee of its members.

(Chicago Daily News-8/12/1941):

"City's Notables at Funeral for Charles Hamill. Funeral services were held this afternoon in the Graceland Cemetery Chapel for Charles H. Hamill, prominent attorney and civic leader, who died Sunday in Presbyterian Hospital at 73 years.

Many of the city's leading attorneys and businessmen were among the honorary pallbearers, or comprised a special committee appointed by the Chicago Bar Assn. Mr Hamill, Yale graduate, where he was admitted to Phi Beta Kappa, received his law degree at Northwestern University in 1893, and by 1898 had formed a partnership with Charles S. Deneen, which continued until Deneen became Governor of Illinois in 1905. In 1906 Mr Hamill and Lessing Rosenthal formed the firm of Rosenthal & Hamill, which subsequently became Rosenthal, Hamill, Eldridge & King. From 1905 to 1909, Mr Hamill was attorney for the Illinois Insurance Department.

He was one-time president of the 2nd ward Republican Club, an active member of the 1920 Illinois Constitutional Convention, former president of the Law Club of Chicago and Chicago's Yale Club, a Director of the United Charities, honorary president of the Orchestral Association, and member of the Presbyterian Hospital Board. His widow, Kathleen McDonald Mather-Smith Hamill, survives."

(From: Chicago Tribune-8/11/1941):

"Charles Hamill, Outstanding as Lawyer, is Dead. Took an Active Roll in Civic Affairs. Charles Humphrey Hamill, one of Chicago's most prominent attorneys and an active figure in civic affairs, died yesterday in Presbyterian Hospital, of a cerebral hemorrhage, suffered last Monday after he had gone to the hospital for observation. He was born in Chicago 73 years ago, and lived at 179 Lake Shore Drive. Mr Hamill was the son of Charles D. & Susan Fannie Walbridge Hamill, both prominent Chicagoans. The elder Hamill was at one time president of the Board of Trade, and was a founder of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

A Graduate of Yale. Mr Hamill was graduated from Yale University and elected to Phi Beta Kappa in 1890. In 1893 he was awarded his LL.B. from the Northwestern University Law School. He began legal practice with the firm of Williams, Holt & Wheeler, and in 1897 formed a partnership with J.D. Hubbard. In June 1898, he became a law partner of the late Senator Charles S. Deneen, an association which continued until Deneen became Governor of Illinois in 1905. In 1906 Mr Hamill and Lessing Rosenthal formed the firm of Rosenthal and Hamill, now Rosenthal, Hamill, Eldridge & King, and in recent years Mr Hamill has served as counsel for that firm. From 1905 to 1909 he was attorney for the State Insurance Department. He was president of the 2nd ward Republican Club from 1906 to 1910, and was for years prominent in Republican politics. He was active also in the Illinois constitutional Convention of 1920; was president of the Law Club of Chicago in 1919-20; was a member of the American, Illinois State, and Chicago Bar Associations and of the American Society of International Law. He headed the Chicago Yale Club in 1908-09.

Data Page on ANNA HAMILL CLARK - WILLIAM STANTON MONROE.

Anna Hamill Clark Monroe was a Religious Leader, Philanthropist and Humanitarian. Early in life she dropped the "Dickinson" in her name, and substituted the name "Hamill," thus preferring the name "Anna Hamill Clark." After the death of her parents, she was adopted by her Uncle, Ernest A. Hamill, (H-262-5), of Chicago.

Anna was very active on many Charitable Boards, and was a founder or leader in many movements for woman's betterment. She was head of the Woman's Division of the Salvation Army, and her funeral services were conducted by the Salvation Army. She was a Founder and former President of the Illinois Society for Mental Hygiene. For many years following 1900, she was President of the Home for Self-Supporting Women, now the Domestic Science Dept. of N.W. University. In the early 1900's she was a leader in the Woman's Suffrage Movement, and led its 1916 parade. She also helped organize the Allied Arts.

Anna was President of the Women's Board of the Chicago Historical Society, Treasurer of the Chicago Woman's Club, President of the Musical Guild, and President of the Needlework Guild.

William Stanton Monroe is the Son of Mr _____ Monroe, who was in the _____ business, who lived in (Town-State) _____, and his wife (Maiden Name) _____ (Monroe). William graduated in the year _____ with the _____ Degree, from _____ College, located in (Town-State) _____. He received the additional Degree of _____ in the year _____ from _____ College, located in (Town-State) _____.

William is a Lawyer, and also an Electrical Engineer. For many years (_____ to _____) he was President of the large Electrical Engineering firm of Sargent & Lundy, who were Engineers for the Commonwealth Edison Co, and affiliated companies; of the large Insull electrical interests. Their office was originally at 72 West Adams St, Chicago, in the Edison Bldg. Later their office was located at 105 So. LaSalle St, and now (9/21/1947) at 140 So. Dearborn St, in the Marquette Bldg, which has been purchased by the Edison interests. He and his firm designed the enormous electrical development, including generating stations, transmission lines, etc, of the Commonwealth Edison Co, and its affiliates. This is the largest Electric Power Pool in the world, and covers the Chicago and Northern Illinois-Indiana district, with large generating stations and power lines as far South as Springfield, and Joliet, Ill.

William's sister is Mrs William Calhoun, (Lucy Monroe), wife of the former Ambassador to China. The Calhouns maintain a beautiful home in Peking, China. There, until the Japanese war engulfed China in World War II, their home was a center of American Culture. Mrs Calhoun was noted for her efforts in promoting Chinese cultural relations, and for her help to Chinese Christians suffering from the Japanese invasion. Another sister was Miss Harriet Monroe, who was noted as a Poetess, and was the Founder of "Poetry Magazine."

Mr-Mrs William Stanton Monroe lived for many years at 62 East Erie St, Chicago, Ill - moving (_____) to 64 East Elm St, which was their home at the time of Mrs Monroe's death. Here their home was the center of Religious, Philanthropical and Civic activities, as well as a hospitable

(From: Chicago Daily News-5/22/1944):

"Mrs. Monroe, 75, Died; Noted Here as Civic Leader. Mrs. Anna Hamill Monroe, 75, for nearly half a century a leader in Civic and Charitable works in Chicago, died today in Passavant Hospital. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made. The daughter and granddaughter of early Chicago doctors, Mrs. Monroe was born here April 19, 1869. In 1898 she was wed to William S. Monroe, engineer and attorney. Their son Henry is a Navy lieutenant.

Mrs. Monroe was a leader in the woman's suffrage movement of the early 1900's, and participated in the great parade of 1916. In 1900 she was president of the Home for Self-Supporting Women, later part of the School of Domestic Arts & Sciences, now the Domestic Science Department of Northwestern University.

She was an officer of the Chicago Historical Society, the Chicago Women's Club, the Musical Guild, the Needlework Guild of America, and a founder and president of the Illinois Society for Mental Hygiene. and warm pink roses they had spent, many of them for a quarter of a century, every New Year's afternoon, for the Monroes' New Year's day evening party was one of Chicago's social traditions. They must have had memories of the tall, dignified figure of Mrs Monroe, and the small, ardent-eyed poet, Harriet Monroe, her sister-in-law, welcoming Chicago's social and artistic elect as they looked at the new small group of Mr Monroe, his son Henry, and his sister, Mrs William Calhoun. Every one who went to China in the days when the fortunate could flit about the earth visited "Lucy Calhoun" in her lovely home there, which the war forced her to leave.

Mrs Monroe was a Hamill before her marriage, and two generations of that well-known and greatly respected family were present at the services as were many from the small community of Wayne, where the Monroes have a hospitable farm, and where they have been greatly responsible for the popularity of the countryside as homesites for the lovers of the outdoors. While the service flag with one star rattled at the windows, Henry Monroe, for whom it flew, a tall lieutenant in Uncle Sam's Navy, stood beside his Father, a symbol of today; linking yesterday with what his Mother had helped work for, a better tomorrow.

Mrs. William J. Calhoun to Sail from China Friday; Plans October Visit Here. Sister of Mrs. William Stanton Monroe. Flying over to reach Shanghai, Vacation Trip Deplete Lake Forest Population. By June Parsons.

After cancelling her passage on two earlier boats this summer, Mrs. William J. Calhoun is now definitely scheduled to sail from China on Friday. She is coming to this country aboard the United States liner President Coolidge, and will be met at San Francisco by her brother and sister-in-law, the Wm. Stanton Monroes of Chicago. The three will return here in early October.

Devoted as she is to her relatives and friends here, Mrs. Calhoun always leaves her ancient temple-home in Peking with reluctance - and in these times with the question of when she will be able to return. The State Department would like to see her remain in this country. But 10 Ma-Ta-Jen Hutung, Peking, has been her home for three decades, and she does not propose to change her address now. Her letters to the Monroes refer to this trip as only a "visit," and after spending the winter with them, she wants to return to the Orient. During the Taft administration, her husband served as United States Minister to China, and she has become so fond of the country and its people, she returned there to live after his death. She has leased 10 Ma-Ta-Jen Hutung to some French friends for the winter.

The Monroes leave in several weeks on a motor trip through Colorado and the Rocky Mountains en route to San Francisco. They plan to make a leisure and scenic return with Mrs. Calhoun. During October the three will be at White Gates Farm, the Monroe's Summer Home at Waukegan, (Illinois), and will move into town around November 1.

Henry Monroes in Lead. Henry Monroe and his wife left Saturday for the West and young Mrs. Monroe's first mountain-climbing expedition. They plan to scale Long's Peak in Rocky Mountain National Park (Henry Monroe has done it at least 16 times to date) and also to take a four-day mule pack trip through some of that rugged country. They may also pay a visit to Santa Fe. (Compiler's Note: Mrs. Wm. J. Calhoun is a sister of Mr. Wm. S. Monroe)

Dedicate Room in Salvation Army Hospital Thursday. The newly decorated and refurnished living room at the Salvation Army's Booth Memorial Hospital at 5040 North Pulaski Road, will be dedicated in memory of Mrs. William S. Monroe Thursday. Some 100 new members of the Women's Board of the Army and friends of the late Mrs. Monroe will gather there for a brief service and tea at 4:30 o'clock that afternoon. The redecoration project was managed by Mrs. Samuel-James Campbell, 1850 N. State Parkway, who will preside.

Mr. Monroe is to be present at the gathering to receive with Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Charles S. Clark, Mrs. Monroe's successor as President of the Board, and Norman S. Marshall, Salvation Army Commissioner, and Mrs. Marshall. Mrs. Clark is in California, but expects to return in time for the dedication. Active in Civic and Charitable affairs in Chicago for 40 years, Mrs. Monroe died four years ago. She was President of the Women's Board of the Salvation Army from 1935 to 1943, and had served on it from the time it was organized in 1929.

(From: Chicago Tribune (New Year's Day)-1/1/1949 (Society Column): "Many families will exchange New Year's Greetings today (by Judith Cass). - Happy New Year. . . The customary greetings will be exchanged with varying degrees of vigor today, depending on how gayly friends celebrated 1948's arrival last night. Two long time New Year's Day receptions will be continued this year, one in Chicago in the home of William Stanton Monroe, who will be receiving friends for the 36th consecutive time in his Elm St. residence. On hand to welcome guests between 4 and 7 PM will be his son, Henry S. Monroe, and his wife and their three children."

(From: Chicago Daily News-9/30/1948): "Birthday Party. William S. Monroe who was in the East at the time of his 80th birthday this summer, will be celebrating in Winnetka on Saturday, Oct 9, (1948). His only son and daughter-in-law, the Henry S. Monroes, have asked members of the family and a large group of the octogenarian's friends for an "at home" from 5 till 7 that afternoon. Since Monroe sold his White Gate Farm in Wayne a few years ago, the senior Mr Monroe and his sister, Mrs Lucy Calhoun, have been city dwellers, punctuating their years with frequent trips. This summer they spent travelling between Greenfield, Mass, Cape Cod and New Hampshire vacation spots."

(From: Chicago Tribune-1/1/1949): "It's A Happy New Year! Greetings to Ring Out at Open Houses (by Judith Cass). - Happy New Year. The pleasant custom of exchanging New Year greetings at open house gatherings will be repeated today thruout the city and suburbs, with most of the parties - fortunately for those who celebrated the arrival of 1949 until well past midnight - scheduled for late afternoon."

(SEE OTHER SIDE).

"One traditional open house being continued will be that in the old East Elm Street home of William S. Monro, where gay greetings have rung out on more than 35 consecutive New Year days. Mr. Monro and his sister, Mrs. J. Calhoun, formerly of Peiping, China, will receive guests from 4 until 7 PM. It will be the last open house party for Mr. Monro's 3 year old granddaughter, Miss Monro, who will come into town with her parents, the Henry S. Monroes of Winnetka, and her 5-year old sister, Ann, who will be attending the party for the third time.

The Kent S. Clows, (H-232-55) will hold their annual eggnog party at home in Lake Forest at noon today, and the Henry Rowleys also will open their Lake Forest home for their yearly milk punch party from noon until 2 PM."

(From: Chicago Tribune-1/8/1950): "A tradition of almost half a century was broken when William S. Monroe and his sister, Mrs William S. Calhoun, did not have their annual New Year's afternoon party, but the New Year's party which Mr and Mrs John R. Winterbotham give, is now a tradition. There one meets not only the very rapidly dwindling members of "old Chicago" society who always gathered at the Monroe's, but the smart new younger set and the visiting great."

DEATH NOTICE: (Mrs Wm. J. Calhoun was the Sister of Mr Wm. Stanton Monroe):

(From: Chicago Daily News-2/6/1950): "Mrs William J. Calhoun, Services for Mrs William J. Calhoun, 85, member of a prominent Chicago family, and sister of the late Harriet Monroe, Founder of "Poetry Magazine", will be held at 2 PM today in the Chapel of St. Chrysostom's Church, 1424 N. Dearborn St. The burial service at Graceland Cemetery will be private. Mrs Calhoun died Tuesday (9/5/1950). Since her return to Chicago from China in 1941, she had resided at 64 E. Elm St. Mrs Calhoun, widow of William J, US Minister to China who died in 1916, had lived in Peking since 1922. Survivors include a brother, William (S) Monroe, and a Nephew, John W. Root, of Holabird, Root & Burgee, Architects."

(COMPILER'S NOTE: Miss Harriet Monroe, Founder of "Poetry Magazine" and a noted Poetess, was also a Sister of Mr William Stanton Monroe:

(From: Chicago Tribune-10/31/1951): "Peruvians Pay Harriet Monroe Honor at Grave. Educators and Officials Hail Poetess. Lima, Peru-Oct 20(1951)- - United States Embassy officials, Peruvian educators and officials, and Bolivian students, paid homage at the grave in Arequipa of Harriet Monroe, Poetess Founder of "Poetry Magazine", and one time Art Editor of the Chicago Tribune, in the 15th anniversary of her death in Arequipa. Born in 1860, in Chicago, Miss Monroe served as Art critic for The Tribune in the first decade of the century. Her work as a poetess first became widely known when she wrote an "Ode for Columbus" for the Chicago Exposition of 1893, and was one of the first to acclaim such modern artists as Picasso. Always a booster of Chicago she felt that it should contribute more to the culture of the United States. As a result she published the first issue of "Poetry Magazine" in 1912, printing the poems of Edgar Lee Masters, Carl Sandburg, Vachel Lindsay, Sherwood Anderson, Robert Frost, James Joyce, T.S. Eliot and others."

Traveled Thru Andes: In 1936 Miss Monroe was invited to attend the International Pen Conference in Buenos Aires and, returning home, decided to stop in Peru to see Cuzco and the Andes. Arriving by boat at the Arequipa seaport of Mollendo, she travelled by train thru the Andes as far as the town of Juliaca, where feeling ill, she returned to Arequipa. Several days later she was found unconscious in a room at the famous Quinta Batos and was transferred to a clinic, where she died of a cerebral hemorrhage. She was buried in a crypt in Arequipa which bears the inscription: "Harriet Monroe - Poet - Friend of Poets."

Speak at Grave. Led by Gilbert Chase, cultural attache at the United States Embassy in Lima, 30 American, Peruvian and Bolivian dignitaries made a pilgrimage to Miss Monroe's grave, where Chase and Alberto Fuentes, Rector of the University of Arequipa, made brief speeches and placed wreaths on the grave. The same evening a commemorative program for Miss Monroe was held at the University of Arequipa, where Chase spoke on "Harriet Monroe and the Poetry Renaissance in the United States."

(From: Chicago Tribune-3/22/1952): "Society Notebook: William S. Monroe will celebrate his 84th birthday at a small dinner in his Elm St. home tonight. Miss Polly Collier, his niece, and Mrs Patrick Egan will be present. His son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Henry Monroe, will remain in Long Lake, (SEE OTHER SIDE), (8/31/1952

ABOUT MR-MRS WILLIAM J. CALHOUN:

(COMPILER'S NOTE: Mrs Wm. J. Calhoun, (Lucy Monroe), was a Sister of Mr William Stanton Monroe. Mr Calhoun was for many years Ambassador to China, and he and his wife maintained a large and beautiful home in Peking, China.

The "When Chicago Was Young" Column, by Miss Herma Clark, appearing in The Chicago Tribune appears in the form of imaginary letters, detailing interesting information about various early-day families of Chicago, and their accomplishments and activities. The following imaginary letter appeared in The Chicago Tribune of 3/16/1958:

"(Letters from Martha Freeman Esmond to her friend, Julia Boyd of New York) Chicago, March 10th, 1910. Dear Julia: We (Will and I) have been calling this afternoon on some neighbors, ending by a real visit with Mr and Mrs William J. Calhoun, who are staying at the James B. Waller's home near us. The Calhouns are leaving tonight for China, to which country Mr Calhoun has been appointed Minister. Will is devoted to Mr C., who is a fine lawyer and a real statesman, he thinks. Appointed last December (1909) he was allowed time to attend to his affairs before leaving Chicago.

The new Minister to China is a handsome, dignified man of perhaps 60 years an impressive and delightful orator and after-dinner speaker. Mrs Calhoun is one of Chicago's charming hostesses. So they are well equipped to cope with the duties that will come to them in our diplomatic service. They have been staying with the Wallers because they've rented their own home on Erie Street.

I learned something of their new home. It's one of the finest Legations in Peking, having been built only recently. It stands, Mrs Calhoun told us, near the site of the old Legation, which was destroyed in the days of the terrible Boxer rebellion. It is in a compound, surrounded by a high stone wall, which encloses a garden, the Legation itself, the office buildings and barracks, and, I think, some other buildings. The Legation guard consists of 150 Marines. Besides these, there are Secretaries, clerks and assistants of all kinds, who live in the compound, so it is like a bit of America set down in China. Friends have written Mrs Calhoun that the residence is charming, as well as comfortable.

Built in colonial style, its entrance hall is of immense proportions, 44 by 36 feet, she told us. On one side of the hall is the large drawing room; on the other side, a Library. The dining room is of heroic proportions, 44 by 26 feet. It will need to be large, of course, since they will do much entertaining. Luckily, there is no lack of servants in China and they can be had for much less than we pay here. I asked Miss Carolyn Kirkland, their close friend, if the residence was furnished. Miss Kirkland has learned a great deal about their new home, as she now is writing a Society Column for The Tribune, over the signature "Madame X." Miss Kirkland was able to answer this question.

It is furnished beautifully, but, for some reason, the Calhouns are to furnish the flat silver and all the linens. And the flat silver must be supplied in sets of two dozen, instead of the traditional dozen. For state banquets, the tablecloth must be of a quality and of dimensions of a certain standard with the United States Coat of Arms embroidered on it, together with Minister Calhoun's initials, W. J. C. Miss Kirkland says there are many Chicagoans who have declared their intention to visit China, now that the delightful Calhouns are to be representatives of our country there. But trust Lucy Monroe Calhoun to be the perfect hostess.

She and her sisters, Harriet Monroe and Mrs John W. Root, with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr and Mrs William S. Monroe, (H-262-21), have a great reputation for hospitality. Always, at the Monroe home on Elm St, there is a jolly New Year's day party. We usually attend that. Aren't you glad that winter is nearly over? I am. 'O, Wind, if winter comes, can Spring be far behind?' Ever with love, Your old school friend, Martha Freeman Esmond." (Foot Notes): William J. Calhoun died in Chicago in 1916. Mrs Calhoun died in 1950."

(From: Chicago Tribune-10/17/1942): "H. S. Monroe was appointed Industrial Sales Manager for the Bell & Howell Co., Chicago producer of motion picture equipment, said J. H. McComb, President."

(From: Chicago Daily News-7/2/1943): "Henry Monroe says: The Henry Monroes are new suburbanites. The last year-end of furnishings from their Oldline Ave apartment was transferred Wednesday to Winnetka eight years, almost to a day, after their wedding. The anniversary, which they'd ordinarily be celebrating on Saturday, July 3, (1943) will be combined with a party they're planning in mid-July for Mrs. Monroe's brother, Robert F. Webster, and his bride, the former Julia Matherson, of Springfield, Ill. It will be in the nature of a housewarming, too. Yet the first party at which they are host and hostess in their new home won't be the first they've attended there. The Websters entertained in mid-May for the new owners of the house at a tea to meet their neighbors. The Kings have taken a house in Evanston, but are at their McHenry farm for the summer."

Data from on RALPH C. HAMILL, JR. JANET BROWN.

(From: Chicago Tribune-3/22/1943):

"Janet Brown is engaged to Lt. Hamill, Jr. from Ocean Springs, Miss, where the William Bruce Browns of Wheaton and their daughter, Ruth, are vacationing at their winter home, on the occasion of the engagement of another of the Brown's daughters, Janet, to Lt. Ralph C. Hamill, Jr. No party is being given to announce the engagement, as Miss Brown is in Northampton, Mass., completing her senior year at Smith College, and Lt. Hamill is in Camp Hale, Colo., with the Army Ski Troops. Miss Brown attended Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Conn., before entering Smith. She made her debut at a tea at home during the 1939 season. Her fiance, son of Dr and Mrs Hamill of Winnetka, was graduated from Milton Academy and from Harvard University, class of 1938. While part of their family is in Mississippi, the Keith Browns and Lt. and Mrs. Gardner Brown are remaining in Lake Forest. Lt Brown is on duty here with the Navy, and his brother is connected with Army Ordnance in a civilian capacity. They have a 3rd sister, Mrs Dudley F. Jessopp of Highland Park. Lt. Hamill is a brother of Hunt Hamill, on active duty with the Navy, and of Mrs Hamill McEwen.

(From: Chicago Daily News-7/22/1941):

"Ralph Hamill, Jr, 25, 686 Spruce St, Winnetka, also reported at Board 3. A student at Lake Law School, and son of Dr Ralph Hamill, prominent physician, Ralph, who will drop the "Jr" in his name under Army regulations."

(From: Chicago Daily News-4/16/1943):

"Lt Ralph Hamill and Janet Brown will wed May 22. Only Lt. Hunt Hamill will be missing from the family circle surrounding Janet Brown and Lt. Ralph C. Hamill, Jr, when they repeat their marriage vows on May 22. On sea duty in the Pacific, he will have to rely upon the mail for details of his brother's wedding. Much the same thing happened last August, when he was married to Jean Bacon Hume. Army duties kept Lt. Hamill, Jr, from leaving Mississippi, where his outfit then was stationed, for the ceremony. For his own wedding, next month's bridegroom is getting only a short leave. He will arrive from Camp Hale, Colo, just a day in advance of the ceremony. Ruth Brown, the bride's sister, also will make a hurried trip from Kessler Field, Miss. She is deserting her post in the Quartermaster's Dept. only long enough to travel here and be maid of honor at the wedding. Original plans were to have the 4-o'clock service in Highland Park, at the home of the bride's eldest sister, Mrs Dudley F. Jessopp (Elizabeth Brown) and Mrs Jessopp. Instead, it will take place at the Lake Forest home of their Uncle and Aunt, the Robert A. Gardners.

Mrs Brown came North two weeks ago to help her youngest daughter, who was home then from Smith College for a few days, select her trousseau. Miss Brown went back to Smith to finish her senior studies and to take her final examinations before the wedding. Whether or not her classmates will have graduation exercises is the question of the moment on the campus. This year it may be diplomas-by-mail at Smith, thus eliminating unnecessary travelling.

The prospective bride will arrive from the East a few days before the ceremony. The minister who will officiate and the best man still are among the uncertainties. The bridegroom, the son of Dr and Mrs Hamill, Jr, of Winnetka, is with the Ski Troops at Camp Hale. He is a brother of Mrs Hamill McEwen. The bride's brothers are Kenneth Brown and Lt. Gardner Brown, both of Lake Forest."

(From: Chicago Daily News-5/20/1943):

"Lt Ralph Hamill, Jr. will wed Janet Brown Saturday. It is the bridegrooms in this week's wedding who are travelling far - Lt. Ralph C. Hamill, Jr, who is due from Camp Hale, Colo. Lt Hamill's bride, Janet Brown, is being graduated from Smith, but is missing today at the College's commencement. She arrived home last Friday, and her sheepskin will be forwarded to her - probably at Camp Hale, since she and her bridegroom are leaving immediately after the wedding Saturday for his Army post. The ceremony will take place at the Lake Forest home of the bride's Uncle and Aunt, Col. and Mrs Robert A. Gardner. Ruth Brown, who has a leave of absence from her post in the Quartermaster's Dept. at Aessler Field, Miss., is to be her sister's only attendant. She is here now and so is their mother, Mrs William B. Brown, staying with Mrs Dudley F. Jessopp (Elizabeth Brown) in Highland Park. Mr Brown is arriving from the family's winter home at Ocean City, Miss., in time for the bridal dinner tomorrow night, at the Gardner Brown's home in Lake Forest. The William Browns have not yet opened their Wheaton home. Marjorie Baxter of Portland, Ore, and Marcia Williams of Hinsdale are among the handful of Smith classmates who will see the youngest of the Brown sisters married. The bride's brothers, Lt Gardner Brown and Keith Brown, and their wives, the Jessopps and the bridegroom's parents, Dr and Mrs Ralph C. Hamill, Jr, of Winnetka, are others certain to be in the assemblage of wedding guests."

(From: Chicago Daily News-9/4/1943):

"Lt. Ralph Hamill Dead in Action, Bride Notified. An Army bride of 3 months, came home today from a pleasant stay in the North woods, where she had gone after seeing her husband sail away to war, to learn that he had been killed in action. Lt Ralph C. Hamill, Jr, son of Dr and Mrs Hamill of Winnetka, met his death on Miska August 18, the War Dept. informed the parents. He was the husband of the former Janet Brown, socially prominent daughter of Mr and Mrs William Bruce Brown of Wheaton. The marriage which took place on May 22nd, was a society event on the North Shore and was held at the home of the bride's Uncle and Aunt, Col. & Mrs Robert A. Gardner of Lake Forest. Lt. Hamill had come from Camp Hale, Colo, where he was attached to ski troops, for the ceremony. Miss Brown had just completed her courses at Smith College. She accompanied him West until he embarked for a war theater. Lt. Hamill, 25, was a student at Yale Law School at the time of his induction in July 1941. A brother, Hunt, is on active duty in the Navy as a Lieutenant."

(Chicago Tribune-8/20/1945):

"Mrs Ralph Hamill, Jr, and Richard D. Allen Engaged. The pleasant news that Mr and Mrs William B. Brown of Wheaton told their friends over the week end concerns their daughter, Mrs Ralph C. Hamill, Jr, and Richard D. Allen, who are engaged and will be married in October. The engagement was celebrated on Saturday at a cocktail party in the Lake Forest home which Mrs Hamill is sharing with Mrs Irving Kreutz, while Lt(j.g.) Kreutz is on duty in the Pacific. Mrs Hamill, who made her debut in 1939, attended Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Conn, and Smith College. She has a young daughter, Janet Fairlie (Hamill), whose father, Lt Hamill, was killed two years ago in Alaska. Mr Allen, son of Mr and Mrs Ami Allen of St Charles, recently was discharged from the Army Air Forces, having served as a Captain in England, Africa, Sicily and Italy. He attended Elgin Academy. One of Mrs Hamill's sisters, Mrs Dudley Jessopp, and one of her brothers, Capt. Keith Brown of the Army, were able to be present at Saturday's party, as they live here. Missing the festivities were Lt Gardner Brown, stationed with the Navy in Washington, DC, and Miss Ruth Brown, who is with the Amer. Red Cross in England."

(From: A Chicago Newspaper (Name unknown)-3/1/1942): "Mr & Mrs Hamill in New York for wedding of son. While Dr and Mrs Ralph Hamill are in New York for the wedding of their son to Jean Hilson Hunt, they will be the guests of their Niece; Mrs Fifield Workum, (H-262-113). Although the bride is from Norfolk, Va, her marriage to Lt. Hunt Hamill tomorrow is taking place in the East rather than in Virginia because a recent transfer sent him from the Norfolk Naval Training Station to New York. The bride was accompanied to New York by her Mother, Mrs Charles Hume of Norfolk. Mrs Hamill McEwen (H-262-341) went East with her parent's for her brother's wedding; but his elder brother, Lt. Ralph Hamill, Jr, could not obtain leave from his army camp in Mississippi to attend the ceremony."

Mrs Workum and her youngest child, 3-year-old Fifield Workum, Jr, returned to New York Saturday ahead of the bridal party after spending 10 days here with her parents, Mr and Mrs Robert Hamill of Hinsdale. The two other children, Emily (8) and Robert (10), remained in New York with their Father."

"Ernest Alfred Hamill, Banker. Born Bloomington, Ind, 7/1/1851. Son of Dr Robert C and Eliza Jane (Davisson) Hamill. Came to Chicago when 10 months old. Educated Public & High Schools, Chicago. Married Chicago 12/29/1880, Eliza Soulard Corwith. Banker since 7/16/1889, Pres. Corn Exchange Nat. Bank. V-P Elgin Nat. Watch Co. Treasurer Chicago Board of Trade. Director Chicago & Calumet Canal & Dock Co, Trader's Insurance Co. Treasure Chicago Relief & Aid Society, Art Institute. Clubs: Commercial, Merchants, Bankers, Chicago, Union League, (Chicago); The Players, (New York City). Office: Corn Exchange Nat. Bank. Residence: 2637 Prairie Avenue."

Ernest Alfred Hamill was born in Bloomington, Indiana, where his Father had moved from the old family home in Xenia, Ohio. In Bloomington, his Father was with his Davisson brother-in-law, Thomas ("Honest Tom") McCalla, (See McCalla Genealogy-Page H-361), who also moved to Chicago (May 18th 1851), and became an early-day Banker.

There was quite a colony of McCalla-Hemphill Kinfolk in Bloomington, and his Father, Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD (H-262), remained there for years. Dr. Alfred Williston Davisson, MD (See Davisson Section-Page Davisson A-114), had come to Chicago first in 1837, and had returned to Chicago again later, and had prospered, and had urged other Kinfolk to also come to Chicago. On May 18th, 1852 a large family party of the family of Thomas McCalla and the family of Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD, came together from Bloomington, Ind, to Chicago. Ernest was then a baby of 10 months old.

Ernest was educated in the Public and High School of Chicago. In 1879 he formed a partnership on the Board of Trade, as Hamill & Congdon, Commission Merchants. He was Treasurer of the Board of Trade in 1890-92. He became President of the Corn Exchange Bank, and upon its merger with the Illinois-Merchants Trust Co, he became President of the consolidated banks. Upon the latter's merger with the Continental National Bank, as the Continental-Illinois National Bank, he became President, and later, Chairman-of-the-Board of the latter great institution - the largest Bank West of New York. He held this position at the time of his death.

Ernest was actively interested in Christian and Charitable work, and was on the Board of the Presbyterian Hospital, (Founded (1883-84) by his Father), the Chicago Orphan Asylum, Olivet Institute, Chicago Relief & Aid Society, and many other such institutions. All this family are Presbyterians.

Ernest was a member of the Board of Directors of the Federal Reserve Bank of the Chicago District. He was Vice-President & Director of the Elgin Nat. Watch Co, Director of the Chicago & Calumet Canal & Dock Co, Trader's Insurance Co, and connected with many other corporations. He was also a Trustee of the Chicago Heights Land Trust, covering the site of Chicago Heights, Ill. This was Land Trust #1 of the Chicago Title & Trust Co, was organized in 1891 - the last lot of which was sold in 1947, and the Trust dissolved.

Ernest was a member of the following Clubs: Commercial, Merchants, Bankers, Chicago, # Caxton and Union League (all of Chicago), and of the Player's (of New York City), and of several other clubs.

Mr-Mrs Ernest A. Hamill and Family lived at 2637 Prairie Avenue, Chicago, with a Summer home called "Bellvatwood" at 353 N. Mayflower Road, Lake Forest Illinois (Chicago suburb). About the year they moved to a large apartment at 3330 N. Sheridan Road (corner Roscoe St), Chicago. In the year they again moved to another apartment at 2450 N. Lakeview Ave, Chicago, where the Widow resided until her death (7/11/1947). She continued "Bellvatwood" as her Summer home.

ELISE SOULARD CORWITH (HAMILL):

Elise Soulard Corwith, (Called "Peggy"), the widow of Ernest Alfred Hamill, was a most smilingly kindly, jolly, charitable and hospitable woman, well beloved among the kinfolk. She was always much interested in Church and Charitable work, and in all activities for the public betterment. She was a member of the Chicago Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, (National No. - State No.).

Elise, (called "Peggy"), was the Daughter of Mr Henry Corwith, a pioneer owner of Lead and Zinc mines in Galena, Ill, who later lived at 1931 Prairie Ave, Chicago, and his Wife, Isabella Soulard, (Corwith). She is the Granddaughter of Mr Gurdon Corwith, who was in the business, who lived in (Town-State), and his Wife, (Maiden Name) Susan White (Corwith). (See below).

"Ernest A. Hamill, (H-262-5), son of Dr Hamill, born in Bloomington, Ind, on July 1, 1851, and died in Chicago 1/14/1927, was a Banker of considerable influence. He married, Dec 29, 1880, Eliza Soulard Corwith, and had Corwith (H-262-51), Elmer (H-262-52), Isabella, (H-262-54), Robert, (H-262-57), Alfred E. (H-262-53), and Eleanor, (H-262-55). She was the daughter of Henry Corwith of Galena, Ill, who was born in Long Island, June 13, 1813, and died in Chicago Sept. 13, 1883. He came to Galena in the early days of its prosperity. At the time of the Chicago Fire he came here to look after his properties, and remained. His Wife was Isabella Soulard, daughter of James G. Soulard, who was born July 17, 1793, the man who introduced Grape culture into Illinois in the Soulard vineyard. He was a Sutler in Fort Snelling, 1821-2, a Surveyor in St Louis, and in 1827 in Galena a Merchant and Smelter. He married Eliza M. Hunt, born Dec. 1804, daughter of the famous Col. Thomas Hunt, who was born Sept. 17, 1754, and died near St Louis, August 18, 1808.

Col. Hunt married Eunice Wellington, daughter of Samuel Wellington, born 1688, and Abigail Sanderson, whose forebears included Deacon Jonathan Sanderson, who settled in "Piety Corner", Watertown, Mass, and the Immigrant, Edward Sanderson, who married in 1645, Mary Eggleston. The first of the Wellingtons, Roger, married Mary Palgrave, whose Father was a Dr Richard Palgrave of Charlestown. Col. Thomas Hunt was the son of John Hunt of Watertown, born Nov. 19, 1716, and died Jan. 19, 1777. He was the son of Samuel Hunt.

James G. Soulard was the son of Antoine Soulard, who died in 1825. He was the second Surveyor-General under Spain in Louisiana, and later under America, and was a Lieutenant in the Royal French Army. He married Julie Cerre, daughter of Gabriel Cerre.

The first of the long line of Corwiths was David Corwith or Carwithy, as it was often written, of Southold, L.I, who became a Constable at Marblehead in 1643, and removed to Salem in 1649, ending his days in Southold in 1665. His son, David, was born in Boston in 1661, and had a son, David, born about 1700, who was the Great-Grandfather of Gurdon Corwith, who married Susan White and became himself the Grandfather of Eliza Corwith, who married Ernest Hamill, (H-262-5).

Eleanor C. Hamill, (H-262-55), daughter of Ernest, married Kent S. Clow, but she died in 1920, leaving a daughter Elise Hamill Clow, (H-262-551).

Alfred Ernest Hamill, (H-262-53), brother of Eleanor, married Clarice Walther of Buffalo, NY, the daughter of Charles F. Walther, and had Ernest, (H-262-531), Corwith, (H-262-532), and Clarice, (H-262-533). He wrote "Sonnetteering of Petrarchino" and "Lerendae", and was Deputy Commissioner for France in the Red Cross during the World War (1)."

Elise, ("Peggy") was a Soulard on her Mother's side, and all of her Mother's family were of pioneer French descent. Some of her Cousins on her Mother's side were Priests and Nuns of the Roman Catholic faith. They were of a very (SEE OTHER SIDE). (7/7/1956) kindly, devout sort - who pioneered the wilderness. Elise tells the story that her maternal Grandmother, a very young and beautiful girl, and an orphan, married an older pioneer Trader named Souland, near where the US Port Snelling stands, near Minneapolis. The newly married couple came down the Mississippi by canoe, to what is now known as Galena, Illinois. They lived in the 2nd story of an old log house, the first floor being considered unsafe because of Indian depredations. When Indians came around, bent on mischief - in the absence of her husband on trading trips - the plucky little Mother would place her baby carefully on the couch, and then fire a Musket out of the window-slit, to scare off the Indians. Later, that family, and the Corwiths also, made fortunes from the rich Lead and Zinc mines of the region around Galena. But the pioneer days there were truly rough.

Elise, ("Peggy") had a sister, Corwith, who was Mrs Alfred Landon Baker, the widow of a prominent Stock Broker and Financier of Chicago (Alfred L. Baker & Co). She, in turn, had a daughter, Miss Mary Landon Baker. After Mr Baker's death, the Widow and Daughter moved to England to live, where they had a farm at , in Surrey, England. They also had a home at , in the South of France - but it suffered at the hands of the German Army in World War II. Mary, the daughter, has been a spieddidd worker in various organizations for aiding Injured and Blind Service Men of the Allied Armies - and for the poor. She is also an expert Linguist, and aided Allied Intelligence in many ways during the War.

Elise, ("Peggy") also had a sister, Corwith, who was Mrs. Ambrose C. Cramer, of Lake Forest, Ill. (Chicago suburb). - who has several married children. Elise, ("Peggy") also had several Brothers, who died unmarried.

The Old Family Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2), an Original Hamill Brother.

This old Bible and Will of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) was in the possession of Robert's descendent, Mr George Renwick Hamill, (Mary Catherine Kyle) (H-252-2), then (1/26/1925) of Sterling, Kansas, later of 319 East 9th Ave, Hutchinson, Kansas, who is now deceased. Another descendent of Robert, Sr, had also borrowed it, Mr Allan Wendell Hamill, (Eliz. Tuttle Lord-Clara Louise Gorslene) (H-269-B2), a Wholesale Grocer, of Box 183, Chillicothe, Ohio.

This Robert Hamill, Sr, (H-2) settled at Big Cove, Ayr Two, Bedford County, Penna, sometime after 1761. He was the 2nd of the 4 Original Hamill Brothers who came to America in 1761. The others were Nathaniel Hamill, Sr, (H-1), who also settled at Big Cove, Penna, with Robert, Sr. Then there were John Hamill, (H-3), who settled at Ligonier, Penna, in 1761, and Joseph Hamill, (H-4), who supposedly left the others in 1770-3, or in 1799-1800, and went South to Newberry, S.C, and whose descendants are largely lost to the family records.

Mr George Renwick Hamill, (H-252-2), had so often visited the Chicago home of The Compiler, and he loaned this Bible and Will to The Compiler for examination and copying of the records therefrom.

This rare and invaluable old Bible, of intense interest to all the Hamill Family, traces and proves the descent of all Robert Hamill, Sr's (H-2) children, Grandchildren and descendants. With his Will, also included with the Bible, indisputable proof is found of the descent of all this branch of the Family.

In this connection, the family of Ernest Alfred Hamill, (H-262-5), of Chicago, who are of this branch of the Hamills, have had (prior to 1933, and especially prior to 1925) various genealogical descents made up by sundry Genealogists, which show descent from various other persons than their true Ancestor, Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2). Should members of our large Hamill Kinfolk see these different descents, as apparently relating to the Ernest A. Hamill, (H-262-5) family, they need not be confused thereby. The true descent is as shown here in this Hamill Genealogy, as proven by the Bible and Will of Robert Hamill, Sr, (H-2).

The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65) - was loaned this Bible and Will many years ago - on Jan. 26, 1925 - and made verbatim copies from the Bible and Will. These verbatim copies will be found following the page of Robert Hamill, Sr, on Data Page H-2 of this Hamill Genealogy. At that time - in 1925 - The Compiler took this Bible and Will to the office of Mr Ernest A. Hamill, (H-262-5), who was then President of the Continental-Illinois Nat. Bank, Chicago. Mr Hamill examined it with great care, for an hour or more, and tears came to his eyes. For he realized that this was his own Ancestor, and detailed therein were the dates and facts concerning his own known Ancestors, such as his own Grandfather, Joseph Hamill, Sr (H-26). He noted the quaint phraseology: "base born", and he actually cried. But since the death of this Ernest A. Hamill, (on 1/14/1927) and up until 4/27/1933, his family were still pinning their faith to strange and wonderful Genealogies, made up sometimes at a cost of $2,500., by Genealogists who were on the wrong track, to say the least.

The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65) - Chicago, Illinois.

On 4/27/1933 there appeared in the Chicago Herald & Examiner, a genealogical record entitled: "First Families of Chicago", which detailed fairly correctly the Ernest A. Hamill family, and others of his same descent from Robert Hamill, Sr, (H-2). It was written by Miss Emma Lee Walton, a reputable Genealogist, and a friend of the E. A. Hamill family, and of The Compiler's family. It was doubtless based on the data in this Hamill Genealogy, also on a copy of the data in the Will and Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2), (which (SEE OTHER SIDE). (7/5/1936)

The Compiler had given to Mr E.A.Hamill), and also on family records, which the E.A.Hamill family had supplied to Miss Walton. It is virtually correct. A copy of this "First Families of Chicago" will be found on the 2 Data Pages which follow this page.

See also comments about this old Will and Bible on Data Pages: H-252-2, (George Renwick Hamill); on Data Pages H-269-22, (Allan Wendell Hamill); and on Data Pages H-252-253, (Gerald Hamill Nichol).

For verbatim copies of all the data in the Will and Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-2), see Data Pages H-2.

The present (1956) Custodian of the Will and Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr. (H-2), is his descendent, Mr Gerald Hamill Nichol, (H-252-253), in care of his Parents, Mr-Mrs Paul W. Nichol, 403 N. Broadway, Sterling, Kansas. Gerald also has Custody (1956) of the 4th copy of the Hamill Genealogy. He left (July 1956) for a 3 year term as a Missionary Teacher in the United Presbyterian Commercial High School, in Omdurman, The Sudan, (North Central Africa). In his absence, his Parents are taking care of the Will and Bible.

After the Ernest A. Hamill family had had some incorrect Genealogical records made up by various Genealogists, who were misinformed - and after this Hamill Genealogy had appeared, and had been placed (1924) in the Newberry Library - this following record was published. The Compiler of this Hamill Genealogy, on 1/26/1925, had shown the Original Will and Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr., (H-2) to Mr Ernest A. Hamill, at his office. Some 8 years later (1933) the following record made its appearance.

Miss Emma Lee Walton, a recognized Genealogist of Chicago, with help from the Hamill Genealogy, and from the records in the old Will and Bible and help from the family of Mr Ernest A. Hamill, wrote the following record, as one of a series on prominent Chicago families. It appeared 4/27/1933 in the Chicago Herald and Examiner - 8 years after The Compiler had shown Mr E. A. Hamill the Will and Bible of his Ancestor, Robert Hamill, Sr., (H-2). This Miss Emma Lee Walton died about 1943 or 1944. She was a friend of the Hamills and of The Compiler's family.

The above mentioned Will and Bible are (1956) in the custody of Mr Gerald Hamill Nichol, (H-252-253), of 403 N. Broadway, Sterling, Kansas. (See Page H-252-253).

This newspaper clipping was placed in the records of The Newberry Library, of Chicago, by Miss Chase, Librarian of the Genealogy Floor. It was copied 7/3/1956 by The Compiler.

(From: Chicago, Ill., Herald & Examiner-April 27, 1933):

" FIRST FAMILIES of CHICAGO,

By The Genealogist (Miss Emma Lee Walton)

"The Hamills descend from a Baron O'Hamill of Ireland and include in their British lines many noted families of the old and warlike nobility. One of the forebears was a soldier in the wars of the Crusades, and it is related that the army was at the point of dying of thirst in the desert when he discovered an Oasis and revived their strength with the news of help at hand.

Some of the families say he was very tall and could see farther than his fellows, but others declare that he climbed a Palm Tree and spied out the land from that vantage ground. These last point to the Crest of the Palm Tree, which was granted to the family as a memorial of the service. Originally intended only as a crest, it has been used as a coat of arms by many descendants since that day.

Robert Hamill, (Sr-H-2) married Martha Beckett and had a son, Joseph, (H-26) born in 1778, and marrying Margaret Small, went to Xenia, O, to live. They had a son, (Dr) Robert C. Hamill, (MD-H-262), born 1808, died 1886, who became a Physician, came to Chicago in 1852 and Founded the Presbyterian Hospital. Dr Hamill married Eliza Jane Davisson, daughter of (Dr) Andrew Davisson, (MD-Dav A-11) and Rebecca Todd, (Todd A-156) daughter of James Todd (4th-Todd A-15) and Janice Buchanan (Buchanan 3) of Kentucky. Janice was the daughter of John Buchanan (Buchanan A) who died in Tennessee in 1791, and James Todd was the son of a Scot of Belfast, Ireland.

The children of Dr Hamill were Charles D, Theophilus Wylie (he married Mary Stearns and had Ernest A; Louise who married Alexander A. Waller, and Ralph C, who married Margaret Hunt and has Margaret, Ralph and Hunt), Julia D. who married Dr Charles Clark and Anna, who married William Stanton Monroe and had one child, Henry Stanton Clark(??? should be Monroe); Frank and Ernest A. Hamill.

Charles D. Hamill, (H-262-1), son of Dr Robert Hamill, died 1/11/1906, after an interesting life that started with his acting as a messenger boy and ended as a patron of music and the other arts. He married Fannie Walbridge, christened Susan Frances, daughter of Judge Henry Sanford Walbridge, who was born in Norwich, Conn, April 8, 1801, and died January 27, 1869 in Bergen Tunnel, N.Y. He married July 20, 1836, Fannie Thompson, who was born Feby 21, 1811 in Stillwater, NY, and died July 12, 1862, the daughter of William Thompson and Mary Hawkins.

Judge Walbridge was a Whig member of Congress from 1851 to 1854. He was the son of Gustavus Walbridge, born in Norwich, Conn, October 4, 1755, and died in Syracuse, NY, September 23, 1828, who served in the Revolution. His Wife, who he married May 23, 1790, was Anna Sanford.

Gustavus Walbridge was the son of Ebenezer, born May 15, 1705, in Norwich. He married the widow of Ezra Hyde (Elizabeth Leffingwell), a member of one of the proudest New England families. Elizabeth was the daughter of Capt. John Leffingwell, who was born in Norwich, Feby 2, 1638, and married December 26, 1710, Sarah Abel, daughter of Joshua Abel and his Wife, Bethia Gager, the Granddaughter of Dr William Gager, who came to America in 1630 and was described as "a skilful Surgeon and a right godly man."

Capt. Leffingwell was the son of Sergt. Thomas, who was born in Connecticut August 27, 1649, and died in Norwich in 1723. His Wife was Mary Bushnell, daughter of Richard, who came to the Colonies in 1636 and married Mary Marvin, daughter of Matthew Marvin. Sergt. Leffingwell was the son of Lieut. Thomas Leffingwell, Gentleman, who came to Connecticut in 1637 and became a Royal Commissioner. Lieut. Leffingwell married Mary White, who tradition states, was the daughter of an Indian Chief.

Ebenezer Walbridge's father was Henry Walbridge, thought to have come from Dorsetshire, England, to America, where he married, at Preston, Conn, Anna Ames.

Charles D. Hamill, (H-262-1) had eight children, two of whom - Henry W. and Frank T., died young. Robert W. (H-262-11) married Katherine B. Lyon and had Katherine; Emily, who married Fifield Workum, and had a son named Robert Hamill (H-262-113-1); Frances (H-262-114), and Robert L. (H-262-111) who married Katherine Porter and had Katherine (H-262-111-1) and Dan (??-should be Ann (H-262-111-2)).

Fanny, (H-262-12), daughter of Charles D. Hamill, married Edward J. Phelps and had Charlotte (H-262-121) (now Mrs Parker Dodge with 7 children, John, (Frances, Charles, Austin, Marjorie, David and Eleanor); Susan (H-262-122) who married William Zimmerman and had William, Elizabeth and Edward P; Katherine (H-262-123) and Elizabeth (H-262-124), who died young, and a son, Austin (H-262-125) who is to be married this week in California. Another son, Paul, (H-262-16), married Sarah Culbertson, and had Virginia, (H-262-161) who married Lincoln Johnson; and there are also Charles H. (H-262-14) who married Kathleen McDonald Mather-Smith; Lawrence, (H-262-18) who married Madeline Henderson, and Philip, (H-262-17), who married Marjorie Streeter and had John S. (H-262-171), named for her Father, and Marjorie S. (H-262-172).

Ernest A. Hamill, (H-262-5), son of Dr Hamill, born in Bloomington, Ind, on July 1, 1851, and died in Chicago, Jan 14, 1927, was a Banker of considerable influence. He married, Dec. 29, 1880, Eliza Soulard Corwith, and had Corwith (H-262-51), Elmer, (H-262-52), Isabella, (H-262-54), Robert, (H-262-57), Alfred E. (H-262-53), and Eleanor, (H-262-55). She was the daughter of Henry Corwith of Galena, Ill, who was born in Long Island, June 13, 1813, and died in Chicago September 13, 1888. - He came to Galena in the early days of its prosperity. At the time of the Chicago fire he came here to look after his properties and remained. His Wife was Isabella Soulard, daughter of James G. Soulard, who was born July 17, 1798, the man who introduced Grape culture into Illinois in the Soulard vineyard. He was a Sutler in Fort Snelling, 1821-2, a Surveyor in St Louis, and in 1827 in Galena a Merchant and Smelter. He married Eliza M. Hunt, born December 1804, daughter of the famous Col. Thomas Hunt, who was born September 17, 1754, and died near St Louis, August 18, 1808.

Col. Hunt married Eunice Wellington, daughter of Samuel Wellington, born 1688, and Abigail Sanderson, whose forebears included Deacon Jonathan Sanderson, who settled in "Piety Corner" Watertown, Mass, and the Immigrant, Edward Sanderson, who married in 1645, Mary Eggleston. The first of the Wellingtons, Roger, married Mary Palgrave, whose Father was a Dr Richard Palgrave of Charlestown. Col. Thomas Hunt was the son of John Hunt of Watertown, born November 19, 1716, and died January 19, 1777. He was the son of Samuel Hunt.

James G. Soulard was the son of Antoine Soulard, who died in 1325. He was the second Surveyor-General under Spain in Louisiana, and later under America, and he was a Lieutenant in the Royal French Army. He married Julie Cerre, daughter of Gabriel Cerre.

The first of the long line of Corwiths was David Corwith or Carwithy, as it was often written, of Southold, L.I., who became a Constable at Marblehead in 1643, and removed to Salem in 1649, ending his days in Southold in 1665. His son, David, was born in Boston in 1661, and had a son, David, born about 1700, who was the Great-Grandfather of Gurdon Corwith, who married Susan White and became himself the Grandfather of Eliza Corwith, who married Ernest Hamill. (H-262-5).

Eleanor C. Hamill, (H-262-55), daughter of Ernest, married Kent S. Clow, but she died in 1920, leaving a daughter Elise Hamill Clow, (H-262-551).

Alfred Ernest Hamill, (H-262-53), brother of Eleanor, married Clarice Walther of Buffalo, NY, the daughter of Charles F. Walther, and had Ernest, (H-262-531), Corwith, (H-262-532), and Clarice, (H-262-533). He wrote "Sonneteer-ing of Petrarchino" and Serenade" and was Deputy Commissioner for France in the Red Cross during the World War. "

"Lake Forest, Ill, 8/2/1947. Miss Helen McCalla, (H-125-61), 2320 Cottage Grove Ave, Chicago, (16), Ill. Dear Helen: I tried to reach you by telephone the night Mother died, but could not, and had to leave it that you must read of her going in the paper. I was sorry. Mother died peacefully and well content to go. Before her, had she lived, there was certain suffering. This I tell myself over and over, for I miss her sadly. She was fond of you and regretted she was not up to having you to visit her last Summer. Sincerely, ALFRED."

(From: Chicago Daily News-2/20/1948): "Hamill Estate Totals $1,649,615. An estate estimated at $1,649,615 was left by Mrs Eliza C. Hamill, of 2450 Lake View Ave, who died last July 11, (1947), at the age of 89, according to an inheritance tax return filed in County Court. She was the widow of Ernest A. Hamill, President of the Corn Exchange Nat. Bank, now part of the Continental-Illinois Nat. Bank & Trust Co."

(From: "American Elite & Sociologist"-1923-Pub by Amer. Blue Book Publishers-3312 N. Robey St-Chicago, Ill. At Newberry Library-Chicago-10/16/1948.) "HAMILL, ERNEST ALFRED, Banker-Chicago. Clubs: Commercial, Bankers, Chicago, University, Cliff Dwellers, Attic, Union League, Players, Onwentsia. 1880 Married Eliza Soulard Corwith. Have 1 Son. Res: 2450 Lake View Avenue."

(From: Chicago Daily News-1/18/1951): "Mrs Runnels Sells Apartment in Town. Visiting New York now, Mrs Clive Runnels will be making arrangements for giving up her Lake View Ave. apartment when she returns home next week. She has sold it to the Junior Marshall Fields, who already have an apartment in the same building. In Lake Forest, remodelling of the Hamill Estate House, () which she purchased with about six lovely Lake front acres some years ago, has been in progress for about 2 years but still isn't completed. So Mrs Runnels will return to her Lake Forest home on Woodland Road, when she moves out of the town apt. in late March. () Note: This is "Ballyatwood", at 533 N. May-(flower Road, Lake Forest, Ill, former Summer Home of Mrs Ernest A. Hamill).")

(From: Chicago Tribune-6/11/1952): "The house warming party and dance Mrs Clive Runnels will give July 5(1952) in her Lake Forest home will be doubly gay, since it will provide a welcome for her house guests arriving for the convention. Her son, Mr Runnels, Jr, decided to come here from Houston, Tex, when he found he could obtain a Convention ticket, and Mrs Runnels' other guests will be Mrs Harvey Gibson and Mrs Wilton Lloyd-Smith of NY City, and Mrs Arthur Cable of Santa Fe, NM. Mrs Runnels moved last Fall (1952) into the suburban home which formerly belonged to Mrs Ernest A. Hamill, after it was remodelled."

(From: Chicago Tribune-6/18/1952): "Speaking of beautiful homes again, Mrs Clive Runnels recently opened her new Lake Forest home for the Summer sale which the Hull House Shop offers suburban buyers each year. I hear that the house was almost as much of a drawing card as the charming handmade items and the unique bits of china and glass that have made the Hull House Shop famous. Everyone was fascinated with what Mrs Runnels did with the old Ernest Hamill house. The whole top floor was sliced off, a new trend I am told, in modern remodelling of big houses. Before his death, the famous architect, David Adler, outlined the plans for the remodelling and the house bears his unmistakable autograf, never signed to anything except beauty. The completion of the remodel (SEE OTHER SIDE). (7/6/1955).

elling was in the hands of young George W.W. Brewster of Boston, whose marriage to Mrs Donald M. Ryerson's daughter, Joan, brought another gifted young architect to Chicago. Mrs Runnels' lovely home has the clean, crisp lines of a "modern" house and has all the charm and graciousness of an old one. Its huge living room, for instance, has almost two walls of ceiling and floor glass, bringing into the room the green of a garden on one side and the terraces looking out to Lake Michigan on the other. It is furnished with beautiful Antiques, among them pieces Mrs Runnels brought from the famous Castle Hill home of Mrs Richard T. Crane, in Ipswich, Mass."

(From: Chicago Tribune-10/18/1954): "Two Old Lake Forest Homes Remodelled. (by Judith Cass). There've been some changes made in two of three handsome old Lake Forest homes which are set in the midst of wooded, rolling grounds, looking over the Lake. The houses originally were built for the three Corwith Sisters, the late Mrs Alfred Landon Baker, the late Mrs Ernest A. Hamill, and the late Mrs Ambrose Cramer. Most recently done over is the Baker house which belonged for some years to Mrs Vaughn C. Spalding and the late Mr. Spalding, and which recently became the property of the Solomon B. Smiths. This frame house, originally painted white with green shutters, has been painted black, to minimize its size, and the living room wing has been opened up by means of huge windows to embrace a vista of the lake to the East and a woodsy area to the West. The new look, not visible to passersby because of the house's secluded situation, extends to the interior furnishings as well. The Landon house was the only frame one of the three, and is flanked by the other two. Mrs Cramer's red brick residence is unoccupied. She died last August at the age of 94.

Mrs Hamill's home became the property of Mrs Clive Runnels, who did a complete face lifting there. "No one would recognize it for the same house," said a neighbor. "The old brown brick exterior has been painted white and the third story removed completely."

(From: Chicago Tribune-2/19/1950-"When Chicago Was Young" Column, by Herma Clark. "Letters from Martha Freeman Esmond to her friend, Julia Boyd of New York. These supposititious Letters, dated long ago, give an insight into the lives of the people, institutions and happenings of early Chicago.

(Note that this supposed Letter was dated Feby 19th, 1902.

"Chicago, Feby 19, 1902. Dear Julia: Will came home this afternoon with some interesting news - that the Merchants National Bank, which has been "our bank" for so many years, is about to merge with the Corn Exchange Bank. It is an important event for those who have been depositors there, for it is not a large institution and we knew everyone of its officers. The Corn Exchange Bank is a strong, stable concern and it is quite exciting to merge with it, but it is somewhat like having one of your family marry into a rich and powerful clan. You are pleased and flattered at the alliance, but feel a little shy, too. The Boards of Directors of the two Banks, Will says, have met and voted favorably on the proposition to unite, and now the stockholders will vote on it. There probably will be no objection from that group, so soon we shall be going to LaSalle and Adams Streets to transact our banking business instead of further North on LaSalle Street. Will has a little stock in each Bank and regards these investments as particularly sound.

One always feels a bit sad at seeing an old institution pass away, and I'm a sentimental soul and don't quite like the change. The Merchants National Bank is the third oldest Bank in Chicago, having been Founded in 1865. It always has been known as the Blair Bank, as Mr Chauncey B. Blair was President and many of his family were interested in it. Mr Blair is regarded as having saved the credit of Chicago at the time of the Fire, for he said all depositors should be paid in full, and allayed fears that their money might be lost.

The Corn Exchange Bank is one of the 3 largest Banks in the city. The First National comes ahead of it, with deposits of 71 millions; the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank is next with 67 millions; while the Corn Exchange has 50 millions in deposits. Mr Ernest A. Hamill is President, and has been responsible for its growth, Will says. Will thought you'd be interested in this banking news, because you know the Blair family, and have met Mr and Mrs Ernest Hamill at our house. I am sure you will recall both....."

"Footnotes: The Corn Exchange Bank and the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank merged with the Continental and Commercial National Bank, to form the Continental-Illinois Bank.....Alfred E. Hamill of Lake Forest is a son of Ernest A. Hamill, President of the Corn Exchange Bank in 1902."

"Chicago, Jan'y 3, 1909. Dear Julia: ".....I noticed an advertisement in The Tribune today appealing for more funds for the Chicago Relief and Aid Society, because its needs were greater for the year 1909 than had been subscribed.

The Relief and Aid Society was Founded in 1856 or 1857, not long after Father and Mother and I came to the city, and I always have been deeply interested in its work. Mr Ernest A. Hamill, President of the Corn Exchange Bank, is Treasurer and he is such a fine man, an appeal with his name appended usually is effective. I never saw a newspaper advertisement of this Society before. Mr Charles H. Wacker is President of the Relief and Aid this year, and he, too, is one whose name carries much weight....."

Data Page on ALFRED ERNEST HAMILL - CLARICE GRIFFIN WALTHER.

Clarice Griffin Walther is the Daughter of Mr Charles F. Walther, of Buffalo, NY, who was in the _____ business, and his Wife, Clara _____ Griffin(Walther). She is the Granddaughter of Mr _____ Walther, who was in the _____ business, who lived in(Town-State) _____, and his Wife(Maiden Name) _____ (Walther).

Clarice came from Buffalo, NY. She was educated in private schools in Buffalo, NY, and later in private schools in France-Germany-Switzerland. Like her husband, Clarice is on many Church and Charity Boards, and is active wherever she can do good. She is a Director of Ridge Farm(Tuberculosis) Preventorium(Secretary 1920-30; President 1942-43; Treasurer 1944). In 1946, she was elected President of the Antiquarian Society of Chicago. Clubs: Friday(Chicago); Casino(Chicago); Lake Forest Garden(Lake Forest, Ill -Garden Club of America.

Alfred Ernest Hamill was educated at Harvard School, Chicago(1894-99); Hill School, Pottstown, Penna(1899-1901). He graduated from Yale University, New Haven, Conn, in 1905 with the AB Degree. He was connected with the Northern Trust Co, and then with Folds & Co, later known as Hathaway, Smith, Folds & Co, and still later known as Hathaway & Co, Bankers & Commercial Paper, of Chicago. In 1932, this Company was absorbed by Goldman, Sachs & Co, Bankers & Commercial Paper, of NY. He is now(1947) Chicago Resident Partner of Goldman, Sachs & Co, with offices at 208 So. LaSalle St, Chicago. Associated with him as Chicago Resident Partner is Dr. James C. Hemphill(See Hemphill Family B-Hemphill Section-McCalla Genealogy).

Alfred is a great book lover, and his library is one of the famous libraries of the country. He has his rare and remarkable collection of books - some of them almost priceless - housed in a special building on his Lake Forest Estate, "Centaurus", and friends consider it a very great privilege to visit it. He often sponsors the issuance of interesting books and bindings and is known for his ability in the design of fine books. He has also written several books of Poems. He wrote "This Last Devotion." His Wife, Mrs Clarice Hamill, wrote "Mexican Bouquet", and she also painted the 40 colored plates, assisted by her Daughter-in-Law, Mrs. "Suzy" Hamill(H-262-531). Both these volumes were printed by the latter's "Pocahontas Press." (See Data Page H-262-531).

Alfred's book interest is shared by his Daughter-in-Law, Mrs Ernest A. Hamill, 2nd(Suzette Morton)(Called "Suzy" Hamill)(H-262-531), who owns the "Pocahontas Press"(41 East Oak St-Chicago), which issues special editions in fine bindings. Suzette("Suzy" Hamill) is also a talented book designer, and she and Alfred have jointly published several volumes.

Alfred's love of books and libraries led him to accept the Presidency, (since 1930), of the Newberry Library, 60 W. Walton St(corner Clark St), Chicago. This is the great Genealogical and Historical Library. He is also President(since 1932) of the Lake Forest, (Ill) Library. He is also Trustee of the Chicago Art Institute, and of the American Academy of Rome.

Alfred's notable Estate in Lake Forest, Ill(Chicago suburb), was formerly called "Villino"(Little Villa), but in recent years the name was changed to "Centaurus." It is located at 1115 East Illinois Road, corner of Mayflower Avenue, near "Big Stone Gate", in Lake Forest, Ill. It is just a few blocks South on Mayflower Ave. from his Mother's Estate, "Ballyatwood", Rt 335 N. Mayflower Ave. His very large library building adjoins the house and is 2 stories high. It is packed full of valuable books.

Alfred continues the kindly Hamill trait of a decidedly helpful interest in Christian activities, and different Charities. He is actively at work on many Boards of Directors - such as the Presbyterian Hospital, (Founded by his Grandfather, Dr. Robert C. Hamill, D(H-262), the Presbyterian Home, The (See OTHER SIDE). (6/18/1947).

Chicago Orphan Asylum? (of which in 1947, he has been President for 12 years)
The Home For the Aged, etc, etc. Alfred and his wife and family are all Presbyterians.

Alfred is a Director or Officer in numerous Corporations, among which are: Yates American Machine Co, Beloit, Wis; Phoenix Hosiery Co, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He and all his family are Republicans. He is a member of the following clubs: The Attic (Chicago); Onwentsia (Golf Club-Lake Forest, Ill); Grollier (NY).

(From Chicago Tribune-11/18/1943):

"A.E. Hamill Elected President of Chicago Orphan Asylum Board. Alfred E. Hamill, loop investment banker, yesterday was elected to serve his 11th year as President of the Board of the Chicago Orphan Asylum. The Asylum was Founded 94 years ago during an epidemic of cholera, Mr Hamill recalled. Other officers named yesterday are Charles F. Gray, real estate dealer, and T. Philip Swift, of the packing family, Vice-Presidents: Solomon A. Smith, President of the Northern Trust Co, Treasurer, and Lanning MacFarland of the Northern Trust Co, Secretary. Mrs C. Kingman Perkins was elected President of the Women's Board of Managers, succeeding Mrs Ernst W. Puttkammer."

(From Chicago Daily News-12/10/1944):

"Alfred E. Hamill and James C. McLaughlin, resident partners of Goldman, Sachs & Co, are this week celebrating the 75th Anniversary of the founding of the firm. The business was established by Marcus Goldman in 1869 in a small basement office at 50 Pine St, New York City, the present address of the banking house. Henry Goldman, a son, and Samuel Sachs, a son-in-law, entered the firm in the early 1880's.

A pioneer in the offering of industrial stocks in this country, the Company in 1906 offered an issue of shares of United Cigar Manufacturers Co, predecessor of the present General Cigar Co, Inc. Other nationally known stock offerings introduced to the public by Goldman, Sachs include Sears, Roebuck & Co, May Department Stores Co, Brown Shoe Co, Inc, Cluett, Peabody & Co, Inc, F.W. Woolworth Co, and Kelsey-Hayes Wheel Co. In the decades after World War I, the firm acted as banker in the organization and development of three of the country's leading food enterprises - General Foods Corp, National Dairy Products Corp, and United Biscuit Co of America."

(From Chicago Sunday Tribune-12/31/1944):

"Chicagoans Share Sorrow and Blessings, (by Thalia).

"We can't say 'Merry' to you while this day,
Stares thru the roofs of ruined town and farm;
We can't write 'Happy' when so few are warm,
Unless on hostile seas far away;
But still we look to present evil's end,
Hoping the New Year you and yours will bless,
And bring good cheer to each good friend,
And VICTORY - and unforgetfulness."

This beautiful classic octave written by Alfred E. Hamill for his and Mrs. Hamill's 1944-45 greetings, exactly express your Thalia's feelings for this Holiday season. (Incidentally, Mr Hamill, who has a rare gift for classic verse, writes far too little of it)....."

(From Chicago Tribune-Book Section-2/9/1947):

"Bookplates of Hamill. Alfred E. Hamill, whose simple and striking bookplate is presented here, raises a point which may not have occurred to others interested in bookplates. Pointing out that bookplates ought to be expressions of modern graphic accomplishment rather than ornate imitations of the plates of earlier times, Mr Hamill writes: "It seems not generally realized that we have now escaped the overloaded, elaborate vacuity which so long characterized this minor art." Mr Hamill's plate is an excellent example of the principle he expresses. The centaur is represented as playing the pipes as a symbol of an interest in poetry, the creature itself symbolizing the duality of man's nature, half god and half beast. It is significant that Mr Hamill's biographical data lists his recreation as simply "books." Prominent in Chicago's business and financial circles for many years, with many civic interests, he has collected one of the finest of private libraries in his Lake Forest home. Among the other institutions for which he has acted as trustee are the Art Institute of Chicago and Newberry Library. (Melroy Guilfoil).

THE CHICAGO ORPHAN ASYLUM:

(From: Chicago Tribune-6/7/1947): "Orphan Asylum Reunion Tea to Mark 98
Years. By Eleanor Page. Tomorrow, when the Chicago Tribune will be celebrating its 100th birthday with a reception in Tribune Tower, another organization which has grown with Chicago, but which won't be 100 years old for 2 years, will be having a reunion and tea, which also will be an unusual event. It is being given by the Chicago Orphan Asylum in its headquarters in E. 58th Place, and the guests will include children who were in the Orphanage when it was an institution - it now gives foster home care - their husbands, wives, and their children.

The affection and loyalty of former wards of the Orphanage is matched by members of the Board of Trustees, and of the Board of Managers of the Asylum, many of whom are carrying on a family interest of generations.
Alfred E. Hamill, President, is a nephew of Charles Corwith, and early Trustee. Mrs B. Botsford Young, a member of the Board of Managers, is the wife of a great-grandson of Mr and Mrs Jabez K. Botsford, who were among the Founders in 1849, since which time, a Young or a Botsford continuously has been on the Board of the Asylum. One of tomorrow's guests, a man in his sixties, is looking forward to meeting Mr Young at the reunion, because he remembers Mrs Botsford vividly from the time when he lived in the Orphanage when it was located at 22nd St & Michigan Ave, from which it moved in 1899. Most of the reunion guests were older orphans cared for in the institution in its building at 5130 So. Parkway, between 1926 and 1931, and they will be welcomed back by Miss Ethel Berry, Executive Director; Miss Petra Broberg, Nurse, and Miss Ruth Nice, Miss Berry's assistant. Miss Berry came to the Orphanage in 1926, and the others in the two following years. The Asylum now cares for 400 children in foster homes, including 80 who receive only day care, youngsters of working mothers. Old time staff members who will be present tomorrow include Peter Larsen, now in his nineties, and Mrs Lou Hinman, formerly a Matron in the Nursery, who retired in 1931.

Solomon A. Smith is Treasurer of the Asylum. T. Philip Swift, a Trustee, is a son of the late Edward F. Swift, one time President of the Institution. Other Trustees are Stanley Field, Paul Russell, Robert McDougal, Jr, Charles F. Grey, John T. Dwelllyn, and Lanning MacFarland, Mrs Ernst F. Futtman, heads the Board of Managers. Mrs Stanley Wiley and Mrs Frederick Woodward, who will assist at the tea, have been members of the Board of Managers for more than 30 years. The former's daughter, Mrs Robert A. Carr, also is a member, and will pour tea tomorrow with her mother, Mrs C. Kingman Perkins and Mrs Louis Heyl Nichols. Also assisting tomorrow will be Mrs Alexander Greene, the John H. Merrolls, Mr Woodward, Mrs George Warner Swain, Mrs Dallas B. Phenister, and Mrs Dwight M. Brookens.

The Colophon, the distinguished book collectors quarterly, (or, if you prefer, the distinguished quarterly for book collectors) has been revived after a lapse of some years, the war years when amateur book collectors had more urgent interests than adding to their collections and being charmed by articles about collecting. Now they can be charmed four times a year with the New Colophon which, in its first issue is a handsome child of its parent. The quarterly is a collector's item in itself, published by subscription at $15. the year and immediately appreciating in value on publication. One of the most amusing articles in the first issue is called "A Book is a Book is a Book," in which Donald Gallup tells of the publication of Gertrude Stein's "Three Lives."

The Editors of the New Colophon are Elmer Adler, John T. Winterich and Frederick C. Adams, Jr. On the distinguished board of contributing Editors are Chicagoans Paul H. Angle and Alfred E. Hamill."

From South America to the Iron Mountain Club of the "Northland" - but with a breathing spell in between. That's the way the Alfred E. Hamills arranged their '48 holiday schedule. They're back at their home, the Centaur, in Lake Forest. Flew in last week after two "wonderful but strenuous" months in Peru. In Easy Stages: Theirs was a sight-seeing trip. No leisurely prowling through quaint little shops. To avoid the monotony of two solid days listening to the hum of plane motors, they took the trip in easy stages. Flew from Lima to the Canal Zone - next lap was to Mexico - final flight to Chicago. Their next trip will be a calm one. For a few weeks this Summer they'll follow their old custom of languishing in the soothing air at exclusive Iron Mountain Club."

The Hamills will fly to the islands from San Francisco, but will come home by boat late in April."

(From: Chicago Tribune-7/23/1950): "...The Nicolaï Remisoffs, whose fabulous parties made wonderful news for the society columns during the 50's, are visiting from the West Coast (Palm Springs & Palos Verdes), Cal, for the first time in 10 years.....Unlike previous commissions Remisoff has had from the Alfred E. Hamills, the work he has just completed for them will be seen by comparatively few people. For years very few of the Hamill's friends knew the whereabouts - or even of the existence - of the two-room cottage they built as a country retreat. Both the telephone number and the location are still rather carefully guarded secrets. Just before David Adler died, he designed a one-room addition to the house, which is set in the center of an acreage owned by the Hamills North and West of Lake Forest. It was to decorate the walls of this room with mural paintings that Remisoff has been making daily trips to the country. The feather murals in the Casino Club, the lofty paintings covering the foyer walls of the Lake Forest Library, and the murals in Graceland Chapel, are examples of his work painted during the years he lived here."

Mrs Hamill, who has a flair for flower arrangements, will have fresh blossoms thruout the rooms, and an added attraction will be the blossoms out of doors in the gardens on the extensive property, considered among the most beautiful on the North Shore. The one downstairs room which will not be completely thrown open to visitors, but which they may view from the doorway, will be a mirror-lined one where the Hamills keep invaluable collections of objets d'arts which they have picked up during travels in Europe and this country. This mirrored setting is shelter for Mrs Harill's collection of wax figures from all over the world."

"Lake Forest Home to be Open to Public for Charity Event. (By Athlyn Deshais). "One of the greatest boasts to benefit-giving is to stage the event in a magnificent mansion. The public likes to know how others live. Mrs Alfred E. Harill is doing her part for the Ridge Farm Preventorium's Summer sale by throwing open "The Centaurs," their Italian style villa at 1115 East Illinois, Lake Forest, Ill. From 11 AM until 5 PM, on Tuesday the Preventorium's members and friends will purchase gifts at tables set up in the vast rooms of the white cement block mansion. Since Mrs Harill is her own head gardener, she will do her own floral arrangements throughtout the labyrinth of rooms. After passing through the iron gates leading to the Harill home, the visitor enters a column-walled courtyard which is guarded by two huge centaurs. Delicate coral geraniums blend with the three-layered tile roof of the dignified mansion. Green shuttered windows are framed in dove gray."

Lake Forest is today's goal for garden lovers, and this coming week Lake Foresters will be practically daily hostesses to Chicagoans. On Tuesday, Mrs Alfred Harill at "Centaurs" will welcome visitors to the Ridge Farm Preventorium sale where members of the Board of Directors and the Junior Board are going to take orders for specialties to swell the charity's funds. Just to have a look at the charming house, it has the most spectacular library in these parts, for one thing, will lure many visitors."

(From: Chicago Tribune-8/2/1953)-Book Section-"Books Alive" by Vincent Starrett): "...it is not widely known perhaps that in the death last month of Alfred E. Hamill, retired investment banker and President of the Newberry Library, Chicago lost one of her most delightful if least publicized poets. For years Hamill, a notable bookman, had written verse under the pseudonym, - Hugh Western, and a number of volumes published under that name are among the cherished possessions of collectors. Much of his work in this field was done for Christopher Morley, in the days when Morley was editing his famous Column "The Bowling Green," in the old Saturday Review of Literature. A fine specimen of his talent is the sonnet "Actaeon," which follows:

"I see him stumble down the bank and blink,
Steady his step, and rub his eager eyes
So lately clear, now clouded with surprise
At beauty in the wilderness. I think
None can know better how his pupils shrink,
Like cat's the noonday, when he, startled, spies
Such treasury of silver breast and thighs
As laces moonlight with the brooklet's ink.
And then the changeling stag, the hounds, the blood,
The great heart ribboned by those fangs of fire
More sharp than any tooth, unless Desire Hath teeth as well as talons. - Lucky had!
To taste now death than life hath greater good "For him who's seen a Goddess - and gone mad."

Poetry lovers will do well to seek the slim books of Hugh Western, among them "The Sonneteering of Petrarchino," "Serenade," "Suite Chinese," and "This Last Devotion."

Compiler's Note): In the Newberry Library, (3rd Floor-Mrs. Chase), there is a collection of Newspaper articles about prominent Chicagoans. This was written for a Chicago newspaper, (probably the Herald-American), by Miss Emma Lee Walton, a Chicago Newspaper woman & Genealogist. One very interesting article concerns Alfred E. Hamill, and the Hamill Family. It is a very good article and should be copied into this Genealogy. Miss Chase told me about it in July 1953.

(Letters Re: Death of Alfred E. Hamill): Mrs. Alfred E. Hamill, Lake Forest, Ill 7/21/1953. It was sorrowful news to Helen and to me; to learn of Alfred's passing. He had lived a life of great usefulness, carrying on the Hamill tradition of good works in so many Charities, and institutions for the public welfare. I know how much he will be missed, not only by you and the family, and his wide circle of friends - but by the poor and the sick and those so in need of aid. I am sure he has a bright future in the world to come.

I have brought his pages in the Hamill Genealogy down to date - to show his death notices. When I went to the Newberry Library to insert the new sheets, I found that Dr. Pargellis, the Librarian, had the book in his own office to consult its data, as he is preparing a memorial statement about Alfred. Helen and I join in our kindest sympathy to you, to Tess, Corry and Pat, and to the Grandchildren. Sincerely yours, Paul H. McCalla.

Lake Forest, Illinois, 8/18/1953. Miss Helen McCalla, Mr Paul McCalla. The family of Alfred Ernest Hamill acknowledges with grateful appreciation your kind expression of sympathy. Dear Helen and Paul: Thank you so much for your very kind notes of sympathy. They were a great help. Alfred was such a good soldier - he never complained or lost courage during his long illness - he is an example to his family. Sincerely and very gratefully, Clarice.
(Mrs Alfred Ernest Hamill-Clarice Griffin Walther).

(From: Chicago Daily News-11/20/1953): "Mrs Alfred E. Hamill has sold her large Lake Forest home and is building a smaller one in the same suburb."

(Note: This new home is at 500 E. Vine St., Lake Forest - very near to her daughter Clarice, at 253 E. Vine St.).

(From: Chicago Tribune-3/16/1954): From: "The Literary Spotlight" by Fanny Butcher: "Hamill Treasures are Bequeathed. There was nothing whimsical in the generous bequests made by Alfred Ernest Hamill when he left to the Art Institute (of which he was Trustee for 27 years) a collection of more than 250 books in the field of painting, architecture, the graphic arts, and the arts of the theater, including color reproductions of many stage designs by famous artists. . . and to the Newberry Library, of which he was President of the Board of Trustees for almost a quarter century, the scholarly Mr. Hamill bequeathed priceless books to round out the library's collections, especially in English literature, calligraphy, and in the very specialized field of Gypsy literature."

- If he had chosen the profession of writing, Mr Hamill would have achieved fame; for, altho he wrote little, that little was always distinguished. He was poet in the classical mold, and he published privately (out of modesty not because he could not have found a publisher) under the pseudonym of Hugh Western, a name which he is said to have chosen as a declaration of his attachment to the prairie earth. . . One of his memorable poetic statements is these stanzas from "Face to the Sky," reprinted in the latest Newberry Library Bulletin, which is an Alfred E. Hamill Memorial Number (April 1954) -

"This is my country." Herein was I

Born to the prairie's shallow skin of loam,

Here have lived hard and when I come to die

Here would be buried - This is home.

Few ghosts inhabit here; no dead

Princes or poets rot beneath our corn - -

Only black earth below, and overhead,

Swept sky and history unborn.

Yet, like the leathern-leaved oak

That sucks its knotty toughness from a ground

All toughness-too, so I and all my folk

Stem from that soil to which we're bound."

The Newberry Library Bulletin, (Vol 3-#5), April 1954, is dedicated as the "Alfred E. Hamill Memorial Number" and contains many tributes to Mr Hamill (Forenote on Page 137): "Alfred Ernest Hamill. Alfred E. Hamill's interests and capacities were such as to make him, for 23 years, the ideal President of the Library in the Humanities. Widely read, especially in those areas where man's disciplined and creative imagination is most fully displayed, as much at home in the 16th as in the 20th century, he sought for and recognized distinction in every age and in every field of activity. His judgement of men was as keen and sure as his judgement of books. Understanding the frailties of human nature, he tolerated all except stupidity and the lack of integrity. His taste was as impeccable as it was original, whether in art, architecture or literature. To be an individual meant for him a life in which action sprang from the imagination, restrained and tempered by good sense, the hard use of the rational faculty, and sensitive appreciation of the opinions of those whom he trusted and approved. His frame was tall and spare, with the tapering fingers of an artist, his carriage erect and dignified, his manner kindly and sympathetic. Such an appearance and such qualities made him a figure altogether unique in the Chicago which he served so generously, as a member of the Boards of many different cultural and (SEE OTHER SIDE).

charitable institutions. He demonstrated how a business man, highly respected in his own circles, can employ his wealth and his time to the delight and satisfaction of his community, his friends throughout the world, and himself. (A resolution of the Board of Trustees of The Newberry Library, July) (27th, 1935).

(From Page 158): "Alfred E. Hamill, 1863-1935. To casual acquaintances on the 8 o'clock train from Lake Forest, Alfred Hamill seemed much like the other men who caught that train 5 mornings a week. They knew him as a business man, a partner in Goldman, Sachs & Co, with all-evidences of substance and success. They knew, or could easily find out, the available facts about him: that he was the son of a President of the old Corn Exchange Bank, had gone to the Hill School, was Yale '05, had started as a clerk in the Northern Trust Co, and after 3 years had entered Commercial Paper, where he had remained ever since. He was a Republican, a member of good clubs, a director of 3 or 3 corporations, a Trustee of the Presbyterian Hospital, and the Chicago Child Care Society, Vice-President of the Chicago Art Institute, and President of the Lake Forest Public Library and of The Newberry Library. He was regarded, partly because of his reserve, and partly because of his striking appearance and the originality of his dress, as somewhat stiff, somewhat of an enigma, and these suspicions were not lessened by the discovery that he was a member of the Council of the American Academy in Rome, that he occasionally read papers before the Chicago Literary Club, and that he was the author of 4 volumes of poetry."

"Those who chanced upon him in Columbia or Mexico were surprised to see him wearing a soft instead of a wing collar, and to find him behaving in the most genial and affable fashion. A few who came to know him better summarized their impression of him by saying that he was the last of the Aristocrats, who should have been born in an age which recognized and supported the Patron. An old friend, himself an artist, put that impression best: 'I used to call him Lorenzo di Medici, and he came nearer being that than any man I ever knew or heard of in our generation; though I think he was a far sweeter person and probably had finer taste in both art and life.'"

(From Page 159): "Alfred Hamill began a typical day at 8 in the morning with half an hour of grueling 'getting-up' exercises. In private he kept up until his Doctor forbade it a few years before his death. His usual contributions to charities, for instance, required 4 or 5 single-spaced pages to list. On the way home he invariably stopped at his Mother's with some gift, or better, some trick or jest. At home he and his wife dressed for dinner every night of their lives. There were some 10,000 books in A.E.H.'s library, and he had read or read in them all. (Page 141): 'One room off the main library was filled, from floor to ceiling, with the classics and with the Renaissance. Another room held French literature, a carefully chosen section of magnificent books on costume, on gardening, and on architecture. (From Page 142): 'His kindness of manner, belying the formidable stiffness of his posture and, perhaps, springing essentially out of his desire that the people he met, and especially those less fortunate than he, should have well-being. These characteristics, of impeccable taste, of sophistication, of rigid self-discipline, of generosity, of goodness, or learning in unusual fields, and of wit, still do not reveal the secret of the man. They are words which might be used of an 18th century Aristocrat, and Alfred Hamill was a man of the Renaissance. (Page 143): 'His unpretentious country cottage, 'Elsewhere,' from the low pergola of which one looked out over the cornfields on the hillside below, reflected the same blending of sophistication and of unaffected simplicity which gave it a peculiar charm. The cottage was beside the drive, stood a statue of one of his most picturesque ancestors, carved by Sylvia Shaw Judson. (From Page 146): These ancestors, as he recognized, had much to do with the formation of his character and personality. The Hamills themselves were originally Irish, and on his Mother's side were the Corwitts, who had come to Glen in the early days of its prosperity, and the Scoulards, a French family which had lived in the Mississippi Valley since the 18th Century. English, Scots, Welsh, Irish and French blood flowed in his veins. Self discipline he learned from his Presbyterian Mother, who devoted herself to him, 4 of his 5 brothers and sisters having died in infancy, and in whose nature curiosity, humor, and grace mingled. Generosity and public service were characteristics of both his Father and his Grandfather, Robert C. Hamill, a country Doctor who had come to Chicago in 1852, and devoted far more of his time to his poor patients, whom he never billed, than to his wealthy clientele. Dr Hamill was a Co-Founder of the Presbyterian Hospital.

Young Alfred made in Carlsbad at the age of 12, his first discriminating purchase; a figure of a Roman Centurian. His Mother introduced him to books. He learned to study at the Hill School, and at Yale he came under the influence of William Lyon Phelps, who was later to write him that he thought of no undergraduate "with more affection and pride than I do of you"....."

The acquisition of such an addition to any library is worthy of note, but) which in its vastness might have had the impressive air of a public building, but which, thus treated, did have the intimacy and charm which can make the library the happiest and most used room in any home large enough to have a separate bookroom.

Others Share. Alfred Hamill bequeathed his books on calligraphy to the Newberry Library, of which he was President for many years. He thus made its calligraphy collection probably the finest in the country. The Burnham Library of the Art Institute was given several thousand of the fine art books from the Hamill Library. Some especially rare editions were taken by Alfred Hamill's cousin, Miss Frances Hamill, of Hamill & Barker, rare book dealers. (Miss Hamill, by the way, is now President of the Antiquarian Bookseller's Association of America, which was host to the first International League of Antiquarian Booksellers meeting in New York in October). The rest of the great library is now at Lake Forest College, finally installed and available to students, two years after the death of the donor.

One of Alfred Hamill's quiet pleasures was the writing of classical poetry which he did under the pseudonym of Hugh Western.....Mrs Hamill is also an author. She not only wrote a delightful book about the flowers of Mexico, "Mexican Bouquet," for which she did all of the research, but she illustrated it, hand coloring every illustration to be sure of exact reproduction..... The modesty of the Hamills in publishing their books privately denied many # readers the opportunity of knowing them."

(From: Chicago Tribune-2/16/1956): "Mrs Alfred E. Hamill probably will do more talking than her travelling companion, Mrs Edward L. Hasler, on their few month's stay in Rome, because Mrs Hamill speaks fluent Italian and Mrs Hasler doesn't. The two left recently and plan side trips to Naples, Capri, and Sorrento."

Ernest Alfred Hamill, II, (Called "Pat"), prepared for College at Hill School. He graduated from Hill in 1931, with special honors in scholarship, and won the Phi Beta Kappa Key. He studied 1 year at the Yale Architectural School. He is a member of Zeta Psi Fraternity. He became connected with the Morton Salt Co, Chicago, as personal assistant to his Father-in-Law, Mr Sterling Morton, who trained him to take over the management of the Morton Salt Co, as well as the large Morton interests in many corporations. Mr Morton's only son died, and he prevailed upon young Mr Hamill to become his understudy, and learn the difficult work of managing such large interests. During World War II, "Pat" took special Aviation training at the Aviation Volunteer Services School, at Quonset Point, Rhode Island, graduating 10th in his class. He became a full Lieutenant of Naval Aviation, and was stationed at Anacostia Naval Air Station, near Washington, DC - where he served thru the War, testing planes. His wife, Suzette Morton Hamill, lived nearby, while he was in service.

"Pat" Hamill is fond of machinery, and his family say jokingly that he would have been perfectly happy to have become a Machinist.

Suzette Morton, (Mrs E.A. Hamill, II) (Called "Suzy Hamill"), is considered one of Chicago's most brilliant young women, and has great charm of manner, as well as a distinguished appearance. She has always been particularly interested in fine printing, and owns and operates the "Pocahontas Press," devoted to fine printing and special editions. The "Pocahontas Press" is located (10/19/1946) at 41 East Oak St, (Phone SUPERior 7529), Chicago, Ill. She is also Vice-President of the Society for Contemporary American Art, and is active in the affairs of the Chicago Art Institute. She is a Director (1947) of the Institute of Design, located in the former building of the Chicago Historical Society, N. Dearborn St, Chicago - which has 700 Students in Sculpture, Architecture, Photography, Product Design and Advertising. She designed the scenery (3/19/1947) for the Opera Theater's presentation of "The Rape of Lucretia" - having studied stage design at the Beaux Arts, in Paris.

Suzette is the Daughter of Mr Sterling Morton, of 1260 Astor St, Chicago Ill, President of the Morton Salt Co, and his Wife (Maiden Name) - - - - - (Morton). She is the Granddaughter of Mr Joy Morton, Founder and President of the Morton Salt Co, Chicago, and his Wife, Margaret - - - - - Gray (Morton). Her father, Sterling Morton, has a Summer home on Lake Road, in Lake Forest, Ill (Chicago suburb). They also have Thornhill Farm, adjoining the famous Morton Arboretum, near Lisle and Downer's Grove, Ill (Chicago suburbs). Mr Sterling Morton is President of the Morton Salt Co, and head of various other corporations, Trusts and Endowments. They have a Winter home in Santa Barbara, Calif - which Suzette often visits.

Suzette is the Granddaughter (Maternal side) of Mr-Mrs Heaton Owsley. She is Great-Granddaughter (Maternal side) of Mr-Mrs Carter M. Harrison, 1st - (former Mayor of Chicago), and (Paternal side) of J. Sterling Morton, who Originated Arbor Day, and who was Secretary of Agriculture under President Grover Cleveland. Her Uncle and Aunt on her Father's side are Mr-Mrs Joseph M. Cudahy. Suzette is likewise a descendent of Pocahontas, the Indian Princess.

Suzette's Grandfather, the late Joy Morton, Founder of the Morton Salt Co, owned Thornhill Farm, and founded the famous Morton Arboretum, filled with every type of tree, bush and plant. This Arboretum adjoins Thornhill Farm, and is located about 25 miles S-W of Chicago, near Lisle and Downer's Grove, Ill (Chicago suburbs), and near Ogden Ave (Route 34).

Suzette's Grandmother, Mrs Joy Morton (Margaret Gray), upon her death on 4/22/1940, left large bequests to various Charities. Over 2 million Dollars (see under side). (3/15/1947).

ars was left to Northwestern University, to build and help endow the Morton Memorial Hospital on the downtown Campus. $50,000 each was left to the Chicago Historical Society, Blackburn College (Carlinville, Ill), Edwards Sanitarium (Naperville, Ill), and Home for Convalescent Women and Children (Chicago Ill). $100,000 was left to carry on the upkeep of the Morton Arboretum.

Eugenie prepared her college at Vassar, and graduated from Vassar in 1934. In 1932 she was chosen to carry the Daisy Chain at Vassar. She spent her Junior year at the Sorbonne, in Paris, France.

Sr. Martinez will choose the most authentic Mexican costume worn to the benefit, and for a prize its wearer will receive a handsome book of Mexican costumes drawn by Carlos Merida and published by Mrs Ernest A. Harrill, 21, on her Pocahontas Press (41 E. Oak St-Chicago). Mr Merida, who has exhibited in the Art Institute, is in Mexico now, but the Emerson House Board has hopes of persuading him to come North for the party. Mrs Harrill, also a guest at yesterday's gathering, has obtained two basement rooms in an Oak St (41 E. Oak St) house, where she has set up her press, and where she is working on a new book, a collection of flower prints drawn by her mother-in-law, Mrs Alfred E. Harrill, (11-262-53). The edition will be limited to about 150 copies, and it is slow in working, for the prints are to be hand colored....."

(From: Chicago Daily News-1/10/1947): "...Chicago Society has lost Ernest "Pat" Hamill, II, to Manhattan....and apparently it's permanent, because "Pat" has a position now in New York. We hear that Suzy, his wife, may move East, too, later...not indicating at a reconciliation, but simply an amicable arrangement they've worked out to give their children a chance to see both parents often."

Suzy is having one of the dinner parties before tonight's 12th Night Masque...entertaining the Giovanni Cardelli's () the Byron Harvey, Jr's, the Ferre Watkinses, Lloyd Laflin, who arrived yesterday from Arizona, Richard Oliphant, Walter Baxter, a visiting Englishman, and Mrs William Wood Prince. Bill Prince will be at the stag dinner given for the British "Racquetcoers" here for the "Western Racquets tournament....and he's bringing at least five of them along to the ball, which will endow Suzy's table with more stags probably than any other...." () Compiler's Note: Mr Cardelli is Director of the Cardelli Opera-Theater, and has recently rented Suzy's garage apartment at her Astor St home.

(From: Chicago Tribune-2/12/1947): "...The (Giovanni) Cardelli's are occupying the garage apartment of Mrs Hamill's Astor St residence. However, Mrs Hamill is planning to sell her house, as she has bought one in 94th St in New York, where she will move soon, so that her children can be near their father, whose business took him to New York recently...."

(From: Chicago Tribune-Theater Section-2/23/1947): "Mrs Ernest A. Hamill, II, has been chosen to design the setting and costumes for "The Rape of Lucretia," an opera considered by some to be superior to Britten's "Peter Grimes." Known as a designer of books, Mrs Hamill chose modern stage design for her Thesis at the Beaux Arts. For all the Opera's contemporary composition, she will be working in 500 BC, as Ronald Duncan's libretto is based on Ovid's "Le Viol de Lucrece." The tragedy takes place within an inner proscenium, and the action is commented upon and interpreted in Christian terms by a male and a female narrator, stationed one at each side...."

(From: Chicago Daily News-2/20/1947): "...When Suzy Hamill, (Mrs E.A., 2nd), arrives home from California early in March, she'll busy herself at once designing sets and scenery for the Opera-Theater's presentation of "The Rape of Lucretia." THE MORTON ARBORETUM:

(The Morton Arboretum, at Lisle, Illinois, (Chicago suburb), was Founded in 1921 by Joy Morton, Founder and 1st President of the Morton Salt Co, who was the Grandfather of Mrs Ernest A. Hamill, II, (Charlotte Morton) (H-262-531).)

(From: Chicago Tribune-6/14/1947): "ARBORETUM JOY INSPIRED BY URBAN SPRING.

Two Seasons Flowers Bloom Together. (This is one of a series of Saturday articles on civic and cultural institutions and recreational facilities of the Chicago area. The subject today is the Morton Arboretum, color pictures of which appear on the back page). By Edward Barry.

"On a trip to the Morton Arboretum, it would be helpful to take along some knowledge of Botany. If this is impossible, the trip should be made anyway. The Arboretum is a sharply pleasant experience, even for those folks who cannot tell one tree from another, and who are doubtful about their ability to identify correctly any flower other than the dandelion. These 300 acres of trees, shrubs, flowers, lawns, and lakes offer a series of esthetic delights so intense that, by comparison, the pleasures to be derived from knowledge seem mild.

Spring Freshness Lingers: Especially is this true in 1947's June weather, which is unlike the June weather of any year that has had a normal Spring. The year is approaching its high noon, but the freshness of the long delayed morning lingers. The flowers of May and of June are blooming together. The Arboretum lies on both sides of State Route 53, just outside Lisle. It is about 25 miles from Chicago. The motorist may take Ogden Ave, or Roosevelt Road to the intersection with 53. One may also go by the Burlington Railroad to Lisle, or by the Northwestern, or the Aurora-Elgin to Glen Ellyn. The distance from the Lisle station to the Arboretum is about 1 mile and from the Glen Ellyn stations, about 4 miles. The grounds are open daily from sunrise to sunset. There is no admission charge.

Glory of Color and Scent: As the visitor enters the grounds and receives visually the Arboretum's first impact, he may find that he is breaking into an involuntary smile of happiness. Nothing has prepared him for the glory of color and scent with which he is now surrounded. Late lilacs - overwhelming clusters of them - are set against masses of greenery. The lawns have a golden overtone where the sunlight strikes them. The sky is a clean, deep blue that seems to lead the eye on into infinite distances. Fragrances of woods and flowers drift about with every stirring of the air. Spicy scents from flowering trees mingle with the heavy fragrance of roses.

Find Riot of Color: Wandering thru the Arboretum, the visitor is continually impressed with the way promise and fulfillment are blended this year. The wild blue phlox and the wild geranium, which normally are gone by the 1st week of June, have remained to keep company with the roses. The colors of Spring and Summer riot together thru the grounds. The little lakes in the Arboretum look as placid as Summer itself; but on their banks may be Spring flowers that should have been gone weeks ago. The Arboretum abounds in surprising vistas. To enjoy them to the full, the visitor should take the foot trails that lead in and out thru deep woods.

Good Motor Roads Available: For those who do not care to walk, there are good motor roads thru the Arboretum. Available at the administration building are maps that show the location of some of the Arboretum's principal plantings. The Arboretum was Founded in 1921 by the late Joy Morton - Chicago business man, whose interest in Botany was partly inherited from his father, J. Sterling Morton, Founder of Arbor Day, and Secretary of Agriculture under President Cleveland. Joy Morton died in 1934. His daughter, Mrs Joseph H. Cudahy, is now Chairman of the Board of Trustees. (3 color pictures of Arboretum scenes are printed on the back page).

(From: Chicago Daily News-4/8/1953): "Mrs Cudahy Dies; Civic Leader Mrs Jean Cudahy, wealthy Chicago social and civic leader, died late Tuesday in her Palm Beach (Fla.) home. She was the widow of Joseph H. Cudahy, a son of the founder of the meat packing firm. He died in 1947. Mrs Cudahy was the (and other side). (6/15/1953).

daughter of the late Joy Morton, founder and chairman of the Morton Salt Co, who died in 1934.

An active civic leader, Mrs Cudahy was a member of the Chicago Horticultural Society; served as Vice-Chairman of the Chicago Red Cross War Fund during World War II, and Chairman of the Women's division of the United Emergency Relief Fund. She also was responsible for the development and expansion of the Morton Arboretum, in DuPage County, founded by her father.

Mrs Cudahy also was active in the Visiting Nurse Association and served as its president. She maintained homes at 1500 Lake Shore Drive and 830 N. Green Bay Road, Lake Forest. A brother, Sterling Morton, and a niece, Mrs Victor Zurcher, survive."

(From Chicago Tribune-4/3/1953): "Joseph M. Cudahy's Widow Dies in Florida Home. Palm Beach, Fla.; April 7(1953)-Mrs Joseph M. Cudahy of Chicago, prominent member of the Palm Beach Winter colony and a member of salt and meat packing families, died in her home today after a long illness. Her husband died in Chicago in 1947. She was the former Jean Morton of the Morton Salt family, a native of Omaha and daughter of the late Joy Morton, who established the Morton Arboretum in Chicago."

(From Chicago Daily News-4/9/1953): "Mrs Joseph M. Cudahy. Services for Mrs Jean Cudahy, Chicago social and civic leader, will be held at 2 PM Saturday in the Church of the Holy Spirit, 872 N. Church, Lake Forest. Burial will be in Lake Forest cemetery. Mrs Cudahy died Tuesday in her Palm Beach (Fla.) home. She also maintained residences at 1500 Lake Shore Drive, and at 830 N. Green Bay Road, Lake Forest. She was the widow of Joseph M. Cudahy, a son of the founder of the meat packing firm. She was a daughter of the late Joy Morton, founder and Chairman of the Morton Salt Co. Survivors include a brother, Sterling Morton, and a niece, Mrs Victor Zurcher."

(From Chicago Tribune-4/3/1953): "Services Set For Widow of Joseph Cudahy. Services for Mrs Joseph Michael Cudahy, 69, of Chicago and Lake Forest, who died Tuesday in Palm Beach, Fla., will be held at 2 PM Saturday in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Lake Forest, with burial in Lake Forest Cemetery. Mrs Cudahy, the former Jean Morton, was the widow of the former head of the Cudahy Packing Company and the Sinclair Refining Co. Like her husband, who died in 1947, she was noted for her social and civic work, her offices including honorary chairman of the Chicago Visiting Nurse's Association and Trustee of the Chicago Historical Society and the Garden Club of America. The Chicago Horticultural Society awarded her its 1952 Charles L. Hutchinson service medal. Mrs Cudahy was the daughter of the late Joy Morton, former chairman of the Morton Salt Co. and founder of the Morton Arboretum near Isle, DuPage County (Illinois). Her brother, Sterling Morton of Chicago and Lake Forest, survives."

(From: Chicago Daily News-7/5/1947): "Socialite Asks Divorce: Desertion Charged to E.A. Hamill, II. A divorce suit was filed today in Superior Court by Mrs. Suzette Morton Hamill against Ernest Alfred Hamill, II, to terminate a society marriage of 1935. Mrs. Hamill, of 219 Lake Shore Drive, charges that her husband deserted her July 1, 1946. His address was given at 1349 Astor St. Mrs. Hamill is a daughter of Sterling Morton of Lake Forest, capitalist and manufacturer. Hamill is a son of Alfred E. Hamill (H-262-53) of Lake Forest, investment banker. They have two children, Ariel, 9, and Sterling M., 7."

(From: Chicago Tribune-7/6/1947): "Ernest A. Hamill, II, Sued for Divorce On Desertion Charge. Ernest A. Hamill, II, a member of a socially prominent family of Chicago and Lake Forest, was sued for divorce yesterday in Superior Court by Suzette Morton Hamill, of 219 E. Lake Shore Drive. The suit, filed by Atty. Robert M. Adams, charges desertion and asks the Court to make provisions for the custody of the Hamill's two children, Ariel, 9, and Sterling 7. The Hamills were married Dec. 19, 1935, in the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Sterling Morton of 1260 Astor St. The Mortons now live at 975 N. Lake Road, in Lake Forest.

The Hamills separated about July 1, 1946, according to the bill. Hamill, an investment broker, now lives in New York. His Grandfather was Ernest A. Hamill, (H-262-5), prominent in civic and philanthropic circles and Chairman of the Board of the Illinois-Merchants Trust Company at the time of his death in 1927."

(From: Chicago Tribune-7/2/1948): "ZURCHER HAMILL. News of the marriage to take place in Paris today of Mrs. Suzette Morton Hamill, daughter of Mr & Mrs Sterling Morton of Lake Forest, to Victor Zurcher, son of Mr & Mrs Victor Zurcher of La Galle, Switzerland, will come as a surprise to the bride's friends. The bridegroom has Chicago connections, as his mother, the former Marguerite Clarke, is a niece of the late Mrs Charles L. Hutchinson. Mr & Mrs Zurcher are now living in Paris. Mrs. Hamill formerly was married to Ernest A. Hamill, II, who remarried June 17, (1948), when he took Mrs Helen Hoffman Hamilton as his bride in New York City. He now lives in New York City."

(From: Chicago Tribune-7/5/1948): "...The former Mrs. Suzette Morton Hamill and her bridegroom, Victor Zurcher, who were married last Friday (7/2/1948) in Paris, will spend the summer motoring thruout Europe before returning late in August to New York City, where he is associated in business with Charles S. Dewey, Jr., formerly of Lake Forest (11). Mr. Zurcher, son of the Victor Zurchers of La Galle, Switzerland, received his early education in Europe and later attended McGill University in Toronto (Canada). He served with the Royal Canadian Air Force in the war. The bride is the daughter of Mr & Mrs Sterling Morton of Lake Forest. The senior Mrs. Zurcher is the former Marguerite Clarke, niece of the late Mrs Charles L. Hutchinson of Chicago....."

MRS SUZETTE MORTON (MORTON) (ZURCHER):

(From: Chicago Tribune-10/15/1948): The Sterling Mortons Are Hosts to Daughter and New Son-in-Law. The Sterling Mortons, who arrived at home in Lake Forest Tuesday from a month's stay abroad, yesterday welcomed their daughter and new son-in-law, the Victor Zurchers, Suzette Morton Hamill, who are here for a visit from their home in New York City until Sunday. The Mortons have invited a few of their daughter's friends in for cocktails tomorrow afternoon to meet Mr Zurcher, who knew Chicago as a young boy, since his mother, the former Marguerite Clarke, is a niece of the late Mrs Charles W. Hutchinson of Chicago. The Mortons were delighted to be able to meet Mr Zurcher's parents, the Victor Zurchers of La Galle, Switzerland, while they were abroad. Most of their time was spent in Paris, and among the other pleasantly remembered features of the trip was the flight both ways.

The few days here are quite full for the Zurchers, for this morning Mrs Zurcher will speak before the Friday Club, whose meeting place is the fashionable Fortnightly Club. Taking as title for her talk: "Lady into Publisher," Mrs Zurcher will draw on her own experiences in the publishing field for her lecture. In New York City, Mrs Zurcher is continuing the work she started when she lived here, of publishing illustrated books for limited distribution on her own Pocahontas Press. Her first workshop was set up in the basement of her Oak St home here, and when she went to New York City, she took the press with her.

(From: Chicago Daily News-12/18/1948): Guest of Mrs Donnelly. Another young man from Manhattan who attended the Casino Ball as a dinner guest of Mrs Pauline Donnelly, was Porter McCray, of the Museum of Modern Art. Mr McCray planned the changes in the New York house of Mrs Victor K. Zurcher, and while he was here, he went to see the Charles Pike house in Lake Forest, that will be the new home of the Zurchers. Mrs Zurcher, the former Suzette Morton Hamill is a confirmed modernist. A Chicago architect will make a few changes in the beautiful old Italian house on the lakefront, to make her modern paintings and sculpture at home there.

(From: Chicago Daily News-8/1/1949):Temporary Haven. The "Howland" house, Lake Forest, Ill., in the meantime, has been a temporary haven for the Victor Zurchers, (Suzette Morton Hamill). Since they arrived in Lake Forest last month, life has been so complicated for Mrs Zurcher, she's had little opportunity to see many of her friends there. Leaving a Bath. The Charles Curran Pike home, which the Zurchers recently bought, occupies lake front property adjoining the home of her parents, the Sterling Mortons. For the last two weeks Suzette Zurcher has been dashing back and forth between the house, where extensive remodeling and decorating is going on, and Lake Forest Hospital, where her 9-year-old son, Morton Hamill, has been confined with a "strep" infection. He's at home with his step-father and mother now, and looking forward to the arrival of a new baby brother or sister next month.

(From: Chicago Tribune-10/12/1949): Name of Birth. He weighs 8 pounds 11 1/2 ounces and his first name will be Victor, happily preclaims Victor K. Zurcher, in telling of the birth of his first child Monday in Lake Forest Hospital. The baby, whose mother is the former Suzette Morton Hamill, has a half-brother and a half-sister and is a grandchild of Mr and Mrs Sterling Morton of Lake Forest, and Mr and Mrs Max O. Zurcher of Paris, France.

(From: Chicago Daily News-10/12/1950): Society in Chicago. Zurchers Convert Home into Gallery for Art Benefit Sale. Proceeds to Help Buy Prints of Masters for Chicago Schools. More terrified daily, as he watches his wife prepare room after room of their Lake Forest home as the locale for a public Art Fair on Saturday and Sunday, Nov 28 and 29, (1950), Victor Zurcher is threatening to go into hiding that weekend. Exerting a restraining influence against any such procedure are the other husbands who already have promised to help their committee women wives make a success of the Fair and Christmas Sale to benefit the Chicago Public School Art Society. Solomon B. Smith, whose wife is president of the Society, and Volney Foster, will assist with the entertaining.

.....Mrs Zurcher's daughter, 12-year-old Ariel Merrill, is a member of the Junior Committee that will assist with hostess duties and sell Christmas decorations and tree ornaments. Louise Smith, Lynn Dean, "Bumpy" Elting and Cindy Kelley are others of this group. Heading four Christmas-trees that are 8 feet tall, Mrs Zurcher has a note cut to her Aunt, Mrs Joseph Gudahy, begging them from the Morton Arboretum, should there be (she hopes) any tree-thinning in progress there at this time.

Mrs Gudahy, daughter of the late Joy Morton who founded the Arboretum, is Chairman of the Arboretum Board of Trustees, Near Isle, Ill, in Cook DuPage County, it's said that every species of tree, shrub, and vine suitable to the local climate grows there. The tall Christmas trees will be set around the big dining room of the Zurcher home, each bedecked with ornaments of a certain price range, to make the work of the little saleswomen easier. They are the work of children in the public school art classes. Other exhibits and sales displays will overflow into the other main floor-rooms of the home. In one place will be hung the 13 reproductions of masterpieces of different periods to be presented to one of Chicago's pictureless schools by Walter Brewster....the late Brewster memorial collection.....The fair opens both days at 11 AM, and continues until 6 o'clock. Tea will be served in the afternoon.

Completely settled in her new Lake Forest home with her Swiss husband, their baby son, Victor Morton (Zurcher), who is just a year old, and her two older children, Ariel and Sterling Morton Merrill, the former Suzanne Morton has undertaken two work projects in recent months. Within a few weeks, copies of the latest book to come from her Pocahontas Press will be in the hands of the reviewers, and, in time for Christmas, on sale at the stores. It's a picture story by the French photographer, Pierre Verger, entitled "Indians of Peru." Even more exacting is the volunteer work she has undertaken for the Art Institute, where she spends three days each week doing typographic layout work and book design for the Institute publications.

(From Chicago Tribune-10/22/1950): (Photograph) "Active in Public School Art Benefit. Mrs Victor K. Zurcher, 64-262-531, painting, as her son, Sterling Morton Merrill, (4-262-531-2) (left, rear) and his cousins, Sandra (4-262-533-1) and Nelson L. James, III, (4-262-533-2) look on. Mr and Mrs Zurcher's Lake Forest home, formerly the Charles B. Pike residence, will be opened Oct. 28 and 29, (1950) for an Art Fair to benefit the Chicago Public School Art Society. Colorprints of old and modern masters, painting and art work will be sold while exhibits from noted art collections will be shown."

(From Chicago Daily News-10/24/1950): (Photograph) "Lake Foresters Plan Public School Art Fair. Three Lake Foresters, Mrs Deborah Smith, Mrs Victor Zurcher, and Mrs Charles Preston, met for lunch in the Casino Club yesterday. Members of the Chicago Public School Art Society, they discussed plans for its fair this weekend. Mrs Zurcher is opening her home on Saturday and Sunday for the event."

(From Chicago Tribune-10/29/1950): "Visitors to the benefit Art Fair of the Chicago Public School Art Society from 11 AM until 6 PM today and tomorrow in the Victor Zurcher's Lake Forest home, doubtless will be as interested in the home as in the fair. The handsome old residence is a well known landmark, having been built in 1917 for the late Charles B. Pike."

(From Chicago Tribune-11/5/1950): "The Public School Art Society's exhibition and sale at the home of Mrs Victor Zurcher in Lake Forest last weekend was a tremendous success from every point of view.....one of the visitors to the Art Fair went out of sheer curiosity about what Mrs "Suzie" Morton Zurcher had done to the old Charles Pike house, which in Mrs Pike's day was uncompromisingly Italian. It was one of the late David Adler's early works of architectural art. Huge windows looking toward the lake, a ceiling lowered in the vast dining room to accommodate radiant heating, and "gallons of white paint," Mrs Zurcher said, "did the trick.".....

(From Chicago Daily News-11/15/1950): ".....Sterling Morton's flew to Europe a month ago, just after the birth of their new grandchild - the Victor Zurcher's son - to spend 6 weeks abroad....."

(From: Chicago Daily News-10/31/1951): "The Victor Zurchers of Lake Forest (Illinois-Chicago suburb), are expecting a visit from his Mother, Mrs M.O. Zurcher of Paris, (France), within a few days."

(From: Chicago Tribune-2/3/1952): "Mrs Victor Zurcher, who designed the handsome catalog for the Cezanne exhibit, which may be viewed by the public Thursday thru March 16th, will leave Feb. 15 with Mr Zurcher for a ski holiday in Davos, Switzerland. Her daughter, Ariel Hamill, will join her abroad during Spring vacation from Lake Forest Day School, and Ariel's 14th birthday will be celebrated at a family party March 14th in Venice. Ariel's Grand-parents, the Alfred Hamills of Lake Forest, who are on a Mediterranean cruise, will join them for the celebration. When she returns, Mrs Zurcher will begin work on programs for the Art Institute Masterpiece Ball, to be given May 23rd, (1952) in the Conrad Hilton Hotel."

(From: Chicago Daily News-2/16/1952): "Ariel Hamill will celebrate her 14th birthday in Venice, (Italy), March 14th, (1952), with her Mother, Mrs Victor Zurcher, and her Grandparents, the Alfred E. Hamills, who will pause there during a Mediterranean cruise."

(From: Chicago Tribune-12/3/1952): "Fleury Elting Joins Chicago Subdeb Lists. A Chicago subdebattente scene this Christmas will be Miss Fleury Elting, 16, daughter of Mrs Richard Rice of Lake Forest, and of Byron Elting. Mrs Rice and her daughter are staying in the home of Mrs Rice's Father, Clifford M. Leonard, who is spending the Winter in his Camden, SC, Plantation "Sunny Hill".....Miss Elting plans to attend the Victor K. Zurcher's dance Dec. 20th, (1952) for Mrs Zurcher's daughter, Ariel Hamill.....Proceeding the dance on Dec. 20 for Ariel Hamill, who is a Sophomore at Miss Porter's School, parents of the young guests will entertain at three dinners - one for Freshmen, one for Sophomores, and one for Juniors and Seniors....."

(From: Chicago Tribune-12/20/1952): ".....Mr and Mrs Victor K. Zurcher, of Lake Forest, will entertain subdebattente friends of her daughter, Ariel Hamill, at a Christmas dance in her home from 9 PM to midnight tonight. Miss Hamill is home for the Holidays from Miss Porter's School, Farmington, Conn, where she is a Sophomore."

(From: Chicago Tribune-3/10/1954): "....Congratulations....to Sterling Hamill, who took the grand prize in the Hobby Show of the Lake Forest Day School for his photography display....."

(From: Chicago Tribune-6/8/1955): "An Autumn date those interested in Architecture and Homes should circle on their calendars is Oct. 8, (1955). That day several recently completed homes of advance design in the Lake Forest area will be opened for a Lake Forest College "Architectural tour" to be known as "The New Architecture." Mrs Victor Zurcher is to be Chairman of the tour, which will benefit the College's community fund program. When she returns from a Summer abroad, it is expected the houses to be opened for the tour will be announced."

Mrs Zurcher has sailed for Europe with her subdebattente daughter, Ariel Hamill, and young son, Victor. Their Summer plans include a cruise thru the islands of Greece aboard a chartered boat which Mr and Mrs Zurcher will share with Architect John Lord King and his wife, former Lake Foresters who now live in San Francisco. Mr Zurcher and his stepson, Sterling Hamill and the Kings, will meet Mrs Zurcher in Palermo, Sicily."

(Miller): "Pride of Pocahontas. Pocahontas would be proud of her lineal descendant, Suzette Morton Zurcher, who ignored her birthright as a member of one of Chicago's first families to carve her own initials deeply into the annals of contemporary design. Suzette chose printing as her métier and gives freely of her time and talents to design exhibition catalogs and posters for the Chicago Art Institute. She did the stunning invitations to the Museum's Art Festival on May 31, an annual open house to be bedecked this year in Spanish grandeur. The Junoesque Mrs Zurcher, who has a contagious laugh and tremendous vitality, is the daughter of Chicago's salt merchant, Sterling Morton. Born and brought up here, she manages a career, a large house in Lake Forest, and three children with the ease most people would apply to answering the telephone.

Printer's Ink. Some years ago she started the Pocahontas Press, bringing out limited editions of art volumes such as Carlos Merida's "Mexican Costumes" and "The Indians of Peru." The former was a "succes d'estime", if not a best seller. At present, Mrs Zurcher is commuting between Lake Forest and the Art Institute, with fleeting visits to the Chicago Public Library, where an exhibit of her work is on view. She plans to see the Biennale show in Venice this Summer, with her husband, Victor Zurcher, and to cruise among the Greek islands.

Americana. Among her many interests Suzette numbers Genealogy. She traced her family back to Pocahontas, proving a hitherto legendary relationship actually existed. She also collects Americana of the Pocahontas period, including a few prints and letters and a rare portrait of the Indian Princess as she looked when presented to the British Court, wearing a ruff and other Elizabethan finery. Pocahontas died on shipboard between London and Gravesend, at the start of her journey back to the New World. She was buried at Gravesend, and lies there still. The second Mrs Woodrow Wilson tried to have her brought home to America, only to learn that after a fire in the Church, there was a hopeless confusion of ancient bones in Churchyard and Crypt."

Just settled in their North Carolina home, "Pat and his wife, the former Helen Hoffman Hamilton of New York City will have his parents, the Alfred E. Hamills, as their first house guests. It will also be the senior Hamill's first opportunity to see their newest Grandchild, the "Pat" Hamill's daughter, Judith, who was born at Christmastime."

The baby's half-sister and half-brother, 12 year old Ariel, and Sterling Morton Hamill, 9 years old, will visit there next Summer. The elder children live in Lake Forest with their Mother and Stepfather, the Victor Zurchers. On the Board of Ridge Farm Preventorium, Mrs Alfred Hamill is planning to be here for an open house for officers and friends of the Preventorium."

(From: Chicago Daily News-12/12/1951): "Mr and Mrs Alfred E. Hamill of Lake Forest, (Ill) have their son and his family home for the holidays. Mr and Mrs Ernest A. Hamill of Asheville, NC, arrived with 2-year-old Judith Tuesday."

(From: Chicago Tribune-12/14/1951): "Judith Hamill will celebrate her second birthday Sunday (12/16/1951) with her parents, the Ernest A. Hamills of Asheville, NC, in the Lake Forest home of his parents, Mr and Mrs Alfred E. Hamill, where the younger Hamills are visiting."

(From: Chicago Tribune-8/2/1952): "Mr and Mrs Alfred E. Hamill of Lake Forest (Ill), look forward to a trip to Asheville, NC, soon, to see their new Grandson, Corwith Hamill, II, born July 29, (1952). The baby's parents are Mr and Mrs Ernest A. Hamill, (Helen Hoffman), of Asheville, (NC)."

(From: Chicago Daily News-12/10/1952): "The Sterling Hortons are in Santa Barbara, Cal, for the winter. Mr and Mrs Ernest A. Hamill, II, are expected at the Alfred E. Hamill home for the holidays. Mr and Mrs Hamill, II, live in Asheville, NC."

(From: Chicago Tribune-12/12/1952): "Mr and Mrs Alfred E. Hamill of Lake Forest (Ill) expect their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Ernest A. Hamill, 2nd, of Asheville, NC, and their children, Judith and Corwith, to arrive Tuesday for the Christmas Holiday season."

BIOGRAPHICAL:

Corwith Hamill, (Called "Corky"), prepared for College at School. He graduated () with the Degree, from Yale University, New Haven, Conn. and is a member of the Fraternity. He was Assistant Treasurer, later Acting Treasurer, of the Elgin National Watch Co., Elgin, Illinois, (Chicago suburb). Both he and his Wife are Country enthusiasts, so they have a small estate at Wayne, Ill., (Chicago suburb), which is called "Happy Hollow." Wayne is near both Elgin and St Charles, Ill. In Wayne also, his late relatives, Mr-Mrs William Stanton Monroe, (Anna Hamill Clark) (H-262-21), had their Summer home, "White Gate Farm."

Corwith, beginning in 1955, became a Trustee of the Presbyterian Hospital of Chicago - succeeding his late Father, Alfred Ernest Hamill, (H-262-53), who died 7/12/1953. The Presbyterian Hospital was Founded (1883-4) by Dr Robert C. Hamill, MD, (H-262), and after his death (1886), his son, Ernest Alfred Hamill, (H-262-5) became a Trustee. Ernest, who died in 1927, was succeeded by his son, Alfred E. Hamill, (H-262-53), who was a Grandson of Dr. Robert C. Hamill, MD. With the strong Hamill urge to humanitarian service to mankind, upon the death of Alfred (1953) his son, Corwith Hamill, (H-262-532), who is a Great-Grandson of Dr Hamill, MD, became a Trustee - to carry on the family tradition.

Beginning in 1956, due to a consolidation with St Luke's Episcopal Hospital, the famous old institution is to be known as the Presbyterian - St Luke's Hospital. It will remain at the same address, 1753 W. Congress St, Chicago.

Jean Birnie Byron Smith, (Mrs Corwith Hamill), is the Daughter of the late Harold Cornelius Smith, President of the Illinois Tool Works, and active in the Northern Trust Co, who lived in Chicago and Lake Forest, Ill, and his Wife, Emily Birnie, of England, who was a woman of great charm. Joan is the Granddaughter of Mr Byron Laflin Smith, who was President of the Northern Trust Co, of 2140 Prairie Ave, Chicago, and his Wife, Annie (Smith). Joan is the Great-Granddaughter of Mr Solomon A. Smith, who was a Pioneer Chicago Banker, and was the Founder of the Northern Trust Co, who lived in Chicago, Ill, and his Wife, (smith)

Joan's Father, Harold C. Smith, had 3 other brothers, all of whom happened to be close childhood friends of the Compiler (Paul Hamill McCalla-H-125-65) of this Genealogy. The old Smith family home at 2140 Prairie Avenue: was just a block away from The Compiler's home. The 4 brothers (sons of Byron L. Smith) were: Solomon A. Smith, whose wife was "Bunnie" Shumway, a most beautiful and gracious woman. Sol is (1956) President of the Northern Trust Co., and lives in Chicago and Lake Forest. Walter Byron Smith, whose wife was Belle McCullough, is now deceased, and who was a Vice-President of the Northern Trust Co. Bruce Donald Smith was later a Banker in New York City, and in retirement lived in Washington, DC. Bruce and The Compiler were especially close friends in childhood days, and were constant visitors in each other's homes. Sol is the only one of the 4 brothers living in 1956.

Joan's brother is Harold Byron Smith, and one sister is Elizabeth Byron Smith, and another sister is Mrs Morrison Waud, (Annie Smith).

Joan, and also her husband "Corky" are much interested in the "Horsey Set" of Wayne-Elgin-St Charles-Barrington, Ill, and other nearby Chicago suburbs. She is permanent Chairman of the Committee managing the Dunham Woods Horse Show, which held its 13th Annual Horse Show 9/6/1947, near St Charles, Illinois, (Chicago suburb).

(From: Chicago Times-10/6/1937): "Hamill-Smith Clans Gather for Wedding.

Today's super-special wedding with its all-star cast of leads, supports and props, and yesterday's Chicken-pattie promenade, stir the quiet waters of the upper pond and rustle the family trees. Joan Smith, not unlike the telephone-book Smiths, has so many relatives of that name in the social register, that her wedding to "Corky" (Corwith) Hamill, of the fine old Hamills is a perfect galaxy of the town's pioneer plutocrats. On the Bride's side of the Church this afternoon are a round hundred members of the clan who count in anyone's clique, and the groom's half of the best aisle seats shows an equally startling number of tribal connections with very potent names. The Church of the Holy Spirit, Lake Forest's favorite middle-aisle, will be banked to the rafters with impressive wedding guests.

Wears Heirloom Gown. Joan, star of the bridal review, is wearing the heirloom gown of silver cloth misted o'er with white net and trimmed Victorian style with ribbons and flounces, which floored the pew-occupants at her Mother's wedding some decades ago, and wowed the guests at nuptials which united her sister and Morrison Waud. The reception following the ceremony will expand a trifle to include not only the two great clans, but also a good sprinkling of friends and playmates. Those who are invited to neither wedding or reception are more or less tacitly considered very out of things."

(From: Chicago Daily News-9/3/1949): "Parties in Wayne, (Ill), next week-end have been planned around the 15th annual Dunham Woods Horse Show to be held Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 10-11, (1949). Saturday evenings members of the horse show committee will be hosts at the judge's dinner in the rambling Dunham Woods Club. Before dinner the same group will entertain at a cocktail party at "Happy Hollow", the Corwith Hamill home. Mrs Hamill is on the committee, along with Mrs Montgomery Orr, Mrs Arthur Farwell, J. McWilliams Stone, Charles Lindsay, III, Mrs Charles Coffin, George Wood, Mrs Alan Magary, Mrs Donald Merrill, Kenneth Hess, Horace French, John Dole, Jesse F. Burt, (Chairman) and McClure Kelley."

(From: Chicago Daily News-2/2/1950): "Plan Holiday in Swiss Alps. Mrs Solomon Smith and her Cousin, Mrs Corwith Hamill, will have their first skiing holiday in the Swiss Alps this Spring. Leaving in March (1950), they will fly over and will return home in time for Easter."

(From: Chicago Daily News-6/29/1951): "Society in Chicago. Hamills to Attend Tea Marking 5th Year of Herrick House. Give Party for Debutante Niece on Evening of Event, July 11. (By Mildred Bolger). Even the fact that they're giving a big party the evening of July 11 for their debutante Niece, Barbara Chappell, will not keep the Corwith Hamills away from the Tea at Herrick House that afternoon. The Tea will celebrate the 5th anniversary of a year-round program at Herrick House, in the interests of children recovering from rheumatic fever.....The Summer Camp and Herrick House proper, both in Bartlett, Illinois, (Chicago suburb), will be open for inspection that day.

(From: Chicago Daily News-8/9/1951): "Three Families to Go to Coleman Lake. The Morrison Wauds and Mrs Harold C. Smith of Lake Forest, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Smith and Harold, Jr., of Barrington, and the Corwith Hamills of Wayne, (Ill), will converge at the Coleman Lake Club Sunday for a family vacation of a few days. Right now in Canada on a boat and motor trip, Mr. Smith and his son will come down from Canadian wilds, timing their arrival to coincide with the rest of the family. Mrs Ernest Waud, Mr. Waud's Mother, spends her summers at the club, and will be there to greet the entourage."

(Excerpt from an Article in Chicago paper-10/31/1951): "Corwith ("Corky") Hamill is head (10/31/1951) of the Chicago regional branch of the Sports Car Club of America. Its members own antique automobiles of early vintage - which they occasionally drive with great glee. "Corky" is also Editor of the Club's new sheet, called "Piston Patter." "

Case): "Congratulations to Mrs Corwith Hamill, who has been elected President of the Wayne-DuPage Hunt, Inc, which operates the annual Dunham Woods Horse Show, the hunt, and all other equestrian activities in the Wayne area. "The fact that a woman is the new head of all equestrian activities of a community - especially one like Wayne, which is known all over the United States for its Horse Shows - is terrific," says a Hunt member. Mrs Hamill, the former Joan Smith, has ridden all her life. Her husband and their 3 children ride, too. They also ski, and Mrs Hamill now is at Sun Valley, Idaho, schussing down the slopes. Mrs Hamill's new responsibilities, in addition to the Horse Show, include 50 miles of trails and their bridges and gates, a pack of 30 hounds, and an active riding and hunting program for juniors. McClure Kelley is Vice-President of the Hunt and Master of Fox Hounds. The only other high-ranking woman in hunting circles hereabouts is Mrs James Simpson, Jr, who is joint M.F.H. of the Mill Creek Hunt, with Huld-burd Johnston."

(From: Chicago Daily News-5/20/1952): "Society in Chicago. Rural Gentry Gazes at its Pastures - Not Green Enough. Hamills Book European Flight. Surrounded by all the natural beauty and relaxed charm anyone could desire for Summer living, some of our Landed Gentry of the Wayne countryside seem to be succumbing to the old lure of greener pastures. On July 1, (1952) the Corwith Hamills and two of their children will fly aircoach to England and France. Little "Betsy" is too young to know what she's missing and undoubtedly she'll have a lovely time at Three Bears Camp in Wisconsin.....The above mentioned women are all currently involved with the third annual exhibit of contemporary art to be shown at Dunham Woods Club June 6, (1952). Sponsors are the Wayne Unit of Community Hospital, Geneva, and Delnor Hospital, St Charles.....Mrs Wm. Barker and Mrs McClure Kelley of Wayne, (Ill), are on the Committee, as are Mrs Lewis, Mrs Hamill, Mrs Freeman, and others."

(From: Chicago Daily News-6/26/1952): "Society in Chicago. Husbands, Children, Make Wayne, (Ill), Carnival a Real Family Affair. Community Event on July 19 and 20 to be held at Dunham Woods Club. You might say it gets to be a family affair, the annual Carnival in Wayne, (Ill) (7/19-20/1952)....
....Nancy Hamill won't be there to help the Brownie Girl Scouts with the Scout bake sale, but her Mother, Mrs Corwith Hamill, already has lined up arrangements for the sale. The Hamills are taking Nancy and Jonathan with them to Europe, while Betsy goes to camp. They're leaving Friday (6/27/1952) to fly to London, Paris and seaside resorts before returning the end of July."

(From: Chicago Tribune-7/2/1952): "Off for Hawaii: An intrepid air traveler herself, Mrs Harold C. Smith of Lake Forest, (Ill), is a great worrier when it comes to ocean hops taken by other members of her family. But now that she has received a cablegram from her daughter and son-in-law, the Corwith Hamills of Wayne, saying that they and their youngsters, Nancy and Jonathan, landed safely in London, she is all set for her sky-cruise to Hawaii. Mrs Smith is taking her granddaughter, Diana Waud, daughter of the Morrison Wauds of Lake Forest, and Diana's Cousin, Isabel Waud, daughter of Mrs Alfred Beadleston of Shrewsbury, NJ, on the Hawaiian jaunt. They leave today for a three weeks stay at the Halekulani Hotel in Honolulu, a favorite of Mrs Smith's."

(From: Chicago Tribune-4/3/1954): "Mrs Corwith Hamill, a joint Master of the (Wayne-DuPage) Hunt, and her husband and daughters, Betsy and Nancy, are just back from a holiday in Tryon and have welcomed the Hamill's son, Jonathan, home from the Hotchkiss School for Spring vacation."

(From: Chicago Tribune-2/11/1955): ".....The Corwith Hamills will leave on Feb'y. 22, (1955) on a fox hunting trip to Ireland. From there their itinerary includes Portugal and Madrid."

In Wingo, the horsey set, which is staging the annual Dunham Woods Horse Show, Sept. 8 and 9, (1956), certainly seems to be "dedicated" the year around. Tuesday, in a driving rain, Mrs Corwith Hamill set off with a horse trailer and several subdeb equestrians to motor to Harrisburg, Penna, for the Pony Club Trials. Fred Farwell, son of the Arthur Farwells, also is driving East. Contestants in the trials are: Nancy Hamill, Helen Burke, Sue Cooke and Janet Allen.....This is the first year of entry for the local Pony Club, and the youngsters have high hopes. Mrs Hamill has completed her job as head of the prize list Committee for the September (1956) Horse Show."

(From: Chicago Daily News-12/9/1948): "Happy Anniversary. Leaving their two children at home in St. Joseph, Mich., Mr and Mrs Nelson Ludington Barnes, (Jr), came to Chicago for the weekend, by way of celebrating their 11th wedding anniversary. Together, they saw "Mr Roberts" on Friday evening, then went out to be with the Corwith H. Mills, (H-262-532), at Wayne, (Illinois)."

(From: Chicago Daily News-9/25/1950): "Society in Chicago. One more week-Then a new home for the Barneses. They're getting ready to move to (253) Vine Ave, out in Lake Forest. After this week the Nelson Barneses (Jr) will be Lake Forest residents. They're in Chicago now, and staying in the Senior Mrs Barnes' Lake Shore Drive apartment while working with the decorators in their-suburban home. Nelson's Mother arrived home just last week-end, from her Summer Home in Harbor Point, (Mich). The young couple (she's the former Clarice Hamill) and their son and daughter have been living in St Joseph, Mich, for several years. Only a few blocks long, Vine Ave. in the suburb, will have considerable moving van traffic this Fall. The Barneses' house on that street is just next door to the Richard Mabbatts."

(From: Chicago Tribune-9/17/1952-"Recorded at Random"-by Judith Cass): "Sipping a Merry Widow cocktail before luncheon in the Bismarck Hotel the other day recalled to Otto Eitel one of the outstanding parties given some years ago in the old Stevens Hotel when he was in charge. It was the bridal dinner for Clarice Hamill and Nelson L. Barnes, Jr. A large group of young people clad in white tie and evening frocks gathered to dine and dance. The Orchestra Leader, Marek Weber, approached the prospective Bride and asked her what she would like to have him play. Her unhesitating reply brought gales of laughter from the assemblage. She wanted "The Merry Widow Waltz."

(From: Chicago Daily News-9/23/1952): "K.S.Clow Better After Operation. Kent Sarver Clow, former President of the Republican Citizens Finance committee, was in Lake Forest (Ill-Chicago suburb) Hospital Tuesday. He is recovering from a recent operation. Clow, of 900 N.Green Bay Road, Lake Forest, is head of a Plumbing and Heating firm."

(Compiler's Note: Kent Sarver Clow, (H-262-55) is the Son of Wm.E.Clow (Senior). The following relates to the Clow family relationship:

(From: Chicago Herald-American-11/5/1952): "We're Eissin' Cousins, Mrs J. Beach Clow explains the relationship between Milton Clow, the Chicago Artist, who is being honored at a luncheon tomorrow, and other members of the Clow clan. The luncheon at the Bismarck with Otto Eitel the host, will occasion a gathering of the clan with the Beach Clows, William E.Clow, "Pete" (or William E.Clow, Jr), and Mrs Donald R.Douglas, (Martha M.Clow, a sister of Wm.E), her husband and their son, Bill and his Wife, the former Ann Wharton, among those planning to attend. "Pete"s Wife, the former Betsy Dixon, will also come into town for the luncheon if her week-old daughter, who is the real mistress of the household these days, will allow it. Milton's Father, Tracy Clow, died while returning home to Havana, Cuba, from a European business trip. Nine years old at the time, the youngster was educated by Wm.E.Clow, Sr, a first cousin of his Father. Milton's artistic achievement has been in addition to his duties with the family firm, J.B.Clow & Sons, where he is manager of the gas appliance division."

Elise Hamill Clow, (Called "Peggy"), was educated at the Foxcroft School, at Virginia, and at Miss Nixon's School, in Florence, Italy. She also spent a year abroad in 1934, with Miss Stout's Travelling School. Her debut was at Christmas time, 1935, at the Blackstone Hotel, Chicago.

"Peggy" has often assisted at the benefits of St Luke's Episcopal Hospital, Chicago, and is active in the Junior League. She is much interested in various Charitable enterprises, and has inherited her Mother's typical Hamill characteristics of devout religious faith, her gentle, smiling, kindly Hamill nature, and her willingness to help in any good cause. She has maintained the family tradition of aiding the work of the Presbyterian Hospital, Founded by her Great-Grandfather, Dr Robert C. Hamill, MD, (H-262). The Chicago Tribune-6/9/1940-"When Chicago Was Young" Column, says of her: "If you are a patient in the Presbyterian Hospital, you will be likely to find on Tuesdays, lovely-looking Mrs Burke Williamson, ("Peggy" Clow), wheeling a heavy cart loaded with books thru the corridors, continuing the work of the Hamill Family for the institution." So "Peggy" inherits the smiling, Christian kindness of the old Hamills of bygone years. On 1/7/1946, she had been elected a member of the Women's Board, and was also Head of the School for Nursing Committee, of the Presbyterian Hospital, Chicago; and was also a member of the Executive Committee. She is also a Director(11/9/1949), Vice-President, (1951), and President(1954) of the Antiquarian Society, of the Chicago Art Institute.

William Burke Williamson, Jr, is the Son of the late William Burke Williamson, Sr, of Lake Charles, Louisiana, who was in the business, who was a Major in World War I, and died in action in France in 1919, and his Wife, (Maiden Name) (Williamson) (who on 1/6/1947 resided in Lake Charles, La. (From: Chicago Tribune-11/14/1947): "Hospital Supper Party. At a Luncheon meeting yesterday in the Women's Athletic Club, Mrs Allen K. Ingalls, President of the Women's Board of the Presbyterian Hospital, disclosed that a large supper party will be given next Thursday night in the Sprague Nurses Home with Volunteer workers in the Hospital and their husbands as guests. Edward F. Wilson, a member of the Hospital Board of Managers, was active in organizing men as Volunteer orderlies during the War, and will be on hand to welcome present Volunteers, along with Leslie D. Reid, Superintendent of the Hospital. Mrs Burton W. Hales heads the Volunteer Committee of the Women's Board.

Another youthful Board Member, who has taken on an important job, is Mrs Burke Williamson, who has become Head of the Board's School of Nursing Committee. Yesterday she brightened a black suit with a hat of burnt orange, which matched a corsage of three gladiolias. Other Luncheon guests carried away a corsage, for the huge white Chrysanthemums in the stunning centerpiece brought by Mrs Fred A. Poor, Luncheon hostess, were made up as individual lapel ornaments....."

(From: Chicago Tribune-9/6/1949) (Letter to the Editor): "Adequate British Service. Chicago, August 19 (1949)- As the American Taxpayer is asked to dig ever deeper into his pocket to sustain the English economy, the following story about a British business practice may be of interest. Returning from a recent trip abroad, I boarded the British Cunard-White Star liner Queen Mary at Southampton, on the afternoon of Aug 4, in accordance with instructions given Cabin class passengers. We sailed at 8.30 AM, Aug 5. About 11. Aug 7, there was placed under the door of my Cabin an envelope entitled Post Office Telegram, correctly addressed to me in Cabin class as my name appeared on that passenger list. The telegram bore a stamp showing its receipt in Southampton on Aug 4. I inquired of the Purser. He declared that the telegram was put on board prior to their sailing; that under their "system", the telegram should have been put in my cabin on or before Aug 6; and that its receipt by me on Aug 7 at 11 AM, therefore constituted a delay of about one-half day. He considered his staff assigned to this work adequate in number and ability. Burke Williamson."

LETTER from the MOTHER of WM. BURKE WILLIAMSON, JR.:

This Letter was printed in the "Letters" Department of the Saturday Evening Post of 2/16/1957. It refers to impolite and boorish American Tourists, who were described in a story: "The Unwelcome Tourists" which appeared in the SatEvePost issue of Jan'y 5th, 1957. This Letter was written by Mrs William Burke Williamson, Sr, the Mother of William Burke Williamson, Jr, (H-252-551). She lives in Lake Charles, Louisiana. (SEE OTHER SIDE). (3/6/1957)

"BOONIES" COMMENTS: Dear Sirs: Please congratulate the Editor on your Staff who found one Author who realizes that the only thing the matter with American children today is that they need at least one parent not afraid to discipline them. "The Unwelcome Tourists" by Hugh B. Cave in the January 5th(1957) issue is a splendid story. Mrs W. B. Williamson, Lake Charles, Louisiana."

(From Letter (1924) from Mrs Nettie Hamill Moore (H-261-2) of College Springs, Iowa). Mrs Moore, at that time, furnished considerable data for the H-26 page. It is assumed, but not known definitely, that James Bigger was the father of this Henry J. Bigger, because Samuel Bigger's 2 children were definitely given as: Julia (died 7 years old), and Thomas B. Samuel Bigger (H-264 & H-274), and James Bigger (H-263 & H-275), are believed to be different spellings of the same "Becket-Beckett-Bickett" family who have intermarried so many times with the Hamill family. HAMILL GENEALOGY:

In connection with the "Missing 4th Original Hamill Brother" who was supposed to be a Joseph Hamill, note this interesting letter received in 1856. This Dr. John G. Hamill, DDS, (H-269-B) was on a trip to Georgetown, Kentucky (probably on his wedding trip), in 1856, and while there received the following Letter:

Dr. Robert G. Hamill, DDS, a Dentist, wrote him from Greensboro, Alabama, under date of 9/23/1856, saying that his people came from Ireland, that his Grandfather was Joseph Hamill, who emigrated to South Carolina shortly after the Revolution, with a Daughter, and 5 Sons, named John, Hugh, Charles, Andrew and James (Hamill). He asked if Dr. John G. Hamill, DDS, (H-269-B) were the son of HUGH Hamill, and said that they were probably related.

Unfortunately, there are no further records of more correspondence, or of more information exchanged between these two Dentists. But it would appear that this is a trace of the "Missing 4th Original Brother" - whom it would appear is Joseph Hamill. By referring to Page H-4, it will be seen that this Joseph Hamill apparently went to Newberry, South Carolina.

Information regarding this old letter was sent to The Compiler in 1924-1930, by Allan Wendell Hamill, (H-269-B2), of Chillicothe, Ohio, who is the son of this Dr. John G. Hamill, DDS, (H-269-B), of Xenia, Ohio. This data has been written up as Family H-4, under the name of Joseph Hamill - but the data is still very skimpy, and it is hoped that more information can be obtained later to fully substantiate this "4th Missing Original Hamill Brother."

Allan Wendell Hamill, (H-269-B2), sent to The Compiler, (H-125-65) in 1924-1930, information concerning an old letter - dated 2/23/1856 - from a Dr. Robert S. Hamill, M.D., a Dentist, of Greensboro, N.C., concerning his Grandfather, Joseph Hamill, (H-4), who settled in Newberry, South Carolina. This old letter became the basis for establishing Joseph Hamill as H-4, and considering him as the "Missing 4th Original Hamill Brother."

(Please refer back to Page H-269-B).

Allan Wendell Hamill, (H-269-B2), of Chillicothe, Ohio, was Custodian of the old Bible and Will of Robert Hamill, Sr, (H-2), of Big Cove, Penna - who was the 2nd Original Hamill Brother. Part of the time this old Bible and Will were also in the custody of Mr George Renwick Hamill, (H-252-2), of Sterling, later of Hutchinson, Kansas, and after Allan's death, they were in the permanent custody of George R. Hamill.

This Bible and Will were loaned to The Compiler, (Paul Hamill McCalla) on 1/26/1925, who made verbatim copies of the Will, and all Birth-Marriage-Death entries, etc, in the Bible. These copies are filed on the Data Page following Page H-2.

On the death of George Renwick Hamill, (H-252-2), this old Will and Bible was transferred to the custody of Mr Gerald Hamill Nichol, (H-252-253), who is a Grandson of George Renwick Hamill, and who lives (1956) at 403 North Broadway, Sterling, Kansas, with his Parents, Mr-Mrs Paul Wilson Nichol, (Avis Bratton Hamill) (H-252-25). In the Fall of 1956, Gerald expects to go as a Missionary Teacher, to the United Presbyterian Commercial High School, in Omdurman, The Sudan, W. Central Africa - and the Will and Bible will be safeguarded by his Parents there in Sterling, Kansas.

This rare old Bible of Robert Hamill, Sr, (H-2), of intense interest to all the Hamill Family, traces and proves the descent of all Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2) Children, Grandchildren and descendants. With his Will, also included with the Bible, likewise in the possession of the above Allan W. Hamill, George R. Hamill, and now Gerald Hamill Nichol, indisputable proof is found of the descent of all this branch of the family.

In this connection, the family of Ernest Alfred Hamill, (H-262-5), of Chicago, who are of this branch of the Hamills, have had various Genealogical descents made up by various sundry Genealogists, which show descent from various other persons than their true Ancestor, who is Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2)

Should members of our large Hamill Kinfolk see these different descents, as apparently relating to the Ernest A. Hamill (H-262-5) family, they need not be confused thereby. The true descent is as shown here in this Hamill Genealogy, as proven by the Bible and Will of Robert Hamill, Sr, (H-2).

The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla, (H-125-65) - borrowed this Bible and Will many years ago - on Jan. 26, 1925 - and made Verbatim copies from the Bible and Will. These verbatim copies will be found following the page of Robert Hamill, Sr, on Page H-2, of this Hamill Genealogy. At that time - in 1925 - The Compiler took this Bible and Will to the office of Mr Ernest A. Hamill, (H-262-5), who was then President of the Continental-Illinois National Bank, Chicago. Mr Hamill examined it with great care, for an hour or more, and tears came to his eyes. For he realized that this was his own Ancestor, and detailed therein were the dates and facts concerning his own known Ancestors, such as his own Grandfather, Joseph Hamill, Sr (H-30). He noted the quaint phraseology: "ase born," and he actually cried. But since the death of this Ernest A. Hamill, (H-262-5), his family are still pinning their faith to strange and wonderful Genealogies, made up sometimes at a cost of $2500, by Genealogists who are on the wrong track, to say the least.

Hugh ----- Hamill was supposedly a Farmer. He moved to Erie County, Ohio, in 1806, and then in 1810, moved on to Xenia, Ohio, where his brothers had settled. He was married twice. He was a ruling Elder in the Associated Presbyterian Church at Xenia, Ohio. Hugh Hamill "was named for an Uncle" - so there may have been an original 4th or 5th brother named "Hugh Hamill".

George Benwick Hamill, (H-262-?) of Sterling, Kansas, said in 1880: "I think there was another son in this family, who lived in Gormtown, Indiana, who had a son, Art Hamill, who in turn, left several children."

Samuel Bigger(H-274 & H-264), and James Bigger(H-275 & H-263), are believed to be different spellings of the same "Bocket-Bocket-Bickett" Family, who have intermarried so many times with the Hamill Family. (See OTHER SIDE).

(Pages H-1, H-2, H-25, H-26, etc).

Robert Hamill, Jr (H-25), with brothers Joseph (H-26) and Hugh (H-27), came to Greene County, Ohio, and bought a farm near Senia, Ohio, (which farm Joseph Randles Hamill (H-252) evidently inherited), on which farm George Henwick Hamill (H-252-2) was born. (This was stated to the compiler in 1930 by George Henwick Hamill (H-252-2). (See Data Page H-2).

Hugh (H-27) had a daughter Lydia (H-275), who married James Higger, and lived at Senia, Ohio (married Sugar Creek, Ohio-1882). This Hugh (H-27) was 'named for an Uncle' so evidently there was a 4th-(or 5th) Original Brother Hugh." (Source Unknown). (See Data Page H-2).

MEMOS ON HUGH HAMILL, (H-27):

Mrs. Rev. Thos. L. Benton, (and D. Hamill-H-125-1) wrote on 2/5/1942: "...The Rev. James Brown, (H-272), (had been at her father's - Smith Hamill's (H-125) home several times), brother of our old Pastor at Keokuk, (Iowa), were married to Hamills....." (See Letters Section - "Mac Hamill Letters" - Letter #2).

See Misc. Section - "Bedford County, Penna. Records" - for mention of this Hugh Hamill, (H-27), etc.

RE: REV. THOMAS BROWN, (H-272).

(Copied from MacCandless Section - Family D. Concerning a Letter (12/11/1899, from wife of Dr. Archibald McCandless, (Belle Brown), Holton, Kan) to Mrs. Albert McCalla (Nancy Eleanor Hamill-H-125-6), of Chicago. See (full letter in MacCandless Section - Family C).

"This letter was written 12/11/1899 to Mrs. Albert McCalla (Nancy Eleanor Hamill-H-125-6), of Chicago, Ill. It was written by the wife of Dr. Archibald McCandless, (Belle Brown), of Holton, Kansas.

This Belle Brown was the daughter of Rev. James Brown, DD, for many years Pastor of the UP Church in Keokuk, Iowa, who baptized Nancy Eleanor Hamill (H-125-6), and later, assisted by Rev. W.G. Craig, presided at her marriage to Rev. Albert McCalla, (H-125-6 & H-361-3), in Keokuk, Iowa, on 5/16/1871.

This Rev. James Brown, DD, of Keokuk, Iowa, was the brother of Rev. Thomas Brown, DD (Elizabeth Hamill-H-272). (See Page H-27 (Item 272) - Hamill Genealogy).

A sister of these two Brown brothers is said to have married a Dr. Given, MD, a physician & Surgeon, and for many years head of the Carlisle Indian School, Carlisle, Penna. A son, James ("Jimmie") Given, was a particular childhood chum of Miss Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61), and in her childhood days, often visited the McCalla Family while they were living (1886-1890) in Lake Forest, Illinois (Chicago suburb). (This information given 7/7/1947 by Miss Helen Wayne McCalla (H-125-61), Chicago).

Came to America with Parents in 1761. Lived Egonier, Pa & Bedford Co, Penna.
Was a Revolutionary Soldier, at Battle of Banker Hill.

John Hamill was the 3rd of the Original 4 Hamill Brothers, and was born in _____, County Antrim, North Ireland. He Emigrated with his Family to America, arriving in 1761, and was the 10th Soldier at Egonier, where he settled at Palmer's Fort, 2 miles South of Egonier, in (Fairfield Twp) Westmoreland Co, Penna. In April 1775, he moved with Robert(H-37) and (SEE OTHER SIDE). (5/30/1952) the rest of the family to _____, Bedford Co, Penna, probably to live at the home of his 2 brothers there. They remained there during the Revolutionary War, while John(H-3), Robert(H-37) and Hugh(H-36) were serving in the War, and then returned to Ligonier, Penna, in 1783. John Hamill(H-3) was a Farmer. John Hamill(H-3) was also a Revolutionary Soldier in the Pennsylvania Line (Penn Line Militia), receiving pay to 1/1/1781 - after his son Robert Hamill(H-37) served partly in his stead. (From: "History of Indiana Co, Penna (1881)" - Page 127 - see following Data (Page for full Article): "John Hamill emigrated from Co. Antrim, Ireland, in 1761, and was the 1st settler to locate in Ligonier Valley, 2 miles South of Palmer's Fort. He was a son Robert (H-37) with 11a. He was a "Successor", or member of the Associate Presbyterian Church. John Hamill (H-3) was drafted in the Revolutionary War, but son Robert (H-37) served in his place, and participated in the Battle of Monmouth Hill."

(From: "Society of Penna. Publications" - Volume 5 - Page 346): "John Hamill, Farmer, Fairfield Twp, Westmoreland County, Penna. Will dated 1/9/1794, proved 6/8/1795. Wife Elizabeth, Children Hugh and Robert, Hannah, Margaret, Rachel Hope Hamill. Wife, sons Hugh and Robert were Executors. Witnesses: James Pollack, David Brown and James Gageby. This Will was Probated 6/8/1796, Recorded in Book 51, Page 122, Registrar's Office, Westmoreland County, Penna. Real Estate was left to Hugh and Robert (Note: Hugh and Robert were justices of the Peace, and witnessed many Wills besides their Fathers). (See also other references in Society of Penna Publications)."

Sarah Hamill ("Aunt Sally") (H-15) wrote in 1884, 8 years before her death - "Uncle John Hamill (H-3) had daughter Rachel (H-35), who married John (it was James K.) Hope, and they moved to Mon Valley in 1800. Uncle John (H-3) had 5 Girls, 2 Boys, Hugh and Robert."

(An old note-source unknown-says): "John (H-3) said to have left for a time during the Revolution, but came back again." (Another old note-source unknown-says): "John (H-3) emigrated to America in 1760-5, but was last heard of in 1775, when he emigrated from Westmoreland County to Bedford County, Penna." (COMPILER'S NOTE: It is thought that the point in Bedford Co, Penna, to which John (H-3) and sons Hugh (H-36) and Robert (H-37) moved in 1775 was probably Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford Co (now Fulton Co), Penna - where Nathaniel (H-1) and Robert, Jr (H-2) and their families lived. This has not been proven, however).

(Adam Lichett Hamill (H-253), Bismarville, Ill, wrote in 1882): "John Hamill (H-3) had a son John (?) who was a cousin of my father (Robt Hamill H-25), and several brothers and sisters. One sister married a Pollack, and Rev. Robert Hamill Pollack is a son of his. And one married a McKenzie. I recollect seeing him when I was quite small." (COMPILER'S NOTE: Could the writer be thinking of Robert Hamill (H-37) whose daughter Elizabeth (H-371-A) married John Pollack, and had a son Rev. Robt. Hamill Pollack (see note on Page H-57). Jane McKelvie was 2nd wife of Robt Hamill (H-37), and Hannah Hamill (H-365) married a Douglas McKelvey, also Martha Hamill (H-34) married a McKelvey. But we have no record of a McKenzie. Also no record of John (H-3) having a son John - he is not mentioned in the Will, nor does "Aunt Sally" name him as a son).

(Mrs Fred H. Marsh (Juliet Hamill) (H-260-45) wrote 10/1924): "John Hamill, Jr (?) was a son (?) of John Hamill, Jr (H-3), and served in Penna State Militia from 6/1/1781. He lived in Bedford Co, Penna. His name is associated with Hickling Creek and St Ligonier, Penna." (COMPILER'S NOTE: Here is another claim of a son John in this family. But the Will of John (H-3) lists no son John, Jr, nor does "Aunt Sally" (H-15) mention him as a son. The Father, John (H-3) served in the Militia, and was paid to January (NOT June) 1st, 1781. We don't know about Hickling Creek - it is new to us).

(From War Record of Robert Hamill (H-37) - on Data Page following): "In April 1775, he moved, with his parents, to Bedford County, where he remained until some time in December of the same year, when he returned to Fort Ligonier on business for his father, and remained there until he learned that two deserters..... (COMPILER'S NOTE: Observe that John (H-3) and Robert (H-37) moved to Bedford County in 1775. Hugh (H-36) stated in 1834 in his Pension-Record that he had lived in Westmoreland County for 50 years, but before that (that is, in 1784) had lived in Bedford County. That would (SEE NEXT PAGE).

"JOHN HUNTER, (H-3) - The Father of Hugh (H-36) and Robert (H-37):

"He is known to have been a Soldier in the Pennsylvania Line (State Militia) and received Depreciation Pay for services to January 1st, 1781, but no further record is obtainable of his military service."

"TUGG HATHILL, (IL-36) - Son of John(IL-3), and Brother of Robert(IL-37):

"He enlisted at Warrfield, Westmoreland County, Penna., in August 1776, and from then until May 1777, he served as Private in the Company commanded by Capt. Samuel Miller, in the 8th Penna. Regiment, commanded by Col. McCoy, then transferred to the Regiment commanded by Col. Daniel Morgan (Company not stated), participated in the battles which terminated in the Surrender of General Burgoyne, and passed the winter of 1777-78 at Valley Forge; again joining the 8th Penna., then under command of Col. Brodhead, and served therein until Sept. 1779, when he was Honorably Discharged. Made application for a Pension 2/26/1783, and claimed Westmoreland County as his residence. He married Jane (maiden name unknown) March 1792, and died 4/21/1836. He was born in County Antrim, Ireland, in 1758, and was 18 years of age at the time of his enlistment."

ROBERT H. TIL, (H-57) - Son of John (H-5), and Brother of Rich (H-58):

"He enlisted December 1776, as a Private under Capt. John Pomeroy for 2 months, reinstated for same periods in Sept. 1777 (Capt. John Kingston), April 1778 (Capt. Knox) and September 1778 (Capt. Samuel Shannon); reinstated for 3 months under the same Captain in April and September 1780, and for 2 weeks in June 1781 (Capt. John Conoway) and September 1781 (Captain not stated) under Col. Paxton. He enlisted at Fairfield (Westmoreland Co) and claimed that place as his residence on May 27th, 1783, when he made application for a Pension. He was born in County Antrim, Ireland, Nov. 25th, 1759, and was 17 years of age at the time of his first enlistment. He married Jane McElvey on July 30th, 1802, and died April 9th, 1841. During his term of service he acted as substitute for his father, John Harill, (H-3). In April 1775, he moved with his parents to Concord County, where he remained until some time in December of the same year, when he returned to Ft Mifflin on business for his father, and remained there until he learned that two deserters (then supposed to be spies) had broken jail at Hannahstown. He volunteered to apprehend them, which he did with the assistance of Robert Laughlin, and a man by the name of Daugherty, but the prisoners escaped and took ~~his~~ guns with them. He pursued them alone from near Ft Mifflin, and captured them near a place called Leman's Creel (with the assistance of another man). This occurred in February and March 1780. He is also said to have served 3 years, and to have been at the Battle of Bunker Hill."

"ROBERT HILL, Private in Penna. Militia, received Pension 10/25/1830, in pursuance of Senate Resolution of 3/3/1833. He and his wife conveyed Farm to son Allan by Deed 5/5/1824, Deed Book 17, Page 484."

(Note by Compiler: The father, John Marill (H-5), was said to have been drafted in the year of the Revolution, but his son, (Robert Marill (H-37), substituted for him and served in his place.)

II - II.

(From: "History of Indiana County, Penna"-(1891)-by John H. Groschan & Co.,

John H. Hamill, a well respected citizen of White Twp, and a descendant of two pioneer families of Indiana County, is son of Robert H. and Jane (Trimble) Hamill, and was born in Fairfield Twp, Westmoreland Co, Penna, 10/9/1830. The Hamill family is of Irish descent, and one of its members, John Hamill (Great-Grandfather) emigrated from Ireland to the United Colonies in 1761, and settled in the famous Logonier Valley, some 2 miles South of Palmer's Fort. According to an old tradition of Indiana County, he was the 10th settler who located in Logonier settlement. He married Elizabeth Gibson, who was a native of Ireland. Their son, Robert Hamill (Grandfather), was born in County Antrim, Ireland, and came to Penna with parents. He was a "Seceder" or member of the Associate Presbyterian Church. During the Revolution, his father, John Hamill was drafted, but Robert went in his place and served 3 years. He participated in the Battle of Munkers Mill. He died in 1841, when in the 83rd year of age. He married Jane McElvey, and reared a family of 12 children, 5 sons and 7 daughters, Elizabeth, Mary (wife of James Alexander), Allan, David, Jane McClain, Robert H, Ann Frew, Ebenezer, Hannah, Joseph, Sarah (who married Alfred Lamereux) and Rachel (wife of David Brown).

Robert H. Hamill (Father) was born in Logonier Valley, Westmoreland Co, in 1805, and in 1831 removed to Centre Township, and bought a tract of land called "Junction." On this farm the "Whiskey Boys" had an encampment during the Whiskey Insurrection of 1794. Robert H. Hamill was a Tanner by trade but after he removed to Indiana County, he was engaged in farming until his death in 1886. He married Jane Trimble and had 9 children: William T, Margaret Jane (wife of Wm Douthett), Samuel, Mary Ann, Susan, Elizabeth (wife of R.C. Carson), Sarah (wife of Wm Carson), Washington (who died in Union Army at Fredericksburg in 1863) and Rachel (wife of William Staley). Mrs Jane (Trimble) Hamill was a daughter of William Trimble, and a granddaughter of George Trimble, native of North of Ireland, who emigrated from that country to the United Colonies in 1789, and located in White Township, Indiana County, Pa. He was soon driven by the Indians to Conococheague Valley, from whence he afterward returned in 1797, to this County, where he settled in Armstrong Twp, where he purchased a tract of land called "St James."

William T. Hamill was reared in his Father's farm and attended the common schools of Centre Township. He removed in 1853 to White Township, where he has been engaged in farming ever since. On April 24, 1854, he married Keziah Beck, daughter of William Beck, by whom he had 3 children: William P. Hamill (died in 1856), Franklin Hamill (died 1868), and Plymouth Hamill (who married Annie Campbell in 1864). Mrs Hamill died in 1861, and Mr Hamill on 5/27/1862 married Mary Ann Ray, daughter of Matthew Ray. By his 2nd marriage he has 5 children: Jane, Quincy Adams, Clara Josephine, Robert and Mathew Wilson Hamill.

Squire Hamill owns a valuable farm, besides 110 acres of the old Homestead farm in Centre Township. He is a member of the United Presbyterian Church, and Republican and Prohibitionist in politics. Served Township faithfully for 6 years as Justice of the Peace, and is frequently counselled by his neighbors on legal matters. Has always taken a deep interest in Education and contributed liberally toward establishment of Indiana State Normal School at Indiana, Penna, from which Institution four of his children have graduated." (Note: This volume is P-85441.9 in Newberry Library-Chicago).

REGARDING THE MOVE TO BIG COVE, PENNA. - AND BACK TO LIGONIER:

It is probable - but not definitely proven - that John Hamill (H-3), and his sons Hugh (H-36) and Robert (H-37), and probably the rest of his children, moved from Ligonier, Westmoreland Co., to Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford (now Fulton) County, Penna. - then back again to Ligonier. He probably went there to be with his brothers, Nathaniel Hamill (H-1), and Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2). It would seem that all of them moved over to Bedford County for 8 years, (1775-1783). Here are two facts, recopied here from the Introductory Section - "Hamill Beginnings" - Page 7:

"The records show that Robert Hamill (H-37) moved "with his parents" from Ft Ligonier to Bedford Co., Penna., in April 1775. (See Data Page H-37 - under Records of Robert Hamill). They probably went to Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford County - to join the families of Nathaniel, Sr (H-1), and Robert, Sr (H-2). But this is not proven. When this Robert (H-37) enlisted in December 1776, he did so back near Ligonier, at Fairfield, Westmoreland Co., Penna. - and much later also gave the latter place as his residence on 5/27/1783 in applying for a Pension.

"His brother Hugh (H-36) also enlisted near Ligonier, Westmoreland Co., at Fairfield, Westmoreland Co., Penna., in August 1776. Later, on 2/26/1783, he also claimed Westmoreland Co. as his residence in his Pension Application. However, in his Pension Certification of 10/18/1833, he said he "resided in Westmoreland County for 50 years (that means since 1783), and previously in Bedford County." This means he was in Bedford Co. previous to 1783. If he went there with his brother Robert (H-37) and his parents (John H-3) in 1775, then he resided there in Big Cove, Ayr Twp, Bedford (now Fulton) Co., Penna., for 8 years (except for his time in Revolutionary War service). Thus the family of John (H-3) were probably in Big Cove from 1775 to 1783, (8 years) - then back to Ligonier.

"After their return to Ligonier, the various descendants of John (H-3) remained largely at Ligonier, Westmoreland Co., and at Fairfield Twp, Westmoreland Co., Penna. Later, many of these settled also at Indiana, Indiana Co., Penna. They have remained largely at these points ever since."

Now Nathaniel Hamill, Sr (H-1), and Robert Hamill, Sr (H-2), lived and owned much land at Big Cove, Ayr Township, Bedford (now Fulton) County, Penna. Robert, Sr (H-2), also owned land in Licking Creek Township. It is very natural to suppose that John Hamill (H-3) and his family, during the Revolutionary War days, moved over to live with his brothers at Big Cove. At Big Cove, a wild, inaccessible and secluded spot, the families would be safe from British attacks. So let us assume that John (H-3) went to Big Cove in Bedford County, during that 8-year period.

Here is the data on Hugh Hamill (H-37), son of John (H-3), and his Pension record, in which Hugh (H-37) mentions living in Bedford County, Penna. (Note the last 2 lines of Reverse side of Claim):

PENSION RECORD ON HUGH HAMILL (H-36): "Mr Paul H. McCalla-2316 Calumet Ave-Chicago, Ill. (9/1/1930), Dear Relation McCalla: This is a copy of my Grandfather Hugh Hamill's (H-36) Pension Record. I have the original Pennsylvania Patent for land to John (H-3), Hugh (H-36), and Robert (H-37) Hamill. John died before Patent was fully completed. If you wish, I will send you a copy. Yours truly, Hugh Charles Hamill, (H-361-1), 110 N. Market St., Ligonier, Penna. (He is Father of Dr. C.A. Hamill (H-361-11), of Ligonier, Penna.).

"My Father spoke of a Lawrence County, Cousin, John Hamill (H-12) (2) who, when he came to America, stopped with Grandfather (H-37) and cropped his place for 2 years, and he was a son of the Rev. Hugh Hamill of Ireland.
But I never heard of his coming to this Country (probably speaking of Hugh).
I ought to have said that in regard to the above, that Great-Great-Grandfather's name was John (H-3), and he had 2 brothers that came to this Country. For I often heard Father (H-373), who was born in 1805, say that he rarely met a Hamill that he could not trace back to one of the 3 brothers that came from Ireland." (Data in a letter dated 7/22/1896 from William Hamill, Indiana, Penna, a Grandson of Robert Hamill (H-37). (This William Hamill is probably William Trimble Hamill (H-373-1).
(COMPILER'S NOTE: This seems strange, as John Hamill (H-12) of Lawrence County, was the son of Nathaniel (H-1), one of the Original Brothers.
Could he be confused with John Hamill (See Family H-31), who was one of the Norristown, Penna, family, who came to Norristown, Penna, in 1804,
(and who was the son of Hugh Hamill of Ireland?)

MEMOS. on JOHN HAMILL (H-3):

(Wm. Triable Hamill (H-373-1) wrote on 7/22/1896): "....Robert Hamill (H-37) the Soldier you speak of, was my Grandfather, and he had 17 children, 12 of which grew to manhood and womanhood. Four of these were by his first wife, whose name was Ann Gageby, to wit: Elizabeth, Allen, David and Mary, and the rest to Jane McElvey, whom he married in 1802.

Hugh Hamill (H-36) was his brother, and they had a brother (?) John (?) (-See Note Below) who lived a bachelor. Whether he was a Soldier or not I don't know. But I think he died at his brother Hugh's.

I remember to hear Father (Robt. McElvie Hamill-H-373) and some of the rest talk about the Lawrence County Cousin, John Hamill (probably H-23A), but when he came to this country (?-the two Johns, H-12 & H-23A, were born here) he stopped with Grandfather (H-37) and cropped his place for 2 years, that he was the son of Rev. Hugh Hamill (?) of Ireland. But I never heard of him (probably meaning Rev. Hugh) coming to this country.

I ought to have said above that Great-Grandfather's name was John (H-3), and he had 2 brothers that came to this country. For I often heard Father (H-373), who was born in 1805, say that he rarely met a Hamill that he could not trace back to one of the three brothers that came from Ireland. I don't know if they all came at once, or where the two located. Great-Grandfather (John Hamill-H-3) came in 1762 (No-it was 1761) to Logonier. He left a while during the (Revolutionary) War, but came back when it was over.

I am 65 years old, and still have one Uncle, Ebenezer Hamill (H-375) living, 86 years old....."

(Subsequent Letter-1/1/1897): "I have waited for a convenient time to go and see my Uncle, Ebenezer Hamill (H-375) and Aunt Sarah Cameroux. But I have done it. ( See Note above-this tells who this John actually was) They both remember John Hamill (H-23A), the Lawrence County Cousin of Grandfather's (H-37). He was a son of Robert Hamill (Sr-H-2), that lived in the Big Cove. But they remember nothing about his Father, only the name and residence....." (See Letters Section-"Misc. Hamill Letters" #3).

(From Letters Section-"The Rev. T. L. Jamieson (H-371-627) Letter-Letter dat (ed 7/13/1896): ".....John Hamill (H-3) was a Soldier of The Penna Line, (State Militia) and received Appreciation Pay from the State of Penna for services to Jan'y 1st, 1781, but unfortunately further records of his Revolutionary service is not obtainable at this time....."

(From Data Page H-15, where "Aunt Sally" Hamill (H-15) wrote 9/5/1864 in (her Letter #1): ".....Uncle John Hamill's (H-3) Rachel (H-35) married John Hope - him and his family and Mother's (H-1) family all moved out to this country (Emon Valley, Pa) in 1800 - and all settled down close together... *...Uncle John (H-3) had 5 Girls and 2 Boys (Hugh & Robert). His girls were all married....."

(See Historical Section-"Misc. Hamill Data"-Items 13-41-56-57 - for Military record of some John Hamill (or of various John Hamills).

(See Misc. Section-"Bedford Co, Penna, Records" - for mention of a John Hamill, and Land Ownership, Taxes, Land Deeds, etc. It mentions a John Hamill (probably H-23A), whose wife was "Susanna".....

(Similar's Note: It is probable that the John Hamill of the Tax Records was H-3, because these records show him from 1782 to 1805. John (H-3) was known to have been there for at least 8 years (1775-1782) and (he may have been a "Waggoner" and then have returned to farming when he (again settled back in Logonier. But he may have made several trips as a "Waggoner" back to Bedford Co, to look after interests there. John (H-12) (See OTHER SIDE). (3/12/1947).

would have been only 5 years old in 1782, and John(H-23A) would have been only 11 years old in 1782.

The Tax Deed of 1805 shows this particular John as having a wife named "Susanna," but mentions him as a son of Robert(H-2). So we know him to have been a different John, and to have been John(H-23A), whom we had previously thought was unmarried - and who in 1805 was 34 years old.)

LAND GRANT from WILLIAM POTT - GAVE LAND TO FOUND CHURCH:

".....I stopped at Ligonier, (Penna) briefly. The original Hamill there, (John Hamill-H-3), had a Land Grant from William Pott, and this is still in the family. He (John Hamill-H-3) gave the land for the School House, Church and Cemetery. Both buildings are there, as well as the old Hamill home. The Church bears this inscription:

" Ligonier Presbyterian Church, Built 1780.

Rebuilt 1880 and 1891."

There are 2 Hamill heroes of the Revolutionary War buried in this graveyard, (Hugh Hamill(H-33) and Robert Hamill(H-37), but I could not get the inscriptions, as the grass was so high, and it was raining. Mr James Hamill, (probably H-361-13) said he would get them for me, but I have no word yet. He was called away that day by the death of a neighbor. You may have all this, but I am sending what I have....." (From Letter to The Compiler, (-dated 11/17/1947-from Mrs O.M. Pollin, (Tate Eleanor Bell)(Stuart(Stewart)) (D-117-552), Kent, Ohio). (Compilers (Note: Notice that this lists 2 other daughters, Martha McKelvey and Elizabeth Cuning(?). Mr Evans, who contributed this, wrote: "I have a feeling that the "Cuning" may stand for "Cunningham"...."Cunningham" would have been more in keeping with these old Scotch-Irishmen." However, old records from the H-3 family listed Elizabeth's husband as "Mr Cuning".

"James K. Hope-Rachel Hamill were probably Farmers, and were probably at Big Cove, Penna, from 1773 to 1800. In 1800 they moved, with their family, to Enon Valley, Lawrence County, Pennsylvania." (From old memo-source unknown).

"The earliest known of the Hopes is that Adam Hope was a resident of Mt Pleasant Twp, Westmoreland Co, Penna. He had 8 Children: Elizabeth(1762) married a Mr Spear; Richard(1764) unmarried; John(1766); James K.(1768) married Rachel Hamill(see H-35) and moved to H. Beaver Twp. in 1800; Mary Ann(1772) married a Mr Orr; Adam(1774) married a Miss Crawford and moved to Enon Valley, Penna, in 1800; Agnes(1776) married Jacob Jones and lived in Youngstown, Ohio; Hannah(1780) married a Mr Crawford." (Compiled about 1930 ? by Frank(Left) Swisher, (probably related to H-124-5), and forwarded by Mrs Sabina C. Glover, RD 2, Enon Valley, Penna. (Don't know if Mrs Glover is related to the Hamills or not).)

Re Children of Hugh Hope(H-353): "Carrie, Minerva and Rachel Hope are daughters, and lived near New Wilmington, Penna, (now Newcastle ?). A son, James K. Hope(H-353-4) was in Battery B, of Lawrence Co, Penna. His children: 1 boy(Robert Hope) and 2 girls, live in Siloam Springs, Arkansas. Another son is a Doctor, lives in New Mexico, and is 66 years old, and has 2 daughters, both married." - "Hugh Hope's son, James K. Hope(H-353-4) died at Siloam Springs, Ark, in 1919 (?). His 2nd wife was Minerva Sophrona Hamill(H-124-5), who also married again to a Mr Baldwin." (From old memo-source unknown).

"Aunt Sally" Hamill, (H-15) wrote in 1864, (8 years before her death): "Uncle John Hamill(H-3) had a daughter Rachel(H-35), who married John, (It was James K.) Hope, and they moved to Enon Valley, (Penna) in 1800. Uncle John(H-3) had 5 girls, 2 boys(Hugh & Robert)." Hugh HAMILL (H-36) came to America with his Parents in 1761. He was probably a Farmer, and was also a Justice of the Peace, and a prominent man in his day. He lived in the Ligonier Valley, and at Fairfield, Westmoreland County, Penna. and during the Revolution, he moved with his Parents to Bedford County, Penna (probably to Big Cove), returning to Fairfield about 8 years after.

He was a Soldier in the War of the Revolution, and was at the Surrender of General Burgoyne, and at Valley Forge (1777-78) (See War Record on Data Pages following). On his Pension Record he stated that he had lived in Bedford County also. He was one of the Original Session of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of Ligonier Valley, Penna.

(The following are Misc. Names-Sources Unknown-and some may be wrong):

"Hugh Hamill is also said to have had a daughter MARY, said to have married James Matthews, who lived in Ligonier Valley, Penna." (Could Mary(H-363) have had a middle name of MARY - and could this be her?)

"Jane, Martha and Ellen(last 3 never married), also had a daughter Rachel." (We have no record of these 3 daughters, as relating to Hugh(H-36). Can anyone explain about them? Rachel, so some say, was a daughter(who would be H-366), who married a Mr McCraw of Indiana Co, Penna, while others claim she married a Shaffert. She is believed confused with Rachel(H-361-4), daughter of James(H-361), who married John Shaffer, and lived in Johnstown, Penna. So Rachel is not listed as a daughter of Hugh. Also, George A. Hamill(H-362-2) of Sterling, Kan, told the Compiler that this was a mistake - that Rachel was a daughter of James(H-361).

"James had a son Charles(H-361-1)(Hugh Charles Hamill), who lived on the old Homestead in Ligonier Valley, Ft Palmer, Westmoreland Co, Penna."

"Hugh, Jr, said to have had a son William H. (Wasn't it William Hamill (H-362-1), who lived with Charles(H-361-1) above."

"Mary Hamill(H-363) descendants said to live at Ligonier."

"Elizabeth's(H-364) descendants said to live at Ligonier, and some moved west."

"Hannah's descendants moved to New Wilmington(Newcastle), Penna, and some live at Ligonier, Penna."

"Rachel" (instead of calling her Hugh's daughter, shall we call her the daughter of James(H-361-4), "said to have had 1 son."

"ROBERT HAMILL, (H-37) - Son of John (H-3), and brother of Hugh, (H-36):
"He enlisted December 1776, as a Private under Capt. John Pomeroy for 2 months, reinstated for same periods in Sept. 1777, (Capt. John Kingston), April 1778 (Capt Knox) and September 1778 (Capt. Samuel Shannon); reinstated for 3 months under the same Captain in April and September 1780, and for 2 weeks in June 1781 (Capt. John Gonoway) and September 1781 (Capt. not stated) under Col. Paxton. He enlisted at Fairfield, (Westmoreland Co), and claimed that place as his residence on May 27th, 1783, when he made application for a Pension. He was born in County Antrim, Ireland, Nov. 25th, 1759, and was 17 years of age at the time of his first enlistment. He married Jane McElvey on July 20th, 1802, and died April 9th, 1841. During his term of service he acted as substitute for his Father, John Hamill, (H-3). In April 1775, he moved with his parents to Bedford County, where he remained until some time in December of the same year, when he returned to Ft Ligonier on business for his Father, and remained there until he learned that two deserters (then supposed to be spies) had broken jail at Hanoverstown. He volunteered to apprehend them, which he did with the assistance of Robert Laughlin, and a man by the name of Daugherty, but the prisoners escaped and took guns with them. He pursued them alone from near Ft Ligonier, and captured them near a place called Deman's Creek, (near Bedford), with the assistance of John Lafferty, and brought them back to Hanoverstown. This occurred in February and March 1780. He is also said to have served 3 years, and to have been at the Battle of Dunker Hill."

"ROBERT HAMILL, (H-37), Private in Penna Militia, received Pension 10/25/1836, in pursuance of Senate Resolution of 5/5/1833. He and his wife conveyed Farm to son Allan by Deed 5/5/1824, Deed Book 17, Page 484."

PENSION RECORD OF HUGH HAMILL, (H-36).

"DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR-BUREAU OF PENSIONS-Washington, DC-Nov. 20, 1895.
Miss Helen W. McCalla, Chicago, Ill. In reply to your request for a statement of the military history of Hugh Hamill, a soldier of the REVOLUTIONARY WAR, you will find below the desired information as contained in his application for pension on file in this Bureau:

From August, 1776, to May 1777, he served as a private in the Company commanded by Capt. Samuel Miller, in the 8th Penna. Regiment, commanded by Col. McCoy; then transferred to the regiment commanded by Col. Daniel Morgan (company not stated), participated in the battles which terminated in the surrender of Gen. Burgoyne, and passed the Winter of 1777-'78 at Valley Forge; again joined the 8th Pa. Regiment, then under the command of Col. Broadhead, and served therein until Sept. 1779, when he was honorably discharged.

Data of application for pension: February 26, 1833.

Residence at date of application: Westmoreland Co, Pa.

Age at date of application: Seventy-five years.

Remarks: His widow, Jane, to whom he was married in March 1792, was also a pensioner. He died April 21, 1836.

Very respectfully, Wm. Jähren, Commissioner."

Data: (11/20/1895) Bureau of Pensions, Washington, DC.

MEMOS on HUGH HAMILL (H-36).

(From Rev. Jamieson's Letter of 3/12/1896): "...Hugh Hamill (H-36) was married, probably, in the early 90's of the 18th Century, to a Miss SEMPLER. She was an Ancestor of the late Wm. SEMPLER, Merchant, of Allegheny, Pa. Their children all lived and died here (Ligonier Valley); most of them here in the Valley, Westmoreland Co, and some over the ridge in Indiana Co...."

(Letter of 7/13/1896): "...Hugh Hamill (H-36) enlisted at Fairfield, (Penna) in August 1776.... He made application for a Pension Feb'y. 20th, 1853, and claimed Westmoreland County as his residence. He married Jane (maiden name unknown) March 1792, and died April 21st, 1836. Was born in County Antrim in 1758, and was 18 years of age at the time of his enlistment....." (See Letter Section - "The Rev. T. Jamieson Letters").

(From old Memos. found in the Estate of Dr. Wm. D. McGowan, of Ligonier, Pa, and sent by Executors on 6/11/1896 to Mr Clinton Franklin (Sylvia Luema) Crawford) (H-124-12), Omaha, Nebraska. It is NOT KNOWN that Dr McGowan was in any way related to the Hamills.

"The Daughters of Hugh Hamill (H-36), the 1st that married: Nancy married James Matthews, she lived in Ligonier Valley, and her descendants lived there.

Elizabeth married Francis Lytle. Some of her descendants in Ligonier Valley and still living. Some of these Lytles moved to the West.

Hannah married Douglas McKelvey. Some of this stock is in the Valley. Douglas McKelvey and his wife, Hannah, removed to New Wilmington, Penna. His wife, Hannah, died in New Wilmington, Penna.

Rachel married a McCreary of Indiana Co, Penna. Elizabeth had 1 son, whose history is not at hand. Rachel died in Indiana County. (Doesn't he) (mean Rachel, when he speaks here of Elizabeth?)

Summary of the Male Line: Hugh Hamill (H-36), Soldier of the Revolution. 1st Generation had 2 sons: James (H-361) and Hugh, Jr (H-362).

(James (H-361) married 1st a Lennon, 2nd a Serena. Issue of 2nd marriage was Charles (H-361-1-Should be Hugh Charles Hamill). Charles is living on the old Homestead in Ligonier Valley.

Hugh (Jr-H-362) married a Matthews. Wm. H. Hamill (H-362-1) of the 3rd Generation, was the issue of this marriage. Wm. H. Hamill (H-362-1) is living on the old Homestead in Ligonier Valley.

Hugh Hamill (H-36) had 2 sons, James (H-361) and Hugh (H-362), and seven daughters, viz: Hannah, Nancy, Elizabeth, Jane, Martha, Ellen, Rachel. Of the above daughters, Jane, Martha and Ellen never married.

Hugh Hamill's son James (H-361) married twice, 1st a Lennon, 2nd a Serena. Charles Hamill (H-361-1-Should be Hugh Charles Hamill) was the son of this James, the issue of James' 2nd marriage.

Hugh Hamill's other son, Hugh (Jr-H-362), married a Matthews. Wm. H. Hamill, (H-362-1) was a son of Hugh, Jr.

Charles Hamill (H-361-1-Should be Hugh Charles Hamill) and Wm. H. Hamill (H-362-1) are living on the old Homestead in Ligonier Valley. They are Grandsons of the original Hugh Hamill (H-36). Charles Hamill's (H-361-1--Should be Hugh Charles Hamill) Post-Office is Fort Palmer, Westmoreland County, Penna.

(From Old Memos sent to Clinton Franklin (H-124-12) on 6/11/1896, from the Estate of Dr. Wm. D. McGowan, of Ligonier, Penna.)

Robert - - - Harill came to America with his Parents in 1761. He was probably a Farmer, and lived near Ligonier, Penna, and also in Bedford Co, Penna. He was a Revolutionary Soldier, and was at the Battle of Antietam Hill.

Robert Hamill, Private, Penna Militia, received Pension 10/25/1835, in pursuance of Senate Resolution of 3/3/1835. He and wife conveyed Farm to son Allan by Deed 5/5/1824, Deed Book 17, Page 484. (This Data from Mrs John Campbell (Esther E. Hamill) (H-371-C52)-Topeka, Kansas, in 1924).

"Robert Hamill (H-37) had 17 children, 12 of them were adults. He served 3 years in the Revolutionary War, 1 year for self, 1 year for brother Hugh (H-36), 1 year for his father John (H-3). Robert Hamill (H-37) came to America with his Parents in April 1761, to Logonier Valley. He was a Seceder, or member of the Associate Presbyterian Church. He served 3 years in the Revolutionary War, and was at the Battle of Bunker Hill. Robert is said to have removed to Bedford County, Penna, in April 1775." (This Data sent in October 1924 by Rev. Robert Hamill (H-371-A17) of Mt. Jackson, Lawrence Co, Penna).

"Robert Hamill (H-37) was married twice, and Miss McKelvie was his 2nd wife. It is also claimed that Sarah Hamill (H-377) married after her Mother died, and that she then moved to Mahonia, Indiana (?) and took all records, including the old family Bible, with her. There are two sons of Ebenezer Hamill (H-375) living there now, and it is thought that they have the Bible." (The above was claimed in a letter in 1924 from) (Mrs John Campbell (Esther E. Hamill) (H-372-C52) - Topeka, Kansas).

(COMPILED'S NOTE: I wrote to Monrovia, Indiana, to try to get trace of this Bible, but there is no such town. There are similar sounding Post Offices in Pennsylvania, however).

"My Father spoke of a Lawrence County Cousin, John Hamill (H- - - - - 1987, when he came to America, stopped with Grandfather (H-37), and cropped his place for 2 years, and he was a son of the Rev. Hugh Hamill of Ireland. But I never heard of his coming to this Country (probably speaking of Hugh). I ought to have said that in regard to the above, that Great-Great-Grandfather's name was John (H-3), and he had 3 brothers that came to this country. For I often heard Father (H-373), who was born in 1805, say that he rarely met a Hamill that he could not trace back to one of the 3 brothers that came from Ireland." (Data in a letter dated 7/22/1896 from William Hamill, Indiana, Penna, a Grandson of Robert Hamill (H-37) (This William Hamill is probably Wm. Trimble Hamill (H-373-1).

(COMPILER'S NOTE: This seems strange, as John Hamill (H-12) of Lawrence County, was the son of Nathaniel (H-1), one of the Original Brothers. Could he be confused with John Hamill (See Family F-31), who was one of the Norristown, Penna, family, who came to Norristown, Penna, in 1804, and who was the son of Hugh Hamill of Ireland

*Elizabeth Hamill (H-371-A) had a son, Rev. Robert Hamill Pollack. She was also a Grandmother of a Rev. Thomas Cithcart Pollack, D.D., Pastor of Oak Park UP Cong. Church, 5034 Hazel Ave, Philadelphia, Penna. Mrs J. Campbell White is sister of Rev. Thos. C. Pollack. Mr White is a brother of Rev. W. W. White of NY. Bible School. Mr White is a prominent layman, and was President of Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio.

"Robert Frew (H-374) probably had as children a Jennie Frew (unmarried) and a brother, Calvin Frew, a lawyer of Paxton, Illinois. There was also a Jennie Hannill (H-), in some way related (probably), who married a Newton McCreery. She lived in St. Louis, Mo., all her life. She visited

REVOLUTIONARY WAR RECORD of ROBERT HAMILL, (H-37):

(Contributed 2/13/1956 by Mrs Sylvia G. Franklin, (Sylvia Maria Crawford) (H-124-12), then 122 So. 30th St, (later of 124 East Ave), - Omaha, Nebraska - (from Researches made by her, principally from the War Dept, and the Pension Department.)

JOHN HAMILL, (H-3) - The Father of Hugh (H-36) and Robert, (H-37):
He is known to have been a Soldier in the Pennsylvania Line, (State Militia), and received Appreciation Pay for services to January 1st, 1781, but no further record is obtainable of his military service.

HUGH HAMILL, (H-36) - Son of John, (H-3), and Brother of Robert, (H-37):
He enlisted at Fairfield, Westmoreland County, Penna, in August 1776, and from then until May 1777, he served as Private in the Company commanded by Capt. Samuel Miller, in the 8th Penna. Regiment, commanded by Col. McCoy, then transferred to the Regiment commanded by Col. Daniel Morgan (Company not stated) - participated in the battles which terminated in the Surrender of General Burgoyne, and passed the winter of 1777-78 at Valley Forge; again joining the 8th Penna, then under command of Col. Brodhead, and served therein until Sept. 1779, when he was honorably discharged. Made application for a Pension 2/26/1783, and claimed Westmoreland County as his residence. He married Anna Campbell March 1792, and died 4/21/1836. He was born in County Antrim, Ireland, in 1758, and was 18 years of age at the time of his enlistment.

ROBERT HAMILL, (H-37) - Son of John, (H-3), and Brother of Hugh, (H-36):
He enlisted, December 1776, as a Private under Capt. John Pomeroy for 2 months, reinstated for same periods in Sept 1777 (Capt. John Kingston), April 1778 (Capt. Knox) and September 1778 (Capt. Samuel Shannon); reinstated for 3 months under the same Captain in April and September 1780, and for 2 weeks in June 1781 (Capt. John Gonoway) and September 1781 (Captain not stated) under Col. Paxton. He enlisted at Fairfield, Westmoreland Co., and claimed that place as his residence on May 27, 1833, when he made application for a Pension. He was born in County Antrim, Ireland, Nov. 25th, 1759, and was 17 years of age at the time of his first enlistment. He married Jane McKelvey, his 2nd wife, on July 29th, 1802, and died April 9th, 1841. During his term of service he acted as substitute for his father, John Hamill, (H-3). In April 1775, he moved with his parents to Bedford County, where he remained until some time in December of the same year, when he returned to Ft Mifflin on business for his father, and remained there until he learned that two deserters (then supposed to be spies) had broken jail at Mifflintown. He volunteered to apprehend them, which he did with the assistance of Robert Laughlin, and a man by the name of Laugherty; but the prisoners escaped and took guns with them. He pursued them alone from near Ft Mifflin, and captured them near a place called Daman's Creel, with the assistance of John Cafferty, and brought them back to Mifflintown. This occurred in February and March 1780. He is also said to have served 3 years, and to have been at the Battle of Red Bank.

ROBERT HAMILL, Private in Penna Militia, received Pension 10/25/1836, in pursuance of Senate Resolution of 3/5/1833. He and his wife conveyed farm to son Allan, (H-371-C) by Deed 5/5/1824, Deed Book 17, Page 494.

(Compiler's Note: The father, John Hamill (H-3), was said to have been drafted in the war of the Revolution, but his son, Robert Hamill (H-37), substituted for him and served in his place.

They spent their lives in the location noted above (Loganor Valley), with two exceptions, Joseph Hamill(H-376-B) and Hanna (Hamill) McClain(H-376-A) died in Illinois....Allen Hamill(H-371-C), the first child of Robert Hamill(H-37) was not married until 1825. My informant tells me that she remembers in her girlhood of a Mr John Hamill(possibly (H-12, but more likely H-234), visiting her Grandfather, Mr Robert Hamill, (H-37). He came from "out North" in Mercer County, (which at that time included Lawrence Co), and was a Cousin of the said Robert Hamill's(H-37), although considerably younger than he.....The lady who informs me is a direct descendent of one of the two original men, viz: Robert Hamill's(H-37) oldest child was a son, born in 1794. His name was Allen Hamill(H-371-C). Allen Hamill's oldest child was a daughter, and it was she (Letter of 6/12/1896 says she was Mary Hamill Lytle(H-371-C2), who gave me an account of the whole family history, beginning with the two men first mentioned, (Hugh H-36) and Robert(H-37). An account of their descendents, births, marriages, place of living, deaths, etc, I have not burdened you with all this, thinking the results above given were all you wanted....."

(Letter of 6/12/1896): She mentions Robert Hamill(H-37) as born in 1758 (instead of 1759 as we have it), then mentions Allen Hamill(H-371-C) as Born 1794, Died 1867. Mary Hamill Lytle(H-371-C2) he mentions as born in 1826, and still living in 1896, and that she was the first child. In turn, he says Mary's 5th child was Matthew Lytle(H-371-C24), and he gives his birth date as 1858. He also says Mary Hamill Lytle(above) gave all this information. He speaks of Allen Hamill's(H-371-C) house being destroyed by fire, (in the 1850's), and all family records lost, and says that Allen was Clerk of the Church Session, and so the Church records were also lost."

(Letter of 7/15/1896): ".....Robert Hamill(H-37) enlisted December 1776he enlisted at Fairfield(Penna), and claimed that place as his residence May 27th, 1833, when he made application for a Pension. He was born in County Antrim, Ireland, Nov 25th, 1759, and was 17 years of age at the time of his first enlistment. He married Jane (maiden name unknown) July 20th, 1802, and died April 9th, 1841. During his term of service he acted as substitute for his father, John Hamill(H-3)....."

"In April 1775, he, Robert(H-37), moved with his Parents to Bedford County, where he remained until sometime in December of the same year....."

(William Trimble Hamill(H-375-1) wrote 7/22/1896): "....Robert Hamill(H-37) the Soldier you speak of, was my grandfather, and he had 17 Children, 12 of which grew to manhood and womanhood. Four of these were by his first wife, whose name was Ann Gagby, to wit: Elizabeth, Allen, David and Mary, and the rest by Jane McKeivry, whom he married in 1802.....I, (H-373-1) am 65 years old, and still have one Uncle, Ebenezer Hamill(H-375) living 86 years old. He at least had a good memory, and perhaps could tell some things if I could see him, but he is 16 miles away, and I don't think he could write....."

(From Letter of 1/1/1897): "I have waited for a convenient time to go and see my Uncle, Ebenezer Hamill(H-375) and Aunt Sarah Emeroux." (Compiler's Note: This would seem to indicate that Ebenezer's(H-375) wife was (this Sarah Emeroux, instead of Jane McKeivry, as we have it now). (See Bottom Section-"Misc. Hamill Letters" #3).

(Could the writer be thinking of Robert Hamill (H-37), whose daughter Elizabeth (H-371-A) married John Pollack, and had a son, Rev. Robert Hamill Pollack (H-371-A1). (See Note on Page H-37). Jane McKelvey was 2nd wife of (Robert Hamill (H-37), and Hannah Hamill (H-365) married a Douglas McKelvey, also Martha Hamill (H-34) married a McKelvey. But we have no record of a McKenzie. Allan S. Hamill was in the _____ business, and lived at _____ (He probably lived at Fairfield, near Ligonier, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania). Allan S. Hamill's house was destroyed by fire in the 1830's, and all family records and Church records were lost. He was also clerk of the Church Session.

Jane Graham (1st wife of Allan S. Hamill): "Jane Graham's Grandfather was said to have been Rev. Andrew Graham, UP Pastor at Monmouth, Illinois. Rev. Graham's Mother was a Hamill, a Cousin of Wm. T. Hamill (H-373-1)." (This data was given in a letter, 1924-1930, from Dr. C. A. Hamill, MD, (H-361-11) of Ligonier, Penna.). (Compiler's Note: This is a slight mistake, for Rev. Matthew Andrew Graham, DD (H-371-C6) who Preached at Monmouth, was the Son-in-law of Allan S. Hamill (H-371-C), husband of Jane Graham).

(COMPILER'S NOTE: Nancy Jane Galvin's marriage date was originally given as 12/19/1860, which is obviously a mistake. It, however is the date of marriage of H-371-C5, (Robt. L. Hamill-Christina Matthews), and is thought to have been copied there by mistake.

THE GRAHAM FAMILY:

(There is a possibility that this Jane Graham was also related to two other Grahams, who intermarried with Hamilis - who are Harriet B. Graham, (See Page H-371-C4), and Rev. William Andrew Graham, MD (See Page H-371-C6). (There is also a possibility that these 3 Grahams may be of the same family as Mrs Ida B. Graham, of Chicago, who was prominent in the Presby. Church, and whose husband also assisted in founding the Presby. Hospital, Chicago. So for purposes of record, Mrs Graham's obituary notices are copied here - altho she is not related directly to the Hamilis.)

(From Chicago Daily News-5/8/1948): "Woman Pioneer Dies at 98. Mrs Ida B. Graham, 98, widow of Dr. David Wilson Graham, died in Presbyterian Hospital at 1:35 AM, Saturday. Her husband had been one of the Hospital's Founders, and Mrs Graham herself, had been a leader in woman's activities for the hospital for 64 years. She lived at 1400 Lake Shore Drive. With her as she died were her two sons - David B. Graham of Chicago, and Dr. Evarts A. Graham, former President of the American College of Surgeons, and now head of the surgical department of Barnes Hospital in St. Louis. Mrs Graham's surviving grandchildren include Mrs Kent Hamilton Parker of Winnetka, and Dr. David T. Graham and Dr. Evarts A. Graham, Jr, both of St. Louis. A member of Third Presbyterian Church all her life, Mrs Graham formerly was active in woman's mission board work, and was a member of the Chicago Woman's Club and the West End Woman's Club.

(From Chicago Tribune-5/9/1948): "Mrs Ida B. Graham, Widow of Surgeon, Dies at Age of 98. Mrs Ida B. Graham, 98, of 1400 Lake Shore Drive, widow of Dr. David Wilson Graham, eminent Chicago surgeon, and one of the Founders of the Presbyterian Hospital in 1883, died early yesterday in the hospital. Mrs. Graham was one of the women who organized the Woman's Board of the hospital, which furnished the first hospital in 1884. She was President of the Board from 1909 to 1920, and continued active as a member until last April 5, in spite of her age. She was also instrumental in starting the hospital's School of Nursing, and was the organizer of the West End Woman's Club. Born in Philadelphia, she was brought to Chicago as a child and taught school prior to her marriage to Dr. Graham in 1877. When he died in 1925, he was Professor of Surgery at Rush Medical College. Survivors include two sons, David B. Chicago, and Dr. Evarts A. head of the surgical department of Barnes Hospital, St. Louis, and former President of the American College of Surgeons; three grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren."

Biographical:

(General, Dept. of Iowa, G.A.R., State House, Des Moines, Iowa):

Matthew G. Hamill was said to have belonged to the "Isaiah Dedder" Post
No. 446, Grand Army of the Republic, of Grandview, Iowa. His name is not on the rolls in the Department, but since I have found many names on other Post's rolls that have not been sent to the Department, I can well believe that he may have been a member.

Church, and was serving at Millville, New Jersey. He now lives (/ /) at No ----- Street, in -----.

Rev. Matthew Andrew Graham, DD. was said to have lived first in Monmouth, Illinois. He is very possibly descended from a previous intermarriage with a Hamill. Note in this connection that Nancy Jane Hamill's (H-371-C6) Mother was a Jane Graham (H-371-C), and that the latter's Grandfather was a Rev. Andrew Graham, DD., a UP Pastor at Monmouth, Ill., whose wife was a Hamill, and a Cousin of Wm. Trimble Hamill (H-373-1). So there is a kinship here that we do not at present know about.

Rev. Matthew Andrew Graham, DD. was the Son of Mr ----- Graham, who was in the ----- business, who lived in (Town-State) -----, and his Wife (Maiden Name) -----
----- (Graham). He was the Grandson of Mr -----

(Letter of 4/2/1950): ".....The only excuse I can offer for either "P.-R." (H-371-C82-3) or Claud Hamill for not answering your questions is that they have led a life away from any of our kinfolk, and may not feel too kindly toward learning of other branches of the family, or are rather suspicious of the result. They are both fine fellows, and I am surprised they have not shown you the courtesy of an answer....."

(Letter of 6/25/1950): ".....In your letter of 6/23/1950, just at hand, I note your mention of the Scurry County, (Texas) field. Yes, that is quite a play. Claud, (H-371-C82-4) has developed 230 acres located there that will make him quite a few million, and has kept Allen, (H-371-C83-2) on the jump, looking after the drilling of those, and other wells in South Texas....."

OBITUARIES of ALLEN WM. HAMILL, SR:

(Contributed - 1/10/1957 - by Mrs Allen Wm. Hamill, Sr (Evelyn Curtis Edwards)
(H-371-C33), 1003 East 20th St, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

(From: Tulsa, Oklahoma, "World" - 9/29/1956):
"A. W. HAMILL IS DEAD HERE. Drilled First Well in Spindletop Area. (Picture, (with wording: "A...Hamill, Oil Pioneer dead...") Al W. Hamill, 50, driller of the Lucas Gusher at Spindletop, on the outskirts of Beaumont, Texas, which opened a new era in the Petroleum Industry, died at his home, 1003
East 20th St (Tulsa, Okla) early today after a lingering illness from cancer.
Born in Ligonier, Penna, Mr Hamill went to Corsicana, Texas, as a teen-ager and entered into partnership with his brother Jim, drilling artesian wells.
He and his brother were among the first to use the rotary method of drilling wells. Because of this experience and the reputation of the firm, they were requested to drill the Lucas Well because of difficulties in drilling through a cavey formation.

The Well broke loose on Jany. 10, 1901, and flowed out of control an estimated 100,000 barrels a day. Mr Hamill was employed by Capt. Anthony F.
Lucas and Joseph M. Guffey of Pittsburgh, who backed drilling of the Well, to bring it under control after it had flowed 800,000 barrels. In recent years, Mr Hamill devoted his time to looking after Oil interests he had in the Glenn Pool area. The Lucas Gusher is given credit for opening the era of using Oil for fuel. Up to that time, the chief use of Oil had been as an illuminant, and crude Oil then had only 4 main products - Wax, Grease, Kerosene, and Lubricating Oil. The immense production from the Spindletop Well proved crude Oil could be found in large quantities. So, Oil Men then sought new markets for Oil.

Railroads in the Gulf Coast area experimented with using Oil as fuel under boilers in steam Locomotives and satisfactory results opened a vast market for Oil as a liquid fuel. Oil Men flocked to Beaumont from all over the world after the completion of the Lucas Gusher and, as a result, other prolific Oil Fields were found along the Gulf Coast, both in Texas and in Louisiana. The Lucas Gusher was the first Well drilled for Oil on the Gulf Coast. John H. Galey, of the firm of Guffey and Galey of Pittsburgh, first contacted Hamill Brothers of Corsicana in August 1900. A contract was made to drill the Well for $2. a foot to a depth of 1,200 feet. This price was rather high due to the fact that four other attempts to drill in the area had failed because of quicksand encountered. The Well blew in at 1,020 feet.

Al Hamill was selected to go to Beaumont by his brothers, Curt and Jim, to drill the Well while Jim and Curt remained in Corsicana to look after the drilling business there. Al supervised building the derrick and obtaining materials. He also devised means to drill through the quicksand.
After completing work at the Lucas Gusher, the Hamill Brothers followed Oil developments in the Southwest and were active at Sour Lake, Sabson and other fields. They went to Shreveport in 1910 to drill for Gulf Oil Corp., and later to California, where they were active in Oil developments.
Mr Al Hamill came to Tulsa in 1916 and was active in Oil operations at Cushing, Shamrock, Drumright and other fields. He obtained producing Oil properties in the Glenn Pool and devoted much of his time to these operations. He became ill about 2 years ago, but remained cheerful throughout his sickness.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs Evelyn Hamill; a daughter, Mrs Bert King Smith, Jr, of Fort Worth; two sons, Allen W. Hamill, Jr, of Houston, and J. Marshall Hamill of Westfield, New Jersey; a brother, Curt Hamill of Kerrville, Texas. Also five Grandchildren. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Stanley's Funeral Service. Services will be held Monday at a time to be announced. In lieu of flowers relatives suggested contributions to the Cancer fund. "

(Al) Hamill, Sr., one of the men who drilled the Lucas Gusher, discovering the famous Spindletop Oil field here in 1901, died at 2.15 AM yesterday at his home, 1003 N. 30th St., in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He was 80 years old and had been in ill health for the last 3 years.

Artesian Wells. A native of Ligonier, Penna., Mr Hamill was in his teens when he went to Corsicana, Texas, where he and his brothers, Jim and Curt, formed a partnership to drill Artesian Wells. They were among the first to use rotary drilling methods. Because of the Hamill Brothers' success in oil and water drilling at Corsicana - where a 50-barrel-a-day Oil Well was big - they were engaged by Capt. Anthony F. Lucas, the Austrian Engineer who had been prospecting for Sulphur in Louisiana, to drill for Oil on the Spindletop mound on the South edge of Beaumont. Al and Curt Hamill came here to handle the job, while Jim Hamill remained in Corsicana to look after their interests there.

Lucas Gusher. January 10, 1901, was the day the Lucas Gusher blew in, shooting its great column of Oil high over the top of the wooden derrick and flowing a reputed 100,000 barrels a day until it was finally capped days later. Mr Hamill engaged for many years thereafter in Oil Well drilling. He participated in Oil developments in Texas, Louisiana and California. He settled in Tulsa in 1916 and in recent years had devoted his time to looking after his Oil interests in that area.

Survivors Listed. He is survived by his wife, the former Evelyn Edwards of Beaumont; two sons, Allen W. Hamill, Jr., of Houston, and Marshall Hamill of New York; a daughter, Mrs Bert Smith, Jr., of Fort Worth; a brother, Curt, of San Antonio, and six Grandchildren. Mrs Irwin J. Peray, Sr., of Beaumont, sister of Mrs Hamill, left yesterday for Tulsa to attend funeral services, which will be held in Tulsa tomorrow. No other details of funeral arrangements were available here. Mr Hamill had visited frequently in Beaumont through the years. He and his brother, Curt, were among the distinguished guests at the Spindletop 50th Anniversary celebrations staged here in 1951, when the Anniversary Commission adopted the slogan: "Where Oil Became an Industry," for the famous field. DRILLING THE "SPINDLETOP" OIL WELL:

(From: Harper's Magazine - May 1902 - (Page 111) - "The Oil Well: A Story of Oil")
This article mentions the famous "Spindletop" well, drilled in 1901, which was the world's first big gusher. It states that the Gusher "deluged 800,000 barrels of oil in 9 days, before it could be capped....."

(From: Fort Worth, Texas, "Star-Telegram" - 3/30/1949 - (Editorial Page)):
"3 BROTHERS - THE HAMILL BROTHERS IN OIL BUSINESS. The late Allen W. Hamill (H-371-081) of Fort Worth (Tex), and his two brothers, Al. W. Hamill, (H-371-083), of Tulsa, (Okla), and Carl G. Hamill, (H-371-082) of San Antonio, (Tex), were the drilling contractors on the discovery well at Spindletop, which was the Lucas Gusher. The three brothers, drilling contractors of Corsicana, (Texas), were paid $2. per foot for a 1,200-foot test. Cable, or standard tools, as they were then known, had failed to pound their way through the quicksand. This time the task was tackled by a new method - rotary. Perhaps the fishtail bit attached to the end of the drill pipe would be able to turn and twist its way through. The crew consisted of the Hamill Brothers, Henry McLeod and Peck Byrd. Equipment consisted of a 25-horsepower boiler, two circulating pumps, American Well Works rotary and draw works and an Oil Well Supply engine. As fuel, slabs of wood were used, so water-soaked they would hardly burn."

(Another Article in same paper said): "...Macgloches, Corsicana and Spindletop are three of the most important names in Texas oil history..... Measured by the vast consequences upon the way of life of the people of Texas and the effects upon the nation and the world, the most important event in Texas since the Battle of San Jacinto, was the discovery of oil at Spindletop on January 10, 1901. For Spindletop, where the Lucas Gusher blew in to startle the world, was the beginning of the modern oil industry. Spindletop was a stone tossed into a pool and its widening ripples were Ranger, Burnburnett, Big Lake, Luling, Texas, East Texas, and many other fields that were discovered later."

Spindletop Backers: The credit for Spindletop is shared by Anthony F. Lucas, who promoted and drilled the first well, by J.H. Luffey and J.H. Galey of Pittsburgh, financial backers of Lucas, and Patillo Higgins of Beaumont, who first interested Lucas in Spindletop. The discovery produced 800,000 barrels of oil the first nine days it ran wild. A year later, there were 158 producing wells at Spindletop. Out of the development there, came the Gulf Companies, the Texas Company, Humble Oil & Refining Company, Houston Oil Company, and a numberless host of others. After the peak of 1902, Spindletop entered into a decline that continued year after year until July 7, 1923, when Miles Frank Yount, head of the Yount-Lee Oil Company of Beaumont, made a second discovery there. The second boom, while lacking much of the color of its predecessor, possessed all of its vigor and tremendous production.

(Gusher, which discovered the Spindletop field near Beaumont in 1901. This was snapped shortly after the well blew in.)

"...Such a salt-dome field near Beaumont, Texas, really gave our Petroleum industry the impetus for its spectacular later development. Spindletop oil field, discovered in January 1901, was by far the greatest found in the 42 years of the oil industry up to that time. Oil men from all parts of the country flocked there. There was enough for all, and to spare. Oil flowed and was wasted over the countryside. The very richness of the field captured the imagination. Several of today's largest oil companies had their beginnings at Spindletop, and that one field, still producing, is probably responsible for making what was then a small industry into the industrial giant it is now."

Oil and natural gas built up traffic on the Gulf, and did much to develop (and other area).

the whole Gulf Coast. Today vast refineries at Baton Rouge, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Houston, Port Arthur, and many other places process not only the crude oil from local wells, but much that is produced far inland and brought by pipe line to the Gulf, as well as crude oil carried from Venezuela and other South American countries by tanker. Now the old idea of building refineries in the fields has been superseded. Gulf Coast refineries can take oil from almost anywhere, and all the markets of the world lie open to their products in peacetime by tanker lanes through the Gulf....."

THE 50th ANNIVERSARY (1/10/1951) OF THE FAMOUS

SPINDLETOP OIL WELL (THE BIGGEST GUSHER), AT BEAUMONT, TEX.,

- IN WHICH OUR FAMILIES WERE HONORED - AS THE WELL DRILLING CONTRACTORS.

"Spindletop" is the Crown Jewel in the reign of the Oil Age. It's tremendous, splurging roar opened the eyes of Texas, and the Nation, to the possibilities in Oil. It proved that persistence, great skill, and digging deeper, would bring lavish reward. It really started the Oil Age, which made possible the Automotive Age - which led to the great upsurge of the Machine Age, which does our heavy labor. And it completely altered the living standards of all America - and of much of the entire world.

"Spindletop" was owned by Capt. Anthony Francis Lucas, of Penna. - and he was induced to dig on that small hill, (or salt dome), 3 miles south of Beaumont, Tex., by Mr. Rattillo Higgins, of San Antonio, Tex. Lucas' first attempt failed to find Oil, and seeking further financial backing, he approached Galey & Guffey of Pittsburg, who were "take-a-chance" wildcat operators. They brought in their own Well Drilling Contractors, who were the Hamill Brothers, then of Corsicana, Texas. Galey & Guffey had high respect for the Hamills, who were considered able, successful, honest and very skillful at their work - and who originally came from Egonier, Penna, near Pittsburg. The Hamill Brothers were:

The late JAMES GALVIN HAMILL, (Della Elizabeth Bates) (H-371-081), who later lived in Fort Worth, Texas, where he died in 1948.

CURTIS ("Capt") GALVIN HAMILL, (Eva Smith) (H-371-082), now of San Antonio, Tex.

ALLEN ("Al") WILLIAM HAMILL, SR., (Evelyn Gertrude Edwards) (H-371-083), the youngest brother, now of Tulsa, Okla. - who was in charge of "Spindletop" during its exciting days, who suggested the use of the Rotary-bit, (thus making the well a success), and who had the worry, grief and trouble of handling it, when it came in as the greatest Gusher ever known.

"Spindletop" literally "blew its top" on the 10th day of the 20th Century. - At 10:30 AM on January 10th, 1901, it let go with a roar, spewing 800,000 barrels of oil, some 200 feet into the air during the 9 days before it could be brought under control. "Al. Hamill", as he is called in Texas, was in charge of the well drilling, was the one who made the well successful by suggesting the use of a "Rotary" bit, and who had to bring the rampaging well under control. Naturally, he is highly regarded as a well-drilling and oil expert in all the South-West. "Hamill Brothers" had contracted to drill 1200 feet at $2. per foot, so they received some $2400. for their tremendous job - but what they did will live forever in the annals and stories of the world's oil fields. At the 50th Anniversary Celebration (1/10/1951) at Beaumont, Tex., "Al. Hamill", and his brother, "Capt" Hamill, were highly honored. Large Oil companies, in great gratitude for the start they received because of "Spindletop", saw to it that the large and lavish Anniversary expressed their gratitude properly.

David Rockefeller, V-P of the Chase National Bank of NY, led a long list of Presidents of big corporations to the celebration. Among the Oil Companies who had their start at Beaumont were: Gulf Oil Co., (formerly owned by Galey & Guffey, and now owned by the Mellons of Pittsburg), Humble Oil Co., (owned by Standard of NJ), The Texas Company; McCarthy Oil Co., (of Houston), and a number of others. DuPont and US Steel were among the other large corporations who had their Presidents there. The following Newspaper references tell of the celebration.

BROADCASTS OF THE EVENT:

Janv. 4th, 1951 - "WE, THE PEOPLE" on CBS-RBC, sponsored by Gulf Oil Co. Br. (SEE OTHER SIDE). (2/9/1951).

Al. W. Hamill's actual voice was heard, as he went to NY on 12/20/1950 and made a transcription, used later on the broadcast. This was heard in the East, South-East, and in Texas-Chicago, but was not heard in Chicago. Jan'y 8th, 1951 - "CELEBRATION OF SPINDLETOP" on ABC, sponsored by "Front". This was in the form of a playlet, and as Al. W. Hamill was impersonated by Mr. Wes Damon, his brother "Mini Hamill" was impersonated by Mr. Danny Ocko, and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony "Lucas" were impersonated by Mr. Robert Cummings and Miss Teresa Wright, all of whom were "radio actors". At one place in the playlet, Mr. Giffey the new backer was quoted as saying: "I'll get you the best dam Oil Well Drillers in the country - the Hamill Brothers." As the well blew in with a roar, they called out for "Al. Hamilla."

The US Steel Co., in its own Broadcast at that time, also made an announcement about the Celebration, and the great importance of Spindletop. During the Celebration, many local broadcasts of the events were made from Beaumont, Tex - and were aired mostly in the South-West.

WHAT GREAT CORPORATIONS THINK OF SPINDLETOP:

"Spindletop - where Oil became an Industry" - The official Slogan of the Anniversary - originated by Mrs Helen Colburn, of the Beaumont, Tex, "Enterprise" Newspaper.

"Spindletop - where a January Morning changed your Way of Life." At 10.30 AM on Jan'y 10th, 1901 - just 50 years ago - the mightiest oil well the world had ever seen roared into being. This well at Spindletop, near Beaumont, Tex, was the first of a series of fabulous oil discoveries that gave the people of America a new vision of what their supply of oil might be. Even more important, the roar of Spindletop was the starting gun in a great race where thousands of oil companies tried to outdo each other in producing more efficient, less expensive fuels for the newly developed automobile and oil burner.

Better, cheaper fuels helped put these "luxuries" within the reach of millions... and helped make popular the Diesel engine, the harvester-thresher combine, the airplane and thousands of other developments that have bettered America's way of life. In peace or war, America's privately-managed oil companies provide the finest oil products at the world's lowest prices.... This amazing progress has come because free men, competing freely, have out-distanced the world in their race to out-distance each other. And the benefits of this race go to you. (Photo of Spindletop Gusher): "Capt. Lucas' well at Spindletop gushed up 290 feet before it could be controlled." - (From an Adv. of the Amer. Petroleum Institute, NY, in Chicago Daily News-1/25/1951).

"Amazing is the word for it.... Since the discovery of oil in great quantities at Spindletop, oil has supported a progressive development that has brought about more profound changes in man's way of living than occurred in any other period of history." For oil, available in steadily increasing quantities as a fuel, made possible the development of machinery and it is this combination of machines and energy which has changed the world in the short space of half a century. With oil came automobiles - mass production - airplanes - mechanized farming - diesel electric trains - ships that cross an ocean in four days.... (From an Adv. of the Humble Oil & Refining Co, in the Beaumont, Texas, "Enterprise"-1/10/1951).

"The roar can still be heard." Fifty years ago, when Spindletop came in, a new era was born. This famous well also led to the birth of the Gulf Companies and the oil industry in Texas. It was said then that "the roar could be heard for miles." The roar can still be heard... around the world. For oil is a major contributor to national strength today. Without its vast developed oil reserves, America's voice in international affairs would be only a whisper. With these reserves, however, America's leadership is strengthened immeasurably.... Spindletop was the beginning. But rest assured, as long as thousands of oil men remain free to compete with one another, the effort to increase America's oil reserves will continue far into the future." (From an Adv. of the Gulf Oil Co, in the Beaumont, Tex, "Enterprise"-on 1/10/1951).

SPINDLETOP 50TH ANNIVERSARY:

"A Tribute to Our Spindletop Celebration," way back in January, 1901, when Lucas and the ~~Lucas~~ ~~Lucas~~ brought in the fabulous Lucas Gusher at Spindletop, the world virtually stood still, at least in boisterous Beaumont - where a new era and a new industry were born on the same day. Today, when Beaumont rated as one of the most important oil producing centers of the world, having been the birthplace of the great Texas Company, the Gulf Oil Company, and many others - it is fitting that a spectacular celebration be held commemorating the 50th Anniversary of Spindletop's sensational discovery and this area's rise to fame and fortune..... The famous Lucas well gets its long-deserved recognition - and all of us can proudly salute our town and our state's progress....." (From an Adv. of the First Nat. Bank, Beaumont, Tex., in the Beaumont "Journal"-of 1/8/1951).

"Spindletop, the Granddaddy of All Big Oil Fields, had its 50th birthday yesterday. It was at 10:30 A.M. January 10, 1901, that Capt. Anthony F. Lucas wildcat well on a little hill South of Beaumont, Tex., blew in at a rate of 100,000 barrels of crude oil a day. Never before had oil been produced in such tremendous quantity. Traders of oil and other industries took part in the well's golden anniversary celebration." (From: Chicago Tribune-1/11/1951).

"Black Golden Anniversary: The 20th Century opened up for business on Jan. 1, 1901, with grandiose promise of wonderful things to come; but it wasn't until 9 days later - Jan. 10 - that it began to pay off. On that momentous day, 50 years ago, a wildcat oil well being drilled on Spindletop Hill, near Beaumont, Tex., blew in. With a terrific gush of mud and oil, the shape of things to come began to emerge. The dramatic import of Spindletop, and the Mid-Continent oil field that developed around it, was not the vast sudden wealth that it brought to thousands, or the immediate depressing effect that the new supply had on the world's oil market.

The significance of Spindletop lay in the fact that it promised a cheap and abundant source of mineral fuel and lubricants at the precise moment when American genius was ready to utilize them to power and lubricate new machines. The coincidence of Spindletop and the fruition of the work of thousands of technicians combined to power the 20th Century with internal combustion engines, lubricate its gears and bearings, and speed the age of the machine on its way." (From: Chicago Daily News-1/11/1951).

(From: Beaumont, Texas, Newspapers - Contributed 1/15/1951 by Mrs Paul W. McFadden, (Margaret May Winter) (M-233-52, in the HAMILL Genealogy-Not Related) (to Hamill), of 1305-A West Ave, Austin(1), Texas. She sent Newspapers, and (also wrote to the Compiler as follows): "I am mailing you some Beaumont, (Texas) papers, with an account of the Spindletop Celebration. My friends, Dr and Mrs Billards, were honor guests for all the festivities. Dr Billards is a teacher in the University (of Texas, at Austin, Tex), and quite a noted Geologist..... She told me so much about the celebration, and how lavish everything was. They were given tickets to everything. Said they met ~~Mr Hamill~~, liked him so much, that he was quite active and very prominent. I liked the pictures in the paper of him...."

(From: Beaumont, Tex, "Journal"-1/8/1951 - Sent by Mrs McFadden): "Dr J. H. Paw, Jr, Chairman of the Sun Oil Co, quoted ~~Mr Hamill~~, driller of the Lucas Well, as speaking of the kindness and consideration shown by Capt. Lucas and his wife.

".... The Lucases were in the spotlight again at the nearby Spindletop exhibit Hall, standing by while Dr J. H. Billards, Director of the Texas Memorial Museum at Austin, lent a portrait of Captain Lucas to the Hall...."

AN INTERVIEW WITH DR. J. H. BILLARDS:

(From: Beaumont, Tex, "Enterprise"-1/8/1951 - Sent by Mrs McFadden)

"AL. HAMILL Says Famed Lucas Gusher 'Most Thrilling.' The Lucas Gusher was the most thrilling of all. I never again witnessed anything like that." Those (SEE OTHER SIDE). (2/9/1951) were the words of AL. HAMIL, member of the three-man drill team that brought the well in, who arrived yesterday in Beaumont for Spindletop's 50th Anniversary celebration. AL. HAMIL is a man who has had many thrills in the oil industry. From 1910 to 1912 he was in on "the Shreveport excitement," discoveries at Caddo Lake. After that he spent 4 years in California developing oil properties. Since 1916 he has been an independent oil man in Oklahoma, now living in Tulsa. His remembrance of "the most thrilling of all" is crystal clear, not dimmed in the least by 50 active and eventful years with an industry, from its birth thru its maturity.

"I was the first member of the crew to come to Beaumont (from Corsicana) and Captain Lucas met me at the train. We went straight to the Beaumont Lumber Co. on the river and ordered lumber for the derrick. George Carroll, you've heard of him, of course. He once ran for vice-president on the Prohibition ticket. He was then an owner in the lumber company and a big owner in the Gladys City tract near Spindletop. He came out on the porch and the Captain introduced us. He told me that if the well came in and produced 5000 barrels a day, he would pay for the derrick lumber. Mr. Carroll's setting the number at 5000 barrels, AL. HAMIL said, was based on a "vision, dream or prediction" of Patillo Higgins. When the well came in, Carroll made good on his word. So he actually paid for the derrick used to bring the Lucas Gusher in. After ordering the lumber, Captain Lucas and AL. HAMIL laid in a supply of groceries and ordered slabs for fuel. At the time the Captain was worried about unloading a carload of pipe resting on a railroad siding a half mile from the well's location. He had contacted a house mover, MR. HAMIL said, but the man insisted on a rig to swing the pipe off the car. The Cap wanted to show me the location, so we rode out there after ordering. I was just young and trying to show off, I guess. When we got out there I jumped up on the railroad car and started rolling the pipe off. There was 500 feet of 10-inch pipe, 900 feet of six and 1200 of four. Now I tossed off that 10 inch joint, though, I'll never know. That made lifetime friends of the Cap and me. Later I read about the incident in the book he wrote.

"In Houston yesterday I heard someone say so and so and so were on the Lucas crew. I don't know how those stories got started. There were just the three of us, my brother CURT, Peck Byrd and myself. Oh, we had a driller for awhile, but he quit and left us there after a few weeks. We were just crazy enough to keep going, I guess. Worked 18 hours a day. Yes, I was the first man the Captain talked to the day the well came in.

"Would have missed, AL. HAMIL said "if the well had been put down just 100 feet to the south, they would have missed completely. The location, he said, was selected by Galey, one of the Fittsburg wildcatters backing Captain Lucas. Galey came to Beaumont while the Captain was out of town. Mrs. Lucas took him out and showed him the tract. At that time there was a hog wall with three or four rough boxes along the site, MR. HAMIL said. The wall was filled with water yellow with sulphur. In Hall's place. People used to come out and bottle the stuff, throw their dogs in it to kill fleas and that sort of thing, he said. Galey told Mrs. Lucas where he wanted the well put down. "The Lucas Gusher," MR. HAMIL said, "was the 5th try, the 2nd by Capt. Lucas." MR. HAMIL and MRS. HAMIL are staying here with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. Mrs. Irwin Leray, 2110 Long Ave. (Beaumont, Texas).

(From Beaumont, Tex., "Enterprise" - 1/9/1961 - Sent by Mrs. McFadden)
"Among early arrivals expected to attend an "old timers" meeting Wednesday, (1/10/51) morning were... AL. HAMIL of Tulsa, one of the drillers of the Lucas Gusher... MR. HAMIL was stopping at the home of relatives....
"Mr. J. N. Row, Vice-President in charge of Production said: "My speech will be like the Texas longhorn, a point here and a point there and a lot of bull between." In more serious vein, he said employers in the oil industry have always had good industrial relations with their employees, although no one talked about it 50 years ago and doubtless only a few know the meaning of the term. As an example, Mr. Row referred to this sentence in the account written by MR. HAMIL, one of the drillers, of the discovery of the Lucas Gusher: "The Captain (Capt. Anthony F. Lucas) located me and said 'Go Lucas' insisted he take me home so I could get a little sleep and breakfast. (Photo of Lucas monument) "Three miles from the heart of downtown Beaumont, in the center of a little knoll that rises slightly on the prairie like a shallow, overturned saucer, stands this 60-foot shaft.... For this is the actual site of the gusher that turned a whole world's way of living topsy-turvy at exactly 10 o'clock of a morning that named half a century ago today. This is the Lucas monument."

(From: Beaumont, Texas, Newspapers - Contributed 1/22/1951 by Mr. Allen Will -) (iam ("Al") Will, (H-371-663), of 1003 East 20th St, Tulsa, Oklahoma) :

The Beaumont, Tex, "Enterprise"-1/10/1951, had a fine picture of Spindletop, blowing an enormous column of oil 200 feet into the air. The picture was the full height of the newspaper page. There was also a picture of Mr. Patillo Higgins, and Mr. Al Will. The caption read: "Patillo Higgins and Al Will, among the leading characters in the development of Spindletop, meet in the Spindletop exhibit hall. It was Mr. Higgins who brought Capt. Anthony Lucas here to drill what became the Lucas Gusher. Mr. Will was one of a three-man drilling crew, who actually sank the hole that blew in as the famous Gusher."

"...The Lucas Gusher opened a new frontier, which has grown with the years, and today is greater than early day oil men ever imagined it could be. This was the gist of remarks by three of the nation's foremost geologists yesterday..... Our greatest tool for finding oil is a multiplicity of ideas and the freedom to act upon them - an essential ingredient of Americanism declared Dr. Ira Cram, V-P Continental Oil Co.... A 1901 newspaper article displayed by Mr. Duessen was captioned: "Texans Have Wild Dreams. The Gusher Well has caused them to see Absurd Visions." The text explained that "the natives" imagined their oil was good for other purposes than fuel."

(From: Beaumont, Tex, "Journal"-1/11/1951): ".... Well, the first part of the parade over, and a green Buick just whizzed by with "Al Will" on a poster on the side of the car. Police clearing traffic to get him to the Spindletop monument in time for the exercises out there on the closely timed schedule of the day. It just occurs that it must be nice to be in the position of seeing yourself portrayed in a nationwide radio program, as did both Al Will and Anthony F. Lucas, Jr, who were in the Tuesday night audience. Eleven-year-old Lucas' reply was straight to the point when he was asked how he liked Texas: "No Indians." And if Will did have to sit in the balcony, perhaps he got some satisfaction out of the fact that so many people would come to see him put on the air....."

"..... At 4 PM the spotlight shifted to the Lucas Gusher monument at Spindletop, where Dr. E. L. DeGolyer of Dallas, gave the main address. On the speaker's stand were two men whose names are enshrined in the history of Spindletop. There was 88-year-old Patillo Higgins, the prophet of oil under Spindletop dome. And there was also Al Will, one of the three drillers for Capt. Anthony Lucas, who brought in the world's first Gusher. Also on the platform was Anthony Fitzgerald Lucas, son of Captain Lucas....."

The Spindletop Parade: ".... Wild applause was given to the Old Timer's Caravan. The crowds saw some of the survivors of the historic Gusher event - Patillo Higgins, Al Will and Al Will, who helped drill the famed Gusher and Anthony Fitzgerald Lucas, son of the discoverer....."

(St. Matthews, Kentucky, (Louisville suburb):

"SPINDLETOP OIL Gusher Celebrates Its 20th Birthday - NEWS STORY. Party for well, one of the great in history, the well known, other famous. By John S. Cooper, Staff Correspondent of the Dallas Morning News, Beaumont. Oil men, bankers and industrialists from all over the country are converging here to celebrate the 20th anniversary of one of the biggest gushers in history - the rampaging 100,000-barrel-a-day Spindletop. This wild well came in on January 10, 1901, almost overnight converting Beaumont from a placid little Texas rice milling town to one of the leading industrial cities of the Gulf Coast. More important, it set the stage for the present multi-billion dollar petroleum, chemical, natural gas and sulphur industries that line the Gulf of Mexico from New Orleans to Brownsville.

It changed the industrial history of Texas, and the big state is leaving nothing undone to celebrate it. Governor Allan Shivers last summer appointed a special commission to handle the arrangements for the affair which will reach its climax tomorrow. Three national programs on the radio - US Steel, Gulf Oil's "We the People," and DuPont's "Cavalcade of America" - are dramatizing the Spindletop story. Walter S. Carpenter, Jr., Chairman of the Board of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., W. Brewster Jennings, President of Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., Inc., Charles S. Wilson, President of General Motors Corp., David Rockefeller, Vice-President of Chase National Bank, John H. Pew of Sun Oil Co., E. L. DeGolyer, petroleum geologist, and many other business leaders are taking part in the week-long program.

- Geologists on Special Train. Sunday the sermons of Beaumont's churches centered around the Spindletop theme and yesterday several thousand "rough-necks" and refinery workers of the area were guests at a barbecue held at the fairgrounds. Today 700 geologists will arrive in a special train for a program presided over by John Luman, Vice-President and Director of Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey). Beaumont department stores have lined their windows with special exhibits; 26 downtown blocks are draped with festive bunting, and hillbilly bands, Hollywood movie stars and the "Beaumont Melody" aids are on hand to lend their artistic efforts to the celebration. Hotel rooms are at a premium as the city fills with celebrities.

- Spindletop actually wasn't the first oil discovery in Texas, previous fields having been discovered at Woodstock and Corsicana. The well, pioneered by Captain A. A. Lucas and drilled by the Lucas Brothers, drilling contractors, was the fifth drilled into the huge salt dome outside Beaumont, four previous attempts having ended in failure. When it came in, however, it dwarfed every previous well that had ever been drilled, as more than 3,000 barrels an hour came gushing forth, flooding the surrounding countryside with oil. The Beaumont "Enterprise" qualified for the understatement of the century when it cautiously commented: "This discovery will no doubt induce capitalists to prospect on the lands which are not leased and the result will be very beneficial to Beaumont."

Inside a year, land which could have been purchased for less than $10. an acre was selling for $500,000 to $900,000. In less than three months, Beaumont tripled in population, from 10,000 to 30,000. Bank deposits quintupled in six months. Texas railroads ran special trains, advertising "In Beaumont you'll see a gusher gushing." More than 400 companies sprang up in that first year of wild excitement at the turn of the century, including such present-day giants as Gulf Oil Corp. (then the Guffey Oil Co.), Gulf Refining Co., Houston Oil Co. of Texas, and the Texas Co. (then the Texas Fuel Co.). Texas oil production jumped quickly from 836,039 barrels in 1900 to 4,393,658 barrels in 1901. By 1902, the Spindletop field, with hundreds of wells on it, was producing 17,421,000 barrels by itself, 96% of the state's total output.

Spindletop today is flanked by refineries whose daily crude runs are more than 10% of the US total. Magnolia, Pure, Atlantic, Texas, Gulf, Sun and Stanolind own pipe lines, storage tanks and shipping facilities in the area. Spindletop boasts the world's largest tank farm. In 1926, on a new flank,

SPINDLETOP 50TH ANNIVERSARY:

Spindletop received its second lease on life, with a new discovery, and in that year 14,833,221 barrels were produced. The historic dome is still producing oil.

"Spindletop" Souvenir Plate: 10½ inches in size, blue-on-white. "Spindletop-Beaumont, Texas, 1901-1951" is lettered on the china plate. Around edges are reproductions of various Texas Cattle Brand marks, in remembrance that Texas is also a Great Cattle country. Illustrations show the "Spindletop" well "blowing its top," and the fine monument which now marks the site. Three oil field scenes are shown: "Spindletop" where oil became an industry, a derrick scene, and an oil worker turning a large valve in an oil pipe. On the back of the plate the wording reads: "Spindletop Anniversary Plate Approved by Spindletop 50th Anniversary Commission. On the 10th day of the 20th Century, a new era in civilization began at Beaumont. The first great oil well in the world - the Lucas Gusher - blew in, at 100,000 barrels a day. The well produced 800,000 barrels of oil in the nine days it ran wild. By Vernon Kilns, USA. Made for Smith-Ward Jewelry Co, Beaumont, Texas." (This souvenir china plate was sent to the Compiler by Mrs Paul W. McAdams, of Austin, Texas.)

(Letter of 12/24/1942)-(NOTE: The Compiler has added Genealogical Numbers)
"A.W. Hamill, PO Box 1000, Chicago, Ill. 12/24/1942. Dear Mr. McCall: In answer to your letter of recent date, I will have to tell you I have never tried to dig into past Hamill family history, but I have on hand a copy of information which my brother James, (H-371-081) had acquired before his death on May 3rd, 1943. I feel the best way to reply to your question is to make a copy of this data and enclose to you with this letter, and hope you can gain some information from it's contents. Very truly yours, A.W. Hamill, (H-371-323).

(Genealogical Record enclosed with above letter): Hamill Family History: John Hamill, (H-3), and Elizabeth Hamill (nee Gibson), his wife, came from County Antrim, Ireland, to America in 1761, and about 1805 (??-this is a mistake-was about 1761), moved to Ligonier Valley, Westmoreland County, Penna, and settled about two miles South of Ft Palmer. John and Elizabeth Hamill had the following named children: Hugh (H-36); Robert (H-37); Hannah (H-31); Margaret (H-32); Martha (H-34); Elizabeth (H-33); and Rachel (H-35).

Robert Hamill, (H-37), son of John and Elizabeth Hamill, was born in County Antrim, Ireland, and came to America with his parents in 1761. Settled at Fairfield, Westmoreland County, Penna.

The Father, John, (H-3) was drafted into the Revolutionary War. Robert (H-37) went in his stead and served three years. Robert Hamill, Private in Penna. Militia, received a Pension Oct. 25th, 1835, in pursuance of Senate Resolution of March 3rd, 1835. Was in Battle ofunker Hill. Robert married Jane McKelvey July 20th, 1802. Of this union 17 children were born, 12 of whom grew to man and womanhood. Elizabeth (H-371A) married John Kollack; Mary (H-371B) married John Alexander; Allen S. (H-371C) married Jane Graham; David, (H-372A) married Jane Smith; Jane (H-372B) married Joseph McLean; Robert (H-373) married Jane Trimble; Ann (H-374) married Robert Brown; Ebenezer (H-375) married Jane McCreary; Hannah (H-376A) married (Mr. McElain); Joseph (H-376B) married Elizabeth McCreary; Sarah (H-377) married Alfred Lameroux, of Limerick, Ireland; Rachel (H-378A) married David Brown. Robert (H-37), son of John (H-3) and Elizabeth Hamill, born County Antrim, Ireland, in (11/25) 1759; died April 9th, 1841, age 82 years.

Allen S. Hamill, (H-371C); (son of Robert (H-37) and Jane Graham Hamill, (first wife). Three children were born: Archie A. (H-371-01) married Ellen Apple; Mary J. (H-371-02) married Hugh Little; Elizabeth (H-371-03) married John Little. Second wife, Nancy Calvin, six children were born: Matthew G. (H-371-04) married Mattie Graham; Robert L. (H-371-05) married Christina Matthews; Nancy J. (H-371-06) married M.A. Graham; Margaret (H-371-07) married John Reed; Graham D. (H-371-08) married Ann Brady; Elizabeth (H-371-09) married A.W. Gilmore.

Graham D. Hamill (H-371-08), son of Allen S. and Nancy Calvin Hamill, born July 2nd, 1845 in Westmoreland County, Penna. married Ann E. Brady, Ligonier Valley, Westmoreland County, Penna, March 12th, 1868. Moved to Washington County, Iowa, in 1868. Sold farm there, and returned to Ligonier Valley, in 1875. Moved to Waco, Texas, Acct. wife's health, in Nov. 1876. Of this union three children were born: James Calvin (H-371-081) born in Washington County, Iowa, Aug 3rd, 1869; Curtis Calvin (H-371-082) born in Washington County, Iowa, June 24th, 1872; Allen William (H-371-083) born Ligonier Valley, Westmoreland County, Penna, Sept 8th, 1876.

Ann E. (Brady) Hamill died at Waco, Texas, July 29th, 1879, age 32 years. Graham D. Hamill's second wife, Florada E. Stone, married Dec 8th, 1880; of this union one son was born Aug 23rd, 1901. Florada E. Hamill died at Wumble, Texas, in 1909. Graham D. Hamill died at Waco, Texas, July 26th, 1937, age 82 years, 22 days.

(Letter of 2/5/1950): "Dear Mr. McCalla: You surely are a pastmaster at gathering up history on the Hamill family and I would like to help you, but this is so much out of my line that I fear my answers will be of very little assistance in your endeavor. My life has been spent away from all family connection, except my brothers. My parents moved with three children when I was six weeks old and settled near Peco, Texas. My father, (H-371-C63) was a Farmer and not a Minister as your informant, Dr Clarence A. Hamill, MD, (H-361-11) reported. When I was about seven, I was sent to live with an Aunt, but she died in about three years, and some time after that I went home for a time but soon found myself working with my brother in the oil field, which I have followed since my early age.

I have never contacted, or learned before, of any Hamill -dictionary Preachers. (See Page H-4). I have known of other Hamills, but we could not at the time connect relationship. I have never learned from my father what the "D" stood for as his middle name. My name has been spelled All-E-n instead of All-A-n. My brother, C. G. Hamill, (H-371-C62), lives at 601. Garity Road, San Antonio, Texas, and as he was around the old home place at Peco, (Tex), much more than I was, he may be able to tell you more about the questions you wish answered. With best wishes to you and yours, I am, Sincerely, A. W. Hamill, (H-371-C63).

(Letter of 2/18/1950): "Dear Mr. McCalla: Yours of the 12th received, and I wish to thank you for your letter containing further information on our past and present family history, which is all something new to me. I doubt that I will try for membership in the Sons of the Revolution, for I have never been much of a joiner, but will pass your information on to other family members.

Yes, Allen, Jr. (his Son-H-371-C63-3) is connected with Claud B. Hamill, (H-371-C62-), his Cousin, who is a son of Curt, (H-371-C62). Claud is an independent oil operator and has made a big success in building up his own individual oil interests. Claud has made Allen, Jr. General Superintendent of drilling and all field operations in the way of producing oil. Allen, Jr. graduated from the Tulsa, (Okla.) University in 1935 as a Petroleum Engineer, and expressed the desire to try his luck in Texas. Claud learning of this took him on, where he has been, except during the war. He volunteered for service in March 1942 and came out 1st Lieut. U.S.N., at the close of the conflict.

Our Son, John Marshall, ("Marshall") (H-371-C63-3) entered the U.S.N. (Naval) Academy at Annapolis, (Md), in 1936, graduating in the class of 1940, and was soon transferred to the US Naval Ship "Houston", which was the Flag Ship of the Asiatic Fleet under the command of Adm. Hart. Marshall survived the sinking of the ship on March 1st, 1942, and after about eleven hours in the waters off the Java coast, he was picked up by the Japs as a prisoner, which he remained until V-J day. He came back home in fairly good shape, but of course went through very tough treatment. First imprisonment was in Java, where they were almost starved to death; then later on to Singapore. From there, he with others, were sent into Burma where they were forced to help build the Burma-Thailand Railroad, where many of his comrades died. After V-J day he was picked up from one of the camps and flown to a hospital for a short time in Calcutta, then flown on to Washington, DC, for more hospitalization. He was advanced to Lieut-Commander, but he wished to resign from Naval life, and did so in 1946. Soon after he joined the firm of Stone & Webster, and during this past year (1949) he was assigned as Assistant Engineer on a proposed big Chemical plant to be built by the British Government some place in Scotland, but his headquarters are in London.

Martha, (his Daughter-H-371-C63-1), as you have been advised, married Bert K. Smith, Jr, of Fort Worth, (Texas). Bert also volunteered for service in the armed forces after the sinking of the US Cruiser "Houston," (3/1/1942), going (SEE NEXT PAGE). (3/11/1950).

LETTERS FROM MR ALLEN WILLIAM HAMILL, SR:

into the Army, and came back promoted to the rank of Major. Martin served as the President of the Fort Worth, (Tex) Junior League during the past year (1949).

This brings down to date what our three children have and are doing, and I hope this long tirade has not bored you too much. Guess I swung into all this on account of having some surplus time today, and as you had mentioned your Brothers and Sister, felt like it not entirely out of place to make more mention of my family.

My Brother James' (H-371-C81) two children are:

LeRoy ("Roy") Hamill, (Dead).

Marjorie - nee Hamill Dittert; 508 So. Mechanic Street, El Campo, Texas. I noted on the enclosed card that Jim's, (H-371-C81) only son died. I have forgotten just when, but quite a few years ago. Jim's daughter Marjorie is a Mrs Dittert and now lives in El Campo, Texas. With every good wish for you and your sister, I am, Sincerely, A. W. HAMILL (H-371-C83).

(Letter of 3/11/1950): "Dear Mr. McGalla: Your interesting and informative letter of recent date received, and I must admit Curt's, (H-371-C82) letter rather abrupt, and I presume he is not interested in learning anything more of the history than was shown in the copy I mailed you furnished by Jim (H-371-C81) before his death. (See copy on Letters page 1).

Curtis G. and Eva Hamill, (H-371-C82) had five children, names as follows: Mable, Ellis, Percy, Claud and Ethel. Mable had 2 children, but now a divorcee. Ellis lost his life several years ago in attempting to rescue some ladies from a speed boat accident. Percy and wife have one daughter. Claud and wife have one son. Ethel married a Doctor, but I have forgotten his name. Percy "P.R." Hamill, (H-371-C82-3) is President of one of the Bay City, Texas, banks. I feel if you care to write him he could give you the information requested of Curt. Just address him P.R. Hamill, Bay City, Texas, and he will get it. Claud B. (H-371-C82-4) as mentioned in my last letter, lives in Houston, (Tex) and his home address is 2124 Riveroaks, Houston.

P.R. and Claud are both fine men, as well as successful in business. Marjory, (H-371-C81-2), Jim's (H-371-C81) daughter, divorced Tom Shaw several years ago and married a Mr Dittert that I have never contacted. I regret not being able to give more information on the family. Guess I am not very sentimental on keeping up with my family relations. With best wishes to you and your Sister, I am, Sincerely, A. W. HAMILL.

(Letter of 4/2/1950): "Dear Mr. McGalla: I wish to acknowledge and thank you for your two recent interesting letters giving additional past history on our family. Glad to learn Marjorie, (H-371-C81-2) answered your letter in detail. I don't think any of us know what the "D" stood for in Father's name. I asked him once but he smiled and said it didn't matter, or some such answer.

The only excuse I can offer for either P.R. (H-371-C82-3) or Claud Hamill, (H-371-C82-4) for not answering your questions is that they have led a life away from any of our Kinfolk, and may not feel too kindly toward learning of other branches of the family, or are rather suspicious of the result. They are both fine fellows, and I am surprised they have not shown you the courtesy on an answer. Marshall, (H-371-C83-3) and Jean will be in Belgium for a while this month. We expect Martha (H-371-C83-1) and children for a short visit soon, and if Allen (H-371-C83-2) can get away for a few days, they will also come up from Houston.

Yes, I am glad to learn from you the nature of your occupation. I had surmised in a way that the gathering of family history was a hobby and not a business with you. We regret to learn that Miss Helen, (H-123-61) had the misfortune of a broken ankle, for those things are most painful, and require a long time in healing. We hope the break will fully heal, and not leave any discomfort. I regret that I have not been able to give you more information in the way of middle names and names of my brother's wives, family, etc. With best wishes to you and Sister, I am, Very truly yours, A. W. HAMILL.

LETTERS FROM MR ALLEN WILLIAM HAMILL SR:

(Letter of 5/7/1950): "Mr Paul R. McCalla, 2320 Cottage Grove Ave, Chicago (16) Illinois. May 7th, 1950. Dear Mr McCalla: I should apologize for not answering your letter of April 15th, but I have so many good excuses, on account of California visitors with much detail to look after, that I just put it off until what I thought was a more convenient time. I hope by now you have received from both Allen, (H-371-083-2) and "Marshall" (H-371-083-3) the answers you requested. Marshall of course was away from England for a while, and I know Allen has been on the go from one part of Texas to another for some time. He could not make the trip up Tulsa way for Easter, but we hope he can manage a visit to the old homestead before too long.

We enjoyed the humor you put in your letter about your boyhood and good marksmanship, as well as relating the experiences while in school and the jobs thereafter. We boys could fill volumes should we try to relate all our varied and sundry experiences while growing up. My main thrill of course was the drilling of the Lucas Gusher with my brothers. While there has been much written about the well, I hesitate to try to give you any more data than what you have mentioned receiving, which had been published in some Texas paper, for I feel that about tells the story, and elaborating more would not be of much interest. I hope by now Miss Helen, (H-125-61) has fully recovered from the broken ankle; and can again enjoy life to her satisfaction. With good wishes, I am, Sincerely, AL. W. HAMILL, (H-371-083).

(Letter of 5/27/1950): "Dear Mr McCalla: I wish to acknowledge receipt of your 27-page report mailed me on the 27th, also your recent letter giving more data on the Hamill family. You surely took on a task in making such diligent efforts to assemble the history of our family, and I regret very much that I could not give you more definite material on each member connected by marriage - but I must admit you have surely persevered with your undertaking. I am at a loss to try to explain any real reason why Allen, (H-371-083-2) and "Marshall" (H-371-083-3) failed your request, for I had written them quite some time before you sent out your questionnaires to them, and stated my opinion was that you had tackled a rather difficult task, and I felt any help we could give should be done even if they did not care anything about members of the family they had never come in contact with. Allen (Jr) has been on the go from one oil field to another most of this year, yet I feel he should have answered your letter. I feel he is the most sentimental of our children, and of course thought surely he would not delay your request on his part of the family. My thought on your question of who to send the #2 set of your 27-page report to would be to F. A. Hamill, (H-371-082-3). I feel he would be most likely the one who would preserve the report and, of course the #3 could be sent to Mrs Marjorie M. Dittert, (H-371-081-2). I surely hope your report will be well taken care of, and that the coming generations will appreciate the effort you have put out in compiling the family history. With every good wish for you and Miss Helen, (H-125-61), and again thanking you for the report, I am, Sincerely, AL. HAMILL."

(Letter of 6/25/1950): "Dear Mr McCalla: I have been quite busy for some time, which is partly the cause of the delay in answering your letter of the (June) 3rd, in which you had enclosed corrected sheets to be replaced in your 27-page report covering the Hamill family. For this I wish to express my appreciation. I still cannot give you the answer why Allen (H-371-083-2), Marshall (H-371-083-3) and Claud (H-371-082-4) failed in filling out and mailing you the report from you, so guess they feel they already know enough about the family. The sentiment you expressed about the "egrees and "ows surely coincides with the id as I have, and the recent decision handed down by the Supreme Court, conditions surely will not improve. As the #4 sheets of your report are not very clear, I suggest you keep them, and if Martha (H-371-083-1) shows a special desire for a copy, I will have the ones I have copied. One of these days they will get my copy anyway. Bert Smith, (Martha's husband) is mighty good at keeping records is my reason for the suggestion of Martha keep- (SEE OTHER SIDE).

In your letter of the (June) 23rd, just at hand, I note your mention of the article in the Saturday Evening Post (6/5/1950) on oil, making special mention of the Scurry County, (Texas)-field. Yes, that is quite a play. Cloud, (H-371-082-4) has developed 220-acres located there that will make him quite a few million, and has kept Allen, (H-371-083-2) on the jump looking after the drilling of those, and other wells in south Texas. I presume Miss Helen (H-125-61) has fully recovered from the broken ankle, and for you both I extend best wishes, Cordially yours, Al. Hamilton.

LETTERS FROM MR ALAN WILLIAM HAMILTON, JR:

(Letter of 7/21/1950): "Dear Mr. McCalla: I wish to acknowledge receipt of your recent letter, and the additional sheets you prepared to replace some in your 27-page-report on our family history. You surely must be a man with a lot of patience and untiring perseverance to have amassed the interesting data in your report. The 'Oil Family Genealogy'..... It's a pleasure to know you and Miss Helen, (A-125-61) enjoyed looking over the recent map issued by the Oil Journal, covering the Southern portion of Oil development carried on so extensively in recent years..... I again wish to thank you for your letters and the historic family report, and my best wishes to you and Miss Helen...."

(Letter of 9/17/1950): ".....the late news from the war (Korea) sounds more encouraging, and hope the situation will soon be satisfactorily cleared up, but we surely are in for a long period of unsettled times, with many denials and high tax burdens, while the present layout can remain in Washington. I for one am going to do all I can on election days to rid out the crooks...."

(Letter of 12/20/1950 - with Christmas Card): "It may be interesting to you to tune in on the 'The Big Program' program on December 29th, (1950), also on the 'CAVALCADE OF AMERICA' program on January 9th, (1951). It's something I haven't had much to do with, except being a victim of circumstances. Guess I will have to submit to an extent to the wishes of others, even if I do not care for the idea. AL. (A. W. Hamilton)."

(Letter of 12/22/1950): "Dear Mr. McCalla: I wish to make a correction of part of the note enclosed with Christmas Card mailed you. What I wish to correct is the date of broadcast of the 'The Big Program' program. I mentioned December 29th. I was a little premature in making that statement on account of not having full information on G.B.S. plans. The set-up is as follows. The Gulf Oil Corp. has prevailed on me to go to New York and be there for the 29th, so a program can be worked up and broadcast in honor of the 50th Anniversary of the bringing in of the 'Spur' on January 10th, 1901. I presume the set-up will be broadcast on January 4th (1951), the regular date of their time on the air. Of course, there is a lot I do not know about the plan, but my wife and I go to NY, expenses paid by the Gulf Oil Co. The reason I presume for our being there on the 29th, is because I objected to being away from Tulsa on that date, so at that, it will be a transcribed affair as far as my part is concerned."

As to the 'CAVALCADE' program on the 9th, (1/9/1951), I will be impersonated. All in all, I feel it a lot of nonsense, but at that I feel I am on the spot, and must cooperate when others are doing so much toward the 50th Anniversary. I guess I should not have mentioned it at all, but knowing the interest you have shown in the family, the idea hit me when sending you and Miss Helen, (A-125-61) the Christmas Card. Again expressing the wish that you two will have a Happy Christmas and prosperous New Year, I am, Cordially yours, AL. HAMILTON."

(Letter of 1/22/1951): "Dear Mr. McCalla: I had no idea when the thought hit me, when mailing you the Christmas Card, that you would bother yourself more than perhaps listen in on the broadcast. I feel you put yourself to a lot of work, and at that, the program was not put out as I thought it would be. I found it is put out at different dates, depending on location. In NY, it was out on the evening of the 28th of December (1950), and on television the next night, while down in Texas it was not until the 4th and 5th of January (1951), and here in Tulsa, the television has not been shown. We are off the path of good television, so don't know if it will be shown, and to tell the truth, I would rather it would not be. I stated very much that I had to take the part requested of me, but owing to my having been on the Texas 'oil all the time, the Gulf Oil Corp. would not take me. We of course had a good time in NY, as well as in Houston, but I was really embarrassed at times by the photographers. What they can do with so many pictures is a puzzle to me. I am mailing, as you requested, in separate cover, some of the many news items and pictures. All papers for several days devoted much space to the Anniversary Party. We were away 18 days in all on the NY and Beaumont trips. It was fine for Mrs Hamill, owing to the fact that her invalid Mother lives with us, and has been a constant care which has tied us down, but on this occasion we were able to get an unusually good Nurse to take over the 24-hour schedule, which enabled us both to go. LETTERS FROM MR ALVIN WILLIAM HAMILI, SR:

(Letter of 2/14/1951): "Dear Mr McCalla: It seems like I got behind in everything while away from Tulsa the 10 days helping the best I could in the celebration of the 50th Anniversary of Spindletop, and I see it was on January 20th that you last wrote me giving some comments others had made about the elaborate way the Beaumont people had entertained the old-timers that were there for the party. I had some advance notice of the planned Anniversary by receiving an invitation stating the dinner on the evening of the 10th was to be formal, so yours truly had to dig out and dust off the old "Tuck" and dress up for the occasion, which proved much more glamorous than I could possibly imagine in many ways. The notice, or rather the article, stating we were guests of Mr and Mrs Irwin Moray was correct. Mrs Moray is my wife's only sister.

No, my brother "Art" could not make the trip to Beaumont on account of not feeling well. He had an attack of some sort two or three weeks before the scheduled event. I had hoped he would be on hand so we could have a visit, for it has been several years since spending much time together. Our daughter and son Alton, with his wife, were on hand for the Anniversary program, and I feel they had as nice a time as the old folk. So are now in the midst of the worst storm this section has witnessed in several years. While it works many hardships, the moisture is badly needed, which the sleet and snow will provide. Our winter, up to now, has been very dry. Hope Miss Helen has become entirely well from the attack she went through last fall, for as I understand it, the "Shingles" is nothing to laugh about. With all good wishes, I am, sincerely, AL. HAMILI."

(Letter of 3/22/1951): "Dear Mr McCalla: I certainly have been neglectful about answering your interesting letter of the 11th, as well as your letter containing the 2 copies of the 4-page account you made up covering the 50th Anniversary Celebration of "Spindletop." You surely gave yourself a good workout in preparing and making the detailed account of the activities, as well as statistics on "Spindletop," from January 10th, 1901, up to the Anniversary dinner of January 10th this year. Your account was so complete that I feel you should be in the field of Journalism. I had no idea that my mentioning on the Christmas Card something of the planned radio and Anniversary entertainment, would cause you to undertake the task so well done by you, in outlining the many items of interesting events during the celebration. I hope all parties receiving your account will appreciate your effort as much as I do.

Our part of the world has begun to take on the Spring-like weather, but we still are badly in want of rain, so fear when it does start, we will be from one extreme to another. Hope both you and Miss Helen are enjoying life to the fullest, and have been quite well during the trying weather that Chicago has reported on many occasions this winter. Again thanking you for your interesting letter, I am, sincerely, AL. HAMILI."

(Christmas Card of 12/14/1951): "Dear Mr McCalla and Miss Helen: Glad to receive your card, which indicates both you and Miss Helen are enjoying life, and I hope you will get much pleasure from the Holiday season, with pleasure and prosperity during 1952. Sincerely, AL. W. HAMILI."

(Letter of 3/22/1952): ".....We, I feel, have been fortunate with a fairly mild winter, not much snow or ice, which really pleased me. I had plenty of that the few years spent in the Ligonier Valley, on the dear old farm. The freakish weather of the past few months has caused lots of distress, and I fear the over-abundance of snow will prove another big flood hazard this Spring. We hope "Marshall" will get time off to pay us a visit this summer. I believe I told you he returned to Boston a short time before Christmas. I am not quite sure of the exact location of the plant built in Scotland, and not informed on the full purpose of the plant. I will discuss with Marshall on his visit home, the location and the information he can give us to size and products produced. Marshall and Jean have a son, now 3 months old, his name is Marshall James Hamili, and from reports and pictures, he is doing mighty well.....Sincerely, AL. HAMILI."

The "Houston" was sunk 3/1/1942 off the Java Coast, and after 11 hours in the water, he was rescued by the Japs. Here began a long imprisonment, with rough treatment, in Java, Singapore, Burma, etc, and he was one who was forced by the Japs to help build the Burma-Thailand RR. After V-J Day at the War's end he was hospitalized, brought back to the USA, and promoted to be a Lieut-

(Letter of 2/13/1950): "....Our son, John Marshall (Hamill) ("Marshall"), entered the U.S.N. (Naval) Academy at Annapolis (Maryland) in 1936, graduating in the class of 1940, and was soon transferred to the US Naval Ship "Houston" which was the flagship of the Asiatic Fleet, under the command of Adm. Hart.
"Marshall" survived the sinking of the ship on March 1st, 1942, after about eleven hours in the waters off the Java Coast he was picked up by the Japs as a prisoner, which he remained until V-J day. He came back home in fairly good shape, but of course went through very rough treatment.

First imprisonment was in Java, where they were almost starved to death, then later on to Singapore, from there he with others was sent into Burma, where they were forced to help build the Burma-Thailand Railroad, where many of his comrades died. After V-J day, he was picked up from one of the camps and flown to hospital for a short time in Calcutta, then flown on to Washington, DC, for more hospitalization. He was advanced to Lieut-Commander, but he wished to resign from Naval life, and did in 1946. Soon after he joined the firm of Stone & Webster, (Engineers), and during the past year he was assigned as Assistant Engineer on a proposed big chemical plant to be built by the British Government some place in Scotland, but his headquarters are in London.....

(Letter of 4/2/1952): "....Marshall, (H-571-C33-3) and Joan will be in

Robert McKelvie Hamill was born in Ligonier Valley, Westmoreland Co, Penna. He was a Tanner by Trade, but after he removed to Indiana Co, Penna, he was engaged in Farming until his death in March 1886. In 1851 he moved from Ligonier to Centre Township, Indiana Co, Penna, and bought a tract of land called "Junction." On this farm the "Whiskey Boys" had an encampment during the Whiskey Insurrection of 1794...

Jane Trimble was the daughter of William Trimble, and Granddaughter of George Trimble, native of North Ireland, who emigrated from that country to the United Colonies in 1789, and located in White Twp., Indiana County, Pa. He was soon driven by the Indians to Conecocheague Valley, from whence he afterward returned in 1797, to this (Indiana) County, (Penna), where he purchased a tract of land called "St James."

A Trimble descendent lived in Hillsboro, Ohio. The Compiler's Mother, Mrs Rev. Albert McCalla, D.D., MA, PhD, FRHS (Eleanor Nancy Hamill) (H-125-6) attended Hillsboro Academy there, about 1869; and knew a Harriet Hamill who married a Trimble, and lived there in Hillsboro, Ohio.

(Evans & Cogswell-Charleston, SC:

"ROBERT HAMILL: Son of Wm. T. and Mary Ray Hamill, was born 3/2/1871 on his parent's farm, where they still reside, 3 miles distant from Indiana, Penna. Until 18 years of age he attended the nearby country public school, where the annual term was never more than 6 months. Worked at home on the farm during the rest of the year, and also during vacations of after school life. The years since 1889 and 1891 were spent by him in the Indiana State Normal, and 4 years (1891-95) in Westminster College, by which he was graduated in the Classical Course in 1895. Two years were spent in teaching in Norfolk, Va, Mission College. Attended Erskine Theological Seminary at Due West, SC, 1897-99, and Allegheny Seminary 1899-1900, and graduated there in the class of 1900. He united with the UP Church at Indiana, Pa, at the age of 15, and was licensed by the Second AR Presbytery, (UP) 4/10/1901. He served in Jewell, Kansas, Congregation 1900-1901, and since 1902, has served the Lebanon Congregation, Fayetteville, Tenn."

Rev. Robert Hamill, JR., in 1930, was Pastor of the Mt Jackson United Presbyterian (UP) Church, at Mt Jackson, Penna (PO Address: RD 8, Newcastle, Penna). Mt Jackson is in the beautiful Enon Valley, a few miles North of the old Hamill Farm, and about half-way between Newcastle-Allington, Pa, and the town of Enon Valley, Pa. Here, Rev. Robert was among the descendants of Nathaniel Hamill (H-1). John Hamill, (H-12) and Nathaniel Hamill, (H-11) were the 1st Elders in that Church, which was attended by nearly all members of the Nathaniel Hamill (H-1) descendants who came to H. Beaver Two (Enon Valley), although many attended Bethel Church, a few miles South. It was also attended by various relatives who intermarried with our Hamills, such as the Davidsons, MacGundlesses, Hopes, and possibly some Becketts and Smiths.

The Compiler - Paul Hamill McCalla (H-125-65) - made a visit to Enon Valley in 1930, and had the pleasure of meeting Rev. Robert. He was a very kindly quiet man, with a lively twinkle in his eyes - a typical kindly Hamill. I liked him very much, and little did I realize then, while we were talking, that he had been educated among my Father's people, the Hamills-Loffatts-Griers at Erskine Theological Seminary-Erskine College, at Due West, SC. He said he had preached in the South - but I never dreamed that he had been right among my Father's people. A few years later, I heard with great regret, that this fine, very kindly man had contracted Tuberculosis, and had gone to the South-west for treatment, and had died there.

LETTERS FROM MR. CARSON:

(Huff Bldg, Greensburg, Penna.)

(Letter of 1/11/1948): "ROBERT M. CARSON, Attorney at Law, 217-219 Huff Bldg, Greensburg, Penna.. 1/11/1948. Mr Paul H. McCalla, -2516 Calumet Avenue, Chicago, Ill. Dear Sir: In looking over some old notes on the Hamill ancestry, I ran across your letters in 1938 and 1939 in which you asked for certain data regarding my father's family. I regret that I did not send this data to you. Enclosed are part of the facts. I do not have all the data for the rest. Will get them and send them to you. I believe you told me how you come through the Hamill line, but I do not have these notes, it seems. Will you please tell me? Yours very truly, Robert M. Carson."

(Letter of 3/2/1949): "Dear Sir: A number of years ago you wrote me that you could give me the references as to the books or archives where the military service of my Revolutionary ancestor, Robert Hamill (H-37) could be found. I am applying for membership in the Sons of the American Revolution, and would like to have that information, if you can give it to me.

(The Compiler, (H-125-65), on 3/28/1949, sent Mr Carson his) (Line of Descent from John Hamill, (H-3), and Robert Hamill)
(H-37), and also data regarding the Revolutionary War service
(vices of this John (H-3) and Robert Hamill (H-37)).

(Letter of 4/6/1949): "Dear Cousin Paul: I do appreciate your interest and cooperation in sending all the data you have sent. I hope I can be out through Chicago, or you can be back through here to visit. I was at a Tall Cedars meeting last night where Paul Hamill, (probably H-361-18) of Ligonier Valley, a descendent of Hugh Hamill (H-36), was there. Kindest personal regards, Very truly yours, Robert Miller Carson."

JOSEPH HAMILL (H-4).

SUPPOSEDLY THE ORIGINAL 4th BROTHER - WHO WENT SOUTH AND BECAME LOST.

There has always been a firm Legend in Family A about a 4th Original Brother who left the other 3 brothers in Penna, went South, and became lost to the Family records.

Also, there have always been persistent Legends about a Joseph Hamill, and also a possible Original 5th Brother, Hugh Hamill. Some say that Hugh came here, but later returned to North Ireland. There have always been plenty of references to Hugh Hamill especially. But Hugh has been a Will-o-the-Wisp. We've never been able to find out who he was, where he lived, who his children were, or where he disappeared to. Then another form of this Legend was that the 4th Brother came to America later, could not locate the others, and wandered South, and so became lost to the records. (See Introductory Section-Hamill Genealogy-for mention of Hugh and Joseph Hamill).

But now to consider the Missing Joseph Hamill (H-4). Way back in 1858, a Dr Robert G. Hamill (Dentist of Greensboro, Alabama), wrote one of the "Northern" Hamills (H-269-B) that he was descended from a Joseph Hamill, who emigrated to South Carolina shortly after the Revolution - and he gave the names of the children, who were: A Daughter, and John-Hugh-Charles-Andrew-James Hamill. Unfortunately, there are no further records of any data supplied by this Dentist of 1858 regarding this Joseph Hamill or his descendants.

In 1946, Rev. M. Nash Hamill, DD (H-467-67), Methodist Church, Rienzi, Mississippi, wrote The Compiler, that he was descended from a James Hamill, who was born in 1800 in Newberry, SC. Further, that Legends in his branch of the Hamills say that 4 Brothers came together from Belfast in the 1700's, probably about 1770. However, he knows nothing about the 4th Brother being named Joseph Hamill, or about Joseph leaving the other 3 brothers in Penna.

So it would seem that we have a faint, but direct line, opening up from Joseph Hamill (H-4), to his youngest son, James Hamill (H-48-born Newberry, SC, in 1800), and so on down to this Rev. M. Nash Hamill, DD (H-467-67) of Rienzi, Miss, in 1946. Therefore, this is being written up as Hamill Family C H-4, descended supposedly from Joseph Hamill, the 4th Original Brother. This Joseph supposedly left the other 3 in Penna in 1770-5, or about 1799-1800, went to Newberry, SC - and his descendants scattered from there. Such little data as we have is given on the pages which follow. It is hoped that old Bible records, and other substantiation, can be secured from other descendants later.

By referring to Other Hamills Section-Family C-you will find the records of the St Louis, Mo, "Blackney-Hamills". This family is found in St Louis prior to the Civil War.. They had a Legend that they were descended from the Original 4th Brother. They spoke of him as Joseph Hamill. They claimed that their portion of the family came back North after the Revolution - finally settling in St Louis. It might be possible later to connect this Family C with the descendants of this Joseph (H-4).

See also Other Hamills Section-Family E-who may connect with this Family).

Migration from Pennsylvania to Newberry, SC - Etc.

Persistent legends in our Hamill Family A. speak of a Hugh Hamill, and of a Joseph Hamill - whom we have heretofore been unable to trace. They were supposedly brothers of the original Nathaniel (11-1), Robert, Jr (11-2), and John Hamill (11-3). Another persistent legend speaks of "a brother who left the other 3 in Penna, went South, and was never heard from again." Heretofore, we have never been able to trace this "Missing Brother." (See the Introductory Section - Hamill Genealogy).

However, say back in 1856 - a descendant of Robert Hamill, Jr (11-2) was on a visit to the South, and received an interesting letter. It was from John G. Hamill, (Shoebie Litchbath Hamill) (11-269-B) - a Dentist, of Xenia, Ohio - who was then visiting temporarily in Georgetown, Kentucky. While there, he received a letter dated 9/23/1856, from a Dr. Robert G. Hamill, also a Dentist, living in Greensboro, Alabama. The latter wrote that his people came from Ireland, that his grandfather was Joseph Hamill, who emigrated to So. Carolina shortly after the Revolution, with a daughter and 5 sons, named John, Hugh, Charles, Andrew and James. He asked if John G. Hamill (11-269-B) was the son of Hugh Hamill.

(No - John G. Hamill (11-269-B) was the son of Joseph Hamill, Sr (11-26) of Big Cove, Penna and Xenia, Ohio, and was a descendant of Robert Hamill, Sr (11-2) of Big Cove, Penna.)
Dr. Robert G. Hamill continued in his letter to say that they were probably related, and that he wanted to get acquainted.

It is exceedingly probable that this Robert G. Hamill, Dentist, of Greensboro, Alabama, is a descendant of the "Lost Brother" Joseph Hamill - and he gives us a list of the children's names. This valuable letter was sent to the Compiler by Allan Wendell Hamill, (11-269-B2), a wholesale grocer of Box 103, Chillicothe, Ohio - who stated when he sent it in 1924-27, that there was no further record or any more correspondence in his father's papers. His father - to whom this letter was written in 1856 - was Dr. John G. Hamill (11-269-B), also a Dentist, of Xenia, Ohio.

Now let us assume that this information is correct, that there was an Original 4th Brother named Joseph Hamill, who about _____, left the others in Penna, went South with his 6 children whose names are given, and became lost to the family records.

Also, on 1/12/1946, Rev. E. Lash Hamill, Jr, (11-467-67), Methodist Church, at Flens, Mississippi, wrote the Compiler that his Great-Great-Grandfather came from Belfast, Ireland, in the 17-hundreds, (he thinks) about 1770. That a legend in his family says that there were 4 brothers who came together from Belfast. That his ancestor settled in Mississippi, where one of his sons, James Hamill (11-46), was born 6/15/1800 (who was the Great-Grandfather of this Rev. E. Lash Hamill).

There is a slight discrepancy here, for Dentist Robt. G. Hamill of Greensboro, Ala, leads us to believe that the original Joseph Hamill (11-4) had a son James (11-46) who came with him and 5 other children) to Newberry, SC. But Rev. E. Lash Hamill says that his James was born in Newberry, SC, on 6/15/1800. However, it is perfectly possible that the original Joseph may have had his youngest child born in South Carolina, while the other children emigrated with him from Penna.

Now as to timing. Dentist Robt. G. Hamill of Greensboro, Ala, says his Joseph Hamill "emigrated to SC about 1770 after the Revolution." The son, James Hamill, was born in SC on 6/15/1800 according to Rev. E. Lash Hamill of Flens, Miss). So that checks OK.

In addition, we know that in Big Cove, Penna, after 1/6/1799 (which was

(the date of the death of Nathaniel Merrill (H-1), nearly all the Merrills left Big Cove, Penna. So it is possible that this 4th brother, Joseph Merrill, might also have been there, and might have left at the same time, going South to Newberry, SC, instead of on to Iron Valley, Penna - or to Xenia, Ohio, with the others. So this supposition as to timing (1770-1800) would check OK. However, note that the Penna Archives record of those who were in Big Cove, Penna, does not list this missing Joseph Merrill as having been there. (See the supplementary section for a list of those who were in Big Cove, Penna). So we do not know where, or when, or from what point in Penna, this Joseph Merrill left the other 3 original brothers - and went South.

(For further data on this Rev. M. Nash Merrill, D.D., (Monzi, Miss), and his) (Statement, (dated 1/12/1946), see Data Page H-43.

Rev. M. Nash Merrill (H-467-67) gives the time as about 1770-3. This timing is also possible, for Robert Merrill, Sr (H-2) and Nathaniel Merrill (H-1), are supposed to have left John Merrill (H-3) at Palmer's Fort, Concord, Penna, about 1770-3, and to have moved further west to Big Cove, Penna. It is entirely possible that this "missing 4th brother" - Joseph Merrill - might have left the others at that time - 1770-3 - and gone South to Newberry, SC. But this would not check with the statement that he went South "shortly after the Revolution."

MIGRATIONS FROM NEWBERRY, SC - TO NORTHERN TENNESSEE - - NORTHERN ALABAMA - SOME TO THE WEST - SOME TO MISSISSIPPI.

Further Migrations of this Family can be traced thru a letter to the Compiler - dated 1/12/1946 - from Rev. S. Nash Hamill, Pastor of the Methodist Church, Bienville, Mississippi, (H-467-67). He is a descendent of Joseph Hamill, (H-4), and his son, James Hamill, (H-46). His letter says:

".....They (Joseph Hamill (H-4) and his Family), settled in Newberry, South Carolina. My Great-Grandfather was born there. His name was James Hamill (H-46), born June 13, 1800. They then moved to Northern Tennessee. Then they moved to the Northern part of Alabama, and there two of his Grandsons went as Missionary Preachers to the Indians on the headwaters of the Red River. Their (the Preacher's) Father was named "Tomie" Hamill. Then most of the family went West. Except my Great-Grandfather, James Hamill (H-46), who came to Lowdens County, Mississippi, and then on down to Winston County, Mississippi, and remained in that County until he died. There is a Legend or Tradition that four brothers came from Belfast, Ireland, together. Then years later, when my Great-Grandfather James Hamill (H-46) moved from Newberry, SC, there were six brothers of them moved in an Ox-wagon....."
(See copy of this Letter on Data Page H-46).

COMPILER'S NOTE: Newberry, SC, is about 40 miles North-West of Columbia, South Carolina - the State Capital.

(From Letter from Rev. S. Nash Hamill, DD (H-467-67), dated 3/20/1946):
"Yes, I wrote Greensboro, Alabama (for descendents of Dr. Robt. G. Hamill). I received a letter from the Postmaster there, saying that he could not find anyone who knew anything about them. Said any records of 1856 would be in the Courthouse at Eufaula, Alabama, as Hale and Green Counties were combined at that time. I am writing there today. I have not heard from Newberry, South Carolina, yet..."

COMPILER'S NOTE: The Other Hamilla Section - Family C - contains records of the St. Louis, Mo, "Hamkey-Hamilla." They have a Legend that they are descended from Joseph Hamill (H-4), who went South - and that their branch of the Family came North again after the Revolution - settling finally in St. Louis, Mo - where they were found prior to the Civil War. It might be possible some day to connect this Family as definite descendents of Joseph Hamill, (H-4).
The Compiler - Paul H. McCalla, (H-125-65).

(From: Historical Section - "Misc. Hamill Data" - Item #59): "Mr. Clinton Franklin (H-124-12) wrote Rev. T. L. Jamieson (H-371-627) on 7/2/1890: "....Tradition says that two of the Brothers, John (H-5), and one other, (presumably Robert, Sr (H-2), emigrated to Western Penna about 1765, one stopped in the neighborhood of Philadelphia, and the other went South to Tennessee, but of the last two we have no record, nor even a trace..." BIOGRAPHY of ROBERT WESTON HAMILL, (H-467-6).

"Robert Weston Hamill, sixth child of Robert Greer Hamill, was born 7/9/1869 near Old Webster, Winston County, Mississippi - which was a Star-route Post-office. He never went to school very much, but completed something like the third grade - all of his schooling being done through the Summer months. He then attended an Art School for a few months, for he enjoyed drawing. Many times he would draw a turtle or rabbit, or something like that, on cross-ties. He enjoyed reading his daily paper, and keeping up with what was going on over the country.

He enjoyed wild life, and hunting was a great sport he always liked. He had good dogs for whatever kind of a hunt that he wanted to make. He hunted Raccoon, Opossum, Fox, Rabbit and squirrel. His dogs were trained so that somehow they always knew what he was hunting. If he started out for a Raccoon hunt they would not try to run an Opossum - and if he were hunting for Squirrels, they would not run a Rabbit.

He lived on the farm all his life, working hard during the farming season. The last few years of his life, after his health would not permit the hard work he had been used to doing, he began fishing, and spent much of his time in this way. He had his own individual fish lake. Almost every day he would go to the lake with bread, and feed the fish. He was a good fisherman, usually catching as many, or more, than his partner, whoever he was with. He was always a good provider for his family, wishing them to enjoy privileges that he did not get to enjoy. He was much interested in his children's education. He died at his home on 12/19/1944."

Data from Dr. R. H. Hamill, D.D. - 1915 BIRTHDAY SURVIVOR. 1-467-17.

BIOGRAPHY of Dr. R. H. Hamill, D.D. (1-467-17).

"....I was born in Winston County, Mississippi, just over the line from Oktibbeha County, on July 13, 1907, seven miles from Sturgis, Miss. My father (Robert Hamill-1-467-6), bought land just over the line in Oktibbeha County, where he built a house, and moved into it Dec. 24, 1907. I lived there until I married in 1929.

I attended grammar school at Cross Roads School, a little two-teacher school. Then in the Fall of 1924, I went to Oktibbeha County Agricultural High School, at Longview, Mississippi, where I stayed in the dormitory for four years going to school. While in high school I took some special work in live stock judging. The Fall of 1928 I won a free trip to Chicago in live stock judging, as a 4-H Club boy. I graduated high school in the Spring of 1928. Went from there to the Mississippi State College, at Starkville, Miss, which at that time was the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

I worked on the part time farm during that summer, before entering school that Fall as a part time student. As such, we could work one quarter during the school year, and go to school the next summer. Did not finish school at Miss. State at the end of my second year. I had some trouble with my eyes, and the doctor said that I would have to drop out at least 2 years, or I would completely ruin them. I married, in 1929, Allie Ernestine Sharp, a girl whom I had been dating for eight years. Our first date was at a Valentine party, when I was 14 years old.

In 1932, I asked the Methodist Church for a license to preach. I was given licenses to preach at the District Conference of the Columbus District of Northern Mississippi. This Conference was held at Brooksville, Miss, on 6/1/1932.

Verely Ernest Hamill, the only child, was born 2/24/1933. He is small and will finish Grammar School next year, and then be ready for High School. On 11/13/1934, we moved to Memphis, Tenn, where I worked with my oldest brother as a Carpenter. On 11/17/1935, we moved back to Sturgis, Miss, where I bought a farm one mile South-east of town. Lived there on the farm, and ran a little country store along with the farming. In the fall of 1936, I was asked to take a charge in the Northern Miss. Methodist Conference, as Supply Pastor. On 10/16/1936, moved to Pleasant Hill, an inland town in DeSoto County, Mississippi, twenty miles from Memphis, Tenn. Lived there, serving as Supply Pastor for one year, then moved back to the farm on 10/16/1937. In the Fall of 1939, I joined the North Mississippi Conference, and became a member of the Conference. I was then sent to what was known as the Golden Hill Circuit, located in Prentiss County, 8 miles West of Booneville, Miss.

On 11/14/1940, I moved to Luke, Miss, as Pastor of the Luke Circuit. Luke is the County seat of Hishomingo County. Served this circuit for two and a half years. Moved to Belmont, Miss, as Pastor there 5/31/1943, when Rev. Huntley C. Lewis went from there into the US Army as a Chaplain. Then on 10/19/1945, moved to Menzies, Alcorn County, Miss, as Pastor of the Menzies Methodist Church, where I am living at this time.

My wife, Allie Ernestine Sharp, was born in Sturgis, Miss. She graduated from the High School there in Sturgis in the Spring of 1926. Being a lover of music, she began taking music as soon as she started to school at the age of five years, and studied music all through her school life, until she finished High School. She is an excellent pianist, enjoys playing the piano, High School and college students, and giving music lessons to the neighbor's children who live near the parsonage home."

".....You ask if Dr. Robert G. Hamill, Dentist, of Greensboro, Alabama, could be my Grandfather(1-467/7) No. My Grandfather was a farmer, and do not think he ever attended school very much....."

(9/21/1946).

".....Also you ask if I knew whether the other Hamills (of our family, (children of James-H-4) went west or stayed behind. I do not know for sure, except that some of them went to Texas. The two who went as Missionary Preachers to the Indians on the Red River, went to the Texas Panhandle, I am sure, for I have heard my Grandfather speak of the Panhandle often when I was just a boy. Now I do not remember ever hearing him say anything about anyone going to New Mexico. Also, some of our people went to Tennessee - and that is all I know."

Biography of Clarendia Vitula Hamill: Miss Clarendia Vitula Hamill, the 7th child of Robert Greer and Frances Dawkins Hamill, was born at Old Webster, in Winston County, Miss, on 7/29/1874. Where they lived at this time she was able to get very little schooling. There were only short school terms, possibly 60 days in the winter season, and 30 days in the Summer. This was coupled with an unfortunate visitation of God's hand that came to the family in early girlhood, in the death of two sisters who left several orphan children. Her father and mother took these children to rear, and as she was the only girl at home, the responsibility of helping with these children further handicapped her school advantages, and deprived her of acquiring further than a grammar school education.

Vitula was married to Robert Lee Hannah, of Sturgis, Miss, on 11/18/1896. Immediately after their marriage, they established a little home, which she regarded as one of America's most hallowed institutions. She was reared in a home, the influence of which has long remained within its walls as a monument pointing to the continual hope, increased faith, and individual enjoyment, which always endear such homes to its inmates.

Vitula Hamill Hannah was a woman of considerable worth, which is estimated by the real goodness of her heart, the greatness of her soul, and the purity and sweetness of her character. This estimable worth has brought happiness to the lives of many who were daily associated with her. Her many courtesies, little kindnesses, pleasant words, genial smiles, good wishes and good deeds produced an increasing happiness in their daily lives." (Written by her husband, Robert Lee Hannah).

Autobiography of John Nash Hamill: "John Nash Hamill, 9th child of Robert Greer and Frances Dawkins Hamill, was born 9/9/1879 in Winston County, near Old Webster, Miss. On 4/16/1908 he married Lillie Mae Pearson of Starksville, Miss. He moved to New Orleans, La, that fall, and lived there until 1917. By that time World War I was going on in Europe. The US Government was getting up men to go to Mexico and do various kinds of work. He signed up with Stone & Webster, who had a contract to put in some oil wells and pipe lines, and he spent 6 months there doing this work for the benefit of the Government. Then he moved to Texarkana, Tex, and went on the road as a salesman. In 1913 he moved to Tyler, Texas, and lived there until 1924, working for the H.B. Franklin Sugar Mfg. Co. Later he moved to Parker City, Oklahoma, and in Feb. 1928, he moved back to Dallas, Texas, and later went into Carpentry work and bridge building.

When World War II started in Europe, he signed up with the US Government Engineers to go to the Panama Canal Zone as a Carpenter and Bridge Foreman. He stayed in Panama, South America and Central America until the latter part of 1943, then went back to Dallas, Texas. His wife stayed in Dallas at their home during this time. In November, 1943, still working with the Government, he went to the State of Washington, and remained until 2/20/1944. He was transferred by plane to Edmonton, Canada where the US was building the Alaskan Highway. They were transported by Army planes over 1300 miles to this job. They landed on Friday, near Fairbanks, Alaska, and he worked there until February 1945. The Army Transports brought over 500 men back to Edmonton, Canada. Then he went to Santa Fe, New Mexico, where he helped to complete the Atom Bomb. After the surrender of the Japanese, he returned to Dallas, Texas, where he is now (May 1947) living."
